CODE SECTION 2770.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

PREFACE

Section 2624 of the code authorizes the superintendent of public instruction to cause to be printed every four years all school laws in force up to that time, with such notes, forms, rulings and decisions as may be of value to school officers in the proper discharge of their duties, references being made to previous laws amended or changed, so as to indicate the effect of such amendment or change.

As the use of former editions will be most likely to mislead, and since each school corporation and each school director is entitled to receive a copy of this law, it is urged that the use of all former editions be discontinued. Since another edition may not be published for four years, it is earnestly advised that special pains be taken to preserve every copy of this edition, and that school officers superseded by election or otherwise will deliver to their successors in office copies in their possession.

The explanatory notes printed in connection with the law governing school corporations have been carefully revised and in some instances extended to include a larger number of rulings. These notes are based upon decisions of the supreme court, opinions of the attorney-general, and the decisions or opinions of the superintendent of public instruction. Since the value of the notes may be considered to depend mainly upon the source from which the same originated, references have, so far as seemed necessary, been given. It is urged that the general authorities cited be consulted where more extended information is sought. Reports of the supreme court are found in every county, and may be consulted at the court house upon application to the clerk of the district court.

By school law decisions is meant the decisions rendered by the superintendent of public instruction in appeal cases. Cases involving the chief principles are contained in the present volume. A careful reading of the same is earnestly urged.

We have placed those sections which relate particularly to the administration of the public schools first, followed in order by that part of the Constitution of Iowa relating to public schools, the law governing the state institutions, and that concerning county high schools. Following the law are some suggestive forms for the use of school officers, after which are placed some of the more important decisions of superintendents of public instruction.

The numbering of the older sections is that of the code of 1897, while through the courtesy of Honorable C. N. Jepson, editor of the code supplement of 1907, we are enabled to give the more recent sections the numbering as they will appear in that supplement.

The sections are arranged according to number, or number and letter, except where such an arrangement of the newer laws would separate closely related sections. To bring closely related sections together, section 1306-b is made to follow section 2812-f, which in turn is followed by sections 2820-a to 2820-d. Also section 2794-a is made to follow section 2796, while it in turn is followed by section 2820-e to 2820-h.

Each section appears in full followed by all of the notes relating to it. Titles and catch words have been used to aid the reader to find the particular note he desires, and numerous cross references are given to aid him in finding all of the law on any point.

The labor of revision has been performed by Mr. J. C. Bennett, deputy superintendent, in addition to his regular duties otherwise much increased by recent legislation.

JOHN F. RIGGS,
Superintendent Public Instruction.

September 3, 1907.

SCHOOL LAWS OF IOWA

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

SECTION 2621. Office—records—deputy. The superintendent of public instruction shall have an office in the capitol, in which shall be filed and kept separately all papers, reports and documents transmitted to him each year by the several county superintendents, and open to inspection by the governor or a committee of either house of the general assembly whenever required. He shall keep a record of all matters and things done in his office, which, together with all other papers and documents, at the conclusion of his term, shall be turned over to his successor. He may appoint a deputy, who shall qualify in like manner as his principal, and who, in the absence or inability of the superintendent, shall perform his duties. [C. '73, §§ 766-7, 770, 1578; C. '51, §§ 416, 1078.]

SEC. 2622. Duties—teachers' conventions and institutes. He shall be charged with the general supervision of all the county superintendents and the common schools of the state; may meet county superintendents in convention at such points in the state as may be most suitable for the purpose, at which proper steps may be taken looking toward securing a more uniform and efficient administration of the school laws. He shall appoint, upon the request of county superintendents, the time and place for holding teachers' institutes, such institutes to be called when it is probable that not less than twenty teachers will be present, and remain in session not less than six working days, of which time and place of meeting he shall give notice to the county superintendent of the proper county. He shall attend teachers' institutes thus called in the several counties of the state, so far as consistent with his official duties, and assist in their management and instruction. He shall have power to collect, publish and distribute statistical and other information relative to public schools and education in general; to visit teachers' association meetings and make tours of inspection among the common schools and other institutions of learning in the state, and may deliver addresses upon subjects relative to education; to prepare, publish, and distribute blank forms for all returns he may deem necessary, or that may be required by law, of teachers, or school officers; to publish and distribute annually leaflets and circulars relative to arbor day, memorial day, and other days considered by him worthy of special observance in public schools, the number to be determined by the executive council; to prepare questions for the use of county superintendents in the examination of applicants for teachers' certificates; and to prepare, publish, and distribute, among teachers and school officers, courses of study for use in the rural and high schools of the state, the number thereof to be fixed by the executive council. When any county superintendent fails to make any report as required of him by law the superintendent of public instruction may appoint some suitable person to perform such duties and fix reasonable compensation therefor, which shall be paid by the delinquent county superintendent. [31 G. A., ch. 3, § 6; 28 G. A., ch. 94, § 1; C. '73, §§ 1577, 1584; C. '51, § 1080.]

NOTES: 1. Term of institute. No teachers' institute will be appointed for less than six working days. There may be two or more sessions, but one of them must be of at least six working days' duration.

2. Supplemental institute. Supplemental institutes will be appointed for less than six days if requested by the county superintendent. The supplemental session should be requested in connection with the regular institute.

SEC. 2623. Opinions—appeals. He shall render opinions in writing upon request of any school officer regarding the school law, its administration, and the duty of such officer, and shall determine all cases brought before him on appeal from the decisions of the county superintendents. [C. '73, § 1577; C. '51, § 1080.]

NOTES: 1. All questions answered. It has been the custom for many years to answer all proper inquiries, from whatever source, touching the construction and application of the school laws.

2. Letters not returned. As all correspondence of value must be filed for preservation, it is obvious that it is impossible to comply with a request to return a letter with the reply.

SEC. 2624. Publication of school laws. He shall every four years, if deemed necessary, cause to be printed and bound in cloth all school laws in force up to that time, with such notes, forms, rulings and decisions as may be of value in aid of school officers in the proper discharge of their duties, reference being made to previous laws amended or changed, so as to indicate the effect of such amendment or change; one copy of which shall be sent to each county superintendent, and one to each district and independent district in the state, to be distributed by the several county superintendents. Volumes bound in paper covers shall be furnished to each school director, to be distributed by the county superintendent, which shall be turned over by the director to his successor in office. Should he deem it unnecessary at any time to prepare a volume as above provided, the superintendent may cause to be published in pamphlet form such amendments to the school laws as have been passed by the general assembly, which shall be distributed in the manner and to the parties hereinbefore provided. He may subscribe for a sufficient number of copies of some educational school paper, printed and published in the state, to furnish one to each county superintendent; but no paper shall be selected which will not publish each decision made by him relating to the school law, and which he may regard of general importance; and the certificate of having thus subscribed shall be sufficient authority for the auditor of state to issue his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount of the subscription. [22 G. A., ch. 59; 18 G. A., ch. 150, §§ 1, 2; C. '73, §§ 1579, 1581.]

SEC. 2625. Reports. He shall on the first day of January report to the auditor of state the number of persons in each county between the ages of five and twenty-one years, and biennially to the governor; which report shall contain a statement of the condition of the common schools in the state, the number of school townships and districts therein, number of independent districts, number of teachers, number of schools, number of schoolhouses and value thereof, number of persons of school age, number of scholars in each county attending school the previous year, number of books in district libraries, the value of all apparatus in schools, and such other statistical information as may be of public importance, plans matured or adopted for the more perfect organization and efficiency of the common schools; and any suggestions he may deem important, regarding further legislation, which will strengthen the common schools of the state. Provided, however, he shall make a report during the year 1906, which said report shall cover the period only from the date of his last biennial report, and shall report to the governor biennially thereafter. [31 G. A., ch. 121; 22 G. A., ch. 82, § 29; C. '73, §§ 1582-3; C. '51, § 1086.]

NOTE: Explanation. The word districts in line five means subdistricts.

SEC. 2626. Appropriations for institutes. To defray the expenses of county teachers' institutes, there is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise set apart a sum not to exceed fifty dollars annually for each institute held in each county, which sum the superintendent shall receive from the state treasurer, upon the warrant of the state auditor, to be issued to him upon his certificate; which amount, when drawn, shall be forthwith remitted to the proper county superintendent. If any balance remains of this sum after paying the expenses of the institute, it shall be covered into the county treasury of the proper county and credited to the institute fund. [C. '73, § 1584.]

SEC. 2627. Salary and expenses. The salary of the superintendent of public instruction shall be twenty-two hundred dollars per annum, and that of his deputy eighteen hundred dollars, to be paid monthly upon the warrant of the state auditor, and, in addition thereto, the state superintendent shall receive three hundred dollars annually, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay actual traveling expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, to be allowed upon an itemized and verified account filed with the state auditor, who shall draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount allowed. [32 G. A., ch. 2, § 5; 28 G. A., ch. 94, § 2; 22 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 21 G. A., ch. 118, § 6; C. '73, § 3760.]

THE EDUCATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

SECTION 2628. Members. The educational board of examiners shall consist of the superintendent of public instruction, president of the university, principal of the normal school, and two persons to be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a woman, the appointees to hold office for a term of four years and be ineligible as his or her successor, the superintendent of public instruction to be by virtue of his office president of the board. [19 G. A., ch. 167, § 1.]

SEC. 2629. Meetings—examination. The board shall meet for the transaction of business at such times and places as the president may direct, and shall annually hold at least two public examinations of teachers, to be conducted by a member or the secretary of the board or by such qualified person or persons as the board may select. All examinations shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, and a record shall be kept of all its proceedings. It may issue state certificates and state diplomas to such teachers as are found upon examination to possess a good moral character, thorough scholarship and knowledge of didactics with successful experience in teaching, or with such other training and qualifications as the board may require. The examination for certificates and diplomas shall cover orthography, reading, writing, arithmetic, geography, English grammar, bookkeeping, physiology, history of the United States, algebra, botany, natural philosophy, drawing, civil government, constitution and laws of the state, and didactics; those for diplomas, in addition to the foregoing, geometry, trigonometry, chemistry, zoology, geology, astronomy, political economy, rhetoric, English literature, general history, and such other studies as the board may require. [32 G. A., ch. 6, § 2; 29 G. A., ch. 114; 28 G. A., ch. 95; 19 G. A., ch. 167, §§ 2-4.]

SEC. 2630-b. Special certificates. The educational board of examiners may issue a special certificate to any teacher of music, drawing, penmanship, or other special branches, or to any primary teacher, of sufficient experience, who shall pass such examination as the board may require in the branches, and methods pertaining thereto, for which the certificate is sought. Such certificates shall be designated by the name of the branch, and shall not be valid for any other department or branch. The board shall keep a complete register of all persons to whom certificates or diplomas are issued. [28 G. A., ch. 96, § 2; 23 G. A., ch. 22.]

NOTES: 1. Kinds. Under authority of this section, the board of examiners may issue special state certificates for music, penmanship, drawing or primary work only. Attorney-General, report 1904, page 198.

2. For whom. The special state certificate is intended for teachers of special branches, as a recognition of professional skill, expert scholarship, and successful experience in teaching a particular subject.

3. Scholarship. While the candidate must possess complete and technical knowledge of the special branch for the teaching of which a certificate is desired, some general education and culture will be required, as a certificate cannot be granted on account of proficiency in one subject only.

4. Subjects. The holder of a special certificate will be authorized to teach the branch specified, in any public school in the state for a period of five years. Section 2630-b. A special primary certificate authorizes the holder to teach in first, second or third grades for the same period. Regulation of board of examiners.

5. Special county certificates. See section 2734-e.

SEC. 2630-c. Validation authorized. The state educational board of examiners is hereby empowered to validate certificates issued by state departments of education in other states, where such certificates were issued upon evidence of scholarship and experience equivalent to that required for like certificates under the laws of this state. SEC. 2631. How long valid—revocation—fees. A state certificate shall authorize the holder to teach in any public school in the state for five years thereafter, and a diploma shall confer such authority for life; but any certificate or diploma may be revoked by the board for sufficient cause, or such cause as would, if known at the time, have prevented issuance thereof, provided the holder of such certificate or diploma shall have due notice, and shall be allowed to be present and make his defense. For each certificate issued the applicant shall pay two dollars, and for each diploma five dollars, which may be required before the examination is commenced. All monies obtained from this source shall be paid into the state treasury. [32 G. A., ch. 6, § 3; 19 G. A., ch. 167, §§ 5, 6.]

NOTES: 1. Subjects for which valid. Holders of any valid license, not a special certificate, may teach any subject prescribed in the curriculum, whether the holder was examined in such subject. Attorney-general, report 1906, page 42. (For validity of special state certificates, see section 2630-b.)

2. No exemption. The fact that a teacher holds a state certificate, or a state diploma, does not in any way exempt him from the same obligations imposed by the law upon other teachers. It is the duty of all teachers to attend the county normal institute and to support the county superintendent in all measures calculated to improve the schools and to advance the interests of education in the county.

3. Registration of certificates. All certificates and diplomas must be registered in each county in which the holder desires to teach. Section 2734-q.

4. Fees. The registration fee is one dollar for each school year or part of the year. Section 2734-q.

If for any cause he is unable to attend to his official duties, he may appoint a deputy, who may act in his stead, except in visiting schools and trying appeals. He shall serve as the organ of communication between the superintendent of public instruction and school township, district or independent district authorities, and transmit to them or the teachers thereof all blanks, circulars or other communications designed for them. He shall visit the different schools in his county at least once during the school year and at such other times as he may be requested by a majority of the directors of any school corporation, and give personal instruction to the pupils for at least one-fourth of the day. The county superintendent shall on the first Monday of each month file with the county auditor an itemized and sworn statement of actual traveling expenses incurred during the previous month in visiting schools and in attending educational meetings within his county, and such expenses shall be paid by the county board of supervisors, but the total amount paid for any month shall not be more than twenty dollars. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 1.]

NOTES: 1. Personal supervision. Personal supervision by the county superintendent is understood to extend to rural and village schools. Visitation by the county superintendent of city graded schools is not compulsory. During his visit to a school the superintendent may hear recitations and give instruction to pupils, but usually the regular work of the school should proceed under the immediate direction of the teacher.

2. Visitation. The superintendent in his visits should endeavor to aid, instruct, and inspire teachers to employ the best methods of teaching, governing and conducting their schools. He should try to secure the proper classification of pupils, the right use of the course of study and school libraries, and due care and protection of school property. He should study to awaken among parents and children a deeper interest in the public schools, so as to secure improved attendance, deportment and scholarship, and induce more frequent visits of parents and school officers. A judicious visit from the superintendent may often infuse new life into the school.

3. Condition of buildings. The county superintendent should carefully observe the condition of the schoolhouse and surroundings, note all defects, and at once notify the director or board of the same.

4. Statement of traveling expense. The itemized statement of traveling expenses must give the date the expense was incurred, for what, to whom paid, and the amount paid.

The deputy must take the same oath as his principal, must give a bond, and both appointment and bond must be approved by the board of supervisors before the deputy may enter upon the duties of his office. Code, section 1186.

6. Legal adviser. The county attorney is the legal adviser of the different county officers. He should be freely consulted on questions of law upon which the county superintendent is in doubt. Section 2740. Code, section 302.

Such examinations shall be held at the county seat, in a suitable room which shall be provided for that purpose by the board of supervisors; but the county superintendent may, at his discretion, cause to be held at the time of any regular examination an additional examination at some other place in the county. The questions used in such examinations shall be furnished by the educational board of examiners, who shall cause the same to be printed, and the examinations shall be conducted strictly under rules prescribed by the board. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 3.]

NOTES: 1. Supplemental examination. Where two examinations are held in a county, one will be in charge of a competent deputy appointed by the county superintendent. It is only in exceptional cases and where a large number of applicants will be accommodated that a second examination should be authorized.

2. Assistants—compensation of. The county superintendent should appoint such assistants as may be necessary to properly conduct the examination. The persons assisting shall file claims for their services with the board of supervisors, who shall audit and allow a reasonable compensation therefor. Section 2742.

2. Validity. First grade certificates are valid in any county in which they are registered. Section 2734-q.

3. Term—renewal. A first grade certificate is issued for three years and is renewable subject to conditions named in section 2734-g.

SEC. 2734-e. Special certificates. A special certificate may be issued for any subject or any group of subjects, taught in the public schools of Iowa under such regulations as the board of examiners may adopt. A special certificate shall be issued for a term of three years and shall be renewable under the same conditions as apply to the renewal of first grade certificates. It shall state the names of the subjects for which it is issued, and shall not be valid for the teaching of any other subjects. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 5.]

4. Subjects for which valid. The holder of a special certificate may teach only the subjects named.

5. Validity. Special certificates are valid in any county in the state in which are registered. Section 2734-q.

2. Details. This record should show the names of the candidates, fees received and date, and grade of certificate issued to each.

SEC. 2734-g. First grade certificates—renewal. Applicants who have taught successfully for at least thirty-six weeks, or who have completed a course of study in an approved college or normal school and whose examination entitles them to the first grade certificate, shall receive the same for a term of three years from the date thereof, and such certificate shall be renewable without examination, provided the applicants shall show by examination or otherwise that at least one line of professional inquiry has been successfully conducted during the life of the certificate, it being made the duty of the board to forward with each certificate subject to renewal, outlines setting forth various lines of professional study. It is provided further that each application for renewal shall be accompanied by such proof of successful experience and professional spirit as the educational board of examiners may require. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 7.]

SEC. 2734-h. Second grade certificates—renewal. Applicants whose examination entitles them to the second grade certificate only, shall receive the same for not to exceed two years, with the privilege of one renewal without further examination, under the same rules as govern the renewal of first grade certificates. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 8.]

SEC. 2734-i. Third grade certificate. Applicants whose examination entitles them to the third grade certificate only, shall receive the same for six months, provided that the county superintendent may, at his option, extend such certificate to the first day of the July following its issue. A third grade certificate shall not be renewed and not more than two such certificates shall be issued to the same person. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

NOTES: 1. Subjects. Same as note 1 to section 2734-h.

2. Subjects for which valid. See note 1, section 2734-d.

3. Validity. Third grade certificates are valid in any county in which they are registered. Section 2734-q.

4. Term—renewal. Third grade certificates are issued for six months. They are not eligible to renewal, but may be extended by the county superintendent without fee to July 1 following date of issue.

SEC. 2734-j. Applicants without experience. Applicants who have had no experience in teaching, but whose examination entitles them to the first grade, shall receive a second grade certificate for two years, provided that when they have taught successfully under such certificate for not less than thirty-six weeks, they shall be entitled to receive a first grade certificate on the condition herein provided for a renewal of a certificate. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 10.]

SEC. 2734-k. County certificates—renewal—conditions. Any person who has held a first grade certificate or a special certificate in any county of this state for one or more years prior to the taking effect of this act, may have the same renewed by the board of examiners, provided said person has taught continuously during the preceding school year, and provided further, that the members of the school board of the school corporation and the county superintendent of the county where such person has been employed and, if in a graded school, the principal or superintendent under whom such person has taught, certify to the success of the applicant in teaching and in government, and unite in recommending the applicant as a teacher of efficiency, scholarship and professional spirit. Under like recommendations the holders of second grade certificates with first grade per cents may have such credit given in lieu of the examination as the board may determine. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 11.]

NOTES: 1. Which eligible to renewal. First grade and special certificates issued prior to October 1, 1905, may be renewed under the conditions named in this section.

2. Second grade—credit on. The full examination will not be required of teachers holding good second grade certificates, provided satisfactory evidence is given that the holders of such certificates are teachers of professional spirit and of unquestioned success in the school room.

3. Renewal—application. This section applies only to the issuing of uniform county certificates on first and second class and special certificates issued by county superintendents prior to October 1, 1905. For renewal of uniform county certificates, see sections 2734-e, 2734-g and 2734-h.

SEC. 2734-l. Qualifications of applicants. Before admitting any one to the examination, the county superintendent must be satisfied that the person seeking a certificate is of good moral character, of which fact he may require proof, and is in all respects other than in scholarship possessed of the necessary qualifications as an instructor. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 12.]

SEC. 2734-m. Examination papers graded—certificates issued. As soon as the examination is completed the county superintendent shall forward to the superintendent of public instruction, a list of all applicants examined, with the standings of each in didactics and oral reading, and his estimate of each applicant's personality and general fitness, other than scholarship, for the work of teaching. He shall at the same time forward to the superintendent of public instruction the answer papers written, with the exception of those in didactics. Under the supervision of the educational board of examiners, the papers shall be graded and the scholastic qualifications determined. The result of such examination of persons who pass the same shall be entered upon a certificate provided by such board, and shall be transmitted to the county superintendent of the county in which the person entitled thereto resides. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 13.]

NOTES: 1. Report of examination. All certificates are sent to the county superintendent, who should forward them to the persons to whom issued. At the same time, the report of the standing of those who do not receive certificates is sent to the county superintendent, who should at once notify each candidate of his standing.

2. Checking. Immediately upon receipt of the certificates, the county superintendent should check each one with the examination sheet. By doing so, errors may be avoided.

SEC. 2734-n Readers—clerical help. Immediately following each examination authorized by this act, the board of examiners shall call to their assistance a sufficient number of competent readers previously selected by the board, ten of whom shall be county superintendents. The county superintendents so chosen shall be known as head readers and shall also constitute a review board in cases of doubt. They shall also make a list of applicants from each county, nearest the passing mark for a third grade certificate. The head readers shall receive necessary traveling expenses only. All other readers shall receive actual traveling expenses to and from the capitol and not to exceed fifty cents an hour for time actually employed in reading and marking answer papers. Such additional clerical help as may be required may be employed by the board at not to exceed thirty cents per hour for time actually employed. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 14.]

SEC. 2734-o. Expenditures certified and paid. All expenditures authorized by this act shall be certified by the superintendent of public instruction to the executive council, who shall cause the auditor of the state to draw warrants therefor upon the treasurer of state, but not to exceed the fees paid into the treasury under the provisions of this act. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 15.]

NOTE: For amendment see section 2634-a.

SEC. 2734-p. Application fee. Each applicant for a certificate shall pay a fee of one dollar, one-half of which shall be paid into the state treasury on or before the first day of the succeeding month, and one-half shall be paid into the county institute fund. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 16.]

NOTES: 1. Fees—collection of. A fee of $1 must be collected from everyone writing an examination either in part or in whole, from everyone applying for a provisional certificate and from everyone applying for the renewal of a certificate.

2. Fees—depositing. One-half of the examination fee collected must be paid into the institute fund and the other half must be forwarded to the treasurer of state, Des Moines, Iowa. These fees should be deposited on the FIRST DAY OF THE MONTH. Do not remit to the state treasurer on any other date.

SEC. 2734-q. Registration fee. No person shall teach in any public school in this state whose certificate has not been registered with the county superintendent of the county in which such school is located. A registration fee of one dollar shall be charged for each year, or part of the year, for which the certificate or diploma is registered. All registration fees shall be paid into the county institute fund. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 17.]

NOTES: 1. Fees. A registration fee of $1 is required before a teacher can begin teaching. You can register a certificate only to the close of the current school year.

2. All licenses must be registered. Every person holding either a state certificate, state diploma, a county certificate, a special certificate, or a certificate to teach in kindergartens, who desires to teach in any of the public schools of this state must cause such certificate to be registered with the county superintendent of the county in which he desires to teach, no matter when the certificate is issued, whether before or since October 1, 1906. Opinion of attorney-general.

3. Registration—when not necessary. The holder of a certificate may not be required to have the same registered unless he desires to teach under its authority.

SEC. 2734-r. Third grade certificates—when not registered. In case a sufficient number of life diplomas, state certificates, first grade certificates, special certificates and second grade certificates are held in any county to supply the schools thereof, it shall not be incumbent on the county superintendent to register third grade certificates. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 18.]

SEC. 2734-s. Special examination—provisional certificates. When a sufficient number of licensed teachers cannot be secured to fill the schools of any county, the board of examiners may, upon the request of the county superintendent, appoint a special examination for such county to be conducted in all respects as a regular examination and the answer papers to be forwarded to the president of the board as required in regular examinations, and thereupon provisional certificates may be issued by the educational board of examiners. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 19.]

NOTE: 1. Provisional certificates. If, in the opinion of the county superintendent, the exigencies in his county require it, provisional certificates may be issued in sufficient number to permit practically all the schools to be opened. But it should be distinctly understood that provisional certificates are in every instance issued on the recommendation of the county superintendent. The granting of such certificates, where the average falls under the minimum per cent fixed by the board of examiners is not approved. If certificates are required for persons of lower scholarship, the county superintendent, and not the board of examiners, must bear the responsibility for causing their issue.

SEC. 2734-t. Certificates where valid—revocations. All certificates provided for in this act shall be valid in any county within the state, when registered in such county, but a provisional certificate shall be valid, upon registration, only in the county in which it is issued and shall be issued for the same time and subject to the same extension as a third grade certificate, but no person shall be entitled to receive more than one provisional certificate, except upon the approval of the county superintendent. Any certificate or diploma issued by the board may be revoked for any cause which would have authorized or required a refusal to grant the same, or in case the holder thereof violates any of the provisions of this act. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 20.]

NOTE: 1. Provisional certificates—number. It is the clear intent of the law that a provisional certificate should not be issued a second time to the same person. It is only in exceptional cases that the county superintendent should ask for a second provisional certificate for a teacher.

SEC. 2734-u. Revocation of certificate—charges—trial—appeal. When in the judgment of the county superintendent there is probable cause for the revocation of a certificate or diploma held by any teacher employed in his county, or when charges are preferred, supported by affidavits charging incompetency, immorality, intemperance, cruelty, or general neglect of the business of the school, the county superintendent shall within ten days transmit to such person a written statement of the charges preferred and set the time and place for the hearing of the same, at which trial the teacher shall be privileged to be present and make defense. If in the judgment of the county superintendent there is sufficient grounds for the revocation of the certificate or diploma, he shall at once issue in duplicate an order revoking the certificate or diploma, and the same shall become operative, and of full force and effect ten days after the date of its issue, one copy of the order to be mailed to the holder of the certificate and the other to be mailed to the superintendent of public instruction. Provided that the person aggrieved by such order shall have the right to appeal to the superintendent of public instruction within ten days from the date of such mailing and in case of appeal the revocation shall not be effective until the same is affirmed, after full hearing, by the superintendent of public instruction. Provided further, that in the case of life diplomas or state certificates of whatever class, the revocation shall not be effective until affirmed by the educational board of examiners after full review by said board. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 21.]

SEC. 2734-v. List of persons holding certificates and attending normal institutes. The county superintendent shall annually, on the first Monday of September, file with the president of the educational board of examiners a list of all persons who for the preceding year have held certificates and have attended the normal institute, with the number of days attendance of each. A similar report of summer school attendance shall be secured by the president of the board. In any subsequent examination or renewal the board may give such credit for institute or summer school attendance as it may determine, any rule adopted to apply equally to all similar cases. [31 G. A., ch. 122, § 22.]

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT—DUTIES.

SEC. 2733. Normal institute. The county superintendent shall hold, annually, a normal institute for the instruction of teachers and those who may desire to teach, and, with the concurrence of the superintendent of public instruction, procure such assistance as may be necessary to conduct the same, at such time as the schools in the county are generally closed. To defray the expenses of said institute, he shall require the payment of a registration fee of one dollar from each person attending the normal institutes, and the payment in all cases of one dollar from every applicant for a certificate: provided that, if the applicant is granted a two-years' certificate, he shall pay one dollar additional. He shall monthly, and at the close of each institute, transmit to the county treasurer all moneys so received, including the state appropriation for institutes, to be designated the "institute fund," together with a report of the name of each person so contributing, and the amount. The board of supervisors may appropriate out of the general fund such additional sum as it may find necessary for the further support of such institute. All disbursements of the institute fund shall be by warrants drawn by the county auditor, who shall draw said warrants upon the written order of the county superintendent, and said written order must be accompanied by an itemized bill for services rendered or expenses incurred in connection with the institute, which bill must be signed and sworn to by the party in whose favor the order is made and must be verified by the county superintendent. All said orders and bills shall be kept on file in the auditor's office until the final settlement of the county superintendent with the board of supervisors at the close of his term of office. No warrant shall be drawn by the auditor in excess of the amount of institute fund then in the county treasury. The county superintendent shall furnish to the county board of supervisors a certified itemized account of the receipts and disbursements of all moneys collected and paid out by him for a normal institute, which account they shall examine, audit and publish a summary thereof with their proceedings next following the holding of the normal institute. The superintendent shall report to the board of supervisors the first of January annually a summary of his official financial transactions for the previous year. [30 G. A., ch. 113; 29 G. A., ch. 123; 27 G. A., ch. 87; 17 G. A., ch. 54; 15 G. A., ch. 57; C. '73, § 1769.]

NOTES: 1. Time. The normal institute must be held when the public schools are generally closed. Section 2773 provides that no school may be in session during a teachers' institute, except by written permission of the county superintendent.

2. Plans. County superintendent will determine the time and place, and suggest the names of conductor and instructors for approval. Form 2.

3. Term. The length of time during which the normal institute shall remain in session is left to the discretion of the county superintendent. It cannot be in session less than six working days. See section 2622. The length of time beyond this will depend largely upon the condition of the institute fund.

4. Value. If the proper means are employed, the normal institute can be rendered invaluable to teachers. Young and inexperienced teachers should not expect to receive certificates, unless of the lowest grade, without regularly attending the normal institute. The benefits to be received should secure voluntary and general attendance.

5. Faculty. A conductor of successful experience in institute work, able to give plain, practical instruction in methods of school organization, government and teaching, should be secured early. The other instructors should be superior teachers of recent experience, and usually one or more lady teachers should be employed.

6. Ability should be established. County superintendents should have sufficient evidence of the abilities of their instructors before engaging them. In all cases where strangers are employed, references should be required, and inquiries made at the state department will frequently secure the proper knowledge.

7. Director. The superintendent should be director, assuming the general oversight and direction of the institute. He is entitled to his salary for any service in connection with the institute, as for other official duties, but may receive no part of the institute fund.

8. Purpose. These normal institutes are short training schools, their object being to reach and correct the greatest defect found in the schools. The superintendent, in visiting schools, should seek to discover the most prominent defects and wants in the methods of instruction. The normal institute will afford effective means of reaching and correcting these faults. The great object is to instruct teachers how to teach children.

9. Instructors, lecturers, apparatus. In normal institutes, efficient and earnest instructors should be employed. Charts and other appliances should be amply provided. Physicians and scientists may be invited to lecture, and teachers should be exhorted to be sincere, fearless and faithful in the discharge of their duty.

10. Fees. It is apparent that the enrollment fee may not be collected from any one not attending the normal institute.

11. Reports to treasurer. The reports and payments to the county treasurer should be made the first of each month, and at the end of the institute. Forms 6, 7, 8 and 9.

12. Settlement with supervisors. It is the duty of the board of supervisors to settle with the county superintendent, at the close of his term of office, as with other county officers, according to the provisions of the law.

13. Fee changed. The examination fee is in every case one dollar. Section 2734-p.

SEC. 2739. Reports. The county superintendent shall annually, on the last Tuesday in August, make a report to the superintendent of public instruction, giving a full abstract of the several reports made to him by the secretaries and treasurers of school boards, stating the manner in and extent to which the requirements of the law regarding instruction in physiology and hygiene are observed, and such other matters as he may be directed by the state superintendent to include therein, or he may think important in showing the actual condition of the schools in his county. At the same time, he shall file with the county auditor a statement of the number of persons of school age in each school township and independent district in the county. He shall also report, as provided by law, to the superintendent of the college for the blind, the name, age, residence and postoffice address of every person, resident of the county, so blind as to be unable to acquire an education in the common schools; to the superintendent of the institution for the deaf and dumb, with the same detail, all persons of school age whose faculties in respect to hearing or speaking are so deficient as to prevent them from acquiring an education in such schools; and to the institution for the feeble-minded, all persons of like age who, because of mental defects, are entitled to admission therein. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 1; 21 G. A., ch. 1, § 2; C. '73, §§ 1771, 1772; R., § 2070.]

NOTES: 1. Blanks. The blanks for the annual report of the county superintendent, together with instructions for making the report, are furnished by the superintendent of public instruction. The blanks for the reports to the different institutions should be furnished by the superintendents in charge of such institutions.

2. Tests. The superintendent should test the accuracy of the treasurers' reports by consulting the books of the county treasurer. The amount of the several funds reported received from the district tax, also the amount received from the semi-annual apportionments, must agree with the county treasurer's receipts.

3. Errors. All errors must be corrected. The balances reported on hand in the last report from the district treasurer should the following year be correctly accounted for and should form the first item of such report and be designated: "On hand at last report."

4. Enumeration. The abstract of the enumeration of children in each district should be made with special care, complete and accurate; otherwise the county will not obtain its just proportion of the income of the permanent school fund.

5. Delayed reports. Should the district secretaries or treasurers fail to make their reports in time, the superintendent should take prompt measures to secure them, going after them if necessary.

SEC. 2740. Enforcing laws. The county superintendent shall see that all provisions of the school law, so far as it relates to the schools or school officers within his county, are observed and enforced, specially those relating to the fencing of schoolhouse grounds with barb wire, and the introduction and teaching of such divisions of physiology and hygiene as relate to the effects of alcohol, stimulants and narcotics upon the human system, and to this end he may require the assistance of the county attorney, who shall at his request bring any action necessary to enforce the law or recover penalties incurred. [21 G. A., ch. 1, § 2; 20 G. A., ch. 103, § 2.]

SEC. 2741. Penalty. Should he fail to make the report herein required of him to the superintendent of public instruction or the county auditor, he shall forfeit to the school fund of his county the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action brought by the county for the use of the school fund, and in addition shall be liable for all damages occasioned thereby. [C. '73, § 1773; R., § 2072.]

NOTE: 1. Additional to penalty. In addition to the penalty provided in this section for a failure to make the annual report, the delinquent county superintendent is required to pay a reasonable compensation to the person whom the superintendent of public instruction may appoint to make such report for him. Section 2622.

SEC. 2742. Compensation. He shall receive a salary of twelve hundred and fifty dollars a year, and the expenses of necessary office stationery and postage, and those incurred in attendance upon meetings called by the superintendent of public instruction; claims therefor to be made by verified statements filed with the county auditor, who shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer therefor; and the board of supervisors may allow him such further sum by way of compensation as may be just and proper. [29 G. A., ch. 124; 19 G. A., ch. 161, § 1; C. '73, § 1776; R., § 2074.]

NOTES: 1. Superintendent determines office days. It is the intention of the law that each county superintendent shall determine the time necessary to be employed in the duties of his office, and the division of labor to be made. Of course, specific duties are required, such as making certain reports at times designated, visiting schools, and that he shall conform to the instructions from the superintendent of public instruction. But in general, he is to decide for himself, as indicated in his oath of office, what means will best advance the work in his county.

2. Office supplies furnished. The board of supervisors shall furnish the county superintendent with an office at the county seat, together with fuel, lights, blanks, books and stationery necessary and proper to enable him to discharge the duties of his office, but in no case shall such officer be permitted to occupy an office also occupied by a practicing attorney. Code, section 468. Report, attorney-general, 1906, page 261.

3. Office stationery—what may be included. Attendance and classification registers, record books for school directors and secretaries, librarian's records for rural libraries, institute records, report cards, and packages of blanks for use of school officers in calling meetings and making reports were held to be necessary office stationery. See decision of Judge J. H. Applegate in case of Hammond & Stephens Co. vs. Dallas county, Dallas county district court.

THE SYSTEM OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

SEC. 2743. School districts—corporate powers. Each school district now existing shall continue a body politic as a school corporation, unless hereafter changed as provided by law, and as such may sue and be sued, hold property, and exercise all the powers granted by law, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all school matters over the territory therein contained. [C. '73, §§ 1713, 1716; R., §§ 2022, 2026; C. '51, § 1108.]

NOTES: 1. Boundaries. In boundaries, school townships usually coincide with civil townships. 41 Iowa, 30.

2. Garnishee. Section 3936 of the code provides that a municipal or political corporation shall not be garnisheed. However, the corporation may waive exemption from this process. 25 Iowa, 315.

3. All territory in some corporation. The policy of our law is, that the territory once organized for school purposes must always remain within some jurisdiction, and that it may not be detached from the jurisdiction to which it belongs without at the same time becoming a separate jurisdiction or a part of another jurisdiction for school purposes. 82 Iowa, 10. Decisions, 33 and 58.

4. General powers. A school corporation may possess and exercise the following powers: (a) Those granted in express terms. (b) Those necessarily implied or necessarily incident to the powers expressly granted. (c) Those absolutely essential to the declared objects and purposes of the corporation. 25 Iowa, 163; 39 Iowa, 447; 52 Iowa, 193; and 19 Iowa, 199.

5. Validity of school organization. Quo warranto, rather than certiorari, is the proper remedy to test the validity of the organization of a school district, and appeal to the superintendent is not the exclusive remedy. 129 Iowa, 538.

6. Unauthorized official acts—test of. Code, section 4313, authorizing a quo warranto proceeding to test the official and corporate rights does not preclude a school township from maintaining an action in equity in its own name to enjoin persons, assuming without authority to act as officers of an independent district within the township, from interfering with the rights of the school township and also for an accounting, as the former proceeding is for the protection of public interest and the latter to redress private wrongs. 122 Iowa, 602.

SEC. 2744. Names. District townships now existing shall hereafter be called school townships, subdivisions of which shall be called subdistricts. School corporations shall be designated as follows: The school township of (naming civil township), in the county of (naming county), state of Iowa; or, the independent school district of (naming city, town or village, and if there are two or more districts therein, including some appropriate name or number), in the county of (naming county), state of Iowa; or, the rural independent school district of (some appropriate name or number), township of (naming township), in the county of (naming county), state of Iowa. [27 G. A., ch. 91, § 1; C. '73, § 1716; R., § 2026; C. '51, § 1108.]

NOTES: 1. Subdistrict not a corporation. A subdistrict is not a corporation, and hence can neither hold property nor perform any corporate act. Decisions, 13.

2. Use of corporate name. In suits, contracts and conveyances, the corporate name should be strictly observed.

3. Change of name. At their annual meeting, the electors of any rural independent school district may vote by ballot to change the name of the district, and the board will be guided by this expressed wish.

SEC. 2745. Directors. The affairs of each school corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, the members of which in all independent school districts shall be chosen for a term of three years, and in all subdistricts of school townships for a term of one year. [26 G. A., ch. 40; 18 G. A., ch. 143; 17 G. A., ch. 113; 15 G. A., ch. 27; C. '73, § 1802; R., §§ 2099, 2100, 2106.]

NOTES: 1. Term begins. The terms of directors of independent city, town and village corporations begin on the third Monday of March and of rural independent districts and school townships on the first day of July following their election. Sections 2757, 2758.

2. Term when filling vacancies. A director "holding over," or elected or appointed to fill a vacancy, assumes the duties of the office within ten days (section 1275), and, if "holding over," or appointed, serves until the next regular election (section 1276), or, if elected, for the remainder of the term (section 1277).

SEC. 2745-a. Duty of boards of school directors. It shall be the duty of all boards of school directors in school districts where the schoolhouse site adjoins the cultivated or improved lands of another to build and maintain a lawful fence between said site and cultivated or improved lands. [27 G. A., ch. 88, § 1.]

NOTES: 1. Barbed wire. Barbed wire may not be used to fence a school site, nor for any fence or other purpose within ten feet of the site. Section 2817.

2. Lawful fence. For the specifications for a "lawful fence" see section 2367 of the code.

3. "Tight" fence. A partition fence shall be made tight by the party desiring it. Section 2367 of the code.

4. Fence viewers. The township trustees constitute the fence viewers for the purpose of determining matters in controversy. Section 2367 of the code.

5. Additional law. See section 2773.

SEC. 2745-b. Rights of owner of adjoining lands. The owner of lands adjoining any schoolhouse site shall have the right to connect the fence on his lands with the fences around any schoolhouse site, but he shall not be liable to contribute to the maintenance of the fence around said site. [27 G. A., ch. 88, § 2.]

NOTE: Barbed wire prohibited. Barbed wire may not be used to connect the fence of an adjoining land owner with the fence around a school site. Barbed wire may not be brought nearer than ten feet of the school premises. Section 2817.

SEC. 2746. Annual meeting of corporation. A meeting of the voters of each school corporation shall be held annually on the second Monday in March for the transaction of the business thereof. Notice in writing of the place, day and hours during which the meeting will be in session, specifying the number of directors to be elected, and the terms thereof, and such propositions as will be submitted to and be determined by the voters, shall be posted by the secretary of the board in at least five public places in said corporation, for not less than ten days next preceding the day of the meeting. The president and secretary of the board, with one of the directors shall act as judges of the election. If any judge of election is absent at the organization of the meeting the voters present shall appoint one of their number to act in his stead. The judges of election shall issue certificates to the directors elected. [19 G. A., ch. 51; 18 G. A., ch. 7, § 1; 18 G. A., ch. 63; C. '73, §§ 1717, 1719; R., §§ 2027-8, 2031, 2033; C. '51, §§ 1111, 1114-15.]

NOTES: 1. But one day. The meeting cannot be adjourned to another day, and must be held at the time and in the manner directed by the law. Section 2746.

2. Notice necessary. It is mandatory upon the secretary to give ten days' notice of the annual meeting of the school corporation and of such propositions as the board or the electors by petition, as provided in section 2749, may desire to have submitted to the electors at that time. Failure to do so will invalidate any action that may be taken by the electors at such meeting. 118 Iowa, 207. Form 8.

SEC. 2747. Electors. To have the right to vote at a school meeting a person must have the same qualifications as for voting at a general election, and must be at the time an actual resident of the corporation or subdistrict. In any election hereafter held in any school corporation for the purpose of issuing bonds for school purposes or for increasing the tax levy, the right of any citizen to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of sex, and women may vote at such elections the same as men, under the same restrictions and qualifications, so far as applicable. [25 G. A., ch. 39.]

NOTES: 1. Qualification of electors. To be entitled to the rights of suffrage, a person must be a male citizen of the United States, twenty-one years of age, a resident of the state six months next preceding the election, and of the county sixty days. Constitution, article 2, section 1. 69 Iowa, 368, and 75 Iowa, 220. He must be a legal resident of the corporation or subdistrict, also.

2. Naturalization must be completed. The declaration of intention by one who expects to become fully naturalized, does not entitle such person to vote. In some states this is a fact, but in Iowa what is called second papers must be taken out; that is, an elector must be either a native born, or a naturalized citizen, must be a male, and not disfranchised in any way mentioned by the law.

3. Citizen. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. Constitution United States, amendment XIV. See page 27, code 1897.

4. Residence—voting. The precinct in which an unmarried man rooms and sleeps, rather than the one in which he takes his meals, will determine the question of his residence with respect to the right to vote. 129 Iowa, 122.

5. Residence—three rules. (1) Must have residence somewhere. (2) Residence established remains until a new one is acquired. (3) Can have but one legal residence. 129 Iowa, 122.

6. Residence—the vital question. The vital inquiry then in determining the residence of a person always is, where is his home, the home where he lives and to which he intends to return when absent or when sick, or when his present engagement ends. 129 Iowa, 122.

7. Women voting. The law confers upon women the right to vote upon only the matters distinctly mentioned. They may vote upon propositions to issue bonds and levy schoolhouse taxes. Kinney v. Howard, 110 N. W., 282.

8. Separate ballot box. A separate ballot box must be provided for the ballots cast by women, and a separate canvass made of their votes. Code, section 1131.

5. Registration. Registration is necessary in school corporations of five thousand or more inhabitants. Section 2755 and attorney general, report 1906, page 174.

SEC. 2748. Officers—qualifications. A school officer or member of the board may be of either sex, and must at the time of election or appointment be a citizen and a resident of the corporation or sub-district, and over twenty-one years of age, and, if a man, he must be a qualified voter of the corporation or subdistrict. [16 G. A., ch. 136.]

NOTES: 1. Sex not a bar. No person shall be deemed ineligible by reason of sex, to the office of director, secretary, treasurer, truant officer or county superintendent. Sections 2748 and 2734-b.

2. Residence essential. Only a resident may be elected to a school office. Section 2748. Removal from the corporation or subdistrict creates a vacancy Section 1266, paragraph 3.

3. De facto officers. In the absence of any color of election or appointment a party to be treated as a de facto officer must have served under such circumstances of reputation or acquiescence as would induce the public to believe without inquiry that he was in fact such officer. 129 Iowa, 406.

4. De facto officers—test of title. See Vette vs. Byington, 109 N. W., 1073.

5. Powers of school officers. School officers have only such powers as are conferred by statute and when the conditions under which these are to be exercised are clearly defined they cannot be ignored. 110 Iowa, 652.

6. De facto officers—legality of acts. The acts of officers acting under color of election or appointment, and in good faith, are valid. 101 Iowa, 382. See also note 8, section 2771.

SEC. 2749. Powers. The voters assembled at the annual meeting shall have power:

1. To direct a change of text-books regularly adopted;
2. To direct the sale or make other disposition of any schoolhouse or site or other property belonging to the corporation, and the application to be made of the proceeds of such sale;
3. To determine upon added branches that shall be taught, but instruction in all branches except foreign languages shall be in English;
4. To instruct the board that school buildings may or may not be used for meetings of public interest;
5. To direct the transfer of any surplus in the schoolhouse fund to the teachers' or contingent fund;
6. To authorize the board to obtain, at the expense of the corporation, roads for proper access to its schoolhouses;
7. To vote a schoolhouse tax, not exceeding ten mills on the dollar in any one year, for the purchase of grounds, construction of schoolhouses, the payment of debts contracted for the erection of schoolhouses, not including interest on bonds, procuring libraries for and opening roads to schoolhouses.

The board may, or, upon the written request of five voters of any rural independent district, or of ten voters of any school township, or of twenty-five voters of any city or town independent district having a population of five thousand or less, or of fifty voters of any other city or town independent district, shall, provide in the notice for the annual meeting for submitting any proposition authorized by law to the voters. All propositions shall be voted upon by ballot in substantially the following form: "Shall a change of text-books be directed?" (or other question as the case may be); and the voter shall designate his vote by writing the word "yes" or "no" in an appropriate place on the ballot. [21 G. A., ch. 131, § 1; 19 G. A., ch. 51; 18 G. A., ch. 63; C. '73, §§ 1717, 1807; R., §§ 2027-8, 2033; C. '51, §§ 1114, 1115.]

NOTES: 1. Additional powers. (a) To vote on a proposition for county uniformity of text-books. Section 2831.

(b) To authorize the board to purchase text-books to be loaned to the pupils. Section 2836.

(c) To authorize the board to issue school building bonds. Section 2812-d.

2. Limitation of powers. The voters have only such powers as are conferred by the statute, either expressly or by reasonable implication. Note 4, section 2743. 110 Iowa, 652.

3. Disposition of school property. The voters of any district when assembled at their annual meeting may direct that a schoolhouse or the schoolhouse grounds not needed for public school purposes may be sold, rented, leased, or the use thereof granted, for any purpose that will not interfere with the subsequent use or value of such schoolhouse property for public school purposes. Section 2749.

4. By ballot. Special attention is called to the fact that under the present law all propositions before the electors at their annual meeting must be voted upon by ballot. See last paragraph, section 2749.

5. Sale must be directed. Schoolhouses cannot be sold without previous direction of the voters, but their action in voting a tax for the erection of a new schoolhouse on the old site gives the board authority to remove the old house. Paragraph 2, section 2749. See also 110 Iowa, 652.

6. Loaning funds. The voters have no authority to instruct the board to loan money belonging to the district, nor to order money invested in government bonds. See note 2, ante.

7. Vested right. The general statement is that when an amount has been voted for a specific purpose, the parties directly interested thereby acquire a vested right in such money appropriated, of which they may not be deprived, even by the voters. 50 Iowa, 648; 100 Iowa, 317.

8. Transfer. The only change of money from one fund to another possible under the law is the transfer of surplus schoolhouse funds to either of the other funds. Paragraph 5, section 2749.

9. Added branches. If the voters direct that any additional branches shall be taught in one or all of the schools, their action is mandatory, and the board is bound to endeavor in good faith to fulfill such wish. 44 Iowa, 564.

10. Course of study. The voters may not limit nor restrict the board to the adoption of a course of study including only such branches as the voters may name. Nor may the voters direct that a particular branch, or certain branches, shall not be taught. It is the province of the board to decide what branches besides those named by the voters shall be included in the course of study and taught in the schools. Section 2772.

11. Voters may not prohibit. The voters have no power to prohibit any branch being taught, if introduced by the board, neither has the board power to prevent the teaching of any study which the voters have directed shall be taught. 44 Iowa, 564. Section 2772.

12. Schoolhouse taxes. All schoolhouse taxes must be voted by the voters of the corporation, or the subdistrict; this power cannot be delegated to the board. For exceptions see section 2806, note 3; sections 2811 and 2813.

13. Sum necessary. The specific sum of money deemed necessary, and not a certain number of mills on the dollar, should be voted, except when a district lies in two counties. The per centum necessary to raise this sum is determined by the board of supervisors. Section 2806.

14. Taxes to be voted by electors. The power to vote schoolhouse taxes for the purchase of sites, erection and repair of schoolhouses, and the payment of debts contracted therefor belongs exclusively to the voters. The sums necessary for the teachers' and contingent funds are determined by the board. Amounts necessary to pay on judgments and bonds may be voted by the electors or estimated by the board. Sections 2749, 2806 and note 3, 2813.

15. Compelling board to act. Failing to carry out instructions from this meeting, the board may be compelled by mandamus to show reason why the expressed wish of the voters has not been complied with. Section 2778; decisions, 20; 50 Iowa, 648.

16. Suggestive action. A vote upon matters which by the law are to be determined by the board, is not binding upon the board, but is only suggestive. In such matters, the board will still be left free to exercise the discretion vested in it by the law. Note 4, section 2743.

17. Notice necessary. In order that action may be taken at the annual meeting of the school corporation, it is essential that notice shall be given, as provided in section 2746, that such a matter will be presented at the meeting. When assembled, the voters have power to act only upon such of the powers conferred as have been incorporated in the notice for the meeting. Section 2746; 118 Iowa, 207; decisions, 113.

18. Subdistricts claim. A subdistrict has no legal claim upon schoolhouse property, although in equity a tax voted to build in a certain subdistrict must be expended as voted, and when a schoolhouse has been built or repaired from schoolhouse funds raised upon that subdistrict alone, even the voters should recognize the vested right of the subdistrict to retain such property and to enjoy its use. 50 Iowa, 648.

19. Removal from subdistrict. If it is desired to move the schoolhouse out of the subdistrict the voters of the school township must first so order at the annual meeting. Decisions, 15; paragraph 2, section 2749.

20. Jurisdiction of court. It is the exclusive province of the courts to determine questions with relation to any vote at a school meeting, or with relation to the choice of members of the board or of officers of the board. Notes 10 to 13 inclusive, to section 2758. 129 Iowa, 441.

21. Roads. See sections 2815, 2750, 2773.

22. Text-books—change of. Sections 2749, 2829.

23. Original indebtedness. Original indebtedness may not be created except by vote of the electors. Section 2823.

24. Limit of indebtedness. See section 1306-b, and section 2820-a, following section 2812-f.

SEC. 2750. Special meeting. The board of directors may call a special meeting of the voters of any school corporation by giving notice in the same manner as for the annual meeting, which shall have the powers given to a regular meeting with reference to the sale of school property and the application to be made of the proceeds, and to vote a schoolhouse tax for the purchase of a site and the construction of a necessary schoolhouse, and for obtaining roads thereto. [28 G. A., ch. 104; 24 G. A., ch. 21; 18 G. A., ch. 84.]

NOTES: 1. Additional powers. To authorize the board of directors to issue school building bonds. Section 2812-d.

2. Additional indebtedness. Bonds may be voted under section 2820-a to 2820-e only at a special meeting called for that purpose.

3. Number of special meetings. The law does not limit the number of special meetings that may be called. Section 2750.

4. Petition may not be ignored. When petitioned to call a special election for the submission of any proposition that may come before a special meeting, the board may not ignore the petition. See decisions, 93.

SEC. 2751 Subdistrict meeting. The meeting of the voters of each subdistrict of a school township shall be held annually on the first Monday in March, and shall not organize earlier than nine o'clock a. m., nor adjourn before twelve o'clock m. Notice in writing of the time and place of such meeting and the amount of schoolhouse tax to be voted shall be given by its director, or if there is none by the school township secretary, by posting in three public places in the subdistrict for five days next preceding the same. The vote shall be canvassed by the judges of election, and the person receiving the highest vote shall be declared elected. [22 G. A., ch. 51; 18 G. A., ch. 7, § 1; C. '73, §§ 1718-19, 1789; R., §§ 2030-1; C. '51, § 1111.]

NOTES: 1. Purpose of the law. The object is to prevent a few designing persons from meeting at an unusual hour, dispatching the business with unseemly haste, and adjourning before many of the electors arrive. The meeting should be conducted with entire fairness, and an opportunity given for an expression of the real sentiment of the subdistrict.

2. Notice. At least five days' notice shall be given by posting in at least three places in the district. Section 2751. If a special schoolhouse tax is to be voted on the property of the subdistrict, ten days' notice must be given. Section 2753. 3. Duration of meeting. While this section does not in terms specify the length of time during which a subdistrict meeting should remain in session, section 2754 provides that in rural independent districts the polls must remain open not less than two hours. For obvious reasons a subdistrict meeting should continue in session at least the same length of time. The voters of the subdistrict should be given a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting. 37 Iowa, 131; 39 Iowa, 380.

4. In case of controversy. If subdistrict boundaries are in controversy by way of appeal, the election for directors should be made on the basis of the status of the subdistricts on the day of election.

5. Organization. A chairman and secretary shall be chosen from among the voters present. Section 2751.

6. Judges not qualify. The chairman and the secretary are not required to qualify.

8. Who may not vote. No minor, non-resident, nor alien can take part in a meeting of voters. Section 2747.

9. No caucus. If the voters desire to hold a caucus, it should be done before the subdistrict meeting is called to order. After organization but one lawful ballot can be taken.

10. Tie vote. A tie vote for any elective school office shall be publicly determined by lot forthwith, under the direction of the judges. Section 2754. This applies to all school elections. If more than two persons have each an equal number of votes, the same rule will apply. No second ballot may be taken.

11. One ballot. Only one ballot may be taken for the election of director, and the person receiving the greatest number of votes is elected, even though he has not received a majority of all the votes cast. Section 2751.

12. Eligibility. A member or officer of the board must have the qualifications of an elector, if a male, but no person is ineligible to any school office by reason of sex. Section 2748.

15. Tax provision legal. The provision with reference to taxes voted by electors of subdistricts for schoolhouse purposes, held, to give implied authority to vote such taxes, although the power was not elsewhere expressly conferred. 69 Iowa, 533.

16. Term of director of subdistrict—beginning—duration. See section 2745 and 2757.

17. When to qualify. See section 2758.

18. Special subdistrict meeting. See section 2753.

19. Funds—classification of. See section 2768.

20. Electors—qualifications of. See section 2747.

21. Subdistrict lines—voting—taxes. Subdistrict lines determine who may vote at a subdistrict meeting and also fixes the limit of taxation, when a schoolhouse tax is voted upon the subdistrict. Sections 2747, 2753.

SEC. 2752—Number of directors. The board of directors of a school township shall be composed of one director from each subdistrict. But when there is an even number of subdistricts another director shall be elected at large by all the voters of the school township. When the school township is not divided into subdistricts, a board of three directors shall be elected at large, on the second Monday in March, by all the voters of the school township. [27 G. A., ch. 92; 15 G. A., ch. 27; C. '73, §§ 1720-1; R., §§ 2031, 2035, 2075-6; C. '51, §§ 1112, 1721.]

4. Other corporations—number of directors. See section 2754.

SEC. 2753. Special schoolhouse tax. At the annual subdistrict meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, the voters may vote to raise a greater amount of schoolhouse tax than that voted by the voters of the school township, ten days' previous notice having been given, but the amount so voted, including the amount voted by the school township, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifteen mills on the dollar. The sum thus voted shall be certified forthwith by the secretary of said subdistrict meeting to the secretary of the school township, and shall be levied by the board of supervisors only on the property within the subdistrict. [C. '73, § 1778; R., §§ 2033-4, 2037, 2088.]

NOTES: 1. Tax certified. The vote should be certified to the secretary of the school township forthwith. Forms 12 and 14.

2. Vote of subdistrict meeting not notice. A vote of the subdistrict meeting is not legal notice that such proposition will come before the electors at the school township meeting as contemplated in sections 2746 and 2749. 118 Iowa, 207.

3. Levy of subdistrict tax. Taxes voted at a subdistrict meeting shall be levied only on the property in the subdistrict. Section 2573. Such action is not notice that the proposition will be submitted at the regular meeting. Sections 2746 and 2749; see note 14, section 2751.

4. Other meetings. Regular subdistrict meeting, section 2751; regular meeting of corporation, sections 2746, 2749, 2754, 2755, 2756; special meeting of corporation, section 2750.

In any district including all or part of a city of the first class, or a city under special charter, the board shall consist of seven members, three of whom shall be chosen on the second Monday in March, 1898, two on the second Monday in March, 1899, and two on the second Monday in March, 1900. In all other independent city, town or village districts, and in all rural independent districts where the board now consists of six members, the board shall consist of five members, one of whom shall be chosen on the second Monday in March, 1898, two on the second Monday in March, 1899, and two on the second Monday in March, 1900. In such districts the polls must remain open not less than five hours, and in rural independent districts and school townships not less than two hours. A., ch. 7, § 2; C. '73, §§ 1789, 1808.]

NOTES: 1. No change of date. Any election by the people must be held on the day designated, and can neither be postponed nor adjourned to another day, and the officers voted for by the people must be elected by a single ballot.

2. Caucus—informal ballot. The practice of taking an informal ballot for the purpose of placing persons in nomination may render the election illegal. Such nomination should be made outside the meeting, or at least before the meeting is organized.

3. Form of ballot. In all cases, the ballot should state the term voted for, in connection with the name of the person. It should state all propositions to be voted upon. Sections 2746 and 2749.

7. Tie vote. A tie vote for any elective school office must be publicly determined by lot forthwith, under the direction of the judges. This applies to all school elections. If more than two persons have each an equal number of votes, the same rule will apply. No second ballot may be taken. Section 2754.

8. Polls open. In incorporations of five thousand or more, the polls shall open at nine o'clock a. m. (section 2756), and in all other corporations at one p. m. Sections 2754 and 2756.

(section 2756); in other independent city, town or village districts they shall remain open at least five hours; and in rural independent districts and school townships, two hours. Sections 2754 and 2756.

10. Judges. In incorporations of five thousand or more, the judges for each precinct shall consist of a member of the board and two voters of the precinct (section 2756); in all other corporations the judges shall consist of the president, the secretary and one member of the board. In case any judge is absent, the electors present at the time the polls open shall fill the vacancy. Sections 2754 and 2756.

11. Qualifications of electors. See section 2747.

12. Regular meeting—notice, etc. See section 2746.

13. Powers of electors. See sections 2749 and 2750.

14. Special election. See section 2750.

SEC. 2755. Election precincts—register of voters—notice. Each school corporation having five thousand or more inhabitants may be divided into such number of precincts as the board of directors shall determine, in each of which a poll shall be held at a convenient place, fixed by the board of directors, for the reception of the ballots of voters residing in such precinct. A separate register of the voters of each precinct shall be prepared by the board from the register of the electors of any city included within such school corporation, and for that purpose a copy of such register of electors shall be furnished by the clerk of the city to the board of directors. Before each annual meeting these registers shall be revised and corrected by comparison with the last register of elections of such cities, and shall have the same force and effect at school meetings held under this section, in respect to the reception of votes thereat, as the register of election has by law at general elections. The board of directors of such school corporation, on or before the last Monday preceding such election shall appoint two suitable persons to be registrars in each of the election precincts of such school corporation for the registration of voters therein, who shall have the same qualifications as registrars appointed for general elections and shall qualify in the same manner, and receive the same compensation to be paid by the school corporation. The registrars shall meet on the day of election at the voting place in the precinct in which they have been appointed and shall hold continuous session from nine o'clock in the forenoon until seven o'clock in the afternoon. Any person claiming to be a voter, and who is not already registered in the proper precinct, may appear before them in the election precinct where he claims he is entitled to vote and make and subscribe under oath a statement in the registry book, which oath and statement shall be of the same general character as that prescribed by section one thousand and seventy-seven (1077) of the code, and shall thereupon be granted a certificate of registration. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit women from voting at all elections at which they are entitled to vote. The secretary must post a notice of the meeting in a public place in each precinct at least ten days before the meeting, and by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks preceding the same in some newspaper published in the corporation, such notice to state the time, respective voting precincts and the polling place in each precinct, and also to specify what questions authorized by law, in addition to the election of director or directors, shall be voted upon and determined by the voters of the several precincts. [31 G. A., ch. 9, § 3; 29 G. A., ch. 125; 28 G. A., ch. 105; 18 G. A., ch. 8, §§ 1-4.]

3. Compensation of directors. Members of the board may not receive compensation as judges of election. Section 2780.

4. Conducting election—notice—duration. In cities of five thousand or more see section 2756. In other corporations, sections 2746 and 2754. In subdistricts, section 2751.

SEC. 2756. Conduct of elections. As judges of the election referred to in the preceding section, the board shall appoint one of its number and two voters of the precinct, one of whom shall act as clerk, who shall be sworn as provided in case of a general election. If any person so appointed fails to attend, the judge or judges attending shall fill the place by the appointment of any voter present, and like action shall follow a refusal to serve or to be sworn. Should all of the appointees fail to attend, their places shall be filled by the voters from those in attendance. The board shall provide the necessary ballot box and poll-book for each precinct, and the judges shall make and certify a return to the secretary of the corporation of the canvass of the votes for office and upon each question submitted. On the next Monday after the meeting the board shall canvass the returns made to the secretary, ascertain the result of the voting with regard to every matter voted upon, declare the same, cause a record to be made thereof, and at once issue a certificate to each person elected. At all meetings held under this and the next preceding section, the polls shall be kept open from nine o'clock a. m. until seven o'clock p. m. [Same, §§ 5, 6.]

NOTE: 1. Compensation of judges. Judges who are not members of the board may receive compensation. Attorney-general, 1904, page 298.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS—ORGANIZATION—OFFICERS—POWERS.

SEC. 2757. Meetings of directors—election of officers. The board of directors of all independent city, town and village corporations shall organize on the third Monday in March, and those of all other school corporations on the first day of July, unless that date falls on Sunday, in which case on the day following. Such organization shall be effected by the election of a president from the members of the board, who shall be entitled to vote as a member. Such special meetings may be held as may be determined by the board, or called by the president, or by the secretary upon the written request of a majority of the members of the board, upon notice specifying the time and place, delivered to each member in person, but attendance shall be a waiver of notice. Such meetings shall be held at any place within the civil township in which the corporation is situated.

On the first day of July, unless that date falls on Sunday, in which case on the day following, the board of all independent city, town and village corporations and the retiring board in all other school corporations shall meet, examine the books of, and settle with the secretary and treasurer for the year ending on the thirtieth day of June preceding, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it. On the same day the board of each independent city, town and village corporation, except as provided in section twenty-seven hundred fifty-four (2754) of this chapter, and the new board of every other school corporation, shall elect from outside the board a secretary and treasurer, but in independent districts no teacher or other employee of the board shall be eligible as secretary. All officers shall be elected by ballot and the vote shall be recorded by the secretary. Should the secretary or treasurer fail to report as provided in sections twenty-seven hundred sixty-five (2765) and twenty-seven hundred sixty-nine (2769) of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the new board to take any action necessary to secure a proper settlement.

NOTES: 1. Settlement. It is suggested that the retiring board in all rural corporations meet in the morning of the day for the July meeting to settle with the secretary and treasurer and to close up the business for the year. It will be necessary for the retiring board to complete its business in time for the new board to organize and transact its business.

2. Organization. The new board should organize immediately thereafter, elect successors to the retiring secretary and treasurer and transact such other business as may come before it.

3. Adjourned Meeting. If a quorum be not present, the members present should effect a temporary organization (section 2772) and appoint a date and place for an adjourned meeting, at which time a permanent organization may be effected and the business of the annual meeting completed. 75 Iowa, 196.

4. President must qualify. The director chosen as president must qualify before assuming the duties of that office. Constitution of Iowa, section 5, article 11.

5. Special meetings—notice of. If the president is unwilling to call a special meeting in compliance with a request from members, then a majority of the board may cause a notice of the meeting to be given by the secretary, signed by the members who desire to have the meeting called, which written notice should be by the secretary handed to each member of the board and to the president. Section 2757.

6. Notice—time of. As the law is silent with regard to the length of time notice should be given before the time of meeting, it is taken for granted the law intends that a reasonable notice as to the time shall be given. What such reasonable notice is must be determined for each locality by the conditions.

7. Neglect of duty. If a school officer habitually or wilfully neglects his duty, and the public good suffers by such negligence, a court may compel him to attend to the necessary duties of his office. 50 Iowa, 648. Section 2822.

8. Place of meeting. This section authorizes boards to hold meetings in any district within the same civil township.

9. Day of meeting. There is no provision of law that will prevent a board from transacting business upon any day except Sunday.

10. Failure to elect officers. If the board fails to elect a president, a secretary, or treasurer, in districts where such officer is elected by the board, upon the day fixed by law or at a meeting adjourned from that day to a day certain, then the incumbent may qualify anew and hold the office for another year. 75 Iowa, 196. But in order that a president may thus hold over, his term as a member of the board must also continue. Section 2757.

11. Hold but one office. No person may hold two offices of the board at the same time.

12. May not be compelled to qualify. No one may be compelled to qualify as a member or officer of the board.

13. Duties must be performed. Any duty imposed upon the board as a body must be performed at a regular or special meeting, and made a matter of record. 47 Iowa, 11.

14. Consent of individual members. The consent of the board to any particular measure, obtained of individual members when not in session, is not the act of the board, and is not binding upon the district. 67 Iowa, 164.

15. Receive reports of committees. The board may receive and act upon communications from persons selected outside the board to report upon matters referred to such persons as a committee.

16. Power may not be delegated. An official trust cannot be delegated. Neither the board nor any member may appoint a substitute to perform the official duties of a member or of the board, but the board may appoint a committee of its number with power to act for the board in a given case.

17. Adjourned meetings authorized. Where the law requires a certain duty to be performed by the board upon a fixed day, and does not expressly forbid its performance later than the date mentioned in the law, as for instance the election of a secretary and a treasurer, an adjournment of the meeting to another fixed date will allow the transaction of the business directed to be done on the day of the regular meeting. 75 Iowa, 196.

18. Director ineligible as secretary or treasurer. A director is ineligible to the office of secretary or treasurer so long as he remains a member of the board. Section 2757.

19. Presumption of regularity. In the absence of proof, it will be presumed on appeal, that the proceedings (of school officers) were regular and the grounds sufficient. 109 Iowa, 169.

20. Rules and regulations. The board should adopt necessary rules and regulations to govern the members thereof in their deliberations. This is necessary in order that business may be conducted legally and with dispatch. Section 2772.

21. Order of business. To further expedite business, a board should adopt and follow an "order of business." The following is suggested and may be changed to suit the needs of the board: 1. Call to order. 2. Roll call—to determine that a quorum is present. 3. Reading minutes of previous meeting. 4. Reports of standing committees. 5. Reports of special committees. 6. Communications and petitions. 7. Auditing claims. 8. Unfinished business. 9. New business. 10. Adjourn.

SEC. 2758. Qualification of directors—vacancies. Any member of the board may administer the oath of qualification to any member elect, and to the president of the board. Each director elected in March, 1906, or at any regular election thereafter, shall qualify on or before the date for the organization of the board of the corporation in which he was elected by taking an oath to support the constitution of the United States and that of the state of Iowa, and that he will faithfully discharge the duties of his office; and shall hold the office for the term to which he is elected, and until a successor is elected and qualified. In case of a vacancy, the office shall be filled by appointment by the board until the next annual meeting. In all rural school corporations, the term of office of directors whose terms expire on the third Monday in March, 1906, is hereby extended to July 1, 1906. [31 G. A., ch. 137; C. '73, §§ 1752, 1790; R., §§ 2032, 2079; C. '51, §§ 1113, 1120.]

NOTES: 1. Oath—who may administer. Any school director is authorized to administer to a school director elect the official oath required by law, but the secretary cannot administer this oath unless he is one of the many officers empowered by law to administer oaths.

2. Oath—when director may take. A director-elect may take the oath of qualification at any time between the day of election and the close of the day for organization of the board. 53 Iowa, 687; 101 Iowa, 382. Section 2758. A person appointed as a member of the board is required to qualify within ten days. Code, section 1275.

3. Hold over. In case a director-elect fails to qualify by the close of the day for the organization of the board, the incumbent may continue in office until the next regular election, but, in order to do so, he must qualify anew within ten days from that time. Code, sections 1265 and 1275.

4. Failure to qualify. If a person who is elected as his own successor fails to qualify on or before the day for the organization of the board, a vacancy exists which should be filled by appointment. Code, section 1266.

5. Failure to appear. Failure to appear at the meeting of the board on the day for its organization will not prevent a qualification being valid if the member-elect takes the oath of office before the close of that day.

6. Time directors serve. A director continues in office until a successor is elected and qualified, whether chosen by the electors or appointed by the board. Section 1276.

7. Term. (1) Beginning. The term of director in independent city, town and village corporations begins the third Monday of March, and of rural independent districts and school townships on the first of July following his election. Section 2757.

(2) Length of. In school townships the term of director is one year; in independent corporations, three years. Section 2745.

(2) Length of. Persons holding over or appointed by the board to fill vacancies serve until their successors, elected at the next regular meeting of the corporation, qualify. Section 1276. Persons chosen by the electors to fill vacancies serve the remainder of the term. Section 1277.

9. When to qualify—contested election. When an election is contested, the person elected shall have ten days in which to qualify, after the date of the decision. Code, section 1177.

10. Refusal to issue certificate of election. The failure or refusal of the proper officers to issue a certificate to a person duly elected, cannot operate to deprive such person of his rights. The certificate or commission is the best, but not the only evidence of an election, and if that be refused secondary evidence is admissible. McCrary on elections, section 171; decisions, 9. Mandamus is the proper remedy to compel the board of canvassers to declare elected and certify to the election of the party receiving the highest number of votes. 36 Iowa, 291.

11. Board determines identification of members. While a board may use its own judgment as to who shall or who shall not be received as a member of the board, any one aggrieved has his remedy through the courts; that is, the membership of the board is not finally determined by any action of the board. 125 Iowa, 193.

12. Title—how determined. The right or title to hold office cannot be determined by an appeal to the county superintendent. The proper remedy for any person aggrieved by the action of the board relating thereto is a petition to the district court. Code, sections 4313 and 4320; decisions, 9. Quo warranto is the proper proceeding to determine the title to an office. 125 Iowa, 193.

13. Province of courts. It is the exclusive province of the courts to determine questions with relation to any vote of a school meeting or with relation to the choice of members of the board or officers of the board. Decisions, 20.

14. Elections—regular. Sections 2746, 2751, 2754; to fill vacancy, section 2771.

SEC. 2759. President—employment of counsel. The president of the board of directors shall preside at all of its meetings, sign all warrants and drafts, respectively, drawn upon the county treasurer for money apportioned and taxes collected and belonging to his school corporation, and all orders on the treasurer drawn as provided by law, sign all contracts made by the board, and appear in behalf of his corporation in all actions brought by or against it, unless individually a party, in which case this duty shall be performed by the secretary. In all cases where actions may be instituted by or against any school officer to enforce any provision of law, the board may employ counsel, for which the school corporation shall be liable. [19 G. A., ch. 46; C. '73, §§ 1739-40; R., §§ 2039-40; C. '51, §§ 1122-3, 1125.]

NOTES: 1. President may not hold over. A president whose term as director has expired may take no further part in the board, even though a new president has not been chosen.

2. President may vote. The president has the right to vote on all questions coming before the board. If by such vote a tie is produced, the motion is lost. Section 2757.

3. Temporary president. When the board is without a president, a temporary president may be appointed from the members of the board, who, during the time he is acting as president, may sign orders and contracts and do all other acts proper to be done by the president, but he is not authorized to act except when the board is in session. Section 2772.

4. Order book—custodian of. The secretary is the custodian of the order book. He fills out the orders, which the president afterward signs. Section 2762.

5. Order must indicate fund. To be valid, an order must express upon its face the fund on which it is drawn, and name the purpose for which it was issued. Section 2762.

6. Failure to attach official title. The failure of an officer to attach his official title to his signature will not affect the instrument so far as the district is concerned, provided the writing was authorized, and made for the district, and this fact can be shown. 7 Iowa, 509; 11 Iowa, 82.

7. Personal liability. Unless the fact that official approval was authorized can be shown, personal liability may follow. 59 Iowa, 696.

8. Authority for signing. An order on the treasurer may be drawn only by the authority of the board. Section 2780.

9. Expense of litigation. The expense in suits provided for by this section should be paid from the contingent fund. Section 2768.

10. Appeals not actions. Appeals to the county superintendent or superintendent of public instruction, are not actions brought by or against the district, nor are they actions brought by or against any of the school officers, within the meaning of the law, and no charge can be made against the district for attorney fees. 36 Iowa, 411.

11. President may not bring suits. The president does not have authority to bring suits in the name of the corporation on his own motion. 85 Iowa, 387.

12. Service of notice. Service of notice may be made on either the president or the secretary. Code, section 3531.

SEC. 2760. Bonds of secretary and treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall each give bond to the school corporation in such penalty as the board may require, and with sureties to be approved by it, which bond shall be filed with the president, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, but in no case less than five hundred dollars. Each shall take the oath required of civil officers, which shall be indorsed upon the bond, and shall complete his qualification within ten days. In case of a breach of the bond, the president shall bring action thereon in the name of the school corporation. [15 G. A., ch. 27; C. '73, §§ 1721, 1731; R., §§ 2035, 2037, 2076; C. '51, § 1144.]

NOTES: 1. Official bond. The law requires all official bonds to be secured by at least two sureties who are freeholders, and whose aggregate property is double the amount of the bond, the oath of office to be subscribed on the back of the bond, or attached thereto, and the sureties to make affidavit that they are worth the amount named. Form 15. A guarantee company may be accepted as surety. Sections 360 and 1187.

2. Sureties and principal must qualify. At least two sureties are required, who must be resident freeholders of this state, and each of whom must make an affidavit as surety. Both the principal and the sureties must qualify before some one empowered to administer oaths. Code, sections 358 and 359.

3. Requalify. If the treasurer is re-elected, or continues in office by reason of failure to elect a successor, his bond must be renewed and he should produce and account for the funds in his hands, and the statement of such settlement should be endorsed upon his new bond before the same is approved by the board. Code, section 1193.

4. Liability of treasurer. The treasurer of a school district is absolutely liable for all money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. 40 Iowa, 130; 37 Iowa, 550; 80 Iowa, 497.

6. Failure to give bond. Any officer whose duty it is to give bonds for the proper discharge of the duties of his office, and who neglects so to do, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and is liable to a fine. Code, section 1197.

7. Liability of board. A board approving bonds known to be insufficient, does not discharge the duty incumbent upon it, and is liable on a charge of misdemeanor. 14 Iowa, 510; 18 Iowa, 153. Code, section 4904.

8. Additional security. Any officer or board who has the approval of another officer's bond, when of the opinion that the public security requires it, upon giving ten days' notice to show cause to the contrary may require him to give such additional security by a new bond, within a reasonable time to be prescribed. Code, section 1281.

9. Relief of surety. By petitioning the board a surety may ask to be relieved from his obligation on a bond. Code, sections 1283 and 1285.

10. Board not bound to notify. The board of directors is not bound to notify or warn sureties of the dishonesty of a re-elected treasurer.

Code, section 1187.

14. Guarantee company's certificate. Any company engaged in the business of becoming surety upon bonds shall file, with the clerk of any county in which it shall do business, a certificate from the state auditor that it has complied with the law and is authorized to do business in this state; and should said authority be withdrawn at any time, the state auditor shall at once notify the clerk of each district court to that effect. Code, sections 359 and 360.

SEC. 2761. Duties of secretary. The secretary shall file and preserve copies of all reports made to the county superintendent, and all papers transmitted to him pertaining to the business of the corporation; keep a complete record of all the proceedings of the meetings of the board and the voters of the corporation in separate books; keep an accurate, separate account of each fund with the treasurer, charge him with all warrants and drafts drawn in his favor, and credit him with all orders drawn on each fund; and he shall keep an accurate account of all expenses incurred by the corporation, and present the same to the board for audit and payment. At the annual meeting he shall record, in a book provided for that purpose, the names of all persons voting thereat, the number of votes cast for each candidate, and for and against each proposition submitted. [C. '73, §§ 1741, 1743; R., §§ 2041-2; C. '51, § 1128.]

NOTES: 1. Importance of secretary's work. A large amount of labor devolves upon the secretary. The fidelity and promptness with which he attends to his duties make his assistance very valuable to the board and the district, and determine, in a large degree, the accuracy and completeness of his annual report to the board and to the county superintendent.

2. Minutes—keeping of. It is essential that the record of the proceedings of the board and of the district meetings should be properly kept. Every transaction should be carefully noted, and the proceedings read and approved. Decisions, 113.

3. Minutes as evidence. The minutes of a meeting as recorded at the time by the secretary, must be regarded the best evidence as to the understanding the board had of a subject, at the time the question was voted upon. Decisions, 6, 31, 36 and 50.

4. Proceedings submitted to board. The proceedings of any meeting in relation to voting schoolhouse taxes, must be submitted by the secretary, who is the proper custodian of the records, to the board, to form the basis of its action in appropriating and certifying schoolhouse taxes to the board of supervisors. Section 2806.

5. Failure to record proceedings in separate books. The failure of the secretary to record all the proceedings of the board and of the district meetings in separate books, kept for that purpose, will not render the proceedings void. 8 Iowa, 298.

6. Public records may be inspected. Public records are public property, and are open to inspection at proper times by any citizen. No public officer may refuse examination of the records, but as he is their custodian, and is charged with their safe keeping, he must keep them in his possession.

7. Records—certified copy of. Every officer having the custody of a public record or writing is bound to give any person, on demand, a certified copy thereof on payment of the legal fees therefor. Code, section 4638.

8. May not act. The secretary may not act as president or treasurer of the board.

9. Librarian. The secretary, as the clerical officer of the board, cares for the records of the district (section 2761) and is the librarian of the corporation, unless the board appoints some other person. Section 2823-r.

10. Cash account. The secretary is required by this section to keep an account current with the district treasurer. This account, properly kept, will assist the board in its frequent settlements with the treasurer, as required by section 2780.

11. Minutes—correction of. A court of equity may hear parol evidence to correct the record. 110 Iowa. 707.

SEC. 2762. Warrants. He shall countersign all warrants and drafts upon the county treasurer drawn or signed by the president; draw each order on the treasurer, specify the fund on which it is drawn and the use for which the money is appropriated; countersign and keep a register of the same, showing the number, date, to whom drawn, the fund upon which it is drawn, the purpose and the amount; and at each regular annual meeting furnish the board with a copy of the same. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 4; 19 G. A., ch. 46; C. '73, §§ 1739, 1782; R., §§ 2039, 2061; C. '51, §§ 1122-3.]

NOTES: 1. Claims must be audited. All demands, whether by contract or otherwise, must be approved by the board when in session, before an order may be drawn on the treasurer, and the secretary shall draw no order unless he is authorized to do so by a vote of the board, at a regular or special meeting. Form 17. Section 2780.

2. Secretary holds the order book. The secretary should hold the order book, for by this means he can better keep his records, make the transcript to the treasurer of orders drawn, and more easily make his final report to the board in July. Section 2762.

3. Comply with lawful instructions. The secretary, president, and treasurer, must conform to the instructions of the board, as far as those directions are in accordance with law, but they should not comply with an instruction directing them to do an illegal act. Section 2760.

4. When warrant should be refused. If the board appropriates money to pay its members, or for any other illegal purpose, the secretary should refuse to draw and the president should decline to sign the order, and, if drawn, the treasurer should refuse to pay it. Section 2760.

5. How relieved from responsibility. A member may relieve himself of the responsibility of an illegal act of the board, by moving that the ayes and noes be taken, and by voting no on the unlawful proposition. Members of the board are not liable to prosecution for errors when not shown that they acted in bad faith. 69 Iowa, 533.

6. Teachers' salaries. The board may authorize the president and secretary to draw warrants for the payment of teachers' salaries at the end of each school month, upon proper evidence that the service has been performed, but the order for wages for the last month should not be drawn until the full report required by section 2789 is filed in the office of the secretary.

7. Warrants—when illegal. School orders issued without a vote of the board, or otherwise illegally issued, although they may be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, are not binding upon the district, neither can they acquire validity by being transferred to third parties. If illegal when issued, they are illegal forever. 19 Iowa, 199 and 248. Decisions, 11.

8. Not negotiable. An order is not a negotiable paper. It is subject to all equities and defenses to which it would have been subject in the hands of the payee. 22 Iowa, 595; 29 Iowa, 339, and 92 Iowa, 676.

9. Defects not removed by transfer. An order issued illegally does not acquire validity by transfer. See note 8.

10. Terms of. School orders may not be drawn payable on time, nor should any mention regarding interest be in the order. An order may not be made payable at any other place than the treasury of the district. Section 2768.

11. Registration. The registry of orders is an important matter. Every order drawn should be promptly reported to the district treasurer, as he has no other means of determining the amount of outstanding orders, and otherwise cannot comply with the law requiring him to make partial payments. Section 2768 and form 18.

SEC. 2763. Repeal. That section twenty-seven hundred sixty-three (2763) of the code be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof. [31 G. A., ch. 138, § 1; 18 G. A., ch. 59; C. '73, §§ 1742, 1822; R., § 2043; C. '51, § 1129.]

SEC. 2763-a. Notice of special meetings in corporations of five thousand or more. The secretary of the board of directors of any school corporation which is divided into precincts, shall give notice of all special meetings of the voters, as provided by section twenty-seven hundred fifty-five (2755) of the supplement to the code. Each notice shall state the date, place and hours during which the meeting will be in session, and the object of the meeting. [31 G. A., ch. 138, § 2.]

NOTES: 1. Computing time. The statutory mode of computing time excludes the day on which the notice is posted, and includes the day of meeting. 61 Iowa, 303. Code, section 48, subdivision 23. Forms 8 and 11.

2. Notice necessary. Failure to comply with the law with respect to the notice invalidates the proceedings of the meeting, even if regular in other respects. Sections 2746, 2749, 2750, 2755. 118 Iowa, 207.

3. Kind of notice. It follows that notice through the newspapers or any other notice than as named in the law, will not take the place of the kind of notice required by the law, given in the manner indicated.

4. Proving. The posting up or service of any notice or other paper required by law may be proved by the affidavit of any competent witness attached to a copy of said notice or paper and made within six months of the time of such posting up. Code, section 4681.

SEC. 2763-b. Notice of special meetings in independent corporations of less than five thousand. The secretary of the board of directors for any school corporation, located wholly within or partly within the corporate limits of cities of the first class, cities of the second class, or incorporated towns, which may not have adopted the provisions of section twenty-seven hundred fifty-five (2755) of the supplement to the code and divided into precincts, shall give notice of special meeting of the voters in the same manner as for the annual meeting, by posting at least five notices in five public places within said corporation, for not less than ten days next preceding the day of special meeting. Each notice shall state the date, place and hours during which the meeting will be in session, and the object of the meeting. [31 G. A., ch. 138, § 3.]

NOTE: See notes to section 2763-a.

SEC. 2763-c. Notice of special meetings in school townships. The secretary of the board of directors for any school township or for any school corporation not included in the preceding sections, shall give ten days' printed or written notice of special meeting to the voters, posted in at least five public places within the corporation. They shall be posted at the door of each schoolhouse, and also at or near the last place of meeting, and each notice shall state the date, place and hours of meeting. [31 G. A., ch. 138, § 4.]

NOTE: See notes to section 2763-a.

SEC. 2764. Register of persons of school age. He shall, between the first day of June and the first day of July of each year, enter in a book made for that purpose, the name, sex and age of every person between five and twenty-one residing in the corporation, together with the name of the parent or guardian. [32 G. A., § 5; C. '97, § 2764.]

NOTES: 1. Time. The law intends that no part of the enumeration shall be taken before the first day of June. What is desired is that the number of persons of the ages of five to twenty-one having an actual residence in a corporation on the first day of June, shall be enumerated in that corporation. No enumeration shall be made after the first day of July.

2. Whom to include in the enumeration. Every person between five and twenty-one should be enumerated where he resides. A child in one of the charitable or reformatory institutions temporarily, and whose parents or guardian reside in another part of the state, or in another school district, is a resident of the district in which his parents reside, and should be enumerated there. If in the institution to remain permanently, having no parents or guardian, his residence is in the district in which the institution is located, and he should be enumerated therein.

3. What desired. The actual truth as to the number of school age is what is sought. Anything else disturbs the equality which by right exists, and prevents all from receiving exact justice in the apportionments.

4. How obtained. The number of persons of school age can be obtained only by a careful and conscientious census. It includes all persons between five and twenty-one years having a residence within the district, even if married. Form 19.

5. Rights of each district. Each district deserves credit for every one of proper age, but is entitled to no more. It is obvious that a guess or estimate regarding even a single individual is to be avoided. Section 2808.

6. By whom taken. In independent districts it is the duty of the secretary to take the annual school enumeration required by the first clause of this section, unless the board assigns the duty to another person. In any case proper extra compensation should be given for the work required, if the district is a large one. Section 2764.

7. Joint districts. In districts formed of parts of two or more counties, the secretary should make the annual report to the county superintendent having jurisdiction over their teachers, and with whom they register their certificates. This report should not include those children who reside in portions of the district lying in other counties. The remaining number of children should be reported by the secretary to the superintendents of the other counties having territory in such district.

8. Guardian. Upon the death of both parents the grandfather or grandmother, if living, becomes the natural guardian of an orphan infant. 127 Iowa, 625.

9. School census—seven to fourteen. At the time of making the enumeration of those of the ages of five to twenty-one, the secretary shall make a list of those of the ages of seven to fourteen and of those of seven to fourteen not attending school, as provided in section 2823-a. Section 2823-i.

10. Seven to fourteen, inclusive—meaning. See section 2823-a.

SEC. 2765. Reports. He shall notify the county superintendent when each school is to begin and its length of term, and, within five days after the regular July meeting in each year, file with the county superintendent a report which shall give the number of persons in the corporation, male or female, of school age, the number of schools and branches taught, the number of scholars enrolled and average attendance in each school, the number of teachers employed and the average compensation paid per month, distinguishing the sexes, the length of school in days, and the average cost of tuition per month for each scholar, the text-books used, number of volumes in library, the value of apparatus belonging to the corporation, the number of schoolhouses and their estimated value, the name, age and postoffice address of each deaf and dumb or blind person in the corporation between the ages of five and twenty-one years, and this shall include those who are so blind or deaf as to be unable to obtain an education in the common schools, a like report as to all feeble-minded children of and between such ages, and the number of trees set out and in a thrifty condition on each schoolhouse ground. [31 G. A., ch. 136, §6; 19 G. A., ch. 23, § 3; 16 G. A., ch. 112, § 1; C. '73, §§ 1744-5; R., § 2046; C. '51, §§ 1127-8.]

NOTES: 1. Data. The name of the teacher should be given, and any other information which will aid the county superintendent in planning his work of visitation, provided for in section 2734-b.

2. Annual reports. The blanks for the annual report of the secretary are furnished by the state through county superintendents. The secretary should copy the report required by this section, in the district records. If the original report is filed in his office, it is liable to be destroyed or mislaid, which may prove detrimental to the interests of the district.

3. Daily register. Every teacher should take great pains to keep very carefully the register required by section 2789, in order that the report required by this section may be made out correctly. By the teacher's doing so the secretary will be able to make his annual report with greater ease, and with added accuracy.

SEC. 2766. Officers reported. He shall report to the county superintendent, auditor and treasurer the name and postoffice address of the president, treasurer and secretary of the board as soon as practicable after the qualification of each. [C. '73, § 1736.]

NOTE: 1. It is very important that the secretary should file the certificate with the county officers named, immediately after the regular meetings of the board in March and July, otherwise funds belonging to the district may be paid to persons not authorized to receive them. Whenever a change is made the county officers should be notified. Form 20.

SEC. 2767. Certifying tax. Within five days after the board has fixed the amount required for the contingent and teachers' fund, he shall certify to the board of supervisors the amount so fixed, and at the same time shall certify the amount of schoolhouse tax voted at any regular or special meeting. In case a schoolhouse tax is voted by a special meeting after the above certificate has been made and prior to the first day of September following, he shall forthwith certify the same to the board of supervisors. He shall also certify to such board any provision made by the board of directors for the payment of principal or interest of bonds lawfully issued. [C. '73, §§ 1777, 1823; R., §§ 2037, 2044.]

NOTE: 1. The secretary has no discretion but must certify the tax to the board of supervisors. He should also certify to the board of supervisors any provision made by the board of directors for the payment of principal or interest of bonds lawfully issued.

SEC. 2768. Duties of treasurer—payment of warrants. The treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the corporation, pay the same out only upon the order of the president countersigned by the secretary, keeping an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures in a book provided for that purpose. He shall register all orders drawn and reported to him by the secretary, showing the number, date, to whom drawn, the fund upon which drawn, the purpose and amount. The money collected by tax for the erection of schoolhouses and the payment of debts contracted therefor shall be called the schoolhouse fund; that collected for the payment of school building bonds shall be called the school building bond fund; that for rent, fuel, repairs, and other contingent expenses necessary for keeping the school in operation, the contingent fund; and that received for the payment of teachers, the teachers' fund; and he shall keep a separate account with each fund, paying no order that fails to state the fund upon which it is drawn and the specific use to which it is to be applied. Whenever an order cannot be paid in full out of the fund upon which it is drawn, partial payment may be made. All school orders shall draw lawful interest after being presented to the treasurer and by him endorsed as not paid for want of funds. [31 G. A., ch. 139; C. '73, §§ 1747-50; R., §§ 2048-50C. '51, §§ 1138-40.]

NOTES: 1. Custodian. The language of this section is very explicit. It makes the treasurer the custodian of all moneys belonging to the district, which effectually precludes the idea of dividing the money belonging to any particular fund among the subdistricts. Decisions, 13.

2. Use of funds. The treasurer may pay out the funds only on the order of the president, countersigned by the secretary, and the president may not sign an order unless he is authorized to do so by the board. Sections 2768 and 2780.

3. Claims must be audited. No order shall be drawn on the district treasury, until the claim for which it is drawn has been audited and allowed. Section 2780.

4. Orders—order of payment. In making payment, when there is not sufficient money on hand to pay all outstanding orders, one order may not be given preference over another. 40 Iowa, 620.

5. Loaning. Neither the electors nor the board may authorize the treasurer to loan money belonging to the district. Code, section 4840, as note 11 to section 2769.

6. Responsibility of treasurer. The treasurer is responsible for all moneys coming into his hands by virtue of his office, even if stolen or destroyed by fire. The board has no authority to release him, unless he accounts in full for all moneys received by virtue of his office. 37 Iowa, 550; 39 Iowa, 9; 40 Iowa, 130, and 80 Iowa, 497.

7. Depositing. It is generally advisable for the treasurer to deposit the money in some safe and secure bank; but the treasurer and his bondsmen are as fully responsible as they would be if the money is held by the treasurer in person. A general deposit is not conversion. 120 Iowa, 695.

8. May not reimburse. The spirit of our law forbids the electors to vote schoolhouse funds to reimburse a treasurer or his bondsmen for a loss of the money belonging to the district. There is no way under the law by which the treasurer and his bondsmen may be released from absolute liability. Note 6.

9. No highway fund. There is no authority in law for a county treasurer and a district treasurer to keep a part of the schoolhouse fund separate as a so-called highway fund or library fund. It is obvious that all moneys collected as voted by the electors must belong to the schoolhouse fund or the school building bond fund. Section 2768.

10. Cost of removal. When possible, it is desirable that the cost of removing and repairing schoolhouses shall be paid from the schoolhouse fund. If there is no schoolhouse fund on hand unappropriated, the expense of removal, if not too considerable, may be paid from the contingent fund.

11. Flag staff. Contingent fund may be used to erect a flag staff upon the schoolhouse or a flag pole upon the school grounds for the purpose of displaying a school flag.

12. Minor improvements. Minor improvements, such as the erection of ordinary outhouses, storm caves, fences, and the like, may be paid for from either the contingent or the schoolhouse fund.

13. Ordinary repairs—rebuilding. Ordinary repairs should be charged to the contingent fund; but when such repairs assume the magnitude of a rebuilding, or of an extensive addition, they should be charged to the schoolhouse fund.

14. Use of unappropriated schoolhouse fund. Any unappropriated schoolhouse fund in the district treasury may be used for the erection or repair of schoolhouses, at the discretion of the board, without the action of the electors.

15. Seating. The cost of seating new schoolhouses should be paid from the schoolhouse fund. The law does not authorize the use of the contingent fund for the erection or completion of schoolhouses, but when a house needs reseating or other repairs, the cost may be defrayed either from the contingent fund, or from any unappropriated schoolhouse fund in the treasury. 25 Iowa, 436.

16. School furniture. The term school furniture, as generally used in our state, means school desks, tables, chairs, and such similar articles as are closely related to making the schoolhouse more suitable for its use as a schoolhouse; school apparatus has been understood to include the articles mentioned in section 2783, or such similar articles as would clearly come under the same designation for use in the schools for the purpose of instruction.

17. Transfer of funds. Boards have no authority to transfer money from one fund to another, even temporarily, unless they are authorized by the electors under section 2749, subsection 5, to transfer any surplus in the schoolhouse fund to another fund. Notes 3 and 4 to section 2810.

18. Teachers' fund not divided. The teachers' fund should not be divided among the subdistricts, equally, according to the number of children, or upon any other basis. This fund can be paid out only to teachers for services, upon orders authorized by the board.

19. Orders must specify fund. The treasurer shall pay no order which does not specify the fund on which it is drawn, and the specific use to which the money is applied.

20. Tuition belongs in teachers' fund. Tuition fees collected from non-residents belong to the teacher's fund.

21. Teachers' fund—use of. No part of the teachers' fund may be used for any other purpose than to pay teachers or to pay tuition of pupils attending school in another district under sections 2774 and 2803; except the amount withheld from the apportionment for the purchase of library books. Section 2823-n.

22. Register of orders. The law requires both the secretary and the treasurer to keep a register of all orders drawn on the district treasury, containing a record of each item enumerated. Form 24. Sections 2762, 2768.

23. School orders—terms of. The board has no authority to make a contract by which school orders shall draw interest before their presentation nor a higher rate than six per cent. 90 Iowa, 53.

24. Caves. The board of directors may build a cave near the schoolhouse, using any unappropriated schoolhouse or contingent fund for that purpose.

25. Secretary furnish list of orders. It is essential that the treasurer should know the exact amount of outstanding orders, and for this reason the secretary is required to report to him all orders drawn on the district treasury. Section 2762.

26. Register—importance. The register provided for in this section is indispensable to the treasurer, under the law requiring him to make partial payments on orders when he has not funds sufficient to pay them in full. 40 Iowa, 620.

27. When treasurer may refuse to pay. The treasurer may rightly object to paying an order that is defective in any of the particulars named. It is especially essential that the purposes for which the order was given shall be written in the order. The stub in the order book should also be properly filled out and carefully preserved.

28. Partial payment. The provision as to partial payment applies to all orders on that fund. The holder of an order drawn to pay a judgment cannot insist on its being satisfied in full to the exclusion of other orders. 40 Iowa, 620.

29. Indorsement for want of funds. By keeping a correct account of the orders, as by form 18, the treasurer will know the amount outstanding, and can readily determine what per cent on each he can pay with the funds on hand. When requested by the holder, he should indorse an order so that the amount remaining unpaid may draw legal interest. Section 2768.

30. Payments should be indorsed. Whenever partial payment is made, the treasurer should indorse the payment on the order and take a receipt for the amount paid. When paid in full, the order should, in all cases, be indorsed by the person presenting it, and left with the treasurer. It is then a voucher for the amount paid. Section 2768.

31. To compel payment. The remedy of any one holding an order which the treasurer refuses to pay or indorse is application to a court for a writ to compel such officer to make payment. At the final hearing before the court it will be definitely determined whether the order is of such character that it should be either paid by the treasurer or indorsed by him as not paid for want of funds. Section 2768.

32. Limit of taxation. See sections 2749, 2753, 2806, 2813, 2825.

SEC. 2769. Financial statement. He shall render a statement of the finances of the corporation whenever required by the board, and his books shall always be open for inspection. He shall make an annual report to the board at its regular July meeting, which shall show the amount of the teachers' fund, the contingent fund, and the school-house fund held over, received, paid out, and on hand, the several funds to be separately stated, and he shall immediately file a copy of this report with the county superintendent. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 7; 16 G. A., ch. 112, § 2; C. '73, § 1751; R., § 2051; C. '51, § 1141.]

NOTES: 1. Settlement. The interest and protection of the taxpayers require that a full and complete settlement should be made at least once each year, and more frequently if deemed necessary, and that the settlement at the July meeting requires that the funds and property shall be produced and fully accounted for, and that these facts should be indorsed upon the new bond of the treasurer, if he is re-elected. Code, section 1193, quoted in note 9 below. 69 Iowa, 269; 91 Iowa, 198, and 110 Iowa, 58.

2. Treasurer—may demand. The outgoing treasurer and his bondsmen have a right to expect and to require that the board shall make a complete settlement, and the treasurer may demand and receive written evidence that such settlement is complete. 110 Iowa, 58.

3. Responsibility. The responsibility of the treasurer and his bondsmen to the district is absolute, and it rests with the treasurer to deposit the money in a bank or not, as may seem best to him.

4. School funds—deposit in bank. A school township treasurer may rightfully make a general deposit of the funds of his district, and the title to the funds will not thereby pass to the bank, nor does it amount to conversion; and any guaranty which the bank may give to secure him against loss in case of its failure is not invalid, either on the ground that the deposit was wrongful or as against public policy. 120 Iowa, 695.

5. Officers may not be released. It is not within the power of even the electors to release the board or its officers from their obligation to protect the funds of the district.

6. Term sureties liable. The sureties on an official bond may be held for three years from the time that it is presumed an irregularity occurred. Code, section 3447. 91 Iowa, 198.

7. Vouchers preserved. The vouchers of the treasurer should not be destroyed until after three years from the expiration of a term of office. The stub books of the secretary should also be retained, and not destroyed until after several years.

8. Arbitration. In making settlement, the board may submit a difference with the treasurer, to arbitration. 70 Iowa, 65.

9. Re-elected—requalify. When the incumbent of the office of secretary or treasurer is re-elected, he shall qualify anew, as directed by section 2760 of the code, and when the re-elected officer has had public funds or property in his control, under color of his office, his bond shall not be approved until he has produced and fully accounted for such funds and property to the proper person to whom he should account therefor; and the officer or board approving the bond shall indorse upon the bond, before its approval, the fact that the said officer has fully accounted for and produced all funds and property before that time under his control as such officer. Code, section 1193. 110 Iowa, 58.

10. Hold over—requalify. When it is ascertained that the incumbent is entitled to hold over by reason of the non-election of a successor, or for the neglect or refusal of the successor to qualify, he shall qualify anew, within ten days. Code, section 1275.

11. Embezzlement. If any state, county, township, school or municipal officer, or officer of any state institution, or other public officer within the state, charged with the collection, safe keeping, transfer or disbursement of public money or property, fails or refuses to keep the same in any place of custody or deposit that may be provided by law for keeping such money or property until the same is withdrawn therefrom as authorized by law, or keeps or deposits such money or property in any other place than in such place of custody or deposit, or unlawfully converts to his own use in any way whatever, or uses by way of investment in any kind of property, or loans without the authority of law, any portion of the public money intrusted to him for collection, safe keeping, transfer or disbursement, or converts to his own use any money or property that may come into his hands by virtue of his office, he shall be guilty of embezzlement to the amount of so much of said money or the value of so much of said property as is thus taken, converted, invested, used, loaned or unaccounted for, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, and fined in a sum equal to the amount of money embezzled or the value of such property converted, and shall be forever after disqualified from holding any office under the laws of the state. Any such officer who shall receive any money belonging to the state, county, township, school or municipality, or state institution of which he is an officer, shall be deemed to have received the same by virtue of his office, and in case he fails or neglects to account therefor upon demand of the person entitled thereto, he shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement; and shall be punished as above provided. Code, section 4840.

12. Blanks. The blanks for the annual report of the treasurer are furnished by the state, through the county superintendents.

13. Treasurer's report to county superintendent. Treasurers should not fail to mail a copy of their annual report at once to the county superintendent, as only by timely attention on the part of the treasurers, can the county superintendent compile and forward his annual report to the superintendent of public instruction, on the last Tuesday in August.

SEC. 2770. Surrendering office to successor. Each school officer, upon the termination of his term of office, shall immediately surrender to his successor all books, papers and moneys pertaining or belonging to the office, taking a receipt therefor. [C. '73, § 1791; R., § 2080.]

NOTE: 1. What included. The language of this section includes copies of the school laws, reports, and all other publications which may be received by virtue of being a school officer.

SEC. 2771. Quorum of board—filling vacancies. A majority of the board of directors of any school corporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time. Vacancies occurring among the officers or members shall be filled by the board by ballot, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected, and shall qualify as if originally elected or appointed. When the board is reduced below a quorum, by resignation or otherwise, the secretary of the board, or if there be no secretary, the county superintendent shall call a special election to fill the vacancies, giving notice in the same manner as for the annual meeting on the second Monday in March. [32 G. A., ch. 150; 28 G. A., ch. 106; 24 G. A., ch. 19; C. '73, §§ 1730, 1738; R., §§ 2037-38.]

NOTES: 1. Necessary to carry. In the absence of a direct provision of law, or of a by-law requiring a majority vote of all the board, a majority of the votes of a quorum will carry a measure.

2. Removal. Boards have no authority to remove any member or officer of the board. Such removal may be made only by the courts. Code, section 1251.

3. Neglect—misdemeanor. Wilful neglect to perform duty is a misdemeanor. Code, sections 4904, 4906.

4. Neglect—punishment. If a director habitually or wilfully neglects the duties of his office he may be compelled by mandamus to perform them. Section 2822. 50 Iowa, 648.

5. Vacancy—how created. A vacancy can be created only by death, removal, resignation, or failure to elect at the proper election, there being no incumbent to continue in office. Code, section 1266. A failure to elect or qualify does not create a vacancy, for the incumbent, whether elected or appointed, continues in office "until his successor is elected and qualified." Code, section 1265. If the incumbent does not qualify, a vacancy exists.

6. Resignation. School directors may resign at any time. A verbal or written resignation may be tendered to the board when in session, or a written resignation may be handed to some member to be presented at a subsequent meeting, for acceptance by the board.

7. Change in subdistrict. If a subdistrict is divided, so as to form a new one, the resident director will continue to act as though no change had been made, until the organization of the new board in July following the next regular annual election. However, on the first Monday in March, directors shall be chosen according to the new subdistrict boundaries. Section 2802.

8. Legality of acts of de facto officers. If a person without the requisite qualifications, is elected a member of the board and acts with the board, being a member de facto, his acts will be valid, but when his disqualification becomes known, the board shall declare the place vacant and appoint his successor. 23 Iowa, 96. 110 Iowa, 382.

9. Ratification of acts of de facto officers. A board may ratify or adopt such acts of officers de facto as the law would permit officers de jure to perform.

10. Qualification of officers. See section 2758.

11. Elections—regular. Sections 2746, 2751, 2754, 2756.

12. Vacancy—term. See notes, sections 2745 and 2758.

SEC. 2772. Temporary officers—course of study—regulations. The board shall appoint a temporary president and secretary, or either of them, in the absence of the regular officers, and shall prescribe a course of study for the schools of the corporation, make rules and regulations for its own government and that of the directors, officers, teachers and pupils, and the care of the schoolhouse, grounds and property of the school corporation, and aid in the enforcement of the same, and require the performance of duty by said persons not in conflict with law and said rules and regulations. [C. '73, §§ 1730, 1737; R., § 2037.]

NOTES: 1. Course of study. The board of every district should adopt a carefully prepared course of study, to which the electors may add other branches. This department recommends and urges that the state course of study which has been published and used for about fifteen years be adopted in all the ungraded schools.

2. Branches required. The law does not prescribe clearly the several branches that shall be taught in the public schools, further than to require most teachers to be qualified to teach certain branches enumerated (section 2734-d), and to require pupils of the ages of seven to fourteen to attend some school in which the common branches are taught. Sections 2823-a to 2823-1.

3. Branches implied. It is plainly implied that the common branches, including music, are to be included in every course of study. Section 2823-a.

4. Special branches. The board of every district has the right to include drawing, or any other branch, in the course of study.

5. Added branches. It is the province of the electors to decide what branches beside those named by the board shall be included in the course of study and taught in the schools. Section 2749.

6. Different course for different schools. If it is desired that higher arithmetic, or any other advanced study, shall be taught in one or more schools in the district, the board should include such branch in the course of study for such school or schools.

7. Electors may not restrict. The electors may not limit nor restrict the board as to a course of study. The most that the electors may do is to compel the board to provide for giving instruction in the branches ordered by the electors to be taught during the year. 44 Iowa, 564.

8. Rhetorical and graduating exercises. The board of directors may adopt rhetorical exercises as a part of the course of study, and teachers and scholars will be governed thereby. Graduating exercises are a part of the course of study and the board may direct what exercises shall be held in connection with the closing days of school.

9. Classification. In mixed schools a close classification is very desirable. Time is saved, larger classes are secured, and the efficiency and discipline of the school are promoted by such plan.

10. Half-day attendance. A condition may exist when for a short time a board may be compelled to provide by regulation that certain pupils shall attend only one-half of the day, and others of the same grade the other half. But such arrangement should not be a permanent one.

11. Equal school facilities. A board is discharging the duty incumbent upon it to provide equal school facilities for all when it does the very best possible to overcome difficulties, and leaves nothing undone which it might properly be expected to do.

12. Board as managers. Legally speaking, the management of the schools in every essential respect is entirely within the control of the board. Teachers and scholars are governed by the reasonable rules and regulations adopted by the board. In the absence of a rule upon any special subject the action of a teacher is supposed to be in effect the act of the board until such action is set aside or disclaimed by an order of the board directing otherwise. Decisions, 17, 38. Sections 2745, 2782.

13. Control of property. Each board has exclusive control of the schoolhouses in its district, unless the school township meeting has otherwise ordered. Sections 2745, 2782, 2749.

14. Trespassing. In an extreme case it may be necessary to bring an action in the name of the state before a peace officer against any person or persons wilfully or unlawfully persisting in trespassing upon the schoolhouse grounds or wilfully interfering with or disturbing the quiet and uninterrupted progress of a public school. See note 22.

15. Entering unoccupied schoolhouses. If any tramp or vagrant, without permission, enter any schoolhouse or other public building in the nighttime, when the same is not occupied by another or others having proper authority to be there, or, having entered the same in the daytime, remain in the same at night when not occupied as aforesaid, or at any time commit any nuisance, use, misuse, destroy or partially destroy any private or public property therein, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than three years, or be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars and imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year. Code, section 4793.

16. Security for use. The board should require from parties desiring to use the schoolhouse, security for its proper use and protection from other injury than natural wear.

17. Use—public worship. It is proper to permit the use of schoolhouses for the purpose of public worship on Sunday, or for religious services, public lectures on moral or scientific subjects, or meetings on questions of public interest, on the evenings of the week, or at any time when such use will not interfere with the regular progress of the school. Especially is this so where abundant provision is made for securing any damages which the taxpayer may suffer by reason of the use for the purposes named. The use of a schoolhouse for such purposes, when so authorized, is not prohibited by section 3, article 1, of the constitution. 35 Iowa, 194; 50 Iowa, 11.

18. Charge for admission. It is not in accordance with the meaning of the law and the decisions of the courts to allow a schoolhouse to be used for a purpose requiring an admission fee. This does not prevent a contribution being taken, but we think free admission should not be denied.

19. None excluded. It is believed that no discrimination should be made as to who may attend meetings held in a schoolhouse. To make membership in a particular society a test for attendance upon the meeting would seem to be in conflict with the intention of the law.

20. Voting place. In precincts outside of cities and towns the election shall be, if practicable, held in the public school building, for the use of which there shall be no charge, but all damage to the building or furniture shall be paid by the county. Code, section 1113.

21. Defacing. If any person wilfully write, make marks or draw characters on the walls or any other part of any church, college, academy, schoolhouse, courthouse or other public building, or on any furniture, apparatus or fixtures therein; or wilfully injure or deface the same, or any wall or fence inclosing the same, he shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days. Code, section 4802.

22. Disturbing school. If any person wilfully disturb any assembly of persons met for religious worship by profane discourse or rude and indecent behavior, or by making a noise, either within the place of worship or so near as to disturb the order and solemnity of the assembly, or if any person wilfully disturb or interrupt any school, school meeting, teachers' institute, lyceum, literary society or other lawful assembly of persons, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than thirty days, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. Section 4959.

23. Rules adopted by boards—interference. A rule adopted by a school board for the government of the school will not be interfered with by the courts unless it is so unreasonable as to amount to an abuse of power. 129 Iowa, 441.

24. Violation of rules. The determination by a school board that a rule which it had power to make for the government of the school had been violated will not be reviewed by the courts. 129 Iowa, 441.

25. Special classes. The parent cannot expect that a class shall be formed whenever asked for at any time in the school year, for the special accommodation of one or more to the disadvantage of the many and to the detriment of the school. Section 2772.

26. Classification necessary. It is quite necessary to carry out carefully a close plan of classification and instruction, and to provide what time in the year certain classes shall begin the study of the branches to be taught during that portion of the year. To this end this department recommends and urges the adoption of the state course of study in all ungraded schools.

27. Beginners. Authority to prescribe the course of study confers the power to determine when classes in any subject may be organized. Under this authority, school boards may determine when beginning classes in primary work shall be organized.

28. Admission of beginners. All persons of the ages of five to twenty-one who are actual residents of a school corporation may attend some school in said corporation, provided they are able to be classified under the course of study and rules prescribed by the board. Those who have never attended school, or who have not received sufficient instruction to enable them to take the work of some class already organized, may demand admission only when a beginning class is organized.

29. Branches completed before promotion. It is within the power of a board to require the study of the common branches, or of other elementary studies that are in the course of study adopted by the board, before advancing the scholar to other more difficult subjects.

30. Attendance denied. If a child becomes the source of undue annoyance to others, although through no fault of his own, he may, if absolutely necessary for the good of the school, be forbidden attendance. 31 Iowa, 562, top of page 569. Section 2782.

31. Purpose of the law. On the other hand the spirit of our laws does not support an interference with personal or individual rights except when such control or restriction may become absolutely necessary in order to protect others in the enjoyment of the rights guaranteed to them by the law. The true idea is to bring all of school age within the salutary influence of the school and to keep them there if possible.

32. Control of pupil. Undoubtedly the parent and teacher have joint control over the scholar on his way to and from school. The pupil becomes subject to the control of the board as soon as he leaves home for school and continues within such control until he again reaches the home of the parent. It is very desirable that co-operation and a mutual desire to promote the best good of the scholar should be sought by the parents and the school authorities. 129 Iowa, 441.

33. Teacher to determine subjects. It is the duty of the teacher, under the direction of the board, to determine what branches can best be pursued by each scholar. Section 2772.

34. Branches understood in course. Without special mention in the teacher's contract, it is understood that only the usual common branches and those included in the course of study for the school are expected to be taught. Section 2778.

35. Subjects must be included. If it is desired that higher arithmetic or any other advanced study, shall be taught in one or more schools in the district, the board should include such branch in the course of study for such school or schools, and require the teacher to obtain a valid certificate in such branch before beginning school. Sections 2749, 2772.

36. Subjects not in course. It is not within the province of individual persons to demand instruction outside the branches in the course of study.

37. Physiology mandatory. Every scholar must study physiology and hygiene, including the effects of stimulants and narcotics, until the outline upon that branch, as prepared by the board, has been completed. Section 2775.

38. Follow course. It becomes the duty of every teacher to follow the plan of work indicated in the course of study. When difficulties are met, if no other person has general supervision, the matter may be brought to the attention of the board. Section 2772.

39. Board has control of classification. As regards classification, the board has absolute control. But as the teacher is by common consent presumed to know what will be best for all, custom has left to him the making of the program and the placing of scholars in the proper classes. Section 2772.

40. When not entitled to promotion. If a scholar is found to be so deficient in the common branches that he is unable to take the work in a class more advanced, without detriment to the class and to himself, it is plain that he may be classified in each branch where he is likely to receive the greatest good. The penalty for not pursuing a suitable course of study will be found in the fact that such scholars may be denied promotion, and may not be allowed to graduate.

41. Aids and apparatus. In connection with the course of study, the board should designate the teaching helps and apparatus to be used, and should also arrange to furnish such appliances as soon as they are needed.

42. Compulsory attendance. Sections 2823-a to 2823-i.

43. Power to make a rule—how determined. While the review of the action of a school board with reference to a matter within its jurisdiction is by appeal to the county superintendent, yet the question as to whether the board had power to make the rule can be reviewed by the court in a mandamus proceeding. 129 Iowa, 441.

44. Expulsion of scholar—dismissal of teacher—enforcement of regulations. Section 2782.

SEC. 2773. Schoolhouse site—division of district—length of school. It may fix the site for each schoolhouse, taking into consideration the geographical position, number and convenience of the scholars, provide for the fencing of schoolhouse sites, determine the number of schools to be taught, divide the corporation into such wards or other divisions for school purposes as may be proper, determine the particular school which each child shall attend, and designate the period each school shall be held beyond the time required by law. Every school shall be free of tuition to all actual residents between the ages of five and twenty-one years, and each school regularly established shall continue for at least twenty-four weeks of five school days each, in each school year commencing the first of July, unless the county superintendent shall authorize the board to shorten this period in any one or more schools, when in his judgment there are sufficient reasons for so doing. No school shall be in session during the time of holding a teachers' institute except by written permission of the county superintendent. [31 G. A., Ch. 136 § 8; 19 G. A., ch. 172, § 21; 17 G. A., ch. 54; 15 G. A. ch. 57; C. '73, §§ 1724, 1727, 1769; R., §§ 2023, 2037.]

NOTES: 1. Power to locate school site. The power to locate sites for schoolhouses is vested, originally, exclusively in the board. This authority should be exercised with great care and without prejudice. The electors may not definitely limit a board by vote or instructions. If, however, taxes or bonds have been voted to build upon a particular site, the board may not disregard such vote. 100 Iowa, 317. Decisions, 20, 29, 39.

2. Change of site. The directors of a school township have the power under code, section 2773, to change the site of a schoolhouse without authority by vote of the electors of the district. 123 Iowa, 199.

3. Expediency of removal. The expediency of removal cannot be considered upon an application for injunction; nor will the action of the board be considered on a simple allegation that it was surreptitiously taken in the absence of a statement of facts upon which the complaint was based. 123 Iowa, 199. See also Kinney v. Howard, 110 N. W., 282.

4. Removal of schoolhouse. The removal of a schoolhouse to another site within the same subdistrict is entirely within the control of the board, and a vote of either the electors of the subdistrict or of the school township will be only suggestive. 81 Iowa, 335.

5. Wishes of electors considered. The wishes of the people, for whom the house is designed, should be consulted as far as practicable, taking into account prospective as well as present needs of all the people of the district. Decisions, 20, 24 and 70.

6. Reasonable distance. There is nothing in the law fixing a standard as to what is to be considered a reasonable distance for children to travel to school. Attendance in an adjoining district under such circumstances as to secure the payment of tuition to the adjoining district is governed by the provisions of section 2803. Decisions, 96.

7. Removal of schoolhouse from subdistrict. The removal of a schoolhouse from the subdistrict must be first ordered by the electors, at the township meeting. Decisions, 15.

8. Site on highway. There are many obvious reasons why a schoolhouse site should not be located away from the highway. It is highly desirable that the necessary highways to a new site should be open before a schoolhouse is placed upon such site.

9. Suggestive votes not mandatory. A vote of the electors upon matters which by the law are to be determined by the board, is not binding upon the board, but is only suggestive to it. In such matters the board will still be left free to exercise the large discretion vested in it by the law. 81 Iowa, 335.

10. Removal in case of change in district. As a change of boundaries between subdistricts does not take effect until the organization of the new board elected in March following the change, the board may not move the schoolhouse to accommodate the proposed new conditions until after that time.

11. Should own sites. If possible, the district should own the sites. A perfect title should be secured, and the warranty deed recorded, before commencing to build. The property should be conveyed to the district in its corporate name. The deed should be recorded and afterwards filed with the president. Form 26.

12. Abstract. In purchasing the grounds for schoolhouse purposes the president should require an abstract of title and satisfy himself that the property is free from incumbrance.

13. Public square as site. A public square, of a town located wholly within an independent district, may be transferred to such district for school purposes. Code, sections 931-932.

14. Size of rural site. A rural site should contain not less than one acre of ground, ordinarily, and this exclusive of highway. In consolidated corporations (section 2794-a) and school townships owning but two sites, not to exceed four acres may be acquired. Section 2814.

15. When section 2814 does not apply. The provisions of section 2814 do not apply when the site is purchased.

16. Number necessary. The law does not provide the number to be accommodated by a new house in order that one may be built. Decisions, 55.

17. More than one schoolhouse. There is nothing in law to prevent the erection of more than one schoolhouse in a subdistrict. 69 Iowa, 533. Decisions, 55.

18. Fencing school site—mandatory. Sections 2745-a and 2745-b.

19. Lawful fence. Section 2367 of the code defines a lawful fence. The same section provides that a partition fence may be made tight by the party desiring it.

20. Fence viewers. Any question upon which there is a difference of opinion between parties should be submitted to the township trustees, who act as fence viewers, and determine matters in controversy. Section 2367.

21. No holidays. There are no holidays during which teachers are exempted by the law from teaching, unless excused by the board. A legal contract requires twenty days of actual service for a month.

22. Legal holidays. In this state, by common consent and universal custom, New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Christmas and any day recommended by the governor or the president as a day of thanksgiving, are observed as holidays.

23. Board may allow holidays. It is the commendable custom with very many boards to allow teachers and scholars the so-called holidays, and to pay the teachers as if those days had been taught.

24. Visiting other schools. There is no provision of law giving teachers time to visit other schools. Boards often grant teachers this privilege, under proper restrictions.

25. Teaching on Saturday. By consent of the board, an occasional Saturday may be taught. But as five days are a school week, the practice is not to be commended.

26. Effect of custom. If no action has been taken by the board and the contract contains no provision relating to the matter, the custom prevailing in that school will probably govern as to the matter of beginning and closing school sessions, intermissions, and other like particulars. It is well for the board and the teacher to have an agreement in matters of this kind.

27. School day—length. While the written law does not specify the length of a school day, almost universal custom has made it six hours. The board has the power to shorten or lengthen this time somewhat if thought best. If no action has been taken by the board, and a contract contains no provision relating to the matter, the custom prevailing in the district will probably govern.

28. Night school—extra compensation. It is within the power of the board to maintain a night school. No person may receive pay from the funds of the district for giving instruction outside of the school hours fixed by the board nor for teaching without a certificate. Section 2788.

29. Number months of school. As regards the length of time during which schools are to be taught, twenty-four weeks is the minimum. Above this it is entirely within the discretion of the board to determine the number of months of school, the time when schools begin, the length of term, and the time and length of vacations. The maximum is unlimited, except as by section 2806, limiting the amount of taxes for contingent and teachers' fund.

30. Amount of school. The regular schools of the district should be kept in session an equal number of months, unless the time is shortened or the school closed with the consent of the county superintendent. 47 Iowa, 11.

31. Attendance—how determined. Attendance is not necessarily governed by subdistrict lines. Usually and naturally in school townships the subdistrict will form a suitable division for attendance. The board may determine what school in the township children shall attend, without regard to the boundaries of subdistricts.

32. Subdistrict—voting. Subdistrict lines determine who may vote for director of the subdistrict, and also fix the limits of taxation, if the voters of a subdistrict vote a schoolhouse tax upon the subdistrict.

33. Paupers—attendance tuition. Poor children, when cared for at the poor-house, shall attend the district school for the district in which such house is situated, and a ratable proportion of the cost of the school, based upon the attendance of such poor children to the total number of days' attendance thereat, shall be paid by the county into the treasury of such school district, and charged as part of the expense of supporting the poor-house. Code, section 2249.

34. Board must provide school. If a board does not maintain a school and does not secure the release from the county superintendent, then any one legally interested may apply to a court for a writ to compel the board to perform its duty in the matter and to supply school privileges.

35. More than one school. The board may establish more than one school when necessary for the accommodation of the children, subject to the limitations in section 2806. An additional school in a rented room continues during such time as the board may determine. Section 2774.

36. Salary determined by needs. Inequalities in the requirements may demand that varying prices should be paid as wages for different schools. Decisions, 24.

37. School year. The school year for school purposes should be regarded as beginning on the first day of July. The year for the reports closes June 30th. Sections 2757, 2765, 2769.

38. Who entitled to school—color. All the youth of the state from five to twenty-one years of age, irrespective of religion, race or nationality, are entitled to the same school facilities. While schools may be graded according to the proficiency of pupils, no discrimination, such, for instance, as requiring colored pupils to attend separate schools, can be enforced. 24 Iowa, 266. 41 Iowa, 689.

SEC. 2774. Renting room—instruction in other schools—transportation of children. It may, when necessary, rent a room and employ a teacher, where there are ten children for whose accommodation there is no schoolhouse; and when the board is released from its obligation to maintain a school, or when children live at an unreasonable distance from their own school, the board may contract with boards of other school townships or independent districts for the instruction of children thus deprived of school advantages, in any school therein, and the cost thereof shall be paid from the teachers' fund. And when there will be a saving of expense, and children will also thereby secure increased advantages, it may arrange with any person outside the board for the transportation of any child to and from school in the same or in another corporation, and such expenses shall be paid from the contingent fund. [21 G. A., ch. 124; 16 G. A., ch. 109; C. '73, § 1725.]

NOTES: 1. Extra school. The board cannot provide an extra school for the accommodation of a less number than ten persons of school age. The board may, however, provide for their instruction in other school corporations, and may, if necessary, provide for their transportation. Decisions, 111.

2. Appeal. From the action of the board with regard to an additional school, an appeal will lie to the county superintendent. If it is clearly shown to the county superintendent that the board abused its discretion in providing or in refusing to provide such a school, he may on appeal reverse its action, and do what the board might have done.

3. Board may not be paid. The board of scholars may not be paid by the district.

4. Consent necessary. The board, before closing a school, should procure the consent of the county superintendent. Section 2773.

SEC. 2775. Instruction as to stimulants, narcotics and poisons. It shall require all teachers to give and all scholars to receive instruction in physiology and hygiene, which study in every division of the subject shall include the effects upon the human system of alcoholic stimulants, narcotics and poisonous substances. The instruction in this branch shall of its kind be as direct and specific as that given in other essential branches, and each scholar shall be required to complete the part of such study in his class or grade before being advanced to the next higher, and before being credited with having completed the study of the subject. [21 G. A., ch. 1.]

NOTES: 1. Scope. This study must begin in the lowest primary class. In what grade or class it shall be completed is to be determined by the board.

2. Methods of instruction. Primary classes must be instructed orally, as the children are not old enough to use or comprehend a book. But this oral instruction must be outlined as a course, and adopted by each board. The portion assigned to each grade or class should be thoroughly mastered before more advanced work is entered upon. The work will be best accomplished with the older scholars by the use of a suitable text-book, which it is the duty of every board to select and adopt. Many other harmful effects, very properly emphasized in public lectures, are not required to be taught in the class room.

3. Spirit of law observed. Teachers should be careful to give instruction in accordance with the spirit of the law. The law contemplates that the noxious effects upon the system of the user of any of the articles named shall be taught.

4. Tobacco—use of. The board may forbid the use of tobacco on the school grounds.

5. Total abstinence. It is not out of place to emphasize the truth that total abstinence is the only sure way to escape the evils arising from the use of alcoholic drinks and tobacco.

6. Cigarette habit. The alarming increase of the cigarette habit calls for united and aggressive action in removing from the growing boy as far as we can possibly do so, the temptation and opportunity to purchase tobacco. In this way value will be added to the instruction required to be given in all public schools as to the effects of narcotics. Section 5005.

7. Co-operate with authorities. We urge upon all teachers to co-operate with the authorities and with all other persons in creating and fostering a sentiment favoring a rigid enforcement of the law regarding the sale or giving of tobacco to boys. Code, section 5005.

8. Mandatory. Every scholar must study physiology and hygiene, including the effects of stimulants and narcotics, until the outline upon that branch, as adopted by the board, has been completed. The law does not mean that a scholar must necessarily study this branch continuously during his entire school life, unless the course of study adopted by the board so provides.

9. Responsibility of the board. A board cannot shift the responsibility by simply providing that teachers shall give instruction in this branch. It must provide for instruction in this subject in the course of study and see to it that the work is actually done by teachers as the law requires.

10. Duty of county superintendent. County superintendents should know that every teacher is complying fully with this statute, and any teacher failing or refusing to teach as required, may not be permitted to continue in the work of teaching.

11. Enforcement. The proper remedy to secure an enforcement of these provisions, as of other mandatory requirements, is application to a court of law for a writ of mandamus. Code, section 4341.

SEC. 2776. Higher schools—union schools. It shall have power to maintain in each district one or more schools of a higher order, for the better instruction of all in the district prepared to pursue such a course of study, and it may establish graded or union schools and determine what branches shall be taught therein, but the course of study shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent of public instruction; and it may select a person who shall have general supervision of the schools in any district subject to the control of the board. [C. '73, § 1726; R., § 2037.]

NOTES: 1. Course of study. With its power to establish and maintain graded and higher schools, every board is invested with authority to prescribe a course of study in the different branches to be taught. Section 2772.

2. Township high school. A high school, open to the older and more advanced scholars, may be advantageously established at some central point in the school township.

3. Co-operation. It is very desirable that boards, county superintendent, and teachers should work together in efforts to classify and harmonize the work to be done in the ungraded schools. Much may be accomplished by concert of action in carrying forward some uniform method of classification and instruction.

4. Electors may not limit. The electors may not limit nor restrict the board to the adoption of a course of study including only such branches as the electors may name. Nor may the electors direct that a particular branch, or certain studies, shall not be taught. It is the province of the electors to decide what branches beside those named by the board, shall be included in the course of study and taught in the schools. Section 2749.

5. Graded or union school—meaning. The best use of the term graded or union school is that referring to a group of different schools or rooms containing scholars of varying ages and attainments, but divided by rooms and classes into sections in which each may do the best work and gain for himself the greatest good.

SEC. 2777. Kindergarten department. The board may establish within any independent school district, in connection with the common schools, kindergarten departments for the instruction of children, to be paid for in the same manner as other grades and departments. Any teacher in kindergartens shall hold a certificate from the county superintendent certifying that the holder thereof has been examined upon kindergarten principles and methods, and is qualified to teach in kindergartens. [26 G. A., ch. 38.]

NOTES: 1. Instruction below school age. It may well be doubted whether the board in any district may provide for the instruction of children below the minimum school age. The constitution of the state does not seem to contemplate that public money shall be used to provide schooling for any below five years of age. Section 2773.

2. Kind license necessary. A teacher in a kindergarten department must be the holder of a kindergarten certificate. No other kind of certificate will authorize one to teach in such a department.

SEC. 2778. Contracts—election of teachers. The board shall carry into effect any instruction from the annual meeting upon matters within the control of the voters, and shall elect all teachers and make all contracts necessary or proper for exercising the powers granted and performing the duties required by law. But the board may authorize any subdirector to employ teachers for the schools in his subdistrict. Contracts with teachers must be in writing, and shall state the length of time the school is to be taught, the compensation per week of five school days or month of four weeks, and such other matters as may be agreed upon, signed by the president and teacher, and filed with the secretary before the teacher commences to teach under such contract. [28 G. A., ch. 107; 22 G. A., ch. 60; C. '73, §§ 1723, 1757; R., §§ 2037, 2055.]

NOTES: 1. Duty of board. The law requires the board to make all contracts necessary to carry out any vote of the district, and the president to sign all contracts made by the board. Section 2759. Decisions, 111.

2. Erection of schoolhouse. It is the duty of the board to make contracts for the erection of schoolhouses, when the means have been provided by the electors.

3. Powers of electors limited. The electors frequently assume to exercise powers not granted them by the law. They have only such powers as are specifically named in the law.

4. Vote rescinded. A vote of the board may be rescinded, if matters have not become involved making such reconsideration impossible, such as the acceptance of a contract under the vote in question, or the filing of an appeal.

5. Power may not be delegated. The responsibility of choosing teachers may not be transferred to persons outside the board. They must all be elected by the board, except in school townships wherein the board may at its discretion authorize any subdirector to employ teachers for his subdistrict.

6. Director as teacher. If a director desires to teach the school in his own subdistrict, he should first resign as director, because it would not only be unwise but contrary to public policy to permit a board of directors to contract in the name of the district with one of its own number. 78 Iowa, 37.

7. Duration of contracts. Our supreme court has held "that an examination of the statutes leads to the inevitable conclusion that the legislature intended such contracts to be limited in duration to the school year as determined by the board of directors." 107 Iowa, 29.

8. Outgoing board without authority. The opinion last cited also makes it plain that no board of directors has the right, prior to the election and organization of the new board, to elect and contract with a teacher for the ensuing year.

9. Opinions on question of contract. The department of public instruction should not be expected to give any opinion upon questions involving the validity of a contract. Such questions are for the courts.

10. Compensation of teachers. The board should grant a compensation to be paid the teacher according to the circumstances and requirements of each school.

11. Contracts. The law specifically requires that contracts with teachers must be in writing. Both boards and teachers should see that this requirement is complied with. When a contract has been signed the president should file the original with the secretary before the opening of school. The teacher should retain a duplicate of the contract.

12. Certificate may not be questioned. A board may not question nor discredit in any manner a valid certificate held by a teacher, but may demand proof of special attainments desired by it before engaging a teacher.

13. Contract—what included. All matters agreed upon should be incorporated into the written contract. The law presumes that the written contract embraces the entire agreement of the parties. 52 Iowa, 130.

14. Common branches. Without special mention in the teacher's contract, it is understood that only the usual common branches and others included in the course of study for the school are expected to be taught. If it is desired that other branches shall be taught they should be designated in the contract or indicated in some manner.

15. Should produce certificate. The president should require the teacher to produce his certificate, which he should carefully examine before signing the contract.

16. Contract—damages for breaking. A teacher not permitted to complete the term according to contract is entitled to damages, the amount of damages being equivalent to the wages lost. 111 Iowa, 20; 110 Iowa, 314.

17. Added branches. To the branches adopted by the board, the electors of any district may add such other branches they deem best to have taught. Section 2749.

18. Non-English speaking pupils. It is the duty of our school authorities to provide for schools having non-English speaking scholars, the best instruction available, in order that all the children may acquire rapidly a correct use of English, and become acquainted as soon as possible with the spirit and genius of our American institutions.

19. Relative—employment of. There is no provision of law to prevent the employment of a relative of a member of the board as teacher.

20. Contract in violation of law. A contract violating the terms of the law is wholly illegal and void, but the persons signing such contract may be held personally for its performance. 37 Iowa, 314.

21. Discharge of teacher. The law provides in section 2782 the manner in which a teacher may be discharged, and the board may not attempt to provide any other method of terminating the contract. 82 Iowa, 686; 100 Iowa, 328; 110 Iowa, 313; 111 Iowa, 20.

22. Oral contract—enforcement of. Any person interested in having a verbal contract carried into execution may apply to a court for a writ of mandamus to compel the signing of the written contract. In this way all matters in controversy will be brought before a court in such a manner as to secure a speedy and conclusive determination of the different questions involved.

SEC. 2779. Erection or repair of schoolhouse. It shall not erect a schoolhouse without first consulting with the county superintendent as to the most approved plan for such building and securing his approval of the plan submitted, nor shall any schoolhouse be erected or repaired at a cost exceeding three hundred dollars save under an express contract reduced to writing, and upon proposals therefor, invited by advertisement for four weeks in some newspaper published in the county in which the work is to be done, and the contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, bonds with sureties for the faithful performance of the contract being required, but the board may reject any and all bids and advertise for new ones. [C. '73, § 1723; R., § 2037.]

NOTES: 1. Plans—approval of. Before making a contract great pains should be taken to obtain the best possible plan for the building. On this point the law requires consultation with the county superintendent. The written approval of the plan by the county superintendent should be secured.

2. Plans and specifications. In building a schoolhouse, it is important to secure plans of the building, with full specifications as to its dimensions, style of architecture, number and size of windows and doors, quality of materials to be used, what kind of roof, number of coats of paint, of what material the foundation shall be constructed, its depth below and its height above the surface of the ground, the number and style of chimneys and flues, the provisions for ventilation, the number of coats of plastering and style of finish, and all other items in detail that may be deemed necessary. The plans and specifications should be attached to the contract, and the whole filed with the secretary.

3. Competitive bids. Contracts for the erection or repair of schoolhouses, or for material for the same, exceeding $300, cannot be entered into until proposals have been published at least twenty-eight days.

4. Lowest bidder. The board is sole judge as to what constitutes the lowest responsible bidder. If the contract is regular in other respects, a court would not be likely to interfere, although lower bids in amount were offered and rejected by the board.

5. Failure to contract—new bids. In case of failure to close the contract with the bid accepted under an advertisement, if it is desired to make a new attempt to contract, it will be necessary to advertise anew for bids.

6. Contract—terms of. Contracts must, in all cases, be made according to the instructions and directions of the board, and after being made they should be reviewed by the board before any work is done.

7. Accepting work. When a schoolhouse is built or repaired under contract, the board should not neglect to examine the work carefully in order to determine that the contract has been fully complied with, before it directs the payment of money.

8. Rights of surety. The surety has the right to stand upon the terms of the original contract, and any material change therein without his consent, affecting the subject-matter of the contract even to a slight degree, will exonerate him. 50 Iowa, 98.

9. Amount of surety. The aggregate amount to which the sureties are required to qualify is double the amount of the bond required. Code, section 358.

10. A member should not be surety. As a rule it is unsuitable for a member of the board to become a surety for an officer of the board, or to appear as surety upon any other bond which is to receive the approval of the board.

11. In violation of law. Contracts made in violation of the terms of this section are illegal. Their fulfillment may be prevented by injunction.

12. No partnership. The district may not form a partnership in building a schoolhouse. But this does not prevent its receiving donations.

13. Exempted. District property is exempt from general taxation, from execution, from garnishment, and from mechanic's lien. 51 Iowa, 70.

14. Tax anticipated. When a schoolhouse tax has been voted, the board may anticipate its levy and collection and issue orders to build. Such orders may not bear a higher rate of interest than six per cent. 50 Iowa, 102.

15. Condemnation of schoolhouse. The local board of health has undoubted right to condemn and close for use as a schoolhouse a building unfit for such purpose. Section 2568.

16. Unappropriated funds—use. Any unappropriated schoolhouse fund in the district treasury may be used for the erection or repair of schoolhouses, at the discretion of the board, without action of the electors.

17. Lightning rod. A lightning rod may be supplied as a part of a new house, and paid for from the schoolhouse fund. 51 Iowa, 432.

18. School buildings—delegating power. Under the statute making it the duty of the board of a school township to select the site, adopt the plans for the erection of the schoolhouse, and award the contracts for the building thereof, the board cannot delegate such powers to a committee appointed by it. Kinney v. Howard, 110 N. W., 282. Decisions, 111.

19. Indebtedness. Boards should not involve the district in an indebtedness for the erection of schoolhouses by contracts and the issue of orders to exceed the amount voted by the electors, or of available schoolhouse funds.

20. Transfer of funds. Unappropriated schoolhouse funds may be disposed of by the electors, under section 2749, for improvements, such as fencing schoolhouse sites, providing wells, etc., or the same may be transferred to either the teachers' or contingent fund, and the board is required to carry out the vote of the electors.

21. Building contracts — abandonment — completion — architect's certificate—liens. 125 Iowa, 227; 125 Iowa, 283.

22. Preventing performance of illegal contract. 78 Iowa, 37; 107 Iowa, 29; 117 Iowa, 694.

23. Confirmation of contract. 7 Iowa, 509; 50 Iowa, 100; 67 Iowa, 164; 116 Iowa, 275; 117 Iowa, 319; Richards vs. School Township of Jackson, 109 N. W., 1093. See note 10, section 2783.

SEC. 2780. Allowance of claims—settlements—compensation of officers. It shall audit and allow all just claims against the corporation, and no order shall be drawn upon the treasury until the claim therefor has been audited and allowed; it shall from time to time examine the accounts of the treasurer and make settlements with him; shall present at each regular meeting of the electors a full statement of the receipts had and expenditures made since the preceding meeting, with such other information as may be considered important; and shall fix the compensation to be paid the secretary and treasurer. But no member of the board shall receive compensation for official services. [C. '73, §§1732-3, 1738, 1813; R., §§ 2037-8; C. '51, §§ 1146, 1149.]

NOTES: 1. Examine contracts. It is the duty of the board to examine all contracts for the employment of teachers, the construction of schoolhouses, or for any other purpose, and to see that the stipulations have been complied with, before directing the payment of money thereon.

2. Pay monthly. The board may authorize the president and the secretary to draw warrants for the payment of teachers' salaries at the end of each school month, upon proper evidence that the service has been performed, but the order for wages for the last month should not be drawn until the report required by this section is filed in the office of the secretary.

3. Auditing—responsibility. If the board audits a claim and directs orders drawn, the officers of the board will be warranted in following the direction of the board, unless it is clearly manifest that an attempt is being made to violate a plain provision of law. The responsibility in such a case rests very largely with the board.

4. Financial statement. This section contemplates that a full report of the affairs of the district shall be made by the board at each annual meeting of the electors. This work appropriately devolves upon the secretary, unless the board designates otherwise. When practicable the report may be published in a newspaper. See section 2781.

5. Orders—when void. An order issued on a claim which has not been audited and allowed is void. 39 Iowa, 490.

6. Compensation. Only the secretary and the treasurer may receive compensation for the discharge of duties required by law. The evident intent of the law is that no member of the board may receive pay out of the funds of the district for any work done for the district in any capacity whatever. 87 Iowa, 81.

7. Contracts with members. A court would be likely to hold a contract made with a member of the board, to be in violation of the law, contrary to public policy, and void. 87 Iowa, 81.

8. Must refuse to become a member. If a person desires to secure pay from the district there seems to be no other way than for him to refuse to become a member of the board, or if a member, to resign from the board. See notes 6 and 7 above.

9. Electors may not vote compensation. It is not within the power of the electors to vote compensation or remuneration of any kind to the members of the board or to officers of the board, for their official services. Nor may the board vote compensation to any member.

10. Official trust not delegated. The official trust of a member of the board may not be delegated. It is apparent that as there is no way in which a member may receive compensation for discharging official duties, he may not contract with another person to be paid from the district funds for performing the same services as a substitute for the member of the board. Kennedy v. Howard, 110 N. W., 282.

SEC. 2781. Financial statement. It shall publish in each independent city or town district two weeks before the annual school election, by one insertion in one or more newspapers, if any are published in such district, or by posting up in writing in not less than three conspicuous places in the district, a detailed and specific statement of the receipts and disbursements of all funds expended for school and building purposes for the year preceding such annual election. And the said board of directors shall also at the same time publish in detail an estimate of the several amounts which, in the judgment of such board, are necessary to maintain the schools in such district for the next succeeding school year. C. '73, §§ 1734-5, 1756; R., §§ 2037, 2054; C. '51, § 1147.]

NOTES: 1. Statement. This statement should show in detail the receipts and expenditures for each fund, followed by an estimate of the amount required for each fund, to maintain the schools for the ensuing year.

2. Items. The detailed and specific statement of the receipts and disbursements of all funds expended, should be sufficiently itemized to show the amount received from each separate source, and the amount expended for each particular purpose.

3. Purpose. This statement is for the information of the electors, but they should not vote upon the amount of tax to be levied for contingent and teachers' funds, as these amounts are determined by the board. Section 2806.

4. Publication. The board must have the statement published at least once in a newspaper, if one is printed in the district or have it posted in at least three public places. This publication should be had two weeks before the annual school election.

5. Expense. The fee for printing the statement is fixed by law. Code, section 1293.

6. Minute details. In preparing the annual statement for publication, minute details of all the items need not be given. This would render it uselessly troublesome to prepare, and expensive to publish. Such general results and classified items as will enable the electors fully to comprehend the proceedings of the board, are all that the law requires. The statistics of the school may be added if the board thinks proper, but the law does not require it.

SEC. 2782. Visiting schools—regulations—discharge of teacher—expulsion of scholar. It shall provide for visiting the schools of the district by one or more of its members and aid the teachers in the government thereof, and enforcing the rules and regulations of the board. It may, by a majority vote discharge any teacher for incompetency, inattention to duty, partiality, or any good cause, after a full and fair investigation made at a meeting of the board held for that purpose, at which the teacher shall be permitted to be present and make defense, allowing him a reasonable time therefor. It may by a majority vote expel any scholar from school for immorality or for a violation of the regulations or rules established by the board, or when the presence of the scholar is detrimental to the best interests of the school, and it may confer upon any teacher, principal or superintendent the power temporarily to dismiss a scholar, notice of such dismissal being at once given in writing to the president of the board. When a scholar is dismissed by the teacher, principal or superintendent, as above provided, he may be re-admitted by such teacher, principal or superintendent, but when expelled by the board he may be re-admitted only by the board or in the manner prescribed by it. [C. '73, §§ 1734-5; R., §§ 2037, 2054; C. '51, § 1147.]

NOTES: 1. Visitation. A conscientious compliance with the requirements regarding visitation would greatly increase the efficiency of the schools. There are very many things that may be best ascertained by visiting the school, inspecting the work of the pupils, and conversing with the teacher. The teacher can accomplish the best results only when he is sure of hearty co-operation and support.

2. Power of board. Boards have entire control over the public schools of their district and the teachers employed therein. Sections 2745, 2772.

3. Rules and regulations. Rules and regulations governing teachers and scholars may be adopted and enforced by the board, as the best interests of the schools may seem to require. Decisions, 17 and 38. See notes 23 and 24, section 2772.

4. Termination of force of regulations. The force and effect of any motion adopted by the board does not terminate with a change of officers or members, but remains in force until repealed. 35 Iowa, 361.

5. Teacher as agent of the board. The teacher is the agent of the board, and rules made by him and enforced with either formal or tacit consent are in effect the rules of the board.

6. Jurisdiction of principal. If it is understood that the principal of a school has charge of other rooms besides his own, he has the same power in managing the children that is by law given to other teachers. Section 2776.

7. Privileges of the public schools conferred by statute. The privilege of free instruction in the public schools is one conferred by legislative enactment, under constitutional direction, and the privilege is subject to legislative regulation. The right to attend school is not absolute, but is conditional upon compliance with the rules and the essential conditions. Section 2773.

8. Board prescribes when subject shall be pursued. The board may prescribe a course of study and determine in connection with that course of study the time during the year in which certain specified branches shall be pursued. This is a necessity in order to secure an economical division of labor on the part of the teaching force, particularly in a large school. Section 2772.

9. Responsibility of teacher. The teacher may be held responsible for the efficient discharge of every duty properly attached to his office, including the exercise of due diligence in the oversight and preservation of school buildings, grounds, furniture, apparatus, and other school property, as well as the more prominent work of instruction and government.

10. Damage—liability of teacher. Parties doing damage to school property are responsible for the same. The teacher is bound to exercise reasonable care to protect and preserve school property, and failing to do so may be held liable for damages. Sections 2772, 2778.

11. Corporal punishment permitted. If the rules and regulations of the board do not provide otherwise the teacher has the right in proper cases to inflict corporal punishment upon refractory scholars. In the proper exercise of his authority, to maintain good order, and to require of all the scholars a faithful performance of their duties, the teacher is entitled to the support and co-operation of the board.

12. Kind of punishment. In the choice of a kind of punishment and in the selection of an instrument, as well as in determining the degree of punishment to be administered, the teacher must exercise a sound discretion.

13. Punishment—a last resort. Corporal punishment is best reserved as a last resort and should be used only when it is believed that no other gentler measure will secure the reformation of the offender. Dismissal from school by the proper authority is a still more extreme remedy than corporal punishment. 45 Iowa, 248.

14. Schoolhouses—condition of. It is the duty of the board to see that schoolhouses are kept in repair, clean, and in good order for school use. Neither the teacher nor the scholars should be expected to scrub or wash out the schoolhouse. The light sweeping of daily use is often done by them on their own motion, but this cannot be required of the scholars, nor of the teacher unless he contracts to take special care of the house in such respects.

15. Cleaning schoolhouse. The board should have the schoolhouse cleaned as frequently as it needs such attention in order to keep it in good order for school use. No member of the board may receive pay for such work, but any other person may be paid from the contingent fund.

16. Janitor—teachers—pupils. Janitor work cannot be required of the teacher unless an agreement to do the same has been made a part of the contract, and neither the teacher nor the board may require that such work shall be done by the pupils. If a scholar has made unnecessary litter in the schoolroom or about his seat he may be required as a punishment to sweep up the same. But this is quite another matter than doing the ordinary janitor work.

17. Janitor work—contract. Making fires and sweeping the schoolroom are not, properly, a part of the teacher's duties. In rural districts teachers frequently perform this labor as a matter of convenience and economy. Those unwilling to do this work, or who expect to receive pay for it, should so stipulate when entering into the contract to teach. Section 2778. Decisions, 30.

18. Holidays. It is lawful and quite usual for a board to give teachers holidays and make no deduction from their wages. The teacher, however, may not claim it as a right.

19. Teacher entitled to compensation. If a teacher is at the schoolhouse at the proper time, and remains during school hours, he is entitled to pay therefor, according to his contract, whether scholars are present or not.

20. Epidemic—closing school. As a rule it is highly undesirable to close a school on account of an epidemic. But if the local board of health or the board of directors, closes a school on account of the presence of a contagious disease, or for like reason, the teacher is entitled to pay for such time according to his contract.

21. Damages for closing. When a school is closed for a short time, for causes beyond the control of the teacher, the courts will be likely to hold that the teacher is entitled to his pay according to the terms of his contract. Such cases are best settled by compromise between the parties. Note 16, section 2778.

22. Closing—loss made good. If the schoolhouse is destroyed, or the school is closed indefinitely by causes beyond the control of either party to the contract, the teacher being ready to comply with his part, can collect pay according to contract. If said teacher uses proper diligence to secure employment at something which he can do, and secures such employment, the district will pay him the difference between the amount received in his new work and the amount of his wages under the contract. In other words, his actual loss should be made good. Opinion of attorney-general.

23. Duty to teachers. Teachers are entitled to the support and co-operation of the board. It is alike due to the dignity of the board and the rights of the teacher that no one should be discharged except after thorough investigation and the clearest proof. If possible the teacher should be shielded from the stigma of discharge.

24. Dismissal of teacher—how. In the trial of a teacher, when it is sought to dismiss him, all the provisions of law must be strictly complied with. The board must allow the teacher to make a full defense, and the teacher may appear by attorney, or otherwise, as he chooses. Decisions, 103.

25. Dismissal of teacher—for what. Boards may dismiss teachers only for good cause shown. In case the board passes an order to dismiss, the material reason therefor should be spread upon the record, for, while in case of contest, these reasons would not be conclusive against the teacher, the board would be stopped from presenting other reasons than those named in the record. Decisions, 86, 116.

26. Discharge of teacher—tender of new place. The tender of a new place is no defense where it did not appear that plaintiff could have accepted such new position without modifying the original contract. 110 Iowa, 313.

27. Board as accuser and judge. In a trial of charges against a teacher by the board of directors it was not objectionable on the ground that they were accusers rather than judges, and because of their prejudice, since they constitute the only tribunal authorized to try such charges. 113 Iowa, 236.

28. Tender of resignation—merely an offer. The tender of a resignation by a teacher, under contract to teach in a certain district, being a mere offer, is not binding on either party to the contract until accepted, and it may be withdrawn at any time before it is acted on by the district board. 111 Iowa, 20.

29. Retention of resignation not acceptance. The retention of a tender of resignation does not constitute an acceptance. 111 Iowa, 20.

30. Abandonment of contract. The filing of a tender of resignation is not an abandonment of contract. 111 Iowa, 20.

31. Discharge of teacher. Accepting a resignation that has been withdrawn is not a discharge as provided under section 2782. 111 Iowa, 20.

32. Hearing without notice—a nullity—second trial. 113 Iowa, 236. See also 53 Iowa, 587.

33. Refusal of board to reinstate immaterial. 113 Iowa, 236.

34. Date of hearing delayed by injunction. 113 Iowa, 236. See also 110 Iowa, 652.

35. Teacher may appeal. When a teacher is unjustly dismissed, an appeal may be taken from the action of the board in dismissing him, but a suit at law must be brought, if he seeks to recover his pay upon the contract. The teacher should be paid only to the date of legal dismissal. 53 Iowa, 585; 100 Iowa, 328.

36. Action of board—weight of. The order of the board discharging or refusing to discharge a teacher is more largely a discretionary than a judicial act. In this, as in other matters, the very large discretionary powers of the board must be respected, and on appeal their conclusion may not be questioned without the most convincing testimony.

37. Contract terminated by discharge. The contract with the teacher may be terminated by discharge after the investigation provided for in this section, by revocation of certificate, or by mutual agreement between the parties.

38. Teacher—habits of. By universal consent, and certainly by the spirit of our school law, it is expected of teachers that they refrain from improper language, keep the Sabbath day with respect, and in every other way avoid practices or company that are demoralizing in their tendencies.

39. Dismissal—the only method. This section provides the only manner in which a teacher may be discharged, and the parties to the contract should not attempt to provide any other method of terminating the contract. A discharge by any other method is illegal. 82 Iowa, 686.

40. Certificate—attack of. The certificate being in the nature of a commission cannot be attacked collaterally.

41. Obligations—reciprocal. The obligations between the parties to a contract to teach are reciprocal. A teacher would have good cause to complain if a board desired to remove him because it had an opportunity to secure a better teacher. Yet in such a case if an agreement can be made, annulling the contract, such arrangement would be legal. But the teacher may insist that the board keep its part of the contract in the same spirit that he intends to keep his part. The same is true if it is the teacher who desires to have the contract annulled.

42. Vaccination. The regulations of the state board of health require every person entering any public school to give satisfactory evidence of protection by vaccination. Boards of directors and local boards of health also have the power to require all persons who desire to attend the public schools to furnish evidence of successful vaccination.

43. Exclude children—when. The board should exclude children coming from houses where there are contagious diseases, and should enforce the rule that children not vaccinated shall not be admitted until they conform to the regulation demanding such protection.

44. Government of schools. The board has full control in all matters relating to the government and welfare of the schools. A scholar subject to fits or spasms may be excluded from school by the majority of the board, if the presence of such scholar is thought to interfere materially with the progress of the school. Any one aggrieved by the exclusion of such scholar has the remedy of appeal to the county superintendent. See note 8, section 2804.

45. Comply and co-operate with board of health. It is the duty of every board of directors to co-operate with the local board of health in encouraging the vaccination of all school children not already protected by vaccination. The board of directors may not compel vaccination, but the majority vote of the board will exclude from the schools any one who will not comply with such reasonable rule of the board of health.

46. When parent objects. The board will be justified in refusing to permit the attendance of a child whose parent will not consent that the scholar shall obey the rules of the school. 31 Iowa, 562, and 50 Iowa, 145.

47. Right to attend. The right to attend school is not absolute, but is conditional upon compliance with the rules and regulations of the board.

48. Board may not adopt rule. A board may not adopt a rule which will deprive a child of school privileges, except as a punishment for breach of discipline or an offense against good morals. 56 Iowa, 476.

49. Reasonable and proper rule defined. Any rule of the school, not subversive of the rights of the children or parents, or in conflict with humanity and the precepts of divine law, which tends to advance the object of the law in establishing public schools, must be considered reasonable and proper. 31 Iowa, 562.

50. Absent or tardy—rules concerning. It is competent for boards to provide by rules that pupils may be suspended from the schools in case they shall be absent or tardy a certain number of times within a fixed period, except for sickness or other unavoidable cause. 31 Iowa, 562.

51. Keeping child out of school. The parent has no right to interfere with the order or progress of the school by detaining his child at home, or by sending him at times that prove an annoyance or hindrance to others. 31 Iowa, 562.

52. Acts done out of school—jurisdiction of board. If the effects of acts done out of school hours reach within the schoolroom during school hours, and are detrimental to good order and the best interests of the pupils, it is evident that such acts may be forbidden. 31 Iowa, 562.

53. Expulsion of pupil—notice. The law does not require the board to give a scholar or his parents notice or chance for defense, before ordering his suspension or expulsion. The board has large discretionary powers. This is one of the matters wholly within its discretion. But it would be well for the board carefully to investigate the charges, before dismissing any scholar. Decisions, 38 to 107.

54. Suspension. Suspension is the separation of the scholar from the school for a limited time, and it may be either for bad conduct, for unnecessary absence or tardiness, or as a sanitary measure. For good cause, a teacher may suspend without fixing the time, notice being also at once given to the board.

55. Time of suspension should be indicated. The period of time fixed by the board during which suspension or expulsion shall be in force, should be clearly indicated in the vote of the majority of the board, as spread upon the records. Conditions upon which earlier readmission is provided for, may very properly be given in the same connection.

56. When presence detrimental. The true idea is to bring all within the salutary influence of the school, and to drive none out, but cases sometimes occur in which it becomes necessary for the board to protect the rights of the many by excluding a scholar whose presence and example are a constant menace to the successful progress of the school.

57. Depriving of recess. The teacher has control over scholars during school hours, subject to the regulations of the board. He may require a scholar to remain in his seat during recess as a punishment. However, it is not wise to deprive children to any great extent, of the exercise necessary to their physical well-being.

58. Control of pupil during intermission. The teacher has as full control over scholars during recess as at other times within the school hours fixed by the board.

59. Punishment. The teacher may, for the maintenance of his authority and the enforcement of discipline, legally inflict chastisement upon a pupil. The punishment should, however, be inflicted only for some definite offense which the pupil has committed, and the pupil should be given to understand what he is being punished for. 50 Iowa, 145; 45 Iowa, 248.

60. Oversight of pupils. Teachers should exercise watchful care and oversight as regards the conduct and habits of their scholars, not only during school hours, recesses and intermissions, but also within reasonable limits while they are coming to and returning home from school.

61. Teacher may dismiss. For good cause, a teacher may dismiss a scholar from school work without fixing the time, and require him to leave the school premises, notice being also at once given to the director or to the president of the board.

62. Responsibility of teacher. The teacher is responsible for the discipline of his school, and for the progress and deportment of his scholars. It is his imperative duty to maintain good order and require of all a faithful performance of their duties. If he fails to do so he is unfit for his position. To enable him to discharge these duties effectually, he must necessarily have the power to enforce prompt obedience to his requests. For this reason the law gives him the power, in proper cases, to inflict punishment upon refractory scholars. Decisions, 17.

63. Punishment adapted to offense. In applying correction, the teacher must exercise sound discretion and judgment, and should choose a kind of punishment adapted not only to the offense, but to the offender. Corporal punishment is a severe remedy, and its use should be reserved for the baser faults. Decisions, 17.

64. Expulsion vs. corporal punishment. In 50 Iowa, 145, the suggestion is made that expulsion by the board rather than severe corporal punishment by the teacher, is a good remedy in case of repeated and continuous violation of the rules.

65. Obedience essential. In the school as in the family there exists on the part of the children the obligation of obedience to lawful commands, subordination, civil deportment, respect for the rights of others, and fidelity to duty. These obligations are inherent in any proper school system, and constitute the common law of the school. Every scholar is presumed to know this law, and be subject to it, whether it has or has not been by the board placed in the form of written rules and regulations.

66. Power to make a rule—how determined. See note 43, section 2772.

67. Course of study—rules and regulations—temporary officers. See section 2772.

68. Compulsory attendance. Sections 2823-a to 2823-i.

69. Appeal—wrongfulness of discharge determined. Note 29, section 2818.

70. Appeal—when necessary. Note 35, section 2818.

SEC. 2783. Use of contingent fund—free text-books. It may provide and pay out of the contingent fund to insure school property such sum as may be necessary, and may purchase dictionaries, library books, including books for the purpose of teaching vocal music, maps, charts and apparatus for the use of the schools thereof to an amount not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one year for each schoolroom under its charge; and may furnish school books to indigent children when they are likely to be deprived of the proper benefits of school unless so aided; and shall, when directed by a vote of the district, purchase and loan books to scholars, and shall provide by levy of contingent fund therefor. [30 G. A., ch. 115; 26 G. A., ch. 37; 25 G. A., ch. 34; 21 G. A., ch. 107; 19 G. A., ch. 149, § 1; C. '73, § 1729.]

NOTES: 1. Insuring property. This section confers upon all boards the right to insure school property, and this duty should not be neglected. Insurance of school property may be effected either in a stock or mutual company which is legally authorized to do business in the state. Code, section 1759.

2. Records and supplies. Purchases of records, dictionaries, apparatus, and similar supplies for the use of the district may not be made by contract under section 2824, but all such articles will be bought under this section. Note 4 to section 2824.

3. Necessary expenses. Definite provision should be made by the board for the usual necessary contingent expenses of the schools during the year, before contingent fund is taken to purchase any of the articles named in this section. Section 2768.

4. Patriotism. There can be no doubt that one of the purposes of the school is to teach patriotism to the children. The board may use available contingent funds to purchase a flag to be used as apparatus in the schoolroom, on the school building, or upon the school grounds.

5. When not in session. A purchase of apparatus made with the consent of the board when not in session, is a clear violation of the law, but acceptance and retention of the benefits by the district may make it liable under the contract. 117 Iowa, 319; 117 Iowa, 694; 70 Iowa, 320; 13 Iowa, 555.

6. Liability of members. Members of boards giving orders for apparatus in their individual capacity assume personal responsibility and may thus render themselves liable for payment as individuals unless it appears that the purchase was for the benefit of the school corporation. 117 Iowa, 319.

7. Prearrangement not binding. The members of a school board cannot, by a prearrangement or contract entered into when not in session, bind themselves afterwards to ratify or confirm a contract or engagement thus entered into. The distinction here is that while a board, in session, may ratify a contract made out of session, the members cannot individually bind themselves to do so. 117 Iowa, 319.

8. Free text-books. These provisions afford all districts the opportunity to supply free books, so that every indigent child may continuously enjoy the privileges of school. It is believed that if districts will take action in accordance with the spirit of the law, the percentage of attendance at school can be materially increased, and the usefulness of our schools to all the children greatly enhanced. See sections 2836, 2837.

9. Purchase of supplies—warrant—when void. A warrant executed by the president and secretary of a school board without the authority of the rest of school board, in payment for school supplies contracted for by a majority of the board (when not in session), is void. 117 Iowa, 319; 109 N. W., 1093.

10. Confirmation of contract. The defeating of a motion to refuse to accept supplies (order by a majority of the members of the board when not in session) was a confirmation of, and approval of the order. 117 Iowa, 319. See also 116 Iowa, 275; 7 Iowa, 509; 50 Iowa, 100; 67 Iowa, 164; 109 N. W., 1093.

11. Books, maps, apparatus, indebtedness. Section 2783, code 1897, permits a school board to charge the contingent fund with an indebtedness in excess of the unappropriated money on hand, but the amount may not exceed twenty-five dollars for each regular school. 118 Iowa, 540; 116 Iowa, 275; 117 Iowa, 319.

SEC. 2784. Water-closets. It shall give special attention to the matter of convenient water-closets or privies, and provide on every schoolhouse site, not within an independent city or town district, two separate buildings located at the farthest point from the main entrance to the schoolhouse, and as far from each other as may be, and keep them in wholesome condition and good repair. In independent city or town districts, where it is inconvenient or undesirable to erect two separate outhouses, several closets may be included under one roof, and if outside the schoolhouse each shall be separated from the other by a brick wall, double partition, or other solid or continuous barrier, extending from the roof to the bottom of the vault below, and the approaches to the outside doors for the two sexes shall be separated by a substantial close fence not less than seven feet high and thirty feet in length. [25 G. A. ch. 3.]

NOTES: 1. Provisions mandatory. This provision of the law requiring it to take special pains with regard to outbuildings is mandatory upon every board. A director may not refuse to carry into effect instructions from the board with regard to such a matter. And a board refusing to give attention to the subject risks a censure from a court if its failure or refusal to provide proper facilities as regards privies or water-closets is brought to the attention of a court. See also section 2822.

2. Defacing public property. If any person wilfully write, make marks, or draw characters on the walls or any other part of any church, college, academy, schoolhouse, courthouse or other public building, or on any furniture, apparatus or fixtures therein; or wilfully injure or deface the same, or any wall or fence enclosing the same, he shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days. Code, section 4802.

3. Teacher's duty. Very much depends upon teachers to determine the manner in which this law is observed. A listless indifference, a half-hearted activity, a want of confidence, will defeat the purpose of the law for the time at least. Serious consideration, a high-minded approbation of its intention, a courageous insistence upon its observance, together with untiring attention and frequent inspection, will make the law a continued success. No conscientious teacher will be irresolute, when the immeasurable interests involved are regarded.

4. May invoke assistance of peace officers. Teachers should not hesitate to bring the case of persistent offenders to the attention of the board. As a last resort it may become necessary for the board to invoke the assistance of the peace officers. It sometimes happens that nothing less than a strong arm of the civil authorities is able to compel a respect for law, and a decent regard for the rights of others. No community may justly claim to be a moral people, who knowingly fail to guard and preserve the purity, the morals, and the health, of its children and youth.

SEC. 2785. Duties of director—contracts. The board of directors of a school township may authorize the director of each subdistrict, subject to its regulations, to make contracts for the purchase of fuel, the repairing or furnishing of schoolhouses, and all other matters necessary for the convenience and prosperity of the schools in his subdistrict. Such contracts shall be binding upon the school township only when approved by the president of the board, and must be reported to the board. Each director shall, between the first and fifteenth days of June in each year, prepare a list of the heads of families in his subdistrict, the number and sex of all children of school age, and by the twentieth day of said month report this list to the secretary of the school township, who shall make full record thereof. The powers specified in this section cannot be exercised by individual directors of independent districts. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 9; C. '73, §§ 1753-5; R., §§ 2052-3; C. '51, §§ 1124, 1142.]

NOTES: 1. Powers—how exercised. It is a general statement that nearly all the powers of the director are to be exercised under the regulations of the board. Any person about to contract is bound to know what restrictions have been made, and should be governed accordingly.

2. Director—power of. The director is clothed with certain general powers by this section, but these are to be exercised under the direction of the board. The board must instruct him, for example, as to the extent of repairs, and prices to be paid for same, and the amount and cost of fuel.

3. Powers possessed by officers. School officers are possessed of specially defined powers and should attempt to exercise no others, except such as arise by fair implication from those granted. 110 Iowa, 652.

4. Director may not contract. No director has authority to make a contract in behalf of the school township, except under specific instructions of the board.

5. Approval of contracts. All contracts made by the director must be approved by the board and signed by the president.

6. Liability of director. If a director intentionally violates law he becomes personally liable. 14 Iowa, 510; 17 Iowa, 155; 24 Iowa, 337; and 38 Iowa, 47.

7. Liability of agent. If an agent makes a valid contract without authority, he is himself bound thereby. 37 Iowa, 314.

8. Member may not receive compensation. It is a violation of law for a board to pay any member of the board for labor as a building committee, for attendance at meetings, or for any other service performed for the district whether official in character or not. Section 2780.

9. Member may not be employed at compensation. A member may not be employed by the board to oversee the building of a schoolhouse and receive pay therefor, or to act in any like capacity for which he would be paid from the funds of the district. Such engagement is contrary to public policy and clearly illegal. 78 Iowa, 37, and 87 Iowa, 81.

10. Approval of contract. It is the duty of the director to file any contract at once with the president of the board, who should submit the same to the board for approval.

11. Enumeration record. A record book containing the enumeration correctly filled out will be of much assistance to the director each year. Form 32.

12. Where enumerated. Minor children at a state institution, or a private school, should be enumerated where their parents or guardians reside.

13. Failure to enumerate. The failure of a director to make the report, as required by this section, will reduce the semi-annual apportionments for the year, since they are made upon the enumeration of persons of school age. Section 2808.

14. Director report. In school townships the secretary should require the director of each subdistrict to make this report promptly, and should insist that it be made in writing, and certified to be correct. Directors in independent districts do not take the enumeration.

15. Wilful failure. A wilful failure or refusal on the part of the director to make the report to the secretary as required may be found by the courts to be a misdemeanor. Code, section 4904, and section 2822.

16. Duty of secretary. In case a director fails to make his annual report as required the secretary should at once collect the statistics necessary for a complete report. The board should insist on promptness in preparing this report, and then should give the secretary a suitable compensation for his labors. Sections 2764, 2765.

SEC. 2786. Industrial exposition. The board of any school corporation or the director of any subdistrict deeming it expedient may, under the direction of the county superintendent, hold and maintain an industrial exposition in connection with the schools of such district, such exposition to consist in the exhibit of useful articles invented, made or raised by the pupils, by sample or otherwise, in any of the departments of mechanics, manufacture, art, science, agriculture and the kitchen, such exposition to be held in the schoolroom, on a school day, as often as once during a term, and not oftener than once a month, at which the pupils participating therein shall be required to explain, demonstrate or present the kind and plan of the articles exhibited, or give its method of culture; and work in these several departments shall be encouraged, and patrons of the school invited to be present at each exhibition. [15 G. A., ch. 64.]

SEC. 2737. Shade trees. The board of each school corporation shall cause to be set out and properly protected twelve or more shade trees on each schoolhouse site where such trees are not growing. The county superintendent, in visiting the several schools of his county, shall call the attention of any board neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section to any failure to carry out its provisions. [19 G. A., ch. 23.]

NOTES: 1. Trees should be planted. Trees should be set out on all schoolhouse sites where good, thrifty shade trees are not already growing, whether such site was secured by purchase, by lease, by gift, or by condemnation under sections 2814, 2816.

2. Duty of county superintendent. County superintendents should not fail to call the attention of boards of directors to the provisions of this section. The annual Arbor Day affords a good opportunity for planting trees and otherwise improving the school grounds.

3. Reporting. In reporting the number of shade trees on the school site, planted trees only should be reported. Section 2765.

SEC. 2788. Teacher—qualifications. No person shall be employed as a teacher in a common school which is to receive its distributive share of the school fund without having a certificate of qualification given by the county superintendent of the county in which the school is situated, or a certificate or diploma issued by some other officer duly authorized by law, and no compensation shall be recovered by a teacher for services rendered while without such certificate or diploma. [C. '73, § 1758; R., § 2062.]

NOTES: 1. Certificate necessary. The teacher must have a certificate during the whole term of school. He is not authorized to teach a single day beyond the period named in his certificate, nor to give instruction in any subject which he does not hold a valid credential to teach. In case of a violation of this section the county superintendent should promptly notify the officers of the board. Section 2740.

2. Without a certificate. If a person is teaching without a certificate any one interested in a legal sense may apply to a court for a writ to prevent the board from continuing such instruction, and to restrain the board from paying for the same.

3. Illinois case. In an Illinois case a certificate was not obtained until the middle of the term. A new contract was entered into at that time to pay the teacher double wages for the remainder of the term. This was considered an attempt to do indirectly what there was no power to do directly, and therefore the contract was held to be void, as was the original contract.

4. Supply—payment of. In case of the temporary absence of the teacher, from sickness or other cause, the place should be supplied with some one duly authorized to teach. The supply should be paid by the teacher whose place is filled, unless other provision is made, either by regulation or contract.

5. Rights of patrons. In case a person is employed or continued as a teacher in violation of law without a certificate, a resident of the district may sue out a writ of injunction restraining the person from teaching and the district from paying. Boards employing and paying such teachers are liable to prosecution under the provisions of the general statutes for misapplication of funds. Code, sections 4904, 4906 and 2822.

SEC. 2789. Keep register—report. Each teacher shall keep a daily register which shall correctly exhibit the name or the number of the school, the district and county in which it is located, the day of the week, month, year, and the name, age and attendance of each scholar, and the branches taught; and when scholars reside in different districts separate registers shall be kept for each district, and a certified copy of the register shall immediately at the close of the school be filed by the teacher in the office of the secretary of the board. The teacher shall file with the county superintendent such reports and in such manner as he may require. [C. '73, §§ 1759-60; R., § 2062.]

NOTES: 1. Necessity of correct record. Every teacher should take great pains to keep the register required by this section very carefully, in order that the term report may be made out correctly. By doing so the secretary will be able to make his annual report with greater ease, and with added accuracy. All books and blanks necessary for keeping record of attendance and making reports to the board and to the county superintendent must be furnished by the board.

2. Term report. The teacher should file a complete and accurate copy of the daily register with the secretary immediately after the close of the term or year. He is not entitled to final settlement until this is done. The secretary should insist on this report before drawing the warrant for the last installment of the wages. Without this report he cannot prepare his annual report as the law directs it to be made. The secretary should carefully examine the report to see whether the record is complete in all respects. Form 34.

3. Comply with directions of county superintendent. It is the duty of every board to see that the teachers comply strictly with all requirements made by the county superintendent, as well as with all rules made by the board. Decisions, 56.

4. Board may require reports. It is within the power of the board to require such reports from teachers as seem desirable for the information of the board. It may require reports weekly, monthly, by the term, by the year, or all of these together. It is the duty of teachers to comply with the regulations of the board, so far as it is within the power of the teachers to do so.

5. All teachers report. Every teacher in the county may be required to make such reports, agreeing with the spirit of the law, as the county superintendent may request, in such form and at such reasonable time as the county superintendent may determine.

6. In case of refusal. The continued refusal to comply with all uniform and reasonable regulations made by the county superintendent, or by the board, on the part of any one employed as a teacher, constitutes good cause for revocation or subsequent refusal of certificate, or for dismissal by the board. Sections 2734-u, 2782.

7. Non-resident pupils. The record of attendance of non-resident pupils must be kept separate from that of those residing in the corporation. This does not mean that different books shall be kept.

CORPORATIONS—ORGANIZATION—CHANGE OF BOUNDARIES.

SEC. 2790. New township. When a new civil township is formed, the same shall constitute a school township, which shall go into effect on the first Monday in March following the completed organization of the civil township. The notices of the first meeting shall be given by the county superintendent, and at such meeting a board of three directors shall be chosen. [C. '73, § 1713.]

NOTES: 1. Purpose of the law. The design of the law is that civil and school township boundaries shall coincide as far as possible. Code, sections 551, 552 and 2743.

2. When organized. A new school township is not organized until the month of March after an election of officers for the civil township.

3. Boundaries of subdistricts. The boundaries of subdistricts lying wholly within the old or new school townships are not affected by the division of civil townships.

4. When subdistricts are divided. When subdistricts are divided by changes in civil township boundaries, the boards should incorporate the several parts with other subdistricts, or otherwise provide for such territory, so that all entitled may vote at the following subdistrict election. In the absence of such action the territory properly belongs to the subdistrict which it adjoins, and the voters should be allowed to vote therein.

SEC. 2791. Attaching territory to adjoining corporation. In any case where, by reason of natural obstacles, any portion of the inhabitants of any school corporation in the opinion of the county superintendent cannot with reasonable facility attend school in their own corporation, he shall, by a written order, in duplicate, attach the part thus affected to an adjoining school corporation, the board of the same consenting thereto, one copy of which order shall be at once transmitted to the secretary of each corporation affected thereby, who shall record the same and make the proper designation on the plat of the corporation. Township or county lines shall not be a bar to the operation of this section. [C. '73, § 1797.]

NOTES: 1. Natural obstacles—what constitutes. The natural obstacle must be a large stream unbridged, an impassable slough, the entire absence of a public highway, or some such natural insurmountable difficulty.

2. Petition must allege obstacle. A petition which does not allege the existence of natural obstacles, and where, in fact, no such obstacles exist, is invalid. 62 Iowa, 616; 110 Iowa, 30.

3. What not obstacles. Streams well bridged and distance are not natural obstacles in the contemplation of the law.

4. Jurisdiction of county superintendent. As the county superintendent has original concurrent jurisdiction, an appeal cannot be taken from refusal by the board to accept the territory. 109 Iowa, 169.

5. Assets and liabilities. When the boundaries of districts are changed the territory transferred carries with it a just proportion of all assets and liabilities of the district from which it is taken. Section 2802; 58 Iowa, 77; 110 Iowa, 702.

6. Attaching territory, natural obstacle. Acting under section 2791 a division made on petition which does not allege the existence of such obstacles and where, in fact, no such obstacles exist is invalid. 110 Iowa, 30; 109 Iowa, 169.

SEC. 2792. Restoration. Where territory has been or may hereafter be set off to an adjoining school township in the same or another county, or attached for school purposes to an independent district so situated, it may be restored to the territory to which it geographically belongs upon the concurrence of the respective boards of directors, and shall be so restored by said boards upon the written application of two-thirds of the electors residing upon the territory so set off or attached, together with a concurrence of the county superintendent and the board of the school corporation which is to receive back the territory. [19 G. A., ch. 160; 18 G. A., ch. 111; C. '73, § 1798.]

NOTES: 1. Two methods. It will be noticed that two distinct and separate methods are provided by this section.

2. When take effect. The restoration may take effect at any time agreed upon, but if no agreement is made, it will take effect the following March. 59 Iowa, 109.

3. Assets and liabilities. When the boundaries of districts are changed, the territory transferred carries with it a just proportion of all assets and liabilities of the district from which it is taken. 58 Iowa, 77. Section 2802.

4. Action on petition—mandamus. Where the law is mandatory in requiring a board to act upon a petition, the remedy for its refusal to do so is mandamus, and not appeal. 86 Iowa, 669.

5. How test. Any conflict between districts with regard to boundaries will be best determined by the one aggrieved asking a court to restrain the county treasurer from paying taxes to the other district, on the ground that the district complaining is entitled to receive said taxes. 100 Iowa, 617.

6. Restoration of territory. Code, section 2792, relating to severance (restoration) of territory of an independent school district, applies only to a restoration of territory attached to an independent district after its organization, and not to a portion embraced in the original district. Albin vs. Board of Directors, 58 Iowa, 77, reversed; 124 Iowa, 213.

SEC. 2733. Boundary lines changed. The boundary lines of contiguous school corporations in the same county may be changed by the concurrent action of the respective boards of directors at their regular meetings in July, or at special meetings thereafter called for that purpose. The corporation from which territory is detached shall after the change contain not less than four government sections of land, and its boundary lines must conform to the lines of congressional divisions of land. In the same manner, the boundary lines of contiguous school corporations in the same county may be so changed that one corporation shall be included in and consolidated with the other as a single corporation. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 10; 22 G. A., ch. 62, § 1.]

NOTES: 1. Township line not a bar. Township lines are not a bar to a change of boundaries under section 2793.

2. New boards necessary. Whenever a change is made in the boundary between two school corporations, both corporations must elect entire new boards at the next regular annual election. See attorney general, report 1906, page 194. Note 22, section 2802.

SEC. 2793-a. Corporation limits changed. When the boundary line between a school township and an independent city or town district is not also the line between civil townships, such boundary may be changed at any time by the concurrence of the boards of directors; but in no case shall a forty-acre tract of land, by the government survey, be divided; and such subdivisions shall be excluded or included as entire forties. The boundaries of the school township or the independent district may in the same manner be extended to the line between civil townships, even though by such change one of the districts shall be included within and consolidated with the other as a single district. When the corporate limits of any city or town are extended outside the existing independent district or districts, the boundaries of said independent district or districts shall be also correspondingly extended. But in no case shall the boundaries of an independent district be affected by the reduction of the corporate limits of a city or town. [27 G. A., ch. 89.]

NOTES: 1. Township line a bar. If the boundary between an independent city or town district and a school township is also the line of a civil township, such boundary may not be changed under authority of section 2793-a, but may be under section 2793.

2. Extension of corporate limits—effect. When the corporate limits of a city or town in an independent district are extended beyond the boundary of the school corporation, the boundary of the school corporation is thereby extended, regardless of the effect upon the territory of the adjacent school corporation. See 120 Iowa, 119.

3. New boards necessary. See notes 2, section 2793, and 22, section 2802.

SEC. 2794. Formation of independent district. Upon the written petition of any ten voters of a city, town or village of over one hundred residents to the board of the school corporation in which the portion of the town plat having the largest number of voters is situated, such board shall establish the boundaries of a proposed independent district, including therein all of the city, town or village, and also such contiguous territory as is authorized by a written petition of a majority of the resident electors of the contiguous territory proposed to be included in said district, in not smaller subdivisions than entire forties of land, in the same or any adjoining school corporations, as may best subserve the convenience of the people for school purposes, and shall give the same notices of a meeting as required in other cases, at which meeting all voters upon the territory included within the contemplated independent district shall be allowed to vote by ballot for or against such separate organization. When it is proposed to include territory outside the town, city or village, the voters residing upon such outside territory shall be entitled to vote separately upon the proposition for the formation of such new district, by presenting a petition of at least twenty-five per cent of the voters residing upon such outside territory, and if a majority of the votes so cast is against including such outside territory, then the proposed independent district shall not be formed. [29 G. A., ch. 126, 19 G. A., ch. 118, § 1; 18 G. A., ch. 139; C. '73, §§ 1800-1; R., §§ 2097, 2105.]

NOTES: 1. Where reside. The one hundred residents must be contained within the limits of the town or village. Additional territory should be secured by the board in forming the new independent school district.

2. How number determined. The last official census will, as a general rule, be sufficiently accurate to determine questions relating to the population, but in case of doubt, the actual existing facts govern, which may be ascertained by any reliable means. 77 Iowa, 676. Code, section 177.

3. Must include. The contemplated independent school district must include all of the city, town or village, and may include all contiguous territory petitioned for. 110 Iowa, 652. Decisions, 105.

4. Board must act on petition. When the required petition is presented the law is mandatory upon the board to establish the boundaries and submit the proposition. 110 Iowa, 652. Decisions, 84, 105.

5. Determining boundary. The board may determine the boundaries of the proposed corporation, subject to the following:

(1) All of the town or village must be included;

(2) Territory not described in the petition may not be included;

(3) It is not necessary to include all territory described in the petition. 110 Iowa, 652.

6. Formation of independent town districts—effect on districts from which territory is taken is immaterial. A portion of a rural independent district may be included with part of a school township and the new independent district formed under code, section 2794, although there remain in the independent district thus severed less than four sections of land, and in so construing said section it may be necessary to extend its provisions to include independent districts. 120 Iowa, 119. See also school township of Bloomfield vs. Independent District of Castalia, 112 N. W., 5.

7. Boundaries—time as an element. Time does not settle the boundaries of an independent district so that they cannot be changed according to law. 120 Iowa, 119.

8. Electors determine desirability. It is for the electors and not the board to determine the desirability or necessity of the independent organization. 110 Iowa, 652.

9. Conform to congressional divisions. When the boundaries extend beyond the limits of a town or city, they must conform to lines of congressional divisions of land. Note 9 to section 2801.

10. Which board. The board of the school corporation in which a majority of the voters on the town plat reside, must establish the boundaries of said district without the concurrence of any other board, even when said territory is taken from two or more civil townships in the same or adjoining counties. 41 Iowa, 30; 25 Iowa, 305.

11. Notices. The notices of the election to determine the question of a separate organization should state clearly the boundaries of the proposed district.

12. Who vote. All of the electors residing within the proposed limits must be permitted to vote on the question of separate organization.

13. Separate ballot. The electors residing on the territory to be included, but outside of the town or village, are entitled to vote separately on the proposition if they ask such privilege by petition, either to the board or to the judges of the election.

14. Desirability—determined by. The desirability or necessity of the independent district is for the people to determine and not the board. 110 Iowa, 652.

15. Judges. The president and secretary of the school corporation should act as chairman and secretary of this meeting, and with one of the board, as judges of the election.

16. Incorporation of town. The incorporation of a town does not in itself affect the school organization of the district in which the town may be situated. However, it does change the method of choosing the treasurer. See sections 2754 and 2757.

17. Village—defined. Town sites platted and unincorporated shall be known as villages. Code, section 638.

18. Organization. Section 2795.

19. Effect upon adjacent corporation. The fact that the territory of an adjacent rural independent district from which territory is taken is reduced below four government sections does not affect the validity of the organization. 120 Iowa, 119.

20. Consolidated city districts—organization of consolidated independent districts. See section 2820-e and 2820-h, page 77. See section 2794-a, page 76.

SEC. 2795. Organization. If the proposition to establish an independent district carries, then the same board shall give the usual notice for a meeting to choose a board of directors. Two directors shall be chosen to serve until the next annual meeting, two until the second, and one until the third annual meeting thereafter. The board shall organize by the election of officers in the usual manner. [15 G. A., ch. 27; C. '73, § 1802; R., §§ 2099, 2100, 2106.]

NOTES: 1. When organize. The first board will enter upon its duties as soon as qualified and will organize by choosing a president and a secretary. The term of office of the president will expire on the third Monday in the following March, that of the secretary, on the first day of July following. In cities and towns a treasurer, to serve until the first day of the following July, will be chosen at the time the directors are chosen.

2. Certificate of organization. The secretary should immediately file with the county superintendent, auditor and treasurer, each, a certificate showing the officers of the board, and their postoffice address. All subsequent changes made in the officers of the board should be reported. Section 2766.

3. Officers—when qualify. The secretary and treasurer must qualify within ten days. Section 2760.

4. Record of organization. All proceedings connected with the organization of the new district should be recorded by the secretaries in the records of the districts from which territory is taken, so that the facts concerning its formation and organization may be readily obtained, in case the validity of the proceedings is ever questioned.

5. Division of assets and liabilities. As soon as the board of the new independent district has been organized, it may join with the boards from which territory has been taken in making a division of the assets and liabilities. Section 2802.

6. Validity of organization. See note 5, section 2743.

SEC. 2796. Taxes certified and levied. The organization of such independent district shall be effected on or before the first day of August of the year in which it is attempted, and, when completed, all taxes certified for the school township or townships of which the independent district formed a part shall be void so far as the property within the limits of the independent district is concerned, and the board of such independent district shall fix the amount of all necessary taxes for school purposes, including schoolhouse taxes, at a meeting called for such purpose at any time before the third Monday of August, which shall be certified to the board of supervisors on or before the first Monday of September, and it shall levy said tax at the same time and in the same manner that other school taxes are required to be levied. [C. '73, § 1804.]

NOTES: 1. When organization completed. This section is construed to mean that the organization contemplated must be made between January first and the first of August. This limitation as to time is directory only, and does not apply when an appeal is taken. 110 Iowa, 652. Decisions, 88.

2. Taxes. When a new independent school district is organized as provided by this section, the board has authority to determine and certify all necessary taxes, for school purposes, for that year, including schoolhouse taxes.

3. Joint district—jurisdiction. An independent school district composed of territory from two or more counties, belongs, for school purposes, to the county in which the school corporation, with whose board the petition for separate organization was filed and which conducted the elections for the organization of the new corporation, is located. Certificates of the teachers of such corporations must be registered with the superintendent of the same county.

SEC. 2794-a. Consolidation—how effected. When a written description describing the boundaries of contiguous territory containing not less than sixteen (16) government sections within one or more counties is signed by one-third of the electors residing on such territory and approved by the county superintendent, if of one county and by the superintendents of each if of more than one county, and by the state superintendent if the county superintendents do not agree, and filed with the board of the school corporation in which the portion of the proposed district having the largest number of voters is situated, requesting the establishment of a consolidated independent district, it shall be the duty of said board within ten days to call an election in the proposed consolidated independent district, for which they shall give the same notices as are required in sections twenty-seven hundred and forty-six (2746) of the code and twenty-seven hundred and fifty (2750) of the supplement to the code, at which meeting all voters residing in the proposed independent district shall be allowed to vote by ballot for or against such separate organization. If a majority of votes cast at such election shall be in favor of such independent organization, the organization of the proposed corporation shall be completed by the election of a board of directors as provided in section twenty-seven hundred and ninety-five (2795) of the code, said board to organize on the first day of July following unless that day falls on a Sunday, in which case on the day following. All taxes previously certified shall be void so far as the property within the limits of the consolidated independent district is concerned, and all taxes necessary for the new corporation shall be certified and levied as provided in section twenty-seven hundred and ninety-six (2796) of the code, but no school corporation from which territory is taken shall, after the change, contain less than four government sections, which territory shall be contiguous and so situated as to form a suitable corporation. When it is proposed to include in such district a town, city or village, the voters residing upon the territory outside of the town, city or village shall be entitled to vote separately upon the proposition for the formation of such new district by presenting a petition of at least twenty-five per cent of the voters residing upon such outside territory, and if a majority of the vote so cast is against including such outside territory, then the proposed independent district shall not be formed. [31 G. A., ch. 141.]

NOTES: 1. Petition approved. The petition should be submitted to the county superintendent before being circulated.

2. Duty of superintendent. The county superintendent should exercise sound discretion, considering the effect of the change upon all concerned, both within and without the proposed new corporation.

SEC. 2820-e. Consolidation authorized. That in all cities of the first class containing a population of fifty thousand or over, according to any census taken by the authority or under the direction of the state of Iowa or of the United States, all the territory embraced within the corporate limits of any such city may be consolidated into and become one independent school district, known as the independent school district of (naming the city), state of Iowa, in the manner following: [32 G. A., ch. 155, § 1.]

SEC. 2820-f. Petition—question submitted—consolidation effected—board of directors—officers. When a written petition, requesting the establishment of a consolidated independent district whose territory shall be co-extensive with that of such city, signed by one hundred voters of such city, is filed with the board of the school corporation, therein having the largest number of voters, it shall be the duty of said board within ten days, to call an election, at which all the voters residing in the proposed district shall be allowed to vote by ballot for or against the proposition, "Shall all the territory within the city of (naming it) be united into one school district?" The board calling said election shall divide the territory within the proposed district into such number of precincts, as the board shall determine, and the judges of election shall make and certify a return of the vote to the secretary of the same board which shall, on the next Monday after the election, canvass the returns made to the secretary, ascertain the result of the election, declare the same and cause a record to be made thereof, and in all other respects, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this act, the election shall be conducted as provided by law for elections in independent school districts in cities of the first class. If a majority of the votes cast at such election is favorable to the proposition, the consolidation and formation of said independent district shall thereby be effected, and the board of directors, treasurer, and other officers of the school corporation then holding office in the district affected by such consolidation having the largest number of voters, shall become the board of directors, treasurer and other officers of such consolidated district, and shall continue to hold their respective offices until the terms for which they were originally elected shall expire. The terms of office of all directors, treasurers and officers of boards in all the other districts affected by this act, lying wholly within such consolidated district and holding office at the time of such consolidation, shall cease and determine, and in case of districts lying partly without such consolidated district, the directors, officers and treasurers shall continue to have authority only over the territory lying within their districts, and without the consolidated district; provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the terms of employment of superintendents, principals, or teachers for the current school year, in which such consolidation may be effected. [32 G. A., ch. 155, § 2.]

SEC. 2820-g. Taxes. All taxes previously certified during that year, shall be void so far as the property within the limits of the consolidated independent district is concerned. And all taxes necessary for the new corporation for that year shall be certified and levied as provided in section twenty-seven hundred ninety-six (2796) of the code. All property belonging to districts affected by such consolidation shall become the property of the consolidated district, except that in case of districts lying partly without such city, the liabilities and assets of such districts shall be equitably apportioned in accordance with chapter one hundred thirty-six (136), section thirteen (13) acts of the thirty-first (31) general assembly, but nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of existing creditors. [32 G. A., ch. 155, § 3.]

SEC. 2820-h. Election expense. The expense of such election shall be borne by the consolidated district, in case such district shall be formed, otherwise by the separate districts in proportion to the assessed valuation therein within the proposed consolidated district. [32 G. A., ch. 155, § 4.]

SEC. 2797. Rural independent districts. At any time before the first day of August, upon the written request of one-third of the legal voters in each subdistrict of any school township, the board shall call a meeting of the voters of the subdistrict, giving at least thirty days' notice thereof by posting three notices in each subdistrict in each school township, at which meeting the voters shall vote by ballot for or against rural independent district organization. If a majority of the votes cast in each subdistrict shall be favorable to such independent organization, then each subdistrict shall become a rural independent district, and the board of the school township shall then call a meeting in each rural independent district for the choice of three directors, to serve one, two and three years, respectively, and the organization of the said rural independent district shall be completed. [22 G. A., ch. 61.]

NOTES: 1. When taken. The vote upon the change may be taken at any time of year, but the organization cannot be completed between August and January.

2. Must carry in all. Unless each and every subdistrict in the school township gives a majority vote favoring the change in form, the township remains a school township.

3. Town or village may organize. A single subdistrict may be organized independent only when a village, town or city is included. Section 2794.

4. Assets and liabilities. When the new boards are organized, they should meet as soon as possible, and make settlement of assets and liabilities, as directed by section 2802.

5. One subdistrict may not. One subdistrict cannot be changed to a rural independent district unless all the subdistricts of the school township vote to become rural independent districts.

6. Validity of organization. See note 5, section 2743.

SEC. 2798. Subdivision of independent districts. Independent districts may subdivide for the purpose of forming two or more independent districts or have territory detached to be annexed with other territory in the formation of an independent district or districts, the board of directors of the original independent districts to establish the boundaries of the districts thus formed, such new districts to contain not less than four government sections of land each; but in case a stream or other obstacle shall debar a number of children of school privileges, an independent district may be thus organized containing less territory; or, if such new district shall include within its territory a town or village with not less than one hundred inhabitants, it may in like manner be made up of less territory; but in neither case shall the new district contain less than two government sections of land, nor be organized except on a majority vote of the electors of each proposed district, and the proceedings for such subdivision shall in all respects be like those provided in the section relating to organizing cities and towns into independent districts, so far as applicable. [18 G. A., ch. 131; 17 G. A., ch. 133, §§ 1-4.]

NOTES: 1. Township lines not a bar. The provisions of this section apply to all independent districts, and civil township lines are not a bar.

2. Area. The amount of territory cannot be less than an equivalent of four government sections, unless the provision of this section apply.

3. When less than four sections. An independent district containing territory amounting to less than eight government sections may be divided into two independent districts, if an unbridged stream or other obstacle prevents a considerable number of scholars from attending school, or if one portion contains a village of not less than one hundred inhabitants. The district so formed must contain territory amounting to not less than two government sections, and a majority of the votes cast in each contemplated district must be cast for the division.

4. Minimum. When an independent district is subdivided under this section the one of the districts not formed in accordance with the exception made must have at least four sections.

5. Validity of organization. See note 5, section 2743.

6. New boards necessary. Attorney general, report 1906, page 194; notes 2, section 2793, and 22, section 2802.

SEC. 2799. Uniting independent districts. Independent districts located contiguous to each other may unite and form one and the same independent district in the manner following: At the written request of any ten legal voters residing in each of said independent districts, or, if there be not ten, then a majority of such voters, their respective boards of directors shall require their secretaries to give at least ten days' notice of the time and place for a meeting of the electors residing in each of such districts, by posting written notices in at least five public places in each of said districts, at which meeting the electors shall vote by ballot for or against a consolidated organization of said independent districts, and, if a majority of the votes cast at the election in each district shall be in favor of uniting said districts, the secretaries shall give similar notice of a meeting of the electors as provided for by law for the organization of independent districts including cities and towns. [22 G. A., ch. 63, § 1; C. '73, § 1811.]

NOTES: 1. Vote separately. The proposition to consolidate independent districts must be separately voted upon in each of the districts affected. Unless a majority of the votes cast at such election in each district is in favor of such consolidation, it fails.

2. Application. The provisions of this section also apply to rural independent districts. * Opinion of attorney general, report 1902, page 161.

3. Times for elections. It is not essential for the consolidation of two school districts that the election in each district be held at the same time, as code section 2799, governing such elections, is only directory. 130 Iowa, 100.

4. Validity of organization. See note 5, section 2743.

5. New board necessary. Attorney general, report 1906, page 194; notes 2, section 2793, and 22, section 2802.

SEC. 2800. Rural independent districts united into school township.

A township which has been divided into rural independent districts may be erected into a school township by a vote of the electors, to be taken upon the written request of one-third of the legal voters residing in such civil township. Upon presentation of such written request to the township trustees, they shall call a meeting of the electors at the usual place or places of holding the township election, upon giving at least ten days' notice thereof by posting three written notices in each rural independent district in the township, and by publication in a newspaper, if one be published in such township, at which meeting the said electors shall vote by ballot for or against a school township organization. If a majority of the votes cast at such election be in favor of such organization, each rural independent district shall become a subdistrict of the school township, and shall organize as such on the first Monday in March following by the election of a director, notice of which shall be given as in other cases by the secretary of each of the rural independent districts, and the directors so elected shall organize as a board of directors of the school township on the first day of July following, unless that date falls on Sunday, in which case on the day following. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 11; 16 G. A., ch. 155; C. '73, §§ 1815-20.]

NOTES: 1. Who may act. The electors of any civil township which has adopted the rural independent school district organization, may vote upon the question of returning to the school township organization.

2. Petition—to whom presented. The petition provided for in this section may be presented to the trustees and the vote ordered at any time of the year. When a proper petition is presented, the law makes it mandatory upon the township trustees to call and hold an election.

3. A school township meeting. The meeting held to determine the question of school township organization, is a township meeting; if the vote is in the affirmative, each and every rural independent school district in the township becomes a subdistrict of the school township.

4. Election of judges. The township trustees may act as judges of this election, but in their absence the electors assembled may choose a chairman and one or two secretaries to act as judges.

5. When organization completed. The board of each rural independent school district will continue to act until the first day of July following the election, at which time a full statement of all assets and liabilities of the district should be reported to the board of the school township when organized.

6. Township as a single district. The first board of a school township formed from a township organized as a single rural district, will consist of three directors elected by the whole township. Section 2752. If this board chooses to subdivide the township it may do so. Section 2801.

7. Township meeting. The school township meeting is held on the second Monday in March, to vote the necessary schoolhouse taxes as provided in section 2749.

8. Authority of boards. Between the time of the election provided for and the first day of July following, the boards of the several rural independent school districts have authority to perform all necessary acts relating to the affairs of their districts, but they cannot incur any indebtedness, nor make any contracts, except such as may be necessary to maintain the usual schools of their districts.

9. Duty of secretary. Upon the organization of the school township, the secretary should file with the county auditor and treasurer a certified plat of the district, and report to the county superintendent, auditor and treasurer, the name and address of each officer of the new board. Section 2766.

10. Assets and liabilities. The school township receives all the assets and assumes all the liabilities of the several rural independent school districts. In case a rural independent school district has issued bonds or otherwise incurred an indebtedness, for the erection of a schoolhouse and the electors have failed to provide for the payment thereof, the board of the school township has authority to apportion schoolhouse taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, from time to time, as justice and equity may require. Section 2813.

11. Validity of organization. See note 5, section 2743.

SEC. 2801. Division of school township into subdistricts. The board of any school township may by a vote of a majority of all the members thereof, at the regular meeting in July, or at any special meeting called thereafter for that purpose, divide the school township into subdistricts such as justice, equity and the interests of the people require, and may make such alterations of the boundaries of subdistricts heretofore formed as may be deemed necessary, and shall designate such subdistricts and all subsequent alterations in a distinct and legible manner upon a plat of the school township provided for that purpose, and shall cause a written description of the same to be recorded in the records of the school township, a copy of which shall be delivered by the secretary to the county treasurer and also to the county auditor, who shall record the same in his office. The boundaries of subdistricts shall conform to the lines of the congressional divisions of land, and the formation or alteration of subdistricts as contemplated in this section shall not take effect until the first Monday in March thereafter, at which time a director shall be elected for any subdistrict newly formed. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 12; 21 G. A., ch. 124; 16 G. A., ch. 109; C. '73, §§ 1725, 1738, 1796; R., § 2038.]

NOTES: 1. Compliance. All changes in subdistrict boundaries must be made in strict conformity with this section.

2. Vote necessary. Subdistrict boundaries can be changed only by affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the board.

3. When made. While this section provides that boards may change subdistrict boundaries at the regular meeting in July, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, it must be understood that such change cannot be made so late as to prevent the notices of election from being given at least five days previous to the subdistrict elections, as required by section 2751. Decisions, 52.

4. Change of civil township—effect of. When new civil townships are formed, the corresponding changes in school township boundaries take effect at the next subdistrict election. Section 2790.

5. All territory in some corporation. All territory must be included within some school corporation, and all of a school township must be included in some subdistrict, when the territory is so subdivided. Decisions, 33.

6. Subdistrict not a corporation. A subdistrict is not a corporate body and has no financial claims, nor can it be held liable for debts, except as a part of the school township. Decisions, 13.

7. Redistricting. The board may discontinue or abolish any subdistrict by a readjustment of boundaries, and it may provide that there shall be no subdistricts, and that the schools of the corporation shall be governed by a board of three directors chosen from the township at large. Section 2752.

8. County officers notified. It is especially important that the county auditor and treasurer be officially notified by the secretary, whenever any changes are made in district boundaries, by the formation of independent districts or otherwise, to enable these officers to perform their duties in the levy of taxes, and the apportionment and disbursement of school funds.

9. Congressional divisions. By congressional divisions of land is meant those divisions authorized by congress in government surveys, of which the smallest is, in general, one-sixteenth of a section, or a tract of forty acres in a square form. Government lines, however, sometimes meander along streams and other bodies of water, and divisions of land are thus formed of less than forty acres. Decisions, 33.

10. Number necessary for new subdistrict. There is nothing in the law fixing the number of persons of school age necessary for a new subdistrict, nor is the exact amount of territory to be included determined by the law.

11. Entire corporation considered. When establishing subdistrict boundaries the interests of the entire corporation must be considered. Decisions, 111.

SEC. 2802. Changes of boundaries—division of assets and liabilities.

When any changes are made in the boundaries of any school corporation the new corporation shall elect a board of directors in accordance with the new boundaries, and such new boards shall organize as provided in section twenty-seven hundred fifty-seven (2757) of this chapter. The boards of directors in office at the time the changes are made in the boundaries of the school corporation, shall continue to act until the boards of directors representing the newly formed districts have been duly organized, whereupon the new boards shall make an equitable division of all assets and liabilities of the corporations affected; and, if they cannot agree, the matters upon which they differ shall be decided by disinterested arbitrators, one selected by each board having an interest therein, and if the number thus selected is even then one shall be added by the county superintendent, and the decision of the arbitrators shall be made in writing, either party having the right to appeal therefrom to the district court. [C. '73, § 1715; 31 G. A., ch. 136, § 13.]

NOTES: 1. Assets and liabilities. Assets include schoolhouses, sites, and all other property and moneys belonging to the district. Liabilities include all debts for which the district in its corporate capacity is liable. In determining the assets, school property should be estimated at its present cash value.

2. Assets—apportionment of. The division of assets will relate to the schoolhouse and other property, moneys in all funds on hand, and uncollected taxes. The territory transferred carries with it such a part of the assets and liabilities of the corporation to which it belonged as the assessed valuation of such territory is part of the assessed valuation of the property of the corporation.

3. Teachers' fund—apportionment. Any portion of the teachers' fund derived from the semi-annual apportionment, should be divided in proportion to the number of persons between five and twenty-one years of age, according to the last enumeration.

4. Schoolhouse—where belong. Schoolhouses will usually become the property of the district in which they are situated. If their value exceeds the amount justly due that district, and there is not sufficient schoolhouse fund on hand to equalize the division, the boards should fix the amount each district should receive or pay.

5. Equitable division desired. An equitable arrangement mutually satisfactory to the parties in interest will be in accordance with the intent of the law. Any agreement should be reduced to writing, and entered upon the records of each district.

6. Claim. The districts, after the division, which do not receive their just proportion of schoolhouse property, have a claim against those that do obtain more than a due share. The last are indebted to the first in the difference. 36 Iowa, 216.

7. Unpaid and delinquent taxes—apportionment. A simple and just method to dispose of unpaid and delinquent taxes, also of all funds in the hands of the county treasurer, is to direct the payment of these funds in such manner that taxes derived from any part of the territory shall be paid to the district to which such territory will then belong.

8. Recovery. If money is received which belongs to another, the rule is a general one that the law implies a promise on the part of the receiver to pay it over. Based upon this promise an action may be maintained for its recovery. 11 Iowa, 506; 80 Iowa, 495.

9. Injunction as a test. Any conflict between districts, with regard to boundaries will be best determined by the one aggrieved asking a court to restrain the county treasurer from paying taxes to the other district, on the ground that the district complaining is entitled to receive said taxes.

10. Scope of the law. Section 2793 provides for a change of boundaries between adjoining independent districts in the same county and for consolidation.

11. Change of boundaries. If the boundary between an independent district and a school township is the line of the civil township, it cannot be changed under section 2793-a, except there be an incorporated town, and then only by the extension of the corporate limits of such town. If the independent school district includes a portion of a civil township, the remainder of which is a school township, the boundary between the districts may be changed.

12. Concurrence—appeal. Where a change of boundaries between districts is desired, and one of the boards acts favorably, a petition may be presented to the other board to concur in that action, although it formerly may have refused to grant a similar petition. From the action of the latter board upon the request an appeal may be taken.

13. Initiatory—no appeal. No appeal can be taken from an action of the board taking the initiatory step, while it requires the concurrence of another board to complete the action. The concurrence or refusal of the second board is the order from which an appeal may be taken. Decisions, 49, 58.

14. Power of county superintendent. When an appeal is taken from the proper board, the county superintendent must affirm the action of one board or the other, but cannot himself modify the action of the board acting first. Decisions, 58.

15. Assets and liabilities. Territory transferred from one district to another carries with it an equitable proportion of the assets and liabilities of the district from which it is taken, the district accepting it becomes responsible for such liabilities.

16. Initiatory—immaterial. It is not material which board takes the first action with regard to the transfer of territory. Usually it is desirable to secure the action of the board with regard to which there is no doubt, and afterward to endeavor to induce the other board to take the same action. If the board last acting takes an action different in kind it may be regarded as initiating a new order, which in turn must go to the other board for adoption or rejection.

17. Assets and liabilities—no appeal. An appeal to the county superintendent will not lie from a joint action of the boards in making a settlement of assets and liabilities. Decisions, 80.

18. Who may demand. Demand for settlement and division of assets must be made by one authorized to make such demand upon one authorized to act. 110 Iowa, 702.

19. Arbitrators—mandamus. When arbitrators have been appointed, mandamus will lie to compel them to act. 110 Iowa, 702.

20. Power of arbitrators. The arbitrators can consider only such assets and liabilities as existed between the districts at the time the new district was formed. 107 Iowa, 73.

21. Choice of arbitrators. When the respective boards of directors have met and failed to agree, mandamus may be maintained to compel a choice of arbitrators, but not to compel the making of equitable division. 68 Iowa, 486.

22. Change of boundaries—new boards. The boards of directors of the respective districts where the boundaries of the school districts are changed by the extension of the lines of the corporation, can act in their official capacity only until the next regular election in the respective districts. At such regular election, each of the districts must elect an entire new board of directors in accordance with the new boundaries. This section applies also to cases where such change is made by agreement of the respective boards of the school district. See report of attorney general, 1906, page 194.

SEC. 2803. Attending school in another corporation. A child residing in one corporation may attend school in another in the same or adjoining county if the two boards so agree. In case no such agreement is made, the county superintendent of the county in which the child resides and the board of such adjoining corporation may consent to such attendance, if the child resides nearer a schoolhouse in the adjoining corporation and one and one-half miles or more from any public school in the corporation of his residence. But before granting such consent the county superintendent shall give notice to the board where the child resides and hear objections, if any. In case such consent is given, the board of the district of the child's residence shall be notified thereof in writing, and shall pay to the other district the average tuition per week and an average proportion of contingent expenses for the school or room thereof in which such child attends. If payment is refused or neglected, the board of the creditor corporation shall file an account thereof certified by its president with the auditor of the county of the child's residence, who shall, at the time of the making of the next semi-annual apportionment, deduct the amount from the sum apportioned to the debtor district, and cause it to be paid to the corporation entitled thereto. [17 G. A., ch. 41; 16 G. A., ch. 64; C. '73, § 1793; R., § 2024; C. '51, § 1143.]

NOTES: 1. By agreement of boards. This section grants to all boards the power to agree upon terms of attendance. Such agreement should name the amount to be paid, if any, the time during which the stipulation shall be in force, and other matters.

2. Without agreement of boards. If scholars reside more than one and one-half miles from a school in their own district and nearer to a school in another district, which they desire to attend, application should first be made to both boards of directors; if the boards refuse to enter into an agreement, they may attend school in such district with the consent of the board of the district where they desire to attend and of the county superintendent of the county in which the children reside.

3. Different townships. This section applies to districts in the same or in different civil townships or counties.

4. Purpose of law. What is sought by the law is to supply to every child advantages equal as nearly as possible with those afforded to the average child.

5. When consent of both boards necessary. If scholars live nearer to a school in their own district, or less than one and one-half miles of one, they can attend school in another district at the expense of their own district, only by an agreement of both boards.

6. Consent of board necessary. In no case may scholars attend school in a district in which they do not reside, without the consent of the board thereof.

7. When superintendent may act. The first three lines give the boards power to agree upon terms of attendance, without regard to the distance in the case. But advantage may not be taken of the remainder of the section unless all the provisions enumerated are fulfilled.

8. Distance—how determined. In determining distances to different schools the measurement must be made by the nearest public highway to each school. And if the person lives off the highway, the distance should be computed by the nearest and most accessible private way as usually traveled from the residence to the highway.

9. What is sought. What is sought to be determined is the actual distance necessary to be traveled by the scholar. It may therefore sometimes be required to measure from the door of the home of the scholar to the door of the schoolhouse, in order to ascertain definitely the actual distance from school.

10. Must provide school. Every district is bound to provide school facilities for the children thereof; and children living in a school district in one county may attend school in an adjoining district in another county under the provisions of this section. 113 Iowa, 549.

11. Consent of county superintendent. In giving or withholding his consent, the county superintendent should consider all the circumstances, and when he has concurred or refused to concur, the matter is concluded for that time, as no appeal will lie.

12. Position of county superintendent. The position of the county superintendent is somewhat similar to that of a disinterested arbitrator between the two boards. He should confer with both boards if possible and should take into account all the conditions of the case.

13. Superintendent should hesitate. If there is little difference in the distance, or if the schoolhouse of the scholar is only slightly in excess of a mile and a half, then the county superintendent should hesitate to concur, especially if it will weaken the funds or diminish the attendance at the home school so as to unduly impair its success.

14. Action is concurrent. The action of the board where the children desire to attend and of the county superintendent is a concurrent one. The two parties are thus supposed to have equal discretionary powers.

15. Collection of tuition. Collection of tuition cannot be made by appeal to the county superintendent, but such questions in controversy must be settled through the courts.

16. Notice. The notice referred to cannot be said to be officially transmitted unless signed by both the president and secretary. Payment for attendance can be collected from the district where the children reside, only from the date of such notice. Form 44.

17. Term of. This notice holds only for the term, or such time as the county superintendent and board name in their written concurrent agreement.

18. Mailing, not notice. Depositing a letter in a postoffice without further proof that such letter reached the party addressed, is not a legal notice as required to secure payment of tuition. Code, section 3531.

19. Amount—how determined. The average proportion of tuition and contingent expenses for any number of scholars is found by dividing the amount expended for these purposes in the school where they have attended, by the total attendance in days, and multiplying the quotient by the number of days said scholars have attended.

20. Average in graded schools. When scholars attend a graded school, the average tuition should be computed on the basis of the expenses of each pupil in the grade or room in which such scholars are placed; the average expense of contingent fund may be computed as a part of the whole contingent expense of such school.

21. Comply with law. Any other action than compliance with the absolute and explicit terms of the law, will render the collection of tuition difficult and in most cases impossible. Decisions, 48.

22. Law equitable. The provisions of this section are the result of a long experience in this state with regard to the matter of attendance. As a general provision, the law is very equitable and gives almost universal satisfaction.

SEC. 2804. School age—nonresidents. Persons between five and twenty-one years of age shall be of school age. Nonresident children and those sojourning temporarily in any school corporation may attend school therein upon such terms as the board may determine. The parent or guardian whose child or ward attends school in any independent district of which he is not a resident shall be allowed to deduct the amount of school tax paid by him in said district from the amount of the tuition required to be paid. [C. '73, § 1795.]

NOTES: 1. Under school age. Children under five years of age would be more injured by the confinement than benefited by the instruction. They cannot claim the advantages of the school, and should not be allowed to attend. They may not be admitted to receive instruction even upon the payment of tuition.

2. Over school age. Persons over twenty-one years of age are not entitled to attend the public schools, but they may be admitted upon such terms as the board deems proper.

3. Board determines residence. The board must be satisfied that the residence of the scholar in the district is actual before allowing free attendance.

4. Method of determining. In determining whether a person is entitled to attendance free of tuition, the board may take any impartial method of deciding the question. Decisions, 68.

5. Appeal. Any one aggrieved by an order of the board admitting, or refusing to admit, a scholar, has the remedy of appeal.

6. Taxes not basis for attendance. Paying school taxes does not entitle non-residents to school privileges, but school taxes paid in an independent district shall be deducted from the amount of tuition required of a non-resident pupil.

7. Self-supporting minors. Young people who are making their own living should not be excluded from school privileges in the district where they are at home.

8. Admission of pupil—mandamus. The action of a school board in denying a pupil free admission to the schools on the ground of non-residence cannot be reviewed in a mandamus proceeding; the remedy is appeal. 124 Iowa, 355.

SEC. 2805. Bible not excluded. The bible shall not be excluded from any public school or institution in the state, nor shall any child be required to read it contrary to the wishes of his parent or guardian. [C. '73, § 1764; R., § 2119.]

NOTES: 1. A suitable exercise. Our common schools are maintained at public expense, and the law contemplates that they shall be equally free to persons of every faith. A very suitable devotional exercise consists in the teacher's reading a portion of scripture without comment, and the repetition of the Lord's prayer.

2. Teacher determines. Neither the board nor the electors may direct the teacher to follow a given course in respect to the reading of the bible in school. Each teacher will be guided by his own good judgment, restricted only by the provision that no child shall be required to read it contrary to the wishes of his parent or guardian, and such provision is not unconstitutional. 64 Iowa, 367. The wishes of his patrons may properly be given weight in aiding him to determine his action.

3. Regulation regarding religion. While moral instruction should be given in every school, neither this section nor the spirit of our constitution and laws will permit a teacher or board to enforce a regulation in regard to religious exercises, which will wound the conscience of any, and no scholar can be required to conform to any particular mode of worship. 64 Iowa, 367.

4. Moral instruction. Moral instruction tending to impress upon the minds of pupils the importance of truthfulness, temperance, purity, public spirit, patriotism, and respect for honest labor, obedience to parents and due deference for old age, should be given by every teacher in the public schools.

5. Injunction. If a teacher gives religious instruction or teaches in the interest of any church or denomination, the board may be prevented from continuing or sanctioning such instruction, by injunction from the courts; and having ordered or countenanced this instruction, may be prevented in the same manner from paying such teacher from the public school funds.

6. Public funds may not be used. The diversion of the school fund in any form or to any extent for the support of sectarian or private schools is inadmissible and clearly in violation of our laws. 59 Iowa, 70.

7. Public funds may not be loaned. Public money shall not be appropriated, given or loaned by the corporate authorities of any county or township, to or in favor of any institution, school, association or object which is under ecclesiastical or sectarian management or control. Code, section 593.

TAXES.

SEC. 2806. School taxes. The board of each school corporation shall at its regular meeting in July, or at a special meeting called for that purpose between the time designated for such regular meeting and the third Monday in August, estimate the amount required for the contingent fund, not exceeding five dollars for each person of school age, but each school corporation may estimate not exceeding seventy-five dollars for each school thereof, and such additional sum as may be necessary not exceeding five dollars for each person of school age for transporting children to and from school; and also such additional sum as may be authorized in the chapter on uniformity of text-books; also such sum as may be required for the teachers' fund, which, including the amount received from the semi-annual apportionment, shall not exceed fifteen dollars for each person of school age therein, but each corporation may estimate not exceeding two hundred and seventy dollars, including such apportionment, for each regular school therein. No tax shall be estimated by the board after the third Monday in August in each year. School corporations containing territory in adjoining counties may vote and estimate all taxes for school purposes in mills. The board shall apportion any tax voted by the annual meeting for schoolhouse fund among the several subdistricts in such a manner as justice and equity may require, taking as the basis of such apportionment the respective amounts previously levied upon said subdistricts for the use of such fund. [31 G. A., ch. 136, § 14; 28 G. A., ch. 108; 15 G. A., ch. 67, § 1; C. '73, §§ 1738, 1777-8, 1780; R., §§ 2033-4, 2037-44, 2088.]

NOTES: 1. Specific sums certified. This section requires boards to certify the specific sums necessary to be raised for teachers' and contingent funds to the board of supervisors, whose duty it is to estimate and levy the per centum necessary to raise the amounts so certified.

2. Joint districts certify mills. Districts formed from territory lying in adjoining counties, may vote and certify to the respective boards of supervisors the number of mills on the dollar required to raise the necessary school taxes.

3. Tax void. The general rule is that a tax estimated by the board after the third Monday in August is void. This renders it essential that boards certify taxes within the required time. 73 Iowa, 304. For exceptions see sections 2767, 2796, 3973.

4. Schoolhouse fund voted by electors. It is the rule that schoolhouse funds must be voted by the electors. Exceptions, sections 2767, 2796, 2811, 2813 and 3973.

5. Board determines amount necessary. It is wholly within the discretion of the board to determine the amounts required for the contingent and teachers' funds. 41 Iowa, 153. Any vote of the electors with reference to these amounts is only suggestive, and is not at all binding.

6. Limit of levy. This section limits the amount which may be levied for any one year, to fifteen dollars per scholar for teachers' fund, five dollars per scholar for contingent fund, and five dollars per scholar extra when necessary for transportation of pupils; but authorizes the levy of seventy-five dollars for contingent, and two hundred and seventy dollars for teachers' fund for each regular school, even if the levy thereby exceeds five and fifteen dollars per scholar, for these funds. When free text-books have been authorized, an additional amount not exceeding one and one-half dollars for each person of school age may be estimated for the contingent fund. Section 2825.

7. Maximum levy. If the amount of schoolhouse tax voted and certified by the board of directors in any one year exceeds the limit which the board of supervisors is allowed to levy under the provisions of this section, it is the duty of the board of supervisors to levy only the maximum amount authorized by law. Section 2807.

8. Apportionment of funds. The teachers' and contingent funds are not to be apportioned among the subdistricts, but levied uniformly on the taxable property of the school township.

9. When not apply. The first provision in this section does not apply where a larger tax is required to meet the interest on valid outstanding bonds. 69 Iowa, 612. Section 2813.

10. Minimum levy. The second provision in this section was added for the relief of sparsely settled communities, in which five dollars per scholar for contingent fund and fifteen dollars per scholar for teachers' fund, is not adequate to maintain schools for the time required by law.

11. How compel secretary to certify. To determine conclusively whether it is the duty of the secretary to certify a tax supposed to have been voted by the voters, but with regard to which vote there is some doubt, an application to a court for a writ of mandamus or injunction, as the case may be, will secure a settlement of all questions involved.

12. A school corporation not a municipality. A school district is not a municipality within the meaning of chapter 62, section 14, laws of 1894 (code, section 2445) and cannot claim one-half of the mulct tax. 102 Iowa, 5.

13. When levy unnecessary. If the board finds a sufficient amount of teachers' fund and contingent fund on hand and in sight to support the schools for the current year, it may decline to certify any amount to be raised under this section.

14 Taxes—laches—estoppel. 123 Iowa, 55.

15 Taxes—recovery. 109 Iowa, 606.

SEC. 2807. Levy by board of supervisors. The board of supervisors shall at the time of levying taxes for county purposes levy the taxes necessary to raise the various funds authorized by law and certified to it under this chapter, but if the amount certified for any such fund is in excess of the amount authorized by law it shall levy only so much thereof as is authorized by law. If a schoolhouse tax is voted at a special meeting and certified to said board after the regular levy is made, it shall at its next regular meeting levy such tax and cause the same to be forthwith entered upon the tax list to be collected as other school taxes. It shall also levy a tax for the support of the schools within the county of not less than one nor more than three mills on the dollar on the assessed value of all the taxable property within the county. [C. '73, §§ 1779-80; R., §§ 2057, 2059.]

NOTES: 1. Transfer. A board of review has no authority to transfer property from one school corporation to another for assessment. 108 N. W., 220.

2. Taxes—liability. Property in a school corporation at the time of the levy of a schoolhouse tax is liable for the tax, though not a part of the corporation at the time the tax was voted. 108 N. W., 528.

SEC. 2803. Apportionment. The county auditor shall on the first Monday in April and the first Monday in October of each year, apportion to the school tax, together with the interest of the permanent school fund and rents on unsold lands to which the county is entitled as shown in the notice from the auditor of state, and all other money in the hands of the county treasurer belonging in common to the schools of the county and not included in any previous apportionment among the several corporations therein, in proportion to the number of persons of school age, as shown by the report of the county superintendent filed with him for the year immediately preceding. He shall immediately notify the county treasurer of such apportionment and of the amount due thereby to each corporation. The county treasurer shall thereupon give notice to the president of each corporation, and shall pay out such apportionment moneys in the same manner that he is authorized to pay other school moneys to the treasurers of the several school districts. [32 G. A., ch. 151, § 3; 27 G. A., ch. 94; C. '73, §§ 1781-2, 1841; R., §§ 1966, 2060-1.]

NOTES: 1. Warrant for. This warrant must be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, to authorize payment of the amount named therein upon presentation by the district treasurer. Form 16.
2. Basis of apportionment—review. The auditor, in making the apportionment, performs a ministerial duty and is without authority to review the school census. 111 N. W., 943.

SEC. 2809. Auditor to report. The county auditor, shall on the first Monday in January of each year, forward to the superintendent of public instruction a certificate of the election or appointment and qualification of the county superintendent, and shall also on the first day of January of each year make out and transmit to the auditor of state, in accordance with such forms as said auditor may prescribe, a report of the amount of permanent school fund held by the county and also the amount of interest due prior to January first, still remaining unpaid, and shall file said report with the auditor of state on or before the first day of February. [32 G. A., ch. 151, § 2; C. '73, § 1783.]

NOTES: 1. Certificate of election. This certificate should be forwarded to the superintendent of public instruction as soon as the qualification and bond, properly approved, have been filed in the office of the county auditor.

2. What certificate should show. The certificate should in all cases certify to the qualification as well as the election or appointment of the county superintendent, for although he may be properly elected or appointed, yet he cannot be recognized until it is known that he has taken the necessary oath of office, and that his bond is approved.

3. In case of change. Whenever any change is made by resignation or otherwise, a certificate of the appointment and qualification of a successor should be immediately forwarded. Forms 37 and 38.

SEC. 2810. Taxes paid over. Before the third Monday of January, April, July and October in each year, the county treasurer shall give notice to the president of the board of each school corporation in the county of the amount collected for each fund to the first day of such month, and the president of each board shall draw his draft therefor, countersigned by the secretary, upon the county treasurer, who shall pay such taxes to the treasurers of the several school boards only on such draft. He shall also keep the amount of tax levied for schoolhouse purposes separate in each subdistrict where such levy has been made directly upon the property of the subdistrict, and shall pay over the same quarterly to the treasurer of the school township for the benefit of such subdistrict. [C. '73, §§ 1784-5.]

NOTES: 1. Certify amount collected. It is the duty of the county treasurer to notify the president of the board of each district, quarterly, of the amount collected for each fund and pay it to the district treasurer on the warrant of the president countersigned by the secretary. Form 39.

2. When draft is drawn. Whenever a draft is drawn on the county treasury, it is the duty of the secretary to charge the district treasurer with the amount named in the draft, keeping a separate account with each fund. Section 2761.

3. Funds kept separate. The four funds—teachers', schoolhouse, contingent and school building bond fund—must be kept separate by the county treasurer, as directed in this section, to enable school officers to comply with the law in the discharge of their official duties. Sections 2761, 2762, 2768 and 2769. Form 39.

4. Division reported by county treasurer. The division of funds made by the county treasurer must be respected by the board, unless the electors direct schoolhouse funds unappropriated transferred to other funds. This is the only transfer provided for by law. Section 2749.

SEC. 2811. Judgment tax. When a judgment shall be obtained against a school corporation, its board shall order the payment thereof out of the proper fund by an order on the treasurer, not in excess, however, of the funds available for that purpose. If the proper fund is not sufficient, then, unless its board has provided by the issuance of bonds for raising the amount necessary to pay such judgment, the voters thereof shall at their annual meeting vote a sufficient tax for the purpose. In case of failure or neglect to vote such a tax, the school board shall certify the amount required to the board of supervisors, who shall levy a tax on the property of the corporation for the same. [18 G. A., ch. 132, § 6; C. '73, § 1787; R., § 2095.]

NOTES: 1. No order has preference. An order drawn under this section is not entitled to payment to the exclusion of other orders. 40 Iowa, 620.

2. Bonds to pay judgments. Judgment indebtedness may be converted into bonded indebtedness, but not beyond the constitutional limit.

3. Limit of indebtedness. See sections 1306-b and 2820-a to 2820-d, following section 2796, page 92.

BONDS—INDEBTEDNESS.

SEC. 2812-b. Repeal. That chapter one hundred and forty (140) laws of the thirty-first general assembly, be and the same is hereby repealed and the following sections enacted in lieu thereof [29 G. A., ch. 127; 28 G. A., ch. 142; 27 G. A., ch. 95; 21 G. A., ch. 95; 18 G. A., ch. 51, §§ 1, 3; 18 G. A., ch. 132, §§ 1-5; 16 G. A., ch. 121; C. '73 §§ 1821-2; 31 G. A., ch. 140; 32 G. A., ch. 152, § 1.]

SEC. 2812-c. School funding bonds. The board of directors of any school corporation may issue the bonds of said school corporation to pay any judgment against said school corporation or any indebtedness represented by bonds heretofore lawfully issued. Said bonds shall be known as school funding bonds and shall be authorized by resolution of the board. The proceeds derived from said bonds shall be applied in payment of any such outstanding judgment or bonded indebtedness, or said bonds may be exchanged for outstanding judgments or bonds, par for par. [32 G. A., ch. 152, § 2.]

NOTES: 1. When issued. Bonds voted under the provisions of this section may be issued and sold as the necessities of the school corporation require.

2. Funding bonds. This section authorizes the board of directors of any school corporation to issue funding bonds without a vote of the electors, but the board cannot issue school building bonds without a vote of the electors. See section 2812-d.

3. Taxes—bonds. There is no intimate connection between the levy of taxes and an outstanding bonded indebtedness. The levy of taxes is not intended by the law to be considered as an outstanding indebtedness. The limit of bonded indebtedness is fixed by chapter 41, laws of 1900. The limit for levy of taxes by sections 2749, 2806-7, 2813. See 1306-b and 2820-a, page 92.

SEC. 2812-d. School building bonds. For the purpose of borrowing money necessary to erect, complete, equip, furnish or improve a schoolhouse, or to purchase sites therefor, the board of directors of any school corporation, when they have been heretofore, or when they may hereafter be authorized by the voters at the annual meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, may issue the negotiable interest bearing bonds of said school corporation; said bonds to be known as school building bonds. [32 G. A., ch. 152, § 3.]

NOTES: 1. Valuation—tax lists. As indicating the valuation of the district, the tax lists may not be taken into account until after the levy of the taxes in September. 70 Iowa, 230.

2. Defeat of proposition—effect of. The fact that the vote for bonds was defeated will not prevent the board from calling another election at any time when it thinks best to do so.

3. Issue not mandatory. While a vote to issue bonds is regarded by the courts as somewhat in the nature of permissive authority to the board, yet a board may not attempt to defeat the wish of the voters clearly expressed. Decisions, 75, laws of 1897.

4. Compliance necessary. In the matter of issuing bonds, every legal requirement should be scrupulously adhered to, in order that not even the slightest irregularity may be urged against the validity of the bonds, when they come to be negotiated.

5. Rights of interested persons. If a board takes an action calculated to thwart the will of the voters, perhaps any person interested could secure from a court a writ directing the board to proceed in the line of fulfilling the expressed wish of the voters.

SEC. 2812-e. Form—duration—rate of interest—where registered. All of said bonds shall be substantially in the form provided for county bonds, but subject to changes that will conform them to the action of the board providing therefor, shall run not more than ten years, and may be sooner paid if so nominated in the bond; be in denomination of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or less than one hundred dollars ($100) each, to bear a rate of interest not exceeding six (6) per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, to be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary of the board of directors, and shall not be disposed of for less than par value, nor issued for other purposes than this chapter provides. All of said bonds shall be registered in the office of the county auditor. The expenses of engraving and printing of bonds may be paid out of the contingent fund. [32 G. A., ch. 152, § 4.]

SEC. 2812-f. Redemption—treasurer to keep record. Whenever the amount in the hands of the treasurer, belonging to the funds set aside to pay bonds, is sufficient to redeem one or more of the bonds which by their terms are subject to redemption, he shall give the owner of said bonds thirty (30) days' written notice of the readiness of the district to pay and the amount it desires to pay. If not presented for payment or redemption within thirty days after the date of such notice, the interest on such bonds shall cease and the amount due thereon shall be set aside for its payment whenever it is presented. All redemptions shall be made in the order of their numbers. The treasurer shall keep a record of the parties to whom the bonds are sold, together with their postoffice addresses, and notice mailed to the address as shown by such record shall be sufficient. [32 G. A., ch. 152, § 5.]

SEC. 1306-b. Amount of indebtedness limited. No county or other political or municipal corporation, including cities acting under special charters, shall be allowed to become indebted, in any manner or for any purpose, to an amount in the aggregate exceeding one and one-fourth per centum on the actual value of the property within such county or corporation, to be ascertained by the last state and county tax list previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. [28. G. A., ch. 41, § 2.]

2. Warrants in excess of limit—action on. Either a school district or intervening tax-payers may, where the officers refuse to act, defend an action to recover on warrants of the district on the ground that the same are in excess of the constitutional limitation, although the officers of the district acted in good faith in creating the debt for which the warrants were issued, and still recognize their validity. 122 Iowa, 99.

SEC. 2820-a. Indebtedness authorized—amount. Any independent school district containing, or contained in, any incorporated town or city of the second class, of three thousand or less population shall be allowed to become indebted, for the purpose of building and furnishing a schoolhouse or houses and procuring a site therefor, to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate, two and one-half per centum of the actual value of the taxable property, within such independent school district, such value to be ascertained by the last county tax list previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, anything contained in section two (2), chapter forty-one (41) of the acts of the twenty-eighth general assembly notwithstanding. [30 G. A., ch. 114, § 1.]

NOTE: Limit of indebtedness. Section 1306-b, above,

SEC. 2820-b. Petition. Provided, that before such indebtedness can be contracted in excess of one and one-quarter per centum of the actual value of the taxable property ascertained as provided in section one (1) of this act, a petition signed by a majority of the qualified electors of such independent district, shall be filed with the president of the board of directors asking that an election shall be called, stating the purpose for which the money is to be used, and the necessary schoolhouse or houses cannot be built and furnished within the limit of one and one-quarter per centum of the valuation. [30 G. A., ch. 114, § 2.]

NOTE: Qualified electors. See section 2747.

SEC. 2820-c. Question submitted. The president of the board of directors on the receipt of such petition shall within ten (10) days call a meeting of the board who shall call such election fixing the time and place thereof, and give four weeks' notice thereof by publication once each week in some newspaper published in the said town or city, or if none be published therein in the next nearest town or city in the county. At such election the ballot shall be prepared and used in substantially the following form:

For the issuance of bonds in the sum of $. for School House purposes.

Against the issuance of bonds in the sum of $. for School House purposes. [31 G. A., ch. 9, § 29; 30 G. A., ch. 114, § 3.]

SEC. 2820-d. Bonds. If two-thirds or more of all the electors voting at such election vote in favor of the issuance of such bonds, the board of directors shall issue the same and make provision for the payment of the same and the interest thereon as provided in section twenty-eight hundred and twelve (2812) and twenty-eight hundred and thirteen (2813) of the code. [30 G. A., ch. 114, § 4.]

SEC. 2813. Tax to pay bonds or money borrowed. The board of each school corporation shall, at the same time and in the same manner as provided with reference to other taxes, fix the amount of tax necessary to be levied to pay any amount of principal or interest due or to become due during the next year on lawful bonded indebtedness, which amount shall be certified to the board of supervisors as other taxes, and levied by them on the property therein as other school taxes are levied, but such tax shall not exceed five mills upon the dollar of the assessed valuation of such property for money borrowed for improvements. [27 G. A., ch. 95; 18 G. A., ch. 51, § 2; 18 G. A., ch. 132, § 6; C. '73, § 1823.]

NOTE: It is the duty of the board to certify whatever amount is necessary to pay principal and interest on bonds. 69 Iowa, 612.

SCHOOL SITES.

SEC. 2814. Repeal — schoolhouse sites — acquisition. Any school corporation may take and hold so much real estate as may be required for schoolhouse sites, for the location or construction thereon of schoolhouses, and the convenient use thereof, but not to exceed one acre, exclusive of public highway, except in a city, town, or village it may include one block exclusive of the street or highway as the case may be; or in districts consolidated under the provisions of section twenty-seven hundred and ninety-nine (2799) of the code, or chapter one hundred and forty-one (141) of the laws of the thirty-first general assembly, or in school townships holding not more than two school sites, may consist of not to exceed four acres, for any one site, unless by the owner's consent, which site must be upon some public road already established or procured by the board of directors and shall, except in cities, towns, or villages, be at least thirty rods from the residence of any owner who objects to its being placed nearer, and not in any orchard, garden or public park. [32 G. A., ch. 153; C. '73, §§ 1825-6.]

NOTES: 1. Purchase. The board should, if possible, purchase a site.

2. Enlarging. A site of less than one acre may be enlarged to an acre.

3. Not include road. The acre authorized to be set apart may be so measured as not to include any portion of the highway. 101 Iowa, 556.

4. Thirty rods. The objection of an owner living within thirty rods on the opposite side of a site will not prevent an addition to the site on the side away from the residence, so as to include an entire acre.

5. Appeal. From an order of the board making a location of a site to be secured by condemnation, an appeal will lie the same as from any other order of the board.

6. Incumbered property. Property incumbered, occupied as a home-stead, or belonging to minor heirs, may be taken under the provisions of this section.

7. Condemn. If the district cannot establish its claim to the school-house site, owing to the loss of the deed, or for other reason, and the owner refuses to sell or lease the site, the district may avail itself of the provisions of this and the following sections and secure a site not to exceed one acre.

8. When provisions do not apply. When purchased, the provisions of this section do not apply. The district stands in the same relation to the public and to individuals, in this respect, as do other corporations, and may purchase whatever amount of land may be necessary for school purposes.

9. Location. All sites taken under the provisions of these sections must be located on a public road, and at least thirty rods from the residence of the owner of the site so taken if he objects to its being placed nearer. A person not the owner of the land upon which the site is located cannot legally object if the site is located nearer than thirty rods from his residence. In cities, incorporated towns, or villages, this prohibition does not apply. Decisions 86, School Laws 1892.

10. How measured. When a site is sought to be condemned, the distance of thirty rods mentioned in this section, is measured from the nearest part of the residence to the nearest part of the site, in a straight line.

11. Rebuild. Boards may rebuild on sites without consent of owners of residences within thirty rods.

12. Ten years' use. Under the Iowa statute of limitations, ten years' use of a highway by the public, under a claim of right, will bar the owner of the soil. 19 Iowa, 123.

13. Title by prescription. If the public, with the knowledge of the owner of land, has claimed and continuously exercised the right of using the same for a public highway, for a period equal to that fixed by the statute for the limitation of real actions, a complete right to the highway thereby becomes established against the owner, unless it appears that such use was by favor, leave or mistake. 22 Iowa, 457. Code, section 3004.

14. When mortgaged. In case the land desired for a school site is under mortgage, the district may receive from the owner the lease of a portion not to exceed the authorized amount, to be held by the district as long as used for school purposes, and when no longer so used, to revert to the owner.

15. Title. If a district is in continuous possession under claim of ownership for more than ten years, it becomes the absolute owner of the fee title. 93 Iowa, 45, and 94 Iowa, 676.

16. Include highway—when. When land is purchased for a site, it will include a part of the highway on which it is situated, unless otherwise stipulated in the deed.

17. Four acres. In consolidated corporations and school townships holding not to exceed two sites, four acres may be acquired for a site.

SEC. 2815. Condemnation. If the owner of the real estate desired for a schoolhouse site, or a public road thereto, refuses or neglects to convey the same, or is unknown or cannot be found, the county superintendent of the proper county, upon the application of either party in interest, shall appoint three disinterested referees, unless a less number shall be agreed upon, who shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties laid upon them, due notice having been given by the superintendent to the owner of the time and place of making the assessments of damages as and for the length of time required for the commencement of actions in the district court; such referees shall inspect the grounds proposed to be taken, fix the damages sustained as near as may be on the basis of the value of the real estate so appropriated, and report in writing to the superintendent their doings and findings, which report shall be filed and preserved in his office; and upon the amount found by the referees being deposited with the county treasurer, for the use of the owner, possession may at once be taken and the necessary building or buildings erected and occupied. From the assessment so made either party may appeal to the district court by giving notice thereof as in case of taking private property for works of internal improvement within twenty days after receiving notice of the award made. If such appeal is not taken, the assessment shall be final; if taken, the board may proceed with the construction of improvements, if the deposit hereinbefore provided has been or shall be made. Upon such appeal the school corporation shall not be liable for costs unless the owner shall be allowed a greater sum than given by the referees; all costs in making the referees' assessment to be paid by the school corporation. [C. '73, § 1827.]

NOTES: 1. Service. If personal service cannot be made, the notice must be published in a newspaper. If the owner of the land lives in the county, notice must be served on him at least ten days before the time set for the assessment of damages. If the owner or parties having an interest therein reside outside of the county and in the same judicial district, fifteen days' notice must be given. If outside of the judicial district but in the state, twenty days' notice. If parties live outside of the state, the notice must be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county. Code, sections 3514-3544. Forms, 40, 41, 42, 43 and 44.

2. Oath to referees. The oath to the referees may not be administered by the county superintendent by reason of his office. Such oath may be administered by some one empowered in a general way to administer oaths. One referee may administer the oath to another referee. Code, section 393. A district may condemn a full acre of land. 101 Iowa, 556.

3. Opening road. If the land cannot be procured by contract, the road may be established in the same manner and by the proceedings provided for the establishment of highways, and when the damage has been assessed, the district may pay the same. Sections 1482-1517. Decisions, 81.

4. Lease—approval. As a matter of safety, a lease should be executed in duplicate, one to be held by the secretary of the board, and the other by the lessor. The lease should be approved by the board, as in case of a contract, and should be filed with the secretary.

5. Notice of appraisal. Sufficient time must be allowed between the appointment of this commission and the time set for appraising the damages to give the owner legal notice thereof. Code, sections 3517 and 3540.

6. Compensation of referees. The referees are entitled to two dollars for each day's service, and ten cents per mile from their residence to the location of the property appraised. Code, sections 354 and 1290.

7. Holder of tax certificate. The holder of a tax certificate on property sought to be condemned is an owner in such sense that he is entitled to notice. 50 Iowa, 663.

8. When owner cannot be found. When the owner of land taken is unknown, or cannot be found, it is not necessary to print the report of appraisement, or to attempt other notice to said owner than the printed notice required by this section. It is sufficient for the county superintendent to send a certified copy to the board.

9. Possession—deposit. If the board has deposited with the county treasurer the amount assessed by the referees in accordance with this section, we think the courts would hold that the district had come into possession of the site, or would be entitled to the use of the road.

10. Money deposited. The money deposited with the county treasurer should be held for the benefits of the owner of the fee, and not for the mortgagee.

11. Value of receipt. Since the receipt of the treasurer for the money deposited with him for the owner of the land, may be the only evidence of title, such a receipt should have a full description of the property, and should be recorded by the county recorder.

12. Deed not necessary. No deed or other instrument from the owner is required to authorize the district to occupy the land for school purposes. The proceedings should be recorded in full by the district secretary.

13. Should be recorded. All deeds for school property should be recorded with the county recorder, and the proceedings relating to the acquisition of such property should be recorded in full by the district secretary.

14. Abandonment—condemnation—damages on appeal. A district may abandon the improvement and decline to pay the amount assessed. 113 Iowa, 486.

15. Application to supervisors. When land sought to be taken for a road has been legally condemned, and the amount found by the referees has been deposited with the county treasurer, application should be made by the board to the board of supervisors for the establishment of the road under sections 1482-1517.

16. Petition by electors. Petition to the board of supervisors may be made by the electors as individuals. 110 Iowa, 707.

17. School property not exempt. The property of school districts in cities and towns is not exempt from special taxation, for improvement of streets and laying of sidewalks. 55 Iowa, 150.

18. Road—how established. A road to the schoolhouse may be established in the same manner and by the proceedings provided for the establishment of highways in general, and when the damages have been assessed, the district may pay the same. Sections 1482-1517.

19. Expense intended. The expense that is intended shall be paid by the district is not more than that of surveying, locating and establishing the highway. The building of bridges and the repair of the road with the funds of the district would not be warranted by the law.

20. Under control of. After a highway has become legally established it is wholly and entirely under the control of the board of supervisors. Code, section 1482.

21. Private way—permissive use. The use by a non-owner of a private road is permissive and does not vest in him prescriptive rights in the same. 123 Iowa, 620.

22. Condemnation—appeal—notice. It is proper to serve notice of appeal on the county superintendent before whom condemnatory proceedings were commenced. 113 Iowa, 486.

SEC. 2816. Reversion. In the case of non-user for school purposes for two years continuously of any real estate acquired for a school-house site it shall revert, with improvements thereon, to the owner of the tract from which it was taken, upon repayment of the purchase price without interest, together with the value of the improvements, to be determined by arbitration, but during its use the owner of the right of reversion shall have no interest in or control over the premises. [C. '73, § 1828.]

NOTES: 1. Reversionary clause. In case of the donation of a school-house site, the following reversionary clause may be appended to the deed: "Provided, that if, for the space of two consecutive years said premises shall cease to be used for school purposes, the same shall revert to the original donor, his heirs or assigns, without legal hindrance or expense."

2. Receipt should describe site. Since the receipt of the treasurer for the money deposited with him, for the owner of the land, may be the only evidence of title, such receipt should have a full description of the property, and contain this proviso in addition to note 1 above: "Upon the repayment of the principal amount paid by the district, without interest, together with the value of any improvements thereon made by the district," and the receipt should be recorded by the county recorder.

3. When not non-user. When consent of county superintendent is secured the closing of a school, the corporation may not be considered a non-user. See sections 2773, 2774.

SEC. 2817. Use of barbed wire. Barbed wire shall not be used to enclose any school buildings or grounds, nor for any fence or other purpose within ten feet of any such grounds. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [20 G. A., ch. 103.]

NOTE: See also sections 2773, 2745-a. and 2745-b.

APPEAL.

SEC. 2818. Appeal to county superintendent. Any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the board of directors of any school corporation in a matter of law or fact may within thirty days after the rendition of such decision or the making of such order, appeal therefrom to the county superintendent of the proper county; the basis of the proceedings shall be an affidavit filed with the county superintendent by the party aggrieved within the time for taking the appeal, which affidavit shall set forth any error complained of in a plain and concise manner. [C. '73, §§ 1829-31; R., §§ 2133-5.]

NOTES: 1. Matters not appealable. There are many matters that may not properly be brought before the county superintendent on appeal. From time to time questions are likely to arise upon which the board should be governed by its best judgment, or by competent legal advice.

2. Official opinions—jurisdiction. School officers should not express an official opinion upon matters entirely outside of their jurisdiction. Upon these subjects it is therefore useless to expect county superintendents, or this department, to give any other than general information, such as is presumably already within the knowledge of those applying.

3. Affidavit of appeal—effect of. The filing of an affidavit of appeal has the effect of arresting all action by the board in relation to the matter appealed from until the appeal is disposed of.

4. Statu quo. During the pendency of an appeal all matters must remain in statu quo, and this can be enforced by writ of injunction. No opinion relating to matters involved in an appeal will be given by this department.

5. Affidavit. An affidavit is a written declaration sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. Code, section 4673.

6. Jurisdiction—affidavit. A county superintendent can have no jurisdiction of an appeal case until the affidavit has been filed. Decisions, 5.

7. Affidavit necessary. A notice of intention to file an affidavit, a verbal complaint, or a petition, is not sufficient to give the county superintendent jurisdiction in appeal cases. Form 45.

8. Affidavit—contents. The affidavit should contain a statement of the decision complained of and its date, a statement of facts showing that the appellant has an interest in the decision and is injuriously affected by it, and the assignment of errors. Form 45.

9. Affidavit must be clear. An affidavit of appeal, to be of any value, must be sufficiently clear to enable the county superintendent to call upon the secretary for a complete transcript of an action that must be described so as to be identified.

10. Title of case. This affidavit being the first paper filed, care should be taken that the case is properly entitled, and this title should be preserved throughout the further progress of the appeal. The date of filing should be indorsed upon the affidavit by the superintendent.

11. Notice of filing—effect. When a board receives official notice that an affidavit of appeal from its order has been filed, all action by the board in relation to the matter appealed from will be suspended until the decision in appeal has been given.

12. Right of appeal. The right of appeal is limited to persons aggrieved or injuriously affected by the decision or order complained of. Decisions, 21, 33.

13. When barred. If a person aggrieved by a decision or order of the board fails to protect his rights by taking an appeal within the thirty days prescribed, he is barred by the statute from the remedy of appeal.

14. Computing time. In computing time the first day shall be excluded and the last included, unless the last falls on Sunday, in which case the time prescribed shall be extended so as to include the whole of the following Monday. Code, section 48, subsection 23.

15. Discretionary act—weight of. When the act complained of is of a discretionary character, the action of the board should be sustained, unless it is clearly shown that the board violated law, abused its discretion, or acted with manifest injustice. Decisions, 44, 57, 61, 66.

16. Choice of remedies. In certain cases an aggrieved party has a choice of legal remedies. 56 Iowa, 476.

17. Mandamus. As an appeal often consumes valuable time, mandamus is sometimes a more speedy as well as a better remedy, to compel the performance of an official duty. Decisions, 13, 39.

18. Mandatory—Mandamus. Where the law is mandatory in requiring the board to act upon a petition, the remedy for its refusal is mandamus and not appeal. 86 Iowa, 669.

19. Violation of mandatory law—mandamus. When a board violates a mandatory requirement, application by an interested party to a court for a writ to compel the board to act as directed by the statute is the more speedy and preferable remedy. 44 Iowa, 432; 50 Iowa, 648, and 71 Iowa, 632. Decisions, 39.

20. Certiorari. A writ of certiorari is never used to correct a mere error, but only to test the jurisdiction of the tribunal and the legality of its actiton. 118 Iowa, 519; 55 Iowa, 215.

22. Action of board defined. By an action of the board is meant a vote taken by it and made of record at a meeting legally constituted. The board may at any time correct mistakes in its record, or supply omissions.

23. When no appeal. Appeal cannot be taken where the board simply refuses or neglects to act. 71 Iowa, 632.

21. When appeal will lie. That an appeal may lie there must be an order or action by the board. To compel an action, appeal is not the remedy, but application to a court of law. Decisions, 93.

24. Remedy in case of neglect. In case of wilful neglect or intentional failure to take action as intended by the law, the remedy for any party aggrieved is application to a court for a writ to require the board to consider and act upon the important matter brought to its attention. And its order when made of record will then be subject to be made the basis of an appeal.

25. Complete record. If desirable to clear the record, or to make a matter plain beyond question, sometimes the board may re-enact all its former transactions with regard to the matter involved. If it is supposed that the board took an action which purposely was not made a matter of record, it may be compelled by an order of court to complete its record.

26. Initiatory step—no appeal. No appeal may be taken from the action of the board taking the initiatory step, while it requires the concurrence of another board to complete the action. The concurrence or refusal of the second board is the order from which an appeal may be taken. Note 13 to section 2802.

27. To lay on table. An appeal may be taken from an action of the board to lay a petition on the table. Decisions, 101.

28. Jurisdiction de novo. In an appeal to the county and state superintendent of public instruction, from the action of the board fixing boundaries, the superintendents have jurisdiction de novo, and can enter any order that the board could have made in the matter. 110 Iowa, 652; 95 Iowa, 300; 69 Iowa, 161. For contrary opinion see Jos. Doubet vs. Ind. Dist. Clearfield, 111 N. W., 326.

29. Discharge—effect of appeal. An appeal to the county superintendent settles conclusively the wrongfulness of the teacher's discharge, though such appeal was determined on the ground that plaintiff had not been given a hearing before the board of directors, and not on the merits of the case. 110 Iowa, 313.

30. Burden of proof. In a trial before the county superintendent on an appeal from an action of the board discharging a teacher, the burden of proof is on the board. Decisions, 116.

31. Review of actions of boards. While the review of the action of a school board with reference to a matter within its jurisdiction is by appeal to the county superintendent, yet the question of whether the board had power to make a certain rule for the government of the schools, can be reviewed by the court in a mandamus proceeding. 129 Iowa, 441.

32. Discretionary acts—appeal. When a county superintendent is exercising a discretionary act the courts will not interfere and any abuse of discretion must be remedied on appeal. 110 Iowa, 30. See also 93 Iowa, 269. 107 Iowa, 29, differs.

33. Notice of appeal—on whom served. Notice served on the president of the board is held to be sufficient. 113 Iowa, 486.

34. Expediency—review of. A question of expediency cannot be reviewed by certiorari. 61 Iowa, 334.

35. Appeal—when necessary. Before an action for damages may be maintained, the wrongfulness of the discharge must be determined by appeal. Section 2782, 53 Iowa, 585. See note 29. But the remedy of one discharged on the ground of illegality of contract is by an action in court. 107 Iowa, 29.

SEC. 2819. Hearing and decision. The county superintendent shall, within five days after the filing of such affidavit in his office, notify the secretary of the proper school corporation in writing of the taking of such appeal; the latter shall, within ten days after being thus notified, file in the office of the county superintendent a complete transcript of the record and proceedings relating to the decision complained of, which transcript shall be certified to be correct by the secretary; after the filing of the transcript aforesaid the county superintendent shall notify in writing all persons adversely interested of the time and place where the matter of the appeal will be heard by him. At the time fixed for the hearing he shall hear testimony for either party, and he shall make such decision as may be just and equitable, which shall be final unless appealed from as hereinafter provided. [C. '73, §§ 1832-4; R., §§ 2136-8.]

NOTES: 1. Notice of appeal. The notice should describe the decision or order appealed from, so that it may be identified, and should require the district secretary to file the transcript with the superintendent within the time specified. The notice may be served personally or sent by mail. Form 46.

2. Secretary's transcript. The secretary shall make and forward a transcript or copy of the record of all actions of the board relating to the decision or order appealed from; also of all petitions, remonstrances, plats, and other papers pertaining thereto. The original papers must be preserved with the district records. Form 47.

3. Basis of appeal. The basis of an appeal is the recorded action of the board. If the secretary certifies that there is no record of an action by the board in any such matter as is described in the notice for a transcript, then it will be impossible to carry forward the appeal. Notes 22 to 24, section 2818.

4. Effect of delay in filing transcript. A failure to file the transcript will not affect the proceedings in any other way than to cause delay. The secretary will take the risk of censure by a court for failure to attend to his official duty. Decisions, 34, Laws of 1897.

5. Date of hearing. The time to elapse between the filing of the transcript and the hearing of the appeal is not fixed by the statute. This is left to the county superintendent to determine.

6. Notice of hearing. Notice of the time and place of hearing should be given to the appellant, to the secretary of the board, and to any other persons known to be directly interested. The notices may be served personally or sent by mail. Form 48.

7. Notice—to whom sent. The appellant, the president, the secretary of the board, and other parties known to be directly interested, should receive a copy of this notice.

8. Date of filing—indorsement. The date of filing every paper should be indorsed thereon; also in the case of motions, orders and rulings of the county superintendent. All oral motions and an abstract of the testimony should be reduced to writing at the time of trial.

9. Docket. The docket or minutes of the superintendent should commence by noting the filing of the affidavit. He will afterward, as the acts transpire, record the sending of the notice of appeal to the district secretary, the filing of the transcript, the sending of notices of the hearing, and any adjournment of the case that may be granted. At the trial he will carefully note down the names of all parties appearing, and their postoffice address, and whether they appear for or against the appeal; also, the filing of all papers and names of witnesses, and in whose behalf such papers or witnesses are introduced. The decision of the superintendent will form an appropriate close of his minutes.

10. Under oath. All evidence must be given under oath, and the substance reduced to writing at the time by the county superintendent. It is recommended that a summary of what each witness testifies be made, read to the witness, and signed by him. It is of the first importance that the record of the testimony be full and accurate, as the decision of the county superintendent, also of the superintendent of public instruction, in case the appeal is carried up, must be based upon the record of evidence introduced. This testimony should be preserved with the other papers of the case,

11. Introduction of evidence. While the county superintendent will not be prevented from entertaining and considering testimony not before the board, the general rule and practice should be to attempt to confine the hearing as far as practicable to the matters considered by the board and to the facts, statements, and testimony, that were within the possession of the board at the time the action complained of, which is being reviewed by the county superintendent, was taken.

12. Preserving order. In case of disturbance or interruption during the trial of an appeal before a county superintendent, as he is not invested with complete judicial power, he has only the ordinary remedy of complaint to the proper authorities. Code, section 5033.

13. Call witness. The county superintendent may upon his own motion call any witness to the stand and have his testimony taken.

14. Technicalities. While mere technicalities should not be permitted to prevent the attainment of justice, it is proper that as to evidence and practice the superintendent should be governed by many of the rules which ordinarily obtain in courts.

15. Question to be determined. The leading question to be determined by the county superintendent is whether in making the decision or order complained of, the board committed error to such an extent as to require a reversal.

16. Discretionary acts—weight of. Acts of a board purely discretionary in their nature should be given great weight. To warrant a reversal, positive error must be found, and such error must appear clearly in the testimony.

17. Remanding. When an appellate tribunal is unable to decide an appeal because the testimony is insufficient or the transcript of the action of the board is incomplete, and the facts are not sufficiently shown to determine what should be done, the case may be remanded for a new trial, or for further action by the board.

18. Report of decision. To those interested in the issue of an appeal the county superintendent should send a statement of the result; that is, whether the order of the board was affirmed or reversed.

19. Stenographer—evidence. The expense of a stenographer should not be incurred unless the parties to the case provide for defraying it. An abstract of the testimony of each witness should be made and should be signed by him before he is excused. See note 3, section 2821.

20. Decision—jurisdiction. Section 2818, notes 27 to 34.

SEC. 2820. Appeal to state superintendent—no money judgment. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the county superintendent to the superintendent of public instruction in the same manner as provided in this chapter for taking appeals from the board of a school corporation to the county superintendent, as nearly as applicable, except that thirty days' notice of the appeal shall be given by the appellant to the county superintendent, and also to the adverse party. The decision when made shall be final. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize either the county or state superintendent to render judgment for money; neither shall they be allowed any other compensation than is now allowed by law. All necessary postage must first be paid by the party aggrieved. [C. '73, §§ 1835-6; R., §§ 2139-40.]

NOTES: 1. Appeals—manner of conducting. Appeals to the superintendent of public instruction are conducted in the same manner and governed by the same rules, so far as applicable, as appeals to county superintendents. The basis of appeal must be an affidavit filed in the office of the superintendent of public instruction, within thirty days from the date of the decision appealed from,

2. Notice to county superintendent. Upon the filing of an affidavit the superintendent of public instruction will notify the county superintendent to forward a transcript of the papers in the case within thirty days. The original papers must be preserved on file in the county superintendent's office.

3. County superintendent's transcript. When an appeal is taken to the superintendent of public instruction, the county superintendent must have a copy of the testimony and of his docket prepared. It is very desirable that this transcript should be in typewritten work.

4. What included. The transcript of the county superintendent will consist of a literal copy of every paper filed and all indorsements thereon, together with a copy of all testimony given, the whole arranged in chronological order, closing with the decision of the county superintendent in full, with the certificate annexed. Form 49.

5. Transcript—a copy. The transcript in an appeal is supposed to be an exact copy of the papers and testimony in the case, preserved on file in the office of the county superintendent. Any one interested may claim the privilege of examining the original records in the case, at any proper time.

6. Expense of stenographer. It is obvious that the county superintendent himself should not be expected to pay for having a typewritten transcript of the record made in an appeal to the superintendent of public instruction. Expenses of this character, closely connected by law with the work of the county superintendent's office, should be paid for by the board of supervisors in the same manner that assistance is furnished to other county officers when needed.

7. Notice. The law requires that the appellant shall give thirty days' notice to the county superintendent, and also to the adverse party, of the taking of the appeal. This notice should be served as soon as the affidavit of appeal has been filed and proof of such service should be filed with the affidavit. The time for final hearing of the appeal will be fixed by the superintendent of public instruction, and may be at any time after thirty days from the filing of the affidavit.

8. Appearance. At the hearing, parties interested may appear personally or by attorney, and argue their cases orally if they desire, or they may send arguments in writing or if possible, in typewriting.

9. Source of data. The record of the case in the office of the county superintendent, which is a public record and open to examination by parties interested, will furnish all needed data, where access to transcript sent up is inconvenient.

10. Original evidence. The superintendent of public instruction will not hear original testimony in cases submitted to him. Decisions, 50, Laws of 1897.

11. Revocation of certificate—appeal. Any person aggrieved by the action of a county superintendent revoking a certificate may appeal to the superintendent of public instruction, provided such appeal is taken within ten days from the mailing of the notice of revocation. Section 2734-u.

12. Decision—enforcement. A person in whose favor an appeal is decided has the remedy of a writ of mandamus from a court of law to enforce the decision of appeal. 69 Iowa, 533, and 72 Iowa, 379.

13. Decision final. A decision in appeal by a county superintendent or the superintendent of public instruction is final in the sense that no court will attempt to review or set aside such a decision if the matters included are clearly within the jurisdiction of such school officers. 69 Iowa, 533, and 110 Iowa, 652.

14. When board may take different action. An appeal decision does not always prevent the board from acting anew upon the matters involved in the appeal. If the order of a board is affirmed the board will be left free to take any action thought best by it; that is, it will have the same freedom to act that it would have if no appeal had been taken.

15. Mandamus. Until the board has taken a different action no doubt mandamus will be a remedy to compel the board to carry into effect the appeal decision and the former action of the board.

16. Remanding. If it is shown conclusively that a transcript is materially defective, that valuable testimony heard upon the trial before the county superintendent is not included in the transcript, or that testimony which should not have been omitted was excluded, an appeal case may be remanded to the county superintendent for another trial.

17. Reversing a reversal—effect. When the decision of the county superintendent on appeal, reversing the order of the board, is reversed by the superintendent of public instruction on the appeal to him, the effect of the last decision, which is final, is to affirm the original order made by the board, and the result of this is to leave the matter as entirely in the hands of the board as though no appeal had ever been taken from its action. Decisions, 57.

18. Affirming a reversal—effect. But if the county superintendent reverses an order of the board and the superintendent of public instruction affirms the decision of the county superintendent, such decision will prevent the board from taking any action in the matter until some material change occurs, rendering such a new action necessary. Decisions, 40, 74.

19. Postage. Payment for postage in advance will be required with the affidavit. It is impossible to tell what amount of postage will be needed in each case, and one dollar will be required to cover all needed postage. If the dollar does not accompany the affidavit, the filing will be delayed until the amount is received.

20. Material change of conditions—different action. A material change of conditions in a corporation may warrant a board of directors in taking action different from that ordered by the county superintendent or superintendent of public instruction on appeal. Doubet v. Board of Directors, 111 N. W., 326. See also 70 Iowa, 338. Decisions 44.

21. Witnesses—fees. Section 2821 below.

SEC. 2820-e to 2820-h. Consolidation in cities of fifty thousand or more. Following section 2794-a. See page 76.

SEC. 2821. Witnesses—fees. The county superintendent in all matters triable before him shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, which may be served by any peace officer, compel the attendance of those thus served, and the giving of evidence by them, in the same manner and to the same extent as the district court may do, and such witnesses and officers may be allowed the same compensation as is paid for like attendance or service in such court, which shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the proper school corporation, upon the certificate of the superintendent to and warrant of the secretary upon the treasurer; but if the superintendent is of the opinion that the proceedings were instituted without reasonable cause therefor, or if, in case of an appeal, it shall not be sustained, he shall enter such findings in the record, and tax all costs to the party responsible therefor. A transcript thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court and a judgment entered thereon by him, which shall be collected as other judgments.

NOTES: 1. Costs—includes what. The term costs includes only witness fees and fees to officers for the service of subpoenas. Fees cannot be allowed to any witness unless such witness is subpoenaed by the county superintendent. Decisions, 109.

2. Filing transcript. When an appeal is taken from the decision of the county superintendent that officer should not file his transcript of costs with the clerk of courts until the case is finally determined by this department. Bond for costs cannot be required. Decisions, 98.

3. Stenographer—expense of. The expenses of a stenographer cannot be taxed as a part of the costs. There is no authority in law to employ a stenographer and tax the expenses of such stenographer as costs in an appeal case. Opinion of attorney-general, 1899.

4. Rehearing—costs. Section 2821 does not provide for the payment of costs or expenses in case of a rehearing on the question of issuing a certificate.

SEC. 2822. Penalties. Any school officer wilfully violating any provision of this chapter, or wilfully failing or refusing to perform any duty imposed by law, shall forfeit and pay into the treasury of the particular school corporation in which the violation occurs the sum of twenty-five dollars, action to recover which shall be brought in the name of the proper school corporation, and be applied to the use of the schools therein. [C. '73, §§ 1746, 1786; R., §§ 2047, 2081; C. '51, § 1137.]

SEC. 2823. Provisions apply to all corporations—issuance of bonds. The provisions of this chapter shall apply alike to all districts, except when otherwise clearly stated, and the power given to one form of corporation, or to a board in one known corporation, shall be exercised by the other in the same manner, as nearly as practicable. But school boards shall not incur original indebtedness by the issuance of bonds until authorized by the voters of the school corporation.

NOTE: What included. The chapter referred to in this section includes everything contained in the school laws from section 2743 to section 2823-t inclusive.

COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE.

SEC. 2823-a. Duties of parents or guardians—penalty. Any person having control of any child of the age of seven (7) to fourteen (14) years inclusive, in proper physical and mental condition to attend school, shall cause such child to attend some public, private, or parochial school, where the common school branches of reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, grammar, geography, physiology, and United States history are taught, or to attend upon equivalent instruction by a competent teacher elsewhere than school, for at least sixteen (16) consecutive school weeks in each school year, commencing with the first week of school after the first day of September, unless the board of school directors shall determine upon a later date which date shall not be later than the first Monday in December. Provided, that this section shall not apply to any child who lives more than two (2) miles from any school by the nearest traveled road except in those districts in which the pupils are transported at public expense, or who is excused for sufficient reasons by any court of record or judge thereof. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not less than three ($3) dollars nor more than twenty ($20) dollars, for each offense. [30 G. A., ch. 116, § 1; 29 G. A., ch. 128, § 1.]

NOTE: Seven to fourteen, inclusive—meaning. The language of the section "to fourteen years" cannot be construed to extend beyond the time when the child becomes fourteen years of age. The word "inclusive" following clearly applies to the time intervening between the ages of seven and fourteen years. * * * I am therefore of the opinion that the word "inclusive," as used in the section, does not extend the period during which a child can be compelled to attend school beyond the time he becomes fourteen years of age. Report of attorney general, 1904, page 95.

SEC. 2823-b. Reports to secretary. Upon notice from the secretary of the school corporation within which such school is conducted, it shall be the duty of each principal of each private or parochial school, once during each school year, and at any time when requested in individual cases, and within ten days from the receipt of such notice, to furnish to such secretary a certificate and report of the names, ages and attendance of the pupils in attendance at such school during the preceding year and from the time of the last preceding report to the time at which a report is required and any person having the control of any child between seven and fourteen years of age inclusive, who shall place the same under private instruction, not in a regularly conducted school, upon receiving notice from the secretary of the school corporation, shall furnish a like certificate stating the name and age of such child and the period of time during which said child has been under said private instruction; and any person having the control of such child who is physically or mentally unable to attend school, public or private, shall furnish proofs by affidavit or affidavits as to the physical or mental condition of such child. All such certificates, reports and proofs shall be filed and preserved in the office of the secretary of the school corporation as a part of the records of his office. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 2.]

SEC. 2823-c. Certified copies. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the school corporation to furnish to any person interested, where so requested, certified copies of all certificates contemplated by this act, on file in his office. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 3.]

SEC. 2823-d. Truant schools. The board of directors of any school corporation may establish truant schools, or set apart separate rooms in any public school building, for the instruction of children who are habitually truant from instruction, as contemplated by this act. Such directors may provide for the confinement, maintenance, and instruction of such children in such schools, under such reasonable rules and regulations as they may prescribe. If any child, committed or sent to the truant school shall prove insubordinate and escape from such school during school hours, or absent himself or herself therefrom without the consent of the persons in charge thereof, then it shall be the duty of the person in charge of said school with the consent of the parent or guardian to file information before the judge of a court of record, who may, if the charge be found to be true and the said child be habitually vagrant, disorderly, or incorrigible commit such child to one of the industrial schools of the state, under the same proceeding as is provided by section twenty-seven hundred eight (2708) of the code so far as the same may be applicable. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 4.]

SEC. 2823-e. Truant officers. The board or directors of each school corporation may, and in school corporations having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more shall, at their annual meeting in each year, appoint one or more truant officers, who shall serve for one year, and who may be a constable or a member of the police force, whose duty it shall be to report violations of this act to the secretary of the school corporation, and see to the enforcement of the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of said truant officer or officers to apprehend and take into custody without warrant any child of the age of seven

(7) to fourteen (14) years inclusive, who habitually frequents or loiters about public places during school hours without lawful occupation, or cannot produce a certificate as provided in section two (2) hereof, also any truant child who absents himself or herself from school, and place him or her in charge of the teacher having charge of any school, which said child is entitled to attend, and which school may be designated to said officers by the person having legal control of such child: Provided, however, in case the school so designated by the parent or person having the care and control of said child be a public school it shall be such as directed by the rules and regulations of the school board and the statutes of the state, and if other than a public school, the maintenance of said child in such school shall be without expense to the school corporation or state. Upon failure of such child to properly attend or when on report of the teacher having the custody of such child, said child is shown to not properly conduct itself in the school where placed as herein provided, the child may be removed therefrom by the board of directors and placed either in a public school or a truant school conducted in said district. The truant officer or officers shall be entitled to such compensation for service rendered under this act, as shall be fixed by the board of directors appointing him or them, which compensation shall be paid from the contingent fund of said district. [30 G. A., ch. 116, § 2; 29 G. A., ch. 128, § 5.]

SEC. 2823-f. Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the director or president of any board of directors, or any truant officers appointed by such board of directors, to enforce the provisions of this act, to sue for and recover the penalties herein provided, and to institute criminal prosecution against any person violating the provisions of this act; and any such officers neglecting to do so within thirty (30) days after a written notice has been served upon him by any citizen of said district or the county superintendent of the county within which the offending person shall reside, shall himself be liable for a fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars nor more than twenty ($20) dollars for each offense. [32 G. A., ch. 154; 29 G. A., ch. 128, § 6.]

SEC. 2823-g. Teachers and school officers—duties. All teachers of the public schools of the state, and county superintendents, and school officers and employes shall promptly report to the secretary of the school corporation any violations of the provisions of this act, of which they have knowledge or information, and he shall promptly inform the president of the board of directors thereof and such president shall, if necessary, call a meeting of the board of directors to take such action thereon as the facts shall justify, and any child placed in any truant school may be discharged therefrom at the discretion of the board, upon sufficient assurance of the future good conduct of such child. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 7.]

SEC. 2823-h. Provisions for punishment. The board of directors of every school corporation is hereby authorized to provide such reasonable methods of punishment of children who are habitually truant from school, or who habitually frequent or loiter about public places during school hours without lawful occupation, as may be necessary to carry out and make effectual the provisions of this act. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 8.]

SEC. 2823-i. School census. It shall be the duty of all officers, empowered to take the school census, to ascertain the number of children of the ages of seven (7) to fourteen (14) years, inclusive, in their respective districts, the number of such children who do not attend school, and so far as possible, the cause of failure to attend school. [29 G. A., ch. 128, § 9.]

SCHOOL LAWS—SALE.

SEC. 2823-j. County auditors—requisition—duplicate receipts. On or before the 15th day of November of each year, the auditor of each county shall make an estimate of the number of copies of the school laws of Iowa as will, in his judgment, be required to supply the demand for such laws in his county, in addition to the number of copies of said school laws furnished by the state as provided for in section 2624, chapter 1, title 13 of the code. The county auditor shall transmit his estimate to the superintendent of public instruction, together with a requisition for the number of copies required. On receipt of the requisition the superintendent of public instruction shall forward to the county auditor the number of copies named in the requisition. On receipt of the copies transmitted to him, the county auditor shall execute receipts therefor in duplicate, one of which he shall immediately transmit to the superintendent of public instruction and the other to the state auditor. [27 G. A., ch. 90, § 1.]

SEC. 2823-k. Sale price. The county auditor shall keep for sale at his office in the court house of the county, copies of the school laws of the state of Iowa, which he shall receive in the manner hereinbefore provided, at a price not to exceed twenty (20) cents per copy of such laws, bound in paper and not to exceed 30 cents per copy of such laws bound in cloth and pay the proceeds of such sales into the county treasury on or before the 15th day of November of each year. [27 G. A., ch. 90, § 2.]

SEC. 2823-l. Statement of copies sold. The said county auditor shall also on or before the 15th day of November of each year, make out in writing under oath, a statement of the number of copies sold by him and not before accounted for, and the number remaining on hand and the amount paid to the county treasurer, and transmit such statement to the auditor of state, who shall charge the county treasurer with such amount, and the superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the state auditor the number of copies transmitted to each county auditor and the state auditor shall charge each county auditor therewith, and subsequently credit him with such as may be sold or otherwise lawfully disposed of. [27 G. A., ch. 90, § 3.]

SEC. 2823-m. Copies delivered to successor. When the county auditor goes out of office, having any such copies remaining, he shall deliver them to his successor, taking his receipt therefor in duplicate, one of which shall be sent to the state auditor which shall be his sufficient discharge for the same. [27 G. A., ch. 90, § 4.]

LIBRARIES.

SEC. 2823-n. Library fund. The treasurer of each school township and each rural independent district in this state shall withhold annually, from the money received from the apportionment for the several school districts, not less than five nor more than fifteen cents, as may be ordered by the board, for each person of school age residing in each school corporation, as shown by the annual report of the secretary, for the purchase of books as hereinafter provided. When so ordered by the board of directors, the provisions of this section shall apply to any independent district. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 1.]

NOTES: 1. Mandatory. It is mandatory upon the treasurer in each school township and each rural independent district to withhold from the apportionment each year a certain number of cents for each person between the ages of 5 and 21 years, for the purchase of library books.

2. Amount withheld. The amount withheld, annually, for each person, may not exceed fifteen cents, nor be less than five cents. The exact amount per pupil is left to the discretion of the board of directors, and may vary from one year to another. In determining the amount the board should consider the special needs of the district.

3. Contingent fund. Under section 2783, the board may use the contingent fund to purchase dictionaries, library books, maps, charts, and apparatus, to an amount not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one year for each schoolroom under its charge.

4. When apply to city and town districts. The provisions of the law apply to independent districts having cities, towns, and villages, only when so ordered by the board of directors. Independent districts without libraries should avail themselves of the benefits of the law.

5. Schoolhouse fund. The electors may vote schoolhouse fund for the purchase of library books. Section 2749.

SEC. 2823-o. Purchase of books—distribution. Between the third Monday of September and the first day of December in each year the president and secretary of the board, with the assistance of the county superintendent of schools, shall expend all money withheld by the treasurer as provided in section one of this act, in the purchase of books selected from the lists prepared by the state board of educational examiners as hereinafter provided, for the use of the school district; in school townships the secretary shall distribute the books thus selected to the librarians among the several subdistricts, and at least semi-annually collect the same and distribute others. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 2.]

NOTES: 1. Use of library fund. The money withheld by the treasurer cannot be used for any purpose except the purchase of books. All expenses such as freight charges, express, postage, exchange, library cases, and record books, should be paid from the contingent fund.

2. Listing—inspecting. The county superintendents in visiting schools should carefully inspect the library to see that it is properly kept; that the books are properly listed and labeled, and that the teachers know the best use to make of it.

SEC. 2823-p. State board of educational examiners to prepare list of books. It is hereby made the duty of the state board of educational examiners to prepare annually or biennially lists of books suitable for use in school district libraries, and furnish copies of such lists to each president, secretary, and each county superintendent, as often as the same shall be published or revised, from which lists the several presidents and secretaries and county superintendents shall select and purchase books. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 3.]

NOTE: What may be purchased. It is illegal to purchase books or editions not included in the list recommended by the state board of examiners.

SEC. 2823-q. Record book. It shall be the duty of each secretary to keep in a record book, furnished by the board of directors, a complete record of the books purchased and distributed by him. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 4.]

SEC. 2823-r. Librarian. Unless the board of directors shall elect some other person, the secretary in independent districts and director in subdistricts in school townships shall act as librarian and shall receive and have the care and custody of the books, and shall loan them to teachers, pupils, and other residents of the district, in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of educational examiners and board of directors. Each librarian shall keep a complete record of the books in a record book furnished by the board of directors. During the periods that the school is in session the library shall be placed in the schoolhouse, and the teacher shall be responsible to the district for its proper care and protection. The board of directors shall have supervision of all books and shall make an equitable distribution thereof among the schools of the corporation. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 5.]

NOTES: 1. Librarian—duties of. Much of the success of the library work will depend upon the librarian, and it is urged that great care be taken in making the selection.

2. Library free. The library is free to all pupils of suitable age, teachers and residents of the district, and the librarian shall loan the books to them in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of educational examiners, and the board of directors.

3. Where kept. The library must be kept in the schoolhouse during the term of school. At other times it is placed under the control of the librarian.

4. Transfer to successor. Each school officer, upon the termination of his term of office, shall immediately surrender to his successor all books, papers, and moneys pertaining or belonging to the office, taking a receipt therefor. Code, section 2770.

VOCAL MUSIC.

SEC. 2823-s. Instruction in vocal music authorized. That the elements of vocal music, including when practical the singing of simple music by note, be taught in all of the public schools of Iowa, and that all teachers teaching in schools where such instruction is not given by special teachers be required to satisfy the county superintendent of their ability to teach the elements of vocal music in a proper manner. Provided, however, that no teacher shall be refused a certificate or the grade of his or her certificate lowered on account of lack of ability to sing. [28 G. A., ch. 109, § 1.]

NOTE: Music required. For a first grade certificate, section 2734-d; for a second, section 2734-h, note 1; for a third, section 2734-i, note 1.

SEC. 2823-t. Normal institute. That it shall be the duty of each county superintendent to have taught annually in the normal institute the elements of vocal music. [28 G. A., ch. 109, § 2.]

TEXT-BOOKS—ADOPTION—PURCHASE—LOANING.

SEC. 2824. Adoption—contract—agent. The board of directors of each and every school corporation in the state of Iowa is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt text-books for the teaching of all branches that are now or may hereafter be authorized to be taught in the public schools of the state, and to contract for and buy said books and any and all other necessary school supplies at said contract prices, and to sell the same to the pupils of their respective districts at cost, and said money so received shall be returned to the contingent fund. The books and supplies so purchased shall be under the charge of the board, who may select one or more persons within the county to keep said books and supplies for sale, and, to insure the safety of the books and moneys, the board shall require of each person so appointed a bond in such sum as may seem to the board to be desirable. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, §§ 1, 2.]

NOTES: 1. Term of contract. There is nothing in this and the following sections from which it can be inferred that a contract must be entered into for five years. The law does not attempt to fix an exact limitation as to the time for which a contract should be made. It seems to be the intent of the law that the board of directors or the county board of education should carefully avoid making a contract which might have the effect of binding its successors in office.

2. Books must be used. It is within the power of any board to forbid the use of other books than those adopted for the district, and to provide by rule or regulation that scholars persistently and continuously refusing to conform to such regulation shall be refused instruction until they comply with the rule. Teachers failing to regard a rule or direction of the board that instruction be given from no other books than those legally in use, take the risk of being cited for trial under section 2782.

3. Cost—how construed. The word cost, in this section, should be understood to mean contract price. Any extra expense connected with securing the books should not be added to their purchase price, but should be paid from the contingent fund, upon separate orders. In this way the cost to the purchaser will agree with the contract price, and uniformity in cost for the same book will obtain all over a large district having several selling places, and will also be common in many districts and counties, while the extra expense for handling, drayage, storage, etc., may differ somewhat in connection with each different person selected to keep the books for sale.

4. Other necessary school supplies. We think the words any and all other necessary school supplies are intended to include only such articles as it is customary for parents to purchase for the use of their children in school work. For instance, globes and charts have not been furnished by the children. They cannot be bought with the money of the district, resold, and the money returned to the contingent fund as directed by the law.

5. Text-books included. Text-books of every variety, in all classes and grades, and all kinds of supplies usually purchased by the children for use in the schools for the purpose of instruction, may be purchased under this act.

6. Responsibility of board. It is evidently not the intention to impose a hardship upon the person who keeps the books and supplies for sale, but simply to guard the district against possible loss. The board is not to be considered as released in the slightest degree from its obligation, under the general law, to protect the funds. The bond is required for additional protection. Form 50. Nor will the fact that the board requires a bond from another person in any way release the treasurer from his absolute responsibility for all funds of the district coming into his hands, from whatever source.

7. Contracts made conditional. In order to avoid a possible misunderstanding, every contract should be made subject to the action of the electors as provided for in section 2829.

8. Adoption of text-books—contract. See McNees vs. School Township of East River, Page County, 110 N. W., 325.

SEC. 2825. Use of contingent fund—additional tax. All the books and other supplies purchased under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid for out of the contingent fund, and the board of directors shall annually certify to the board of supervisors the additional amount necessary to levy for the contingent fund of said district to pay for such books and supplies. But such additional amount shall not exceed in any one year the sum of one dollar and fifty cents for each pupil residing in the school corporation, and the amount so levied shall be paid out on warrants drawn for the payment of books and supplies only, but the district shall contract no debt for that purpose. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 2.]

NOTES: 1. Contingent fund—use of. Any contingent fund on hand may be used to purchase books and supplies. As the proceeds from sales must be returned at once to the contingent fund, no large additional amount will ordinarily be needed to enable the average district to secure books and supplies under this law.

2. Contingent fund—estimate for. When the board is estimating the levy for the contingent fund, it may include in the estimate an amount needed to pay any necessary expense connected with securing the books.

3. Orders audited. All payments under this chapter must be made in strict accordance with the other provisions of law governing the disbursement of school moneys. No order for any purpose may be drawn until the account has been regularly audited by the board. Section 2780.

4. Price to pupils. It is desirable that the cost to the scholar shall be the lowest possible. Any extra expense connected with securing the books should not be added to their purchase price, but should be paid out of the contingent fund, upon separate orders. In this way the cost to the purchaser will agree with the contract price, and uniformity in cost for the same book will be common in many districts and counties. Note 3 to section 2824.

5. Anticipate taxes. While the district may contract no indebtedness for the purchase of books and supplies, the board may anticipate the levy and collection of taxes certified for those purposes.

SEC. 2826. Purchase—exchange. In the purchasing of text-books it shall be the duty of the board of directors or the county board of education to take into consideration the books then in use in the respective districts, and they may buy such additional number of said books as may from time to time become necessary to supply their schools, and they may arrange on equitable terms for exchange of books in use for new books adopted. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 3.]

NOTE: Uniformity of books. The good of the schools will be best advanced if it is ordered that the same book or books in any branch must be used in all the schools of the same grade in the district. This will simplify the purchase, and also facilitate the introduction of uniform books.

SEC. 2827. Suit on bond. If at any time the publishers of such books as shall have been adopted by any board of directors or county board of education shall neglect or refuse to furnish such books when ordered by said board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, at the very lowest price, either contract or wholesale, that such books are furnished any other district or state board, then said board of directors or county board of education may and it is hereby made their duty to bring suit upon the bond given them by the contracting publisher. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 4.]

SEC. 2828. Bids. Before purchasing text-books under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the board of directors, or county board of education, to advertise, by publishing a notice once each week for three consecutive weeks in one or more newspapers published in the county; said notice shall state the time up to which all bids will be received, the classes and grades for which text-books and other necessary supplies are to be bought, and the approximate quantity needed; and said board shall award the contract for said text-books and supplies to any responsible bidder or bidders offering suitable text-books and supplies at the lowest prices, taking into consideration the quality of material used, illustrations, binding, and all other things that go to make up a desirable text-book; and may, to the end that they may be fully advised, consult the county superintendent, or, in case of city independent districts, with city superintendent or other competent person, with reference to the selection of text-books: Provided, that the board may reject any and all bids, or any part thereof, and re-advertise therefor as above provided. [31 G. A., ch. 9, § 4; 25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 5.]

NOTE: Must advertise. A board may not secure the advantages of purchasing text-books without first advertising for bids and letting the contract in the manner required. And this is equally true even if it is expected that a new contract will be made for the books in present use. Form 5. 110 N. W., 325.

SEC. 2829. Change—question submitted. It shall be unlawful for any board of directors or county board of education, except as provided in section twenty-eight hundred and twenty-seven of this chapter, to displace or change any text-book that has been regularly adopted or re-adopted under the provisions of this chapter, before the expiration of five years from the date of such adoption or re-adoption, unless authorized to do so by a majority of the electors present and voting at their regular annual meeting in March, due notice of said proposition to change or displace said text-books having been included in the notice for the said regular meeting. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 6.]

NOTE: Notice—secretary must be directed. Where notice that the question of a change of text-books would be voted on was included in the notice of election by the clerk (secretary) without the action of the board, the vote thereon was invalid, though a petition of ten voters had been filed, and though the members of the board individually had authorized the action of the clerk (secretary). McNees vs. School Township of East River, Page county, 110 N. W., 325.

SEC. 2830. Samples—lists—bonds. Any person or firm desiring to furnish books or supplies under this chapter in any county shall, at or before the time of filing his bid hereunder, deposit in the office of the county superintendent samples of all text-books included in his bid, accompanied with lists giving the lowest wholesale and contract prices for the same. And said samples and lists shall remain in the county superintendent's office, and shall be delivered by him to his successor in office, and shall be kept by him in such safe and convenient manner as to be open at all times to the inspection of such school officers, school patrons and school teachers as may desire to examine the same and compare them with others, for the purpose of use in the public schools. The board of directors and the county board of education mentioned shall require of any person or persons with whom they contract for furnishing any books or supplies to enter into a good and sufficient bond, in such sum and with such conditions and sureties as may be required by such board of directors or county board of education, for the faithful performance of any such contract. But bonds of surety companies duly authorized under the laws of Iowa shall be accepted. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 7.]

SEC. 2831. County board of education—question as to county uniformity. The county superintendent, the county auditor and the members of the board of supervisors shall constitute a county board of education. When petitions shall have been signed by one-third the school directors in any county, other than those in cities and towns, and filed in the office of the county superintendent of such county at least thirty days before the annual school elections, asking for a uniform series of text-books in the county, then such county superintendent shall immediately notify the other members of the county board of education in writing, and within fifteen days after the filing of the petitions said board of education shall meet and provide for submitting to the electors at the next annual meeting the question of county uniformity of school text-books. [28 G. A., ch. 111; 25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, §§ 8, 9.]

NOTES: 1. Petition. It is intended that at least one-third of the individuals composing all boards, except those of city and town districts, shall sign the petition referred to. Form 53.

2. County board of education. By the provisions of this section every county in the state has a county board of education composed of the county superintendent, county auditor, and members of the board of supervisors.

3. Notice. In order that every voter may be fully advised of the submission of the question of county uniformity, the county board of education should publish the proposition to be voted upon in the official papers of the county at least ten days before the annual school election, and they should also transmit to the secretaries of the several boards of directors copies of said proposition, and direct said secretaries to give notice thereof and provide for the taking of a vote thereon at the annual meeting.

SEC. 2832. Selection of books—depositories. Should a majority of the electors voting at such elections favor a uniform series of text-books for use in said county, then the county board of education shall meet and select the school text-books for the entire county, and contract for the same under such rules and regulations as the said board of education may adopt. When a list of text-books has been so selected, they shall be used by all the public schools of said county, except as hereinafter provided, and the board of education may arrange for such depositories as it may deem best, and may pay for said school books out of the county funds, and sell them to the school districts at the same price as provided for in section twenty-eight hundred and twenty-four of this chapter, and the money received from said sales shall be returned to the county funds by said board of education monthly. The boards of school officers, who are hereby made the judges of the school meetings, shall certify to the board of supervisors the full returns of the votes cast at said meetings the next day after the holding of said meetings, who shall, at their next regular meeting, proceed to canvass said votes and declare the result. Unless otherwise ordered by the board of education, the county superintendent shall have charge of such text-books and of the distribution thereof among the depositories selected by the board; he shall render to the board at each meeting thereof itemized accounts of his doings, and shall be liable on his official bond therefor. [28 G. A., ch. 112; 25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 9.]

NOTES: 1. A continuous body. The county board of education is a continuous body.

2. Rules. County boards of education should from time to time make such rules and regulations as seem necessary to carry out the purpose and spirit of the law.

3. May not be purchased. Purchases of records, dictionaries, apparatus and similar supplies for the use of the district may not be made by contract under this law, but such articles should be bought with contingent fund, as provided by section 2783. Note 4 to section 2824.

4. Sold direct. The county board of education must cause the books to be sold to the people direct, under such regulations as the board may adopt.

5. Must be used. When a list of text-books has been selected as provided in this section, they must be used by all the public schools of said county, except as provided in section 2835, notwithstanding the fact that contracts made by boards of school corporations may not have expired.

6. Bonds. Security by bond made payable to the county may be required from depositories. But the fact that the money from sales must be returned to the county funds monthly will lessen the need for as much security as would be necessary if a large sum of money could be held by a depository for a long time.

7. Depositories. The county board of education should arrange for a sufficient number of depositories to accommodate fully the people of every district in the county.

8. Contingent expense. It will promote an equality of price for the same book in the several counties, if any slight extra expense connected with securing or handling the books be not added to the contract price, but paid for from the county funds, by the board of supervisors. In this way, the books and supplies may be sold to the people at cost, the same as provided under section 2824, when purchase is made by a district. Note 4 to section 2825.

9. May not render opinions. It is apparent that there will be many questions arising upon which we cannot venture an opinion. Any matter in which the binding force or validity of a contract is involved, can be determined only by the courts of law.

10. Legal adviser. The county attorney is the legal adviser of the county board of education, and he should be freely consulted on questions upon which the board may be in doubt. Code, section 302.

11. By ballot. The vote upon county uniformity must be by ballot. The result of such vote should be duly certified by the judges of election to the board of supervisors the next day after the annual meeting.

12. Judges. "The boards of school officers" who are made the judges of election by this section consist of the president, the secretary, and one of the directors as provided for in section 2746.

13. Printing ballots. In order to facilitate matters in holding this election, the board of education might very properly provide for the printing and distribution of ballots, and make such other arrangements as may be necessary.

SEC. 2833. Proceedings of county board. The county superintendent shall in all cases be chairman of the county board of education, and the county auditor shall be the secretary, and a full and complete record shall be kept of their proceedings in a book kept for that purpose in the office of the county superintendent. A list of text-books so selected, with their contract prices, shall be reported to the state superintendent with the regular annual report of the county superintendent. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 10.]

NOTE: Who report. The county superintendent will report only the list of books adopted by the county board of education. The superintendents of counties that have not adopted county uniformity as provided in sections 2831 and 2832 will not make this report.

SEC. 2834. Officers not to be agents. It shall be unlawful for any school director, teacher or member of the county board of education to act as agent for any school text-books or school supplies during such term of office or employment, and any school director, officer, teacher or member of the county board of education who shall act as agent or dealer in school text-books or school supplies, during the term of such office or employment, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and pay the costs of prosecution. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 11.]

NOTES: 1. Purpose of the law. The intention of this section is to prohibit any of the persons named from engaging in any business in connection with school text-books or supplies, by which his pecuniary interests might be brought in conflict with his official duties.

2. Violation—effect. The fact that a person is subject to the penalties named, for violating the provisions of this section, will not operate to deprive him of his office or position.

3. Who prohibited. School directors, teachers, and members of the county board of education are by this section absolutely prohibited from acting as agents for, or dealers in, school text-books or school supplies.

4. Director as dealer. Code, section 2834, applies to and prohibits a school director from engaging on his own account in the sale of school books and supplies to the pupils, and is not limited to directors acting as agents of the board under code, section 2824. 130 Iowa, 31.

5. Sale of books—use of contingent fund. A school board has no authority to contract with a bookseller and pay him out of the contingent fund for handling books, where the district does not buy the books for re-sale, but simply arranges with the publishers to place the same with the dealer to be sold by him at a stated price. 127 Iowa, 408.

SEC. 2835. City schools. The provisions of sections twenty-eight hundred and thirty-one, twenty-eight hundred and thirty-two and twenty-eight hundred and thirty-three of this chapter shall not apply to schools located within cities or towns, nor shall the electors of said cities or towns vote upon the question of county uniformity; but nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent such schools in said cities and towns from adopting and buying the books adopted by the county board of education at the prices fixed by them, if by a vote of the electors they shall so decide. [25 G. A., ch. 35; 23 G. A., ch. 24, § 12.]

NOTES: 1. Apply to whom. All except sections 2831, 2832 and 2833 apply to city and town independent school districts, and such districts may purchase books and supplies in the same manner as other districts, under sections 2824 to 2830.

2. How adopt. City and town independent districts may by a vote of the electors, at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, decide to adopt and use the books adopted by the county board of education.

SEC. 2836. Free text-books—question submitted. whenever a petition signed by one-third or more of the legal voters, to be determined by the school board of any school corporation, shall be filed with the secretary thirty days or more before the annual meeting of the electors, asking that the question of providing free text-books for the use of pupils in the public schools thereof be submitted to the voters at the next annual meeting, he shall cause notice of such proposition to be given in the call for such meeting. [26 G. A., ch. 37, § 1.]

NOTES: 1. Purpose—benefits. These provisions afford all school corporations the opportunity to supply free books, so that every child may continuously enjoy the privileges of school. It is believed that if districts will take action in accordance with the spirit of the law, the percentage of attendance at school can be materially increased, and the usefulness of our schools to all the children greatly enhanced.

2. Rules—importance of. Much of the success of free text-books will depend upon the rules and regulations adopted by the board to govern the use and care of such books. The board should take more than the usual pains to adopt plain, comprehensive, and effective rules for the guidance of all concerned.

SEC. 2837. Loaning—discontinuance. If, at such meeting, a majority of the legal voters present and voting by ballot thereon shall authorize the board of directors of said school corporation to loan text-books to the pupils free of charge, then the board shall procure such books as shall be needed, in the manner provided by law for the purchase of text-books, and loan them to the pupils. The board shall hold pupils responsible for any damage to, loss of, or failure to return any such books, and shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be reasonable and necessary for the keeping and preservation thereof. Any pupil shall be allowed to purchase any text-book used in the school at cost. No pupil already supplied with text-books shall be supplied with others without charge until needed. The electors may, at any election called as provided in the last section, direct the board to discontinue the loaning of text-books to pupils. [26 G. A., ch. 37, §§ 2-6.]

NOTES: 1. Success of. As much of the success of free text-books will depend upon the rules and regulations adopted by the board to govern the care and use of the books, a board should take more than the usual pains to adopt plain, comprehensive, and effective rules for the guidance of all concerned.

2. Anticipate tax. While the district may contract no debt for the purchase of books, the board may anticipate the levy and collection of taxes certified under section 2825, so as to carry out the instructions of the electors without unnecessary delay.

ADVERTISEMENTS PROHIBITED.

SEC. 5028-s. What prohibited. That no bills, posters or other matter used to advertise the sales of intoxicating liquors and tobacco shall be distributed, posted, painted or maintained within four hundred feet of premises occupied by a public school or used for school purposes, provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall apply to advertisements in newspapers of regular publication distributed to subscribers or purchasers thereof. [30 G. A., ch. 137, § 1.]

SEC. 5028-t. Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days. [30 G. A., ch. 137, § 2.]

BEQUESTS—CORPORATIONS MAY RECEIVE.

SEC. 740. Power to take property by gift or bequest—how administered. Counties, cities, towns and school corporations, are authorized to take and hold property, real and personal, derived by gifts and bequests; and to administer the same through their proper officers in pursuance of the terms of the gift or bequest; and when made for the establishment of institutions of learning or benevolence, and there is no provision made in the gift or bequest for the execution of the trust, the court having charge of the probate proceedings in the county shall appoint three trustees, residents of said county, who shall have charge and control the same, and who shall continue to act until removed by the court. And they shall give bond as required in case of executors, to be approved in the same manner as in case of executors' bonds, and said trustees shall be subject to the orders of said court. [28 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 26 G. A., ch. 20.]

tively entitled, by the apportionment under the census of 1860; provided, that no mineral lands shall be selected under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. First—If any portion of the fund invested as provided by the foregoing section, or any portion of the interest thereon shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, it shall be replaced by the state to which it belongs, so that the capital of the fund shall remain forever undiminished, and the annual interest shall be regularly applied, without diminution, to the purposes mentioned in the fourth section of this act, except that a sum not exceeding ten per centum upon the amount received by any state under the provisions of this act may be expended for the purchase of lands for sites or experimental farms, whenever authorized by the respective legislatures of said states.

LAWS OF IOWA.

SECTION 2645. Grant accepted. Legislative assent is given to the purposes of the various congressional grants to the state for the endowment and support of a college of agriculture and mechanic arts, and an agricultural experiment station as a department thereof, upon the terms, conditions and restrictions contained in all acts of congress relating thereto, and the state assumes the duties, obligations and responsibilities thereby imposed. All moneys appropriated by the state because of the obligations thus assumed, and all funds arising from said congressional grants, shall be invested or expended in accordance with the provision of such grant, for the use and support of said college located at Ames. It may charge a fee for contingent expenses not to exceed one dollar monthly, and a tuition fee of not more than six dollars a term, if necessary for the proper support of the institution, and shall determine what part of the year the school shall be open, its sessions to continue, however, for at least twenty-six weeks of each year. DECISIONS

IN

APPEAL CASES

Compiled for the Use of School Officers and Directors

EDITION OF 1907

JOHN F. RIGGS

Superintendent of Public Instruction

PREFACE.

In the compilation of the following decisions it has been our aim to select, as far as possible, only such cases as have a decisive bearing upon some important point of school law.

There are many questions arising in the administration of these laws which the courts alone have power to decide. All questions involving the right and title to office, the interpretation of contracts, the right to levy and collect taxes, the payment of money, and any act of the electors of a school district, are matters that should be tried in the courts, and can not be determined by appeal to the county superintendent or to the superintendent of public instruction.

Many of the appeals taken in the past have grown out of contention over the location of schoolhouse sites. As our state becomes more generally settled these questions arise with less frequency.

When possible, appeals to the superintendents or courts should be avoided. The timely and judicious advice of county superintendents will do much more to secure amicable adjustment of many school controversies.

A careful perusal and study of these decisions by the school officers will enable them to administer the laws so justly and intelligently that many of the unfortunate contests that too frequently involve school districts and neighborhoods may be avoided.

July 4, 1907.

JOHN F. RIGGS,
Superintendent of Public Instruction.

SCHOOL LAW DECISIONS.

S. L. CURRY V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF FRANKLIN.

Appeal from Decatur County.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Has no jurisdiction of an appeal until an affidavit is filed in his office. The appeal must be taken by affidavit.

AFFIDAVIT. An affidavit is a statement in writing of the errors complained of, signed and made upon oath before an authorized magistrate.

JURISDICTION. An application for an appeal filed within thirty days from the act complained of will not give the county superintendent jurisdiction of the case.

NOTICE. The county superintendent should not issue notice of final hearing until the transcript of the district secretary has been filed.

TESTIMONY. Unless obviously immaterial, testimony offered should be admitted and given such weight as it merits.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. Should not be disturbed except upon evidence of unjust exercise of discretion.

December 16, 1867, at a special meeting of the board, a vote to change the boundaries of subdistricts so as to form a new subdistrict in accordance with the prayer of petitioners, resulted in a tie. From this virtual refusal to act, S. L. Curry appealed to the county superintendent, who on the thirty-first of the same month formed a new subdistrict. Appellant alleges in his affidavit that the county superintendent assumed jurisdiction of this case without warrant of law, that there never was "at any time an affidavit or any other statement in said appeal case filed in the office" of the superintendent, hence the want of jurisdiction.

The "act to provide for appeals," section two, provides that "The basis of proceeding shall be an affidavit, filed by the party aggrieved, with the county superintendent, within the time allowed for taking the appeal." An affidavit is a statement in writing, signed and made upon oath before an authorized magistrate. A county superintendent can have no proper jurisdiction of an appeal case until such affidavit has been filed. A notice of intention to file an affidavit, a verbal complaint, or a petition, is not sufficient to give the county superintendent jurisdiction in appeal cases. The affidavit setting forth "the errors complained of in a plain and concise manner," must be in his hands before he is justified in commencing proceedings. The decision of the superintendent recites that the affidavit was filed December 21st, which might be taken as conclusive, if it was not contradicted by the record. The transcript shows that said affidavit was not subscribed and sworn to until December 28th, hence we do not clearly see how it could have been filed on the 21st.

December 24th, four days before the affidavit was made, and which appellant alleges was never filed with the superintendent, said superintendent gave notice to the parties that the hearing would take place on the 30th. This proceeding, as an appeal case, was entirely unauthorized by law, and as he commenced proceedings in disregard of the plain provisions of the law and without legal jurisdiction, his decision is annulled. It may be said, and not without authority, that as both parties responded to the notice, and came before the superintendent, he thereby acquired jurisdiction, but we feel unwilling to sanction disregard of law by approving such great irregularities.

Without touching the real merits of the questions at issue, the formation of a new subdistrict, which we are willing to leave to the local authorities, we refer briefly to three points of law raised by appellants.

The county superintendent should not issue notice of final hearing until both the affidavit and the transcript of the secretary have been filed in his office.

Though the change of subdistrict boundaries by the board is a discretionary act, it may be reviewed by the county superintendent, on appeal, but the decision of the board should not be disturbed unless said discretionary power has been abused or exercised unjustly.

The county superintendent should have received the remonstrances offered on trial in evidence, and exercised his judgment as to their weight and value.

REVERSED.

D. FRANKLIN WELLS,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

March 26, 1868.

ELIAS SIPPLE V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF LESTER.

Appeal from Black Hawk County.

TESTIMONY. At the hearing of an appeal, it is competent for the county superintendent, upon his own motion, to call additional witnesses to give testimony.

RECORDS. In the absence of the allegation of fraud, testimony to contradict or impeach the records of the district cannot be received.

RECORDS. The board may at any time amend the record of the district, when necessary to correct mistakes or supply omissions. And it may upon proper showing be compelled by mandamus to make such corrections.

AFFIDAVIT. The affidavit answers its leading purpose if it sets forth the errors complained of with such clearness that the proper transcript may be secured.

At the regular meeting of the board held September 16, 1867, attended by four of the seven members, motions were made and seconded for the creation of two new subdistricts whose boundaries were described in the motions. In regard to the action on these motions the record of the secretary contains merely the word "carried." At a special meeting held February 15, 1868, the action of the board in September in relation to the formation of new subdistricts was "reconsidered" and "rescinded." From the February action Elias Sipple appealed to the county superintendent. During the progress of the hearing, which took place March 20, 1868, the county superintendent called upon one of the four members that attended the September meeting, who testified that he did not vote for the motion to create a new subdistrict. As it thus appeared that the new subdistricts were not established by a vote of a majority of all the members of the board, as required by law, and as said September action was rescinded at a full meeting of the board in February, the county superintendent, considering the formation of the subdistricts illegal and void, dismissed the appeal. From this decision Barney Wheeler appeals.

Appellant alleges substantially that the county superintendent erred as follows: In himself calling a witness to give testimony; in receiving testimony to impeach the district record, which is claimed to be valid and binding after thirty days; in dismissing the appeal; in not establishing the subdistricts.

The law requires the county superintendent to give a "just and equitable" decision, and as the calling of additional witnesses may sometimes enable him to discharge this duty more faithfully, his action in this respect is sustained.

The second error assigned really includes two distinct points, which will be considered separately; and first, in regard to the impeachment of the district record. The law provides for an annual meeting of the electors of the district township, and for semi-annual and special meetings of the board of directors; also that "the secretary shall record all the proceedings of the board and district meetings in separate books kept for that purpose." It is a general principle of law that "oral evidence can not be substituted for any instrument which the law requires to be in writing, such as records, public documents," etc. 1 Greenleaf's Evidence, §86. "It is a well-settled rule that, where the law requires the evidence of a transaction to be in writing, oral evidence cannot be substituted for that, so long as the writing exists and can be produced; and this rule applies as well to the transactions of public bodies and officers as to those of individuals." The People v. Zeyst, 23 N. Y., 142. In the case of Taylor v. Henry, 2 Pick., 397, the supreme court of Massachusetts held that an omission in the records of a town meeting could not be supplied by parol evidence. Chief Justice Shaw, in discussing the case, said that it would be "dangerous to admit such a proof." Mr. Starkie, in his valuable treatise on evidence, says: "Where written instruments are appointed either by the immediate authority of the law or by the compact of the parties, to be the permanent repositories and testimony of truth, it is a matter both of principle and policy to exclude any inferior evidence from being used either as a substitute for such instruments or to contradict or alter them; of principle, because such instruments are, in their own nature and origin, entitled to a much higher degree of credit than that which appertains to parol evidence; of policy, because it would be attended with great mischief and inconvenience, if those instruments upon which men's rights depend were liable to be impeached and controverted by loose collateral evidence." Starkie, part IV, page 995, volume III, 3d Am. Ed.

The reason of the rule upon which the courts agree with such entire unanimity applies with force in the case now under consideration. The records of the district and board meetings contain a statement of the regulations adopted, and the acts done in the exercise of the powers with which the respective bodies are invested by the law. They present to all the citizens of the district township, in a permanent form, certain and definite information which could be obtained, with equal certainty, in no other way. Memory is defective, but the secretary records the transactions as they occur. The actors change from year to year, but the record is permanent. And though the admission of oral testimony to alter a record or supply an omission therein might sometimes promote the attainment of justice, the prevalence of such a practice would result in more evil than good. It is held, therefore, that in the absence of alleged fraud the county superintendent errs, in admitting parol evidence to contradict or impeach the record of the September meeting of the board.

In regard to the other part of the second point a few words will suffice. The counsel for appellant urges that though the record of the September meeting was imperfect, the lapse of thirty days made the record valid and binding upon the district. It is true that the right to take an appeal to the county superintendent expires after thirty days, but I am unable to see how the lapse of time will validate what was before invalid. The secretary is the proper custodian of the records of the school district, and before the record of the proceedings of the board has been approved or adopted by the board, the secretary may amend them by supplying omissions, or otherwise correcting them. After they have been approved they may be amended and corrected by direction of the board, even after the lapse of thirty days. In Massachusetts a town clerk is permitted to amend the record in order to supply defects, even after a suit involving a question respecting them has been commenced. I am of the opinion that if the secretary or board of directors decline to make necessary corrections in the record, that a party interested may proceed by mandamus to compel the correction. If the record is to be impeached, it must be, in the absence of fraud, by a direct proceeding instituted for that purpose, and not by a collateral or indirect method. The People vs. Zeyst, 23 N. Y., 147-8.

The district record in this case is not as full as it might with propriety be. The law provides that the boundaries of subdistricts shall not be changed except by the vote of a majority of the members of the board. The record fails to show that this requirement of the law was complied with at the September meeting. The secretary says that the motion to redistrict "carried." This is his opinion, but he fails to give the fact upon which it is based. Four of the seven members were present, but he does not say who, or how many voted for the change. Properly this should have been stated. When, however, the district record declares that a motion was "carried," the law will presume that it was carried in accordance with the requirements of the statute; though there is reason to believe that the presumption in this instance is a violent one. It follows that there was no legal evidence that the subdistricts were not established in accordance with law; hence, the conclusion is inevitable that the county superintendent erred in dismissing the appeal for the cause assigned.

At the commencement of the trial and again during its progress, the defendant moved the county superintendent to dismiss the case on account of the insufficiency of the affidavit. The affidavit of Mr. Sipple is not as full as it is usual to make affidavits in such cases, yet it "set forth the errors complained of" with such plainness and conciseness as enabled the county superintendent to obtain the necessary transcripts, and this is all the law really requires. It has not been customary heretofore to force any particular form of affidavit, and the superintendent's ruling refusing to dismiss on defendant's motion is sustained.

As the testimony appears not to have been all in when the case was dismissed by the county superintendent, no opinion can be given in regard to the propriety or necessity of establishing the proposed new subdistricts. The case is therefore returned to the county superintendent, who will proceed with the hearing, first allowing a reasonable time for the correction of the district record or for the enforcement of its correction should such correction be deemed necessary by either of the interested parties. Should the district record be amended so as to show conclusively that the said subdistricts were not legally formed at the said meeting in September, it will follow that the said subdistricts never had a legal existence, and that the plaintiff could not be aggrieved by the action of the February meeting, hence the county superintendent will determine the case in favor of the appellee. Should said record not be amended, or should it be amended so as to show clearly that said subdistricts were established in all respects in conformity with law, the question of establishing the new subdistricts, or more properly retaining their organization, will be determined upon its merits.

E. J. MINER v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF CEDAR.

Appeal from Floyd County.

CONTESTED ELECTION. The proper method of determining a contested election for school director is by an action brought in the district court.

ELECTION. The certificate of the officers of the subdistrict meeting is the legal evidence of election as subdirector, and as a general rule a board of directors is justified in declining to recognize a person as a member of the board until he produces such certificate.

EVIDENCE. Where the law requires the evidence of a transaction to be in writing, oral evidence can be substituted only if the writing cannot be produced.

QUO WARRANTO. The remedy of a person denied possession of an office to which he has been chosen is an action in court.

At the regular meeting of the board in March, 1868, E. J. Miner appeared and filed his oath of office as subdirector of subdistrict number three, and claimed recognition as a member of the board. The said Miner failed to present the certificate of the officers of the subdistrict meeting, or any other evidence or his election except his own verbal statement. It was alleged in the board that he was not legally elected. Under these circumstances the board refused him a seat and recognized his predecessor as holding over. From this order the said Miner appealed to the county superintendent, who, after a full hearing of the manner in which the election was conducted, reversed the order of the board and directed that the said Miner should be recognized as sub-director of subdistrict number three and as a member of the board of directors. From this decision an appeal is taken by A. J. Sweet, president of the board. The above are but a small portion of the facts presented in the well arranged transcript of the county superintendent, but yet all that are material to the issues involved.

The case presented by these facts is similar to that of Ockerman v. District Township of Hamilton, page 77, School Law Decisions of 1868, and must be governed by the same principles. It was there held that the only proper way of determining a contested election or the right of exercising any public office or franchise is by an action in the nature of quo warranto brought in the district court. It seems unnecessary to repeat the arguments there used. Reference is made to that case, as well as to the 19 Iowa, 199; 18 Iowa, 59; 16 Iowa, 369; 17 Iowa, 365; and the other cases there cited. The principle involved in the preceding references was recognized by the county superintendent, when he said in his decision that "the board of directors has no jurisdiction to inquire into the legality of the election of its members." When this just conclusion was reached the case should have been dismissed, for the county superintendent can do on appeal only what the board itself might legally have done.

The county superintendent held that as the president of the subdistrict meeting refused to sign a certificate of election for the said Miner, the board might receive other evidence of his election. In this the county superintendent departed from well established legal principles. The school law provides that at the meeting of the electors of the subdistrict on the first Monday in March "a chairman and secretary shall be appointed, who shall act as judges of the election and give a certificate of election to the sub-director elect." It is a well-settled rule that where the law requires the evidence of a transaction to be in writing, oral evidence can not be substituted when the writing can be produced; this rule applies alike to transactions of public bodies, officers and individuals.

There can be no doubt that the law contemplates that the certificate of the officers of the subdistrict meeting shall be the legal passport to a seat in the board, and that, as a general rule, a board of directors is justified in declining to recognize a person as a member of the board until such certificate is produced. If the certificate has been given and lost, the accident may be remedied by other testimony. If illegally withheld, the officer may be coerced by mandamus to furnish it. If it has been fraudulently given, the law still provides a remedy.

By the light of the previous principles it is evident that when, under the circumstances, the county superintendent proceeded to investigate the rights of the plaintiff as a school director, he exceeded his jurisdiction, and that his decision must therefore be overruled. The law requires that the plaintiff,

Miner, shall seek his remedy in the courts. The decision of the county superintendent is therefor reversed and the case dismissed.

N. R. HOOK V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF FREMONT.

Appeal from Mahaska County.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES. Are not acquired by temporary removal into a district for the purpose of attending school.

At a meeting of the board an order was made excluding one George Check from school. From this order Dr. N. R. Hook, with whom the boy was at the time living, appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the order of the board, and Hook again appealed.

The ground upon which the boy was debarred from school was that he was not a bona fide resident of the district, and this is fully sustained by the circumstances of the case as shown by the weight of the evidence as adduced before the county superintendent. The apparent primary purpose of George Check in going to live with Dr. Hook was that he might attend the school at Fremont, and after the term of school should expire his further continuance at Hook's would be uncertain. He did not go there with the intention of remaining, but the intention to return to his father's house seems to have been manifested in the contract or agreement made with Hook.

Counsel for appellant argues that the law should not be technically construed, but that it should receive a liberal construction, and in this he is correct. It should receive such a construction as that all the youth of the state, without regard to race or condition in life, can with equal facility participate in the benefits of our free schools. There is evidence that the schools in Fremont are so crowded that many of the youth of the district are unable to gain admission, and the law gives to them the prior claim. The board should see that the children of the district are first accommodated, and then, if not detrimental to the interests of the school, it may admit, in its discretion, those from outside districts upon such terms as it may agree.

Believing that the county superintendent properly sustained the board of directors, his decision is hereby

AFFIRMED.

Z. W. REMINGTON V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF BOOMER.

JURISDICTION. The county superintendent does not have jurisdiction of cases involving a money demand.

SCHOOL ORDERS. When improperly issued, a proper remedy is injunction.

On the 12th day of October the board met in special session and made a settlement with one L. S. Axtell, who was the contractor for the erection of certain schoolhouses in said district township. From the action of the board Z. W. Remington appealed to the county superintendent, who dismissed the appeal upon the ground that the settlement with Axtell was for a money demand, and therefore involved a question over which he could exercise no jurisdiction. Remington again appeals.

If there was anything wrong in the action of the board issuing orders in favor of Axtell for the payment of his claim for building the schoolhouses that would render them invalid, his remedy, if any, would have been by injunction to restrain the payment of such orders, or by some other proper action in the civil courts, and not by appeal to the county superintendent, as the latter tribunal is not clothed by the statute with the authority to inquire into or determine the validity of school orders. The county superintendent, therefore, very properly decided to dismiss the appeal, and his order in the case is hereby

AFFIRMED.

W. D. PECK et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF POLK.

Appeal from Jefferson County.

SUBDISTRICTS. Should be, if possible, compact and regular in form. In well populated district townships two miles square is considered a desirable area.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITES. It is important that a schoolhouse site be located on a public road, and as near the center of a subdistrict as practicable.

It appears from a transcript in this case that the board, on the presentation of a petition from the majority of the inhabitants of subdistrict number eight, issued an order attaching a strip on the northeast from subdistrict number seven to number eight, relocating the schoolhouse site, and arranging for the removal of the schoolhouse from the present site to said new location. From this action of the board an appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who sustained the action of the board, and from his decision an appeal is taken to this tribunal.

The trial before the county superintendent developed that the board has in contemplation the redistricting of the entire township into subdistricts two miles square, and that the order providing for the change of boundaries in subdistrict number eight is the initiatory step in that direction. The subdistrict in question, previous to the order, had very irregular boundaries; and except that the district is too large for convenience without further change in the boundaries there would seem to be every reason for attaching the strip from number seven. That being attached, the change of location and the removal of the schoolhouse to a site occupying the geographical center of the subdistrict with its changed boundaries must follow of course. Besides this, there seems to be the additional good reason for the change of location for the schoolhouse site: the present site is not on a public road; the one in prospect is, and as all the territory is in a condition to be easily and rapidly settled, the new site will, with the additional change in contemplation, be the exact geographical center of the subdistrict.

The action of the board in this case is manifestly of a discretionary character, and I can see nothing in the testimony that would induce the belief that it has in any way exceeded its prerogative or abused its discretion. The decision of the county superintendent is therefore

AFFIRMED.

W. P. DAVIS v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF MADISON.

Appeal from Fremont County.

CONTRACTS. Made by a committee, require the approval of the board in session.

SCHOOL FUNDS. The treasurer is the proper custodian of all funds, and may legally pay them out only upon orders specifying the fund upon which they are drawn and the specific use to which they are applied.

SUBDIRECTOR. The subdirector may expend money in his subdistrict only in the manner authorized by the board.

CLAIMS. Just claims against the district can be enforced only in the courts.

MANDAMUS. Is a remedy if the board refuses to carry out a vote of the electors.

SUBDISTRICT. A subdistrict is not a corporate body, and has no control of any public fund.

The electors on the eleventh day of March, 1871, voted a tax of two and one-half mills on the taxable property of the district township for schoolhouse purposes, and directed that three hundred dollars of the amount thus raised should be used for the erection of a schoolhouse in subdistrict number nine.

March 20, 1871, W. P. Davis, subdirector of subdistrict number nine, was appointed a committee to build a schoolhouse in said subdistrict. The house having been completed, at a special meeting of the board held June 1, 1872, it was moved that the report of the committee be received and the schoolhouse be accepted; also, that the secretary be instructed to draw an order on the treasurer for three hundred dollars for subdistrict number nine. Both motions were lost, from which action the said W. P. Davis appealed to the county superintendent, who on the ninth day of August, 1872, reversed the action of the board. The district township, through its president, W. H. Gandy, appeals.

The history of this case very fully illustrates the loose and irregular manner in which school officers too frequently transact official business. Section 15 of the School Laws provides that the board "shall make all contracts, purchases, payments, and sales necessary to carry out any vote of the district, but before erecting any schoolhouse they shall consult with the county superintendent as to the most approved plan of such building."

If the contract is made by a subdirector or committee of the board, it should in all cases be approved by the board before work is commenced.

A misapprehension often exists as to the manner in which school funds should be disbursed. The treasurer is the proper custodian of all funds belonging to the district township and the law provides that he "shall pay no order which does not specify the fund on which it is drawn, and the specific use to which it is applied," that is, for work done, material furnished, or the like.

The board is also required to "audit and allow all just claims against the district, and no order shall be drawn on the district treasury until the claim for which it is drawn has been so audited and allowed." This rule applies equally where funds are voted by the district township for the purpose of building schoolhouses in particular subdistricts, also where taxes have been raised on the property of subdistricts, in accordance with the proviso of section 28. Such funds, or so much of them as may be required to carry out the vote of the electors, should be devoted to the specific object for which they were voted, but the disbursement should, in all cases, be under the direction and authority of the board. Boards have no authority to give subdirectors money to use in their subdistricts for building schoolhouses or any other purpose, nor subdirectors to use money so received. A subdistrict is not a corporate body and has no control of any public fund.

If Mr. Davis has a just claim against the district township of Madison which the board refuses to allow, or if the board refuses to apply the amount voted by the electors to the specific object for which it was designed, the erection of a schoolhouse in subdistrict number nine, the civil courts, only, can furnish a means of redress.

W. J. MOODY v. H. H. BURRINGTON, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Appeal from Bremer County.

CERTIFICATE. The county superintendent may refuse to entertain a petition for the revocation of a teacher's certificate.

APPEAL. An appeal may be taken from the refusal of the county superintendent to investigate charges brought against a teacher.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. The decision of the authority having original jurisdiction is entitled to much consideration.

A petition containing charges against a teacher was presented to H. H. Burrington, county superintendent, asking an investigation of the charges, and the revocation of her certificate. The county superintendent refused to make the investigation as requested by the petitioners, and W. J. Moody appeals.

The question whether an appeal will lie from the refusal of the county superintendent to investigate charges brought against a teacher, has not been to our knowledge before determined. Since it is held that an appeal may be taken from an action of the board refusing to perform a discretionary action, we see no reason why appeal will not lie from a similar action of the county superintendent.

In the case before us, statements testifying to the moral character and good reputation of the teacher are made by reliable and disinterested parties who have been intimately acquainted with her for several years past; and it is believed that, in no instance, is the judgment and discretion of a local tribunal entitled to more consideration than in this case. AFFIRMED.

J. W. RANDALL V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF VIENNA.

Appeal from Marshall County.

SCHOOLHOUSE. The board may legally remove a schoolhouse from one subdistrict to another only by vote of the electors.

SCHOOLHOUSE. When the electors have voted to remove a schoolhouse from one subdistrict to another the board must execute such vote, and from its action in so doing no appeal can be taken.

INJUNCTION. The execution of a fraudulent vote of the electors may be prevented by a writ from a court of law.

At the district township meeting held the second Monday in March, 1873, it was voted to remove the schoolhouse situated in subdistrict number four into subdistrict number three. On the seventeenth day of March, the board ordered the removal of the schoolhouse, in accordance with said vote of the electors. From this action, appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board. The district township, through its president, appeals.

Section seven, School Laws of 1872, provides that the electors shall have the power "to direct the sale, or other disposition to be made of any schoolhouse;" also "to vote such tax, not exceeding ten mills on the dollar in any one year, on the taxable property of the district township, as the meeting shall deem sufficient for the purchase of grounds and the construction of necessary schoolhouses for the use of the respective subdistricts." Section fifteen provides that the board "shall make all contracts, purchases, payments and sales necessary to carry out any vote of the district." Section sixteen provides that the board "shall fix the site for each schoolhouse."

From the law as above quoted, we understand that the electors may vote a tax for the erection of a schoolhouse in any particular subdistrict, or may direct the removal of one already built, from a subdistrict, and that the board determines the site within a subdistrict, but has no authority to remove a schoolhouse from a subdistrict without affirmative action of the electors, such action, however, being taken, the board must execute their vote, if in accordance with law. From the action of the board in thus executing the vote of the electors no appeal can be taken. If the vote of the electors is contrary to law, its execution may be prevented by injunction; if unwise, the electors, themselves, must bear the consequences.

D. K. TAYLOR V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF ELDON.

Appeal from Wapello County.

APPEAL. Appeal may not be taken from an action or order complying with the terms of a contract previously made, nor from an action authorizing the issuance of an order in payment of a debt contracted by previous action of the board.

APPEAL. A case whose main purpose is to determine the validity of an order on the district treasury, or the equity of a claim, cannot be entertained on appeal to the county superintendent.

SCHOOL FUNDS. The courts of law alone can furnish an adequate remedy, if the law has been violated and the money of the district has been misappropriated.

From the transcript, it appears that on the third day of December, 1873, the board passed an order authorizing the payment of five per cent commission for negotiating the district bonds, and on the same day another authorizing D. P. Stubbs to negotiate said bonds. On the third day of February, 1874, the board passed an order instructing the president and secretary to draw an order for ninety dollars on the district treasury in favor of said D. P. Stubbs, for services rendered in negotiating said bonds, in accordance with the previous action of the board on December 3, 1873. From the action of the board in issuing said order of ninety dollars, this appeal was taken. The county superintendent dismissed the case, on the ground that it was an action authorizing the payment of money, and a decision thereon would be equivalent to rendering a judgment for money, which is prohibited by the provisions of section 1836. D. K. Taylor again appeals.

Appeal may be taken from any action of the board which authorizes the making of a contract, but not from a subsequent action or order complying with the terms of a contract previously made, nor from an action authorizing the issuance of an order in payment of a debt contracted by a previous action.

The order appealed from in this case is not a new action of the board, but a necessary result of the order of December 3, 1873. If the first action was legal and proper, the last is both proper and necessary, the services having been performed. Any interested party might have appealed at the proper time, from the action of December 3, 1873, authorizing the payment of five per cent commission for negotiating bonds or authorizing the appointment of an agent therefor. But the time for an appeal, thirty days, having expired, appeal can not now be taken from the subsequent action, which is simply carrying out its previous action, and the terms of the contract made thereunder.

To determine the validity of an order on the district treasury, or the equity of a claim, is equivalent to the rendition of a judgment for money, and a case whose sole purpose is to determine this question can not be entertained on appeal. The courts of law alone can furnish an adequate remedy, if the law has been violated, or the interests of the district have suffered by the making of contracts or the issuing of orders for money on the treasury.

E. WATSON V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF EXIRA.

Appeal from Audubon County.

PUNISHMENT. The punishment of a pupil with undue severity, or with an improper instrument, is unwarrantable, and may serve in some degree to indicate the animus of the teacher.

PUNISHMENT. In applying correction, the teacher must exercise sound discretion and judgment and should choose a kind of punishment adapted not only to the offense, but to the offender.

Charges were preferred against E. E. Watson for harsh and unreasonable punishment of a pupil, and upon investigation the teacher was discharged. From this action of the board he appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed its action, and the district appeals.

From the evidence, it appears that the pupil upon whom the punishment was inflicted was a boy thirteen years of age, and that the offense was such that punishment was deserved. The instrument selected was a hickory stick, three-fourths of an inch in diameter at one end, and one-half inch at the other, and fifteen or eighteen inches long. The punishment was inflicted by striking upon the palm of the hand from eight to twelve strokes. It appears that the boy's hand was thereby disabled for some days.

It is alleged by the teacher that the punishment was inflicted for the good of the school, and that it was without malice on his part. We consider the selection of such an instrument for the punishment of a pupil injudicious, unwarrantable, and dangerous, and that the consequences might be fraught with the gravest results, and that such selection may serve in some degree, to indicate the animus of the teacher.

SANFORD HARWOOD V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF CHARLES CITY.

Appeal from Floyd County.

PUNISHMENT. The right of the parent to restrain and coerce obedience in children applies equally to the teacher or to any one who acts in loco parentis.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. Boards of directors and their agents, the teachers, may establish reasonable rules for the government of their schools.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. The teacher has the right to require a pupil to answer questions which tend to elicit facts concerning his conduct in school.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. The pupil is answerable for acts which tend to produce merriment in the school or to degrade the teacher.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. Open violation of the rules can not be shielded from investigation under the plea that it invades the rights of conscience.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The board shall be sustained in all legitimate and reasonable measures to maintain order and discipline, to uphold the rightful authority of the teacher, and to prevent or suppress insubordination in the school.

This case involves the right of a teacher to require a pupil to answer questions concerning his conduct in school, or to testify against himself.

Burritt Harwood, a member of the high school department, having broken certain rules of the school, was suspended by the superintendent for refusing to answer a question relating thereto. The pupil's father petitioned the board to restore the pupil. The board, having investigated the facts, adopted the following: "Resolved, That the school board sustain Prof. Shepard in his suspension of Burritt Harwood; provided, Burritt Harwood be reinstated if he answer the question, for the refusal to answer which he was suspended, subject to such further action as may be taken by the principal or school board for making and circulating the caricature." The president and four other members voted for, and one against the resolution. From this action of the board, S. Harwood appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed its action. The board appeals.

The power of the parent to restrain and coerce obedience in children can not be doubted, and it has seldom or never been denied. This principle applies equally to the teacher or to any one who acts in loco parentis. Boards of directors, and their agents, the teachers, may establish all reasonable and proper rules for the government of schools, and to control the conduct of pupils attending the same. "Any rule of the school not subversive of the rights of the children or parents or in conflict with humanity and the precepts of divine law, which tends to advance the object of the law in establishing public schools, must be considered reasonable and proper." Burdick v. Babcock, 31 Iowa, 562.

The superintendent had occasion to leave the high school in charge of his assistant while he should attend to official duties elsewhere. On his return, about 4 p. m., the assistant reported that there had been much disorder on the part of some of the pupils, and that she required several of the pupils to remain and report their misdemeanors to the superintendent. Burritt Harwood, being called upon, said in substance: "I have two misdemeanors to report: I threw snow in the lower hall during recess, and I passed a piece of paper across the aisle to my brother's desk." Both are recognized as violations of the rules of the school. The nature and magnitude of the first are readily discernible, and need no further investigation; not so of the second; much depends upon the character of the "piece of paper," whether simply blank paper or containing writing or other marks. Being asked to state the nature of the paper, he at first answered evasively. Being further questioned, replied that it was "pictorial," that it was a "burlesque or caricature," that "it represented the schoolhouse and some person or persons," that "the person or persons represented were connected with the school." The question, "whom he had intended to burlesque," after some hesitation he declined to answer. For this act of disobedience he was suspended,

The question which he refused to answer appears to differ in no essential feature from those previously answered. By it the teacher simply sought to discover an additional fact in connection with the case. If he had a right to ask the former, he had the latter. If there is any reason why the pupil had the right or should claim the privilege of declining to answer the last, he should have stated it. Certainly no good reason appears from the nature of the offense, and the degree of punishment which it merited depended upon the information which the teacher sought to obtain by this and the previous question. If the paper contained simply the solution of a problem or something connected with his lesson, it merited one degree of punishment; if its purpose was to create merriment among the pupils, thus diverting their attention from their studies, it required another degree; if by it the pupil sought to bring ridicule upon a teacher, to the prejudice of good order and government of a school, still another; each would be a violation of the rules, but not each equally punishable. The claim of appellee that it was an attempt to pry into the secrets of the heart, and was a violation of the right of conscience, is scarcely sustained by the facts. The question, "whom did you intend to represent?" is essentially equivalent to "whom did you represent." Its purpose evidently was not to find out the thought or intent, but the act of the pupil. The question was simply what was the character of the picture drawn and circulated to the disturbance of the school. It does not appear how the rights of conscience would be violated in answering the question. It may be true that the picture itself, if produced, would furnish the best evidence, but the teacher clearly had the right, in its absence, and knowing nothing of its nature beyond what the pupil had already revealed, to seek this information directly and immediately by proper questions. Nor can the pupil shield himself under the provisions of the law that a prisoner at the bar can not be compelled to answer questions which will tend to render him criminally liable or expose him to public ignominy. He is, in no proper sense, accused of crime before a court of law, authorized to sit in judgment under a criminal code.

The picture, which was afterward produced, reveals anything but a right spirit in the pupil. Probably no one who has seen it doubts that it is a coarse caricature of the superintendent and his assistant. His refusal to answer was evidently not that he could not conscientiously do so, nor that it would tend to criminate himself, but was a deliberate act of insubordination. All the attendant circumstances, the evasive and studied replies to the superintendent's questions, the caricature itself, and its circulation through the school during the absence of the superintendent, together with a previous malicious caricature of the same nature, all reveal a disregard for the regulations of the school, the respectful conduct due from a pupil, and an animus toward the teacher anything but proper.

In our opinion, unnecessary stress was laid, in the trial before the superintendent, upon the technical ground of suspension by the superintendent. The board having had the whole subject under investigation, including statements of the offenses from both the superintendent and the pupil, sustained the superintendent, or in other words, suspended the pupil conditionally from the school, as it probably had a right to do for any one of the offenses named. This being a discretionary act, due weight must be given to such action by an appellate tribunal, especially should the board be sustained in all legitimate and reasonable measures to maintain order and discipline, to uphold the rightful authority of the teacher, and to prevent or suppress insubordination in the school.

APPEAL. The execution by the board of the vote of the electors upon matters within their control is mandatory; from such action of the board no appeal can be taken. If such action is tainted with fraud, an application to a court of law is the proper remedy.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The board, though not bound by a vote of the electors directing the precise location of a schoolhouse site, is required to so locate it as to accommodate the people for whom it is designed.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. If in the selection of a site the board violates law or abuses its discretionary power, its action may be reversed on appeal.

CERTIORARI. A fraudulent or illegal action may be corrected by application to a court for a writ of certiorari.

The electors of the district township voted a tax to build a schoolhouse on what is known as the Simons road, near where it crosses the Central railroad. On a separate motion, the board was instructed to sell the schoolhouse known as number three. In accordance with the first mentioned action, the board located a schoolhouse site on said road, fifty feet from said crossing. From this action appeal was taken, the appellant claiming it to be a relocation of the site known as number three, and that such action was with the express intention of selling the schoolhouse and abandoning the site thereof. The county superintendent reversed the action of the board and the district township appeals.

The district township coincides with a congressional township in boundaries and extent, and is comprised in one subdistrict. It is claimed that the action of the district township meeting did not represent the wishes of the people; that there are ninety-five voters in the district, and but twenty-seven were present at such meeting; also that in the location of the site the board did not consult the convenience of the people.

Section 1717 provides that the electors, when legally assembled at the district township meeting, shall have power "to direct the sale or other disposition to be made of any schoolhouse, or site thereof, and of such other property, personal and real, as may belong to the district." Section 1723 provides that the board "shall make all contracts, purchases, payments, and sales necessary to carry out any vote of the district." Section 1724 provides that the board "shall fix the site for each schoolhouse, taking into consideration the geographical position and convenience of the people of each portion of the subdistrict."

The execution of the vote of the electors by the board is mandatory; from its action in so doing, no appeal can be taken. In case such action is in any manner tainted with fraud, an application to a court of law is the proper remedy.

The power to locate schoolhouse sites is vested originally in the board. Although the board has authority to locate schoolhouse sites, yet money legally voted by the electors for a specific purpose, must be expended in accordance with such vote; if voted to erect a schoolhouse in a certain subdistrict, it can not legally be used to build a schoolhouse in another. While any directions of the voters attempting to locate precisely a schoolhouse site, are void, yet the board is bound so to locate it as to accommodate the people for whom designed; in the absence of such instructions, the board may exercise more widely its discretion in fixing schoolhouse sites. If in the performance of this duty it violates law, acts with manifest injustice, or in any manner shows an abuse of discretionary power, its action may properly be reversed by the county superintendent. In this case we do not discover that the board has in any manner failed in the proper performance of its duty.

E. GOSTING v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF LINCOLN.

Appeal from Plymouth County.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The action of a committee appointed by the board to locate a site is of no force until officially adopted by the board while in session.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. Subdistrict boundaries can not be changed in appeal relating solely to locating a site, nor can a site be located with the expectation that boundaries will be changed, unless such intention of the board is shown.

JURISDICTION. The county superintendent has jurisdiction only of the matter to which the appeal relates.

APPEAL. The right of appeal is confined to persons injuriously affected by the decision or order complained of. Ordinarily a person living in one subdistrict can not appeal from an action of the board locating a site in another.

A committee appointed to locate a schoolhouse site for the accommodation of the residents of subdistricts number seven and nine, reported that it had selected the northwest corner of section ten, and afterward that it had chosen instead, a site about eighty rods east of the northwest corner of section eleven. There is no record showing that any action was taken in relation to these reports.

Subdistrict number nine consists of the east one-half of congressional township number 90, range 45. The appellant resides in subdistrict number seven, which comprises the west one-half of the same congressional township. The decision of the county superintendent is as follows: "After considering the evidence and the plat introduced, I sustain the committee in its first location at the northwest corner of section ten of said township." D. M. Relyea appeals.

The power to locate schoolhouse sites is vested in the board of directors. The action of a committee appointed by the board to locate a schoolhouse site is of no force until its report is officially adopted by the board while in session.

Section 1725 provides that the board "shall determine where pupils may attend school; and for this purpose may divide their district into such subdistricts as may by them be deemed necessary." The object of dividing a district township into subdistricts is to determine where pupils shall attend school. While it is frequently the case that pupils may more conveniently attend school in an adjoining subdistrict, it would obviously be improper to locate a schoolhouse site expressly for the accommodation of such pupils, unless with the intention of subsequently making a redivision of the district township. The county superintendent has jurisdiction only of the matter to which the appeal relates. He can not properly, upon an appeal relating to the location of a schoolhouse site, change subdistrict boundaries, nor can he locate a schoolhouse site with the expectation that such boundaries will ultimately be changed, unless such is shown to be the intention of the board.

The right to appeal from actions of the board is confined to persons injuriously affected by the decision or order of which complaint is made. Ordinarily, a person living in one subdistrict can not properly appeal from an action of the board locating a schoolhouse site in another.

The decision of the county superintendent is set aside, and the location of the schoolhouse site is left to the discretion of the board. REVERSED.

J. E. BROWN v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF VAN METER.

Appeal from Dallas County.

APPEAL. The adoption of the committee's report in favor of retaining the old schoolhouse site is an action from which appeal may be taken.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The action of the board can not be reversed upon the allegations of appellant without proof, or by reason of failure to make defense.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The acts of the board are presumed to be regular, legal and just and should be affirmed unless proof is brought to show the contrary.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. The acts of a board changing subdistrict boundaries and locating schoolhouses are so far discretionary that they should be affirmed on appeal, unless it is shown beyond a doubt that there has been an abuse of discretion.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. The weight that properly attaches to the discretionary actions of a tribunal vested with original jurisdiction does not apply to the decisions of an inferior appellate tribunal.

The county superintendent reversed the action of the board in selecting the old site in subdistrict number two, upon which to erect a schoolhouse, and located the site about eighty rods westward of the old one. From this decision the district township appeals, claiming in substance that the county superintendent erred as follows: That there was no action of the board relative to the selection of a schoolhouse site in subdistrict number two from which an appeal would lie; that the board failed, by reason of a misunderstanding, to appear and defend, and that it was unjustly refused a rehearing; that the old site was suitable, convenient and at the center of population, both present and prospective, and that the reversal of the action of the board was without sufficient cause, there being no evidence that it abused its discretionary power or acted with injustice.

From the transcript, it appears that a committee was appointed to select a site for the erection of a schoolhouse in subdistrict number two; that it reported in favor of the old site, and that its report was adopted by the board. The law provides that an appeal may be taken by any party aggrieved, from any order or decision of the board.

That there was an action of the board, and that the subject-matter to which such action relates is the location of a schoolhouse site in subdistrict number two, there can be no reasonable doubt, hence the action of the board was subject to appeal, and such appeal gave to the county superintendent jurisdiction in the matter of location of said schoolhouse site.

It is the duty of the county superintendent to give due notice to all parties directly interested in an appeal from the board, and to afford full opportunity for the presentation of evidence, but the action of the board can not properly be reversed upon the allegations of the appellant without proof, or by reason of the failure of the board to be present and make defense. The acts of the board are presumed to be regular, legal and just, and should be affirmed by the county superintendent, unless proof is brought to show the contrary. In this case, however, the board appears to have had due notice and ample opportunity to defend the case. It is not claimed that any additional evidence could be produced that would materially affect the issue; but that the board, understanding through popular report that the case was withdrawn, failed to be present at the trial, and upon this ground asks for a rehearing, which was very properly refused.

The site selected by the county superintendent is nearly central, being eighty rods west of that chosen by the board. Both appear to be suitable. The eastern part of the subdistrict is mostly prairie land, while the western portion is, to a considerable extent, timber land.

The evidence as to which site will better serve the interests and convenience of the residents of the subdistrict is conflicting. The board is entitled to the benefit of any doubt upon this point. Unless it is clearly proven that it has violated the law, abused its discretionary power, or has acted with manifest injustice, its action should be affirmed.

It is urged by the appellee that the same weight attaches to actions of an inferior appellate tribunal, upon appeal, that is given to tribunals having original jurisdiction. It is held that the action of the board in matters of which it has original jurisdiction, is alone entitled to this consideration by any superior tribunal upon appeal.

Appeal from Adams County.

TEACHER. When a teacher is dismissed in violation of his contract, an action in the courts of law will afford him a speedy and adequate remedy; when discharged for incompetency, dereliction of duty, or other cause affecting his qualifications as a teacher, he has the right of appeal.

TEACHER. The teacher is entitled to the counsel and co-operation of the sub-director and board in all matters pertaining to the conduct and welfare of the school.

The board discharged the teacher in one of the public schools of the district for dereliction of duty. She applied to the county superintendent, who reversed its decision; from this action, the board, through its president, appeals.

At the hearing before the county superintendent, the board filed a motion to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction, insisting that the teacher having been dismissed in accordance with the provisions of section 1734, her proper remedy was an action at law for damages.

When a teacher is dismissed in violation of his contract, an action in the courts of law, on the contract, will afford him a speedy and adequate remedy. When discharged for incompetency, dereliction of duty, or other cause affecting his qualifications as a teacher, he has the right to appeal to the county superintendent, who is the proper officer to review questions of this character, and to determine whether the board has in the exercise of its authority violated the law or abused its discretionary power. Questions concerning the validity of contracts, the right to recover for services performed, and the interpretation of law, belong especially to judicial tribunals. Questions concerning the character and qualifications of the teacher, and his management of the school, are by appeal within the jurisdiction of the county superintendent. The motion to dismiss was properly overruled.

The charges of dereliction were want of promptness in commencing school in the morning, and an occasional refusal to hear the recitation of one or more of her pupils. For this dereliction there appears to have been some extenuating circumstances. Under the contract, it was the subdirector's duty to have fires built. The boy employed to do this work often failed to have the schoolhouse in comfortable condition at nine o'clock. The teacher usually made up lost time by teaching after four o'clock, and there is no evidence that the subdirector or board ever advised her with regard to the performance of her duties. The board convened at the schoolhouse without previous notice to the teacher, and after taking the testimony of pupils, unanimously voted to discharge her.

S. W. WOODS et al v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF BRIGHTON.

Appeal from Cass County.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The acts of the board must be presumed to be regular, and should be affirmed unless positive proof is brought to show the contrary.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The prospective wants of a subdistrict may properly have weight in determining the selection of a site, when such selection becomes necessary, but not in securing the removal of a schoolhouse now conveniently located.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. To make a distinction between the children of freeholders and those of tenants in determining the proper location for a schoolhouse, is contrary to the spirit and intent of our laws.

The board by a vote of five to two rejected a petition asking the removal of the schoolhouse in subdistrict number eight. On appeal, the county superintendent reversed the action of the board, and ordered the removal of the schoolhouse to the place named in the petition. Wm. F. Altig appeals.

Subdistrict number eight contains sections 27, 28, 33, 34, and sixty acres lying in section 32, and has a good commodious schoolhouse, erected three years ago, one-half mile west of the center, on a public road passing east and west through the center of the subdistrict. There are about thirty children of school age in the subdistrict, twenty-two of whom reside in the western half, and nineteen west of the present site. All those residing east of the present site, except one child, are within one and a half miles of the schoolhouse, while by the proposed removal, a large number would be at a greater distance.

The action of the board in refusing to remove a schoolhouse should not be interfered with on appeal, except upon evidence of violation of law, or abuse of discretionary power. In this case there is no evidence of such abuse. The prospective wants of a subdistrict may properly have weight in determining the selection of a site upon which to build a schoolhouse, when such a selection becomes necessary, but not in determining the removal of a house, located conveniently for the present wants of the subdistrict.

It appears that a considerable portion of the school population consists of the children of tenants, and much stress is laid upon the assumed distinction that should be made between the children of tenants and those of freeholders, in determining the proper location of the schoolhouse. Distinctions based upon the ownership of property or permanence of residence are not made in the law, would not well comport with the fundamental principles upon which our public school system is based, and should not have weight in determining the location of schoolhouse sites. It is the duty of the board to provide equal school facilities for the youth of the district as far as practicable, regardless of considerations relating to permanence of residence. The schoolhouse may properly be removed whenever the conditions of the subdistrict require it, but unnecessary expense should not be incurred in such removal in anticipation of possible, or even probable, changes of this character.

J. N. ARTHUR et al. v. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF FAIRWAY.

Appeal from Adams County.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITES. The necessities of the present must be observed in locating schoolhouse sites, in preference to the probabilities of the future.

TESTIMONY. New testimony can be introduced only when the facts materially affecting the case could not have been known before the trial.

REMANDING OF CASES. When the evidence discloses that the action of the board was unwarranted, and the facts are not sufficiently shown to determine what should be done, the case should be remanded to the board.

In this case the board made an order relocating the schoolhouse site; from this order J. N. Arthur and others, residents of the district, appealed to the county superintendent, and upon his affirming the action of the board, to the superintendent of public instruction.

The district consists of sections one, two, eleven, twelve, thirteen and fourteen, and the old schoolhouse stands near the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of section one. The proposed new site is in the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section twelve, on a public highway and one-quarter of a mile north of the geographical center of said district.

The grounds of objection by the appellants to the removal are substantially, that the new site is on low bottom lands and subject to overflow, not accessible at all times of the year, and that it is not as near the center of the school population as the old site. They also suggest that a location at the cross roads one-half mile east of the new site is better ground and more convenient to the people. In fixing the schoolhouse site, the geographical position and the convenience of the people of each portion of the district should be considered.

From the large amount of testimony, it is evident that the new site chosen is in a low place, and an affidavit sent to this office, and signed by a number of residents, proves beyond question that the site has been overflowed for several days of the last month. By a close comparison it is found that the number of residents who will have their distance to school increased by choosing the new site, is greater than those who will have their distance diminished. By locating the schoolhouse at the cross roads, one-half mile east of the proposed new site, which location is claimed to be higher, and therefore less liable to overflow, three-fourths of the residents will have their distance diminished by forty to one hundred and sixty rods.

Although it may be true, as affirmed in the testimony, that the western part of the district is as capable of settlement as the eastern part, the necessities of the present must be observed in locating schoolhouse sites, in preference to the probabilities of the future. While it is the rule of this department to sustain discretionary acts of the board, it seems that in this case the true interest of all concerned, and justice to a large portion of the people, demands that the schoolhouse should not be moved to the new site chosen.

To what extent the high waters of last month did affect the other locations under consideration, is not known to this department; it is therefore best to let the matter come up anew before the county superintendent for a rehearing. The decision of the county superintendent is therefore reversed, and the case remanded for a rehearing, with the direction from this department that the proposed new site is an unsuitable one for school purposes.

J. J. WILSON et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF MONROE.

Appeal from Mahaska County.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. The county superintendent is not limited to a reversal or affirmance of the action of the board, but he determines the same questions which it had determined.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The location of a schoolhouse can be dependent upon a change of boundaries only when it is shown in evidence that it is the definite and positive intention to make such a change.

HIGHWAY. If possible, every schoolhouse site should be upon a public highway.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. May make a conditional ruling, by which his own decision will be governed.

On the fourteenth day of April, 1877, the board located the site for a schoolhouse. From its action, J. J. Wilson and others appealed to the county superintendent, alleging that the board had erred in making the location, in that, by reason of distance owing to the location of the roads, the location as made effectually deprived many of the subdistrict of the privilege of attendance at school. On trial, the county superintendent reversed the action of the board, and located a new site. From his decision the board appeals, claiming that the county superintendent erred in selecting a site entirely different from those with reference to which testimony was taken; that it is on the extreme east line of said subdistrict, and hence can not be called at all central; that the board took into account in making the location the possibility of a change in the northern boundary of the subdistrict, which would make the situation chosen a suitable one for the remaining subdistrict; that a portion of his decision was conditional and void; and that the board did not abuse its discretion by making the location as it did.

The assumption that the county superintendent did not have the right to locate a schoolhouse site differing in location from the one made by the board, or the one petitioned for by the appellants, is a mistake. See John Clark v. District Township of Wayne, School Law Decisions of 1876, page 47; also the opinion of the attorney-general in Iowa School Journal for April, 1866, in which the following ruling was made: "The county superintendent is not limited to a reversal or affirmance of the action of the board, but he determines the same questions which it had determined."

The nature of the subdistrict is peculiar. It is long and narrow, and its western boundary, the North Skunk river, which also makes nearly all its southern boundary, is a disturbing element when we attempt to locate the site of a schoolhouse to accommodate all the people. While under ordinary circumstances a site near the boundary of a subdistrict would be unadvisable, in this case it seems necessary, unless additional road facilities can be secured. The site selected by the county superintendent is clearly the one best calculated to accommodate the whole subdistrict as constituted at present.

The location of a schoolhouse site can be dependent upon a change of boundaries only when it is shown in evidence that it is the intention of the board, or boards, to make such change. In this case, it is not claimed that any change is actually intended or expected. The limit, as made provisionally by the county superintendent, of thirty days for such changes of roads as would make a more central location feasible and desirable, was too short a time, under the provisions of law, to effect the result. For that reason we shall extend the time for the establishment of a road to ninety days from the date of his decision, or to such time as the board of directors may show to be necessary to establish the road, provided that immediate steps shall be taken to bring about the result, if desired.

The discretion of the board was evidently abused in not providing equal school facilities for those lying in the northern portion of the subdistrict, by the location of the schoolhouse site.

In case the road contemplated is secured, the board may locate the site thereon, as near the center of the subdistrict as good and suitable ground can be found. If no steps are taken to secure such a road, or in case the road can not be procured, the location last chosen by the county superintendent is to be regarded as the site, and his decision is hereby AFFIRMED.

WM. DONALD V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF SOUTH FORK.

Appeal from Wayne County.

SALARY OF TEACHERS. The salary of teachers should be in proportion to their ability and responsibility, and not equal when these differ materially.

SALARY OF TEACHERS. The control of salaries is wholly within the power of the board and can not be determined by an appeal, because it is not within the jurisdiction of county or state superintendent to order the payment of money.

EXPLANATORY NOTES. Notes to the school law, while proper aids to school officers, have not the binding force of law, and a non-compliance with them is not necessarily a violation of law.

SCHOOLS. The wealthier portions of the community should aid their neighbors in sustaining good schools.

On the eighteenth day of March, 1878, the board made an order fixing the salaries of teachers for the summer schools at the uniform price of twenty dollars per month. From this action William Donald appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the action of the board. From his decision William Donald appeals.

It is alleged by the appellant that the county superintendent erred in deciding that the board did not violate law in voting that the same amount of salary should be paid to the teacher in each subdistrict. It is claimed that the board should have provided for a higher salary in some schools of the township.

The difficulty with appellant's counsel is that he believes the note to be a part of the law. My predecessor gave his own views of the employment of teachers and I most fully agree with him in his view. The law leaves the whole matter to the board and presumes that it will deal equitably. Unfortunately, selfishness is a nearly universal characteristic of human kind, and too often the majority, representing weak subdistricts, weak both in numbers and in property, demands an equal distribution of the money on hand for teachers' pay.

The law organizing the rural independent districts, passed in 1872, arose from the feeling that this selfishness was working injustice to little towns and wealthy and populous subdistricts. The creation of these independent districts works an injustice to the weaker districts, for it is proper and desirable that the wealthier districts should aid their weaker neighbors to sustain fair schools.

With regard to this case, we do not see wherein the board violated law. The idea of prejudice is slightly apparent from the testimony, but not sufficiently to reverse the action of the board. That equity has not been observed seems very evident, for it must be presumed that a larger school population requires a better teacher, and if a better and more experienced teacher is needed, a better salary ought to be paid. There are other considerations. Usually the expense of living is greater in the town than in the country. It is also the probability that a larger tax is paid by the town than by the country.

We are not able at this distance to determine whether twenty dollars is a sufficient compensation for the teacher of subdistrict number four of South Fork. But if twenty dollars is only sufficient compensation for the country subdistricts, it is our belief that a higher salary should be given the teacher in the town.

It is out of our jurisdiction to give advice to the board what to do in this case, after determining that we have no power to reverse its action, but we suggest that equity would be served if it should pay the five dollars per month assumed by Mr. Anderson. After giving our views thus in full, we must agree with the county superintendent, and his decision is therefore

AFFIRMED.

JAMES JACOBY et al. v. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF NODAWAY.

Appeal from Adams County.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. A schoolhouse site fixed by county or state superintendent affirming the discretionary act of the board, allows the board to exercise its discretion again, especially if material changes have occurred.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. Suggestions from the electors upon matters entirely within the control of the board will in no manner prevent the fullest exercise of the discretion vested in the board by the law.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The endeavor to show regard for the expressed wishes of the electors in the choice of a site will be an added reason in support of the action of the board.

In the summer of 1877, the board located a schoolhouse site, selecting one not desired by a large majority of the electors, as expressed at an informal meeting called by the board. An appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board, and in turn to the superintendent of public instruction, who reversed the decision of the county superintendent, thereby sustaining the action of the board, on the ground that the abuse of the discretion given by the law to the board, as charged, was not proved.

Since the decision above referred to was rendered, a dwelling has been erected within twenty rods of the site chosen. Also, a material addition has been made to the district on its east side of a strip of land three miles in length and one-half mile in width.

At a meeting of the board held April 22, 1878, it relocated the school-house site, choosing the old site in place of the one selected by it last year. From its action, James Jacoby and others appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the order of the board. D. Shipley and Ed. Kennedy appeal.

This case was before us last year and we affirmed the action of the board in selecting the new site, sustaining the discretionary act of the board. Hence, the principle that a site selected by the county or state superintendent can not be changed unless there have been material changes in the district, does not apply. There have been changes by the addition of new territory and a dwelling being erected within less than forty rods of the proposed site. The choice of the old site is in conformity with the wish of a majority of the electors, and does not prove any abuse of discretion, much less a violation of law. The action of the board is sustained, and the decision of the superintendent

L. E. CORMACK v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF LINCOLN.

Appeal from Adams County.

JURISDICTION. An appeal will not lie to enforce a contract.

JANITORIAL SERVICES. If a teacher serves as janitor in sweeping the room and building fires, he should be paid from the contingent fund for such services.

Mr. Vandyke, a subdirector, contracted with Mrs. L. E. Cormack as teacher for the winter term of school. The terms of the contract included that the teacher was to receive twenty-five dollars per month for teaching and one dollar and twenty-five cents a month for building the fires and sweeping the schoolhouse. The board refused to audit the full account, which would give the teacher pay for janitor's work, claiming that the said subdirector exceeded his authority in so contracting. Mrs. Cormack appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board. W. C. Potter, president of the board, appeals.

This case has evidently for its object the securing of money on contract, and as section 1836 prevents county and state superintendents from rendering a judgment for money, it has been the common custom to refuse to entertain any appeal in which a contract is to be decided by such appeal; for this reason the county superintendent should have dismissed the case for want of jurisdiction.

It may not be out of place here to state that unless a contract with the teacher provides that building fires and sweeping the house is included, the board can not require such service of the teacher. The payment for such services should come from the contingent fund and should be specifically mentioned. The teachers' fund is not to be used for paying for janitorial services.

Without deciding any question at issue, we are of the opinion that the subdirector did not exceed his authority given him by section 1753 when he agreed to pay a reasonable sum for janitorial services besides the twenty-five dollars paid under instruction from the board for teachers' services. But since we do not consider the case within our jurisdiction, the decision of the county superintendent is reversed and the case

DISMISSED.

W. F. RANKIN v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF Lodomillo.

Appeal from Clayton County.

RECORDS. The record of the secretary shall be considered as evidence, and can not be invalidated by parol evidence unless there is proof of fraud or falsehood.

TERRITORY. Where territory is to be transferred by concurrent action of two boards to the district to which it geographically belongs, a majority of the members elect is not necessary, as required for the change of subdistrict boundaries.

APPEAL. The action of two boards upon a subject over which they have divided control constitutes a concurrent action, and appeal may be taken only from the order of the board taking action last.

This appeal relates to the transfer of territory in the civil township of Cass, which has belonged to the district township of Lodomillo since 1856, to the township to which it geographically belongs.

The board of the district township of Cass appointed a committee to meet a committee chosen by the Lodomillo board, to agree upon terms of transfer. The district township of Lodomillo also appointed a committee. The joint committee agreed upon a report, which the board of Cass adopted September 16, 1878. On the twelfth day of October, 1878, the Lodomillo board, by a vote of four to six members present of a board of ten, also adopted the report and accepted the proposition agreed to by the board of Cass.

From the action of the Lodomillo board W. F. Rankin appealed to the county superintendent, who dismissed the case for want of jurisdiction, and stated that the action of the board was plainly in violation of the law, since section 1738 requires a majority of the board to change the boundaries of subdistricts. From this decision W. F. Rankin appeals.

The secretary's transcript of the transactions of the meeting of the board of Lodomillo, held October 12, 1878, does not show any irregularity in the transaction, does not show the number of members present nor the number of votes cast by which the motion was carried.

According to a well established principle of law, the records of any public or private corporation must be considered regular, and can not be set aside by parol evidence, except under an allegation of fraud. Based upon the evidence of the transcript, the whole transaction was carried on in conformity with law, and we can see no reason to interfere with the action of the board. If we admitted the testimony of M. E. Axtel, showing that only six members of a board of ten were present, and that four of these six voted for the transfer, we would still hold that said transfer was legally made. The action of the board was not a change of boundaries of subdistricts, but a transfer under section 1798. The territory transferred, being part of the districts organized before the law of 1858 took effect, could be transferred by concurrent action of the boards to the district to which it geographically belongs, and the limitation of section 1738, requiring a majority of the board to change subdistrict boundaries, is not applicable to this case.

The appeal is brought from the action of the board which concurred, and is therefore taken in a proper manner. For the reasons set forth, the action of the board is sustained and the decision of the superintendent is

Appeal from Palo Alto County.

EVIDENCE. To establish malice or prejudice on the part of the board, positive testimony must be introduced, and the evidence must be conclusive.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. A county superintendent should not ask the state superintendent to decide a case on appeal for him, but may ask for an interpretation of law, either by the state superintendent, or through him, by the attorney-general.

On the twenty-fifth day of August, 1879, the board fixed the location of a schoolhouse on the old site. From this order L. B. Colburn and others appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the action of the board, and from this decision the same parties appeal.

Among the errors enumerated, the appellants urge that the county superintendent erred in holding that the board was not actuated by passion or prejudice. We fail to find any evidence establishing the existence of such malice or prejudice on the part of the board. Appellants also claim that the county superintendent erred in basing his decision on the verbal opinion of the state superintendent, given prior to the hearing of the case.

This affords an opportunity of censuring a practice quite common among county superintendents to ask the superintendent of public instruction for his opinion in an appeal which is pending. We have made it a universal practice to refuse answers upon the questions involved in the particular case, and have given only general principles which should govern county superintendents in determining cases of appeal. These general principles are so well established that an intelligent county superintendent ought to be familiar with them.

We advised the county superintendent in this case not to measure the respective distances of the different locations from the geographical center, before the trial of the appeal.

It is proper for the county superintendent to ascertain the interpretation of points of law, by securing an opinion from this department, or from the attorney-general through this department.

Without fully determining the merits of the respective locations, we must hold that the board did not abuse its discretion sufficiently to warrant interference. The appellants failing to prove malice or prejudice on the part of the board, its order should stand, and the decision of the county superintendent affirming its action is

AFFIRMED.

WM. BARTLETT V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF SPENCER.

Appeal from Clay County.

APPEAL. May be taken by any resident aggrieved by an action of the board.

BOUNDARIES. Must conform to congressional divisions of land.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. Proper location of, depends upon form of subdistrict.

TERRITORY. All territory must be included within some school district.

On the twenty-second day of October, 1881, the board adopted the report of a committee locating a site for a schoolhouse in subdistrict number nine on the southeast corner of the southeast quarter of section twenty-one. From its order, William Bartlett appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board and located the site on the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section twenty-one. C. F. Archer appeals.

The counsel for the appellants files a motion to dismiss the appeal on the ground that persons not parties to a hearing below are debarred from appealing to the superintendent of public instruction. It has been repeatedly held that any person aggrieved may prosecute an appeal from the decision of the county superintendent, unless the right of appeal has been waived by previous agreement.

The subdistrict in which the location was made was formed by action of the board at the regular meeting in last September. The boundaries fixed by the board at that time, as shown by the plats in evidence, are the Little Sioux River and Prairie creek on the north, east and south, and the half section line running north and south through sections eighteen, nineteen, thirty and thirty-one, as the western boundary.

It is shown by the plat that the half mile strip on the western side of the subdistrict is supposed not to belong to subdistrict number nine, and it is stated by the county superintendent that this territory is supposed to be temporarily attached to the adjoining township for school purposes. We are compelled to notice this irregularity of boundaries, since the proper location of any schoolhouse obviously depends largely upon the form and extent of the territory for which the house is designed. Section 1796, providing for the creation of subdistricts, and for subsequent alterations in their boundaries, contains the following: "Provided that the boundaries of subdistricts shall conform to the lines of congressional divisions of land." When government lines follow large streams or other bodies of water, a division is sometimes formed containing less than forty acres; but unless such exception applies, the smallest congressional division is the one-sixteenth of a section, or forty acres in a square form. In fixing the boundaries of subdistricts no smaller subdivision can be made, and a forty-acre tract must be included in the subdistrict or excluded as a whole.

The only provision of law by which the half mile strip could be attached to the adjoining district township is found in section 1797. The transfer can be made only when natural obstacles intervene. It is apparent from the plats in evidence that no large unbridged stream, or any other natural obstacle exists. Hence we must conclude that it is the duty of the board of directors of the district township of Spencer to provide that the strip in question shall be a part of some subdistrict. It seems probable that a portion of the territory referred to will naturally fall to subdistrict number nine. The county superintendent appears to have presumed that the subdistrict would ultimately include all the territory to the township line. That the territory does belong to the district township of Spencer, unless it has been attached to the adjoining township, in accordance with section 1797, there can be no question. Such being the facts in this case, and the evidence disclosing that the board did not exercise that care in selecting a site which is desirable when so many interests are involved, we are disposed to remand the case to the board, with the suggestion that it adjust the boundaries of the subdistrict, and determine upon some other site than the one chosen by it, with the intention to furnish the best accommodation to all parties

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

J. D. HANDERSHELDT V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF DES MOINES.

Appeal from Jefferson County.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. Abuse of discretion is not established by testimony showing that a different action would have been preferred by the electors.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION. The county superintendent has no jurisdiction to determine the validity of district organization.

TESTIMONY. To be legal must be given under oath.

BOUNDARIES. Of subdistricts, changed between September and March.

MAJORITY VOTE. Of whole board required to change subdistrict boundaries.

A petition was presented to the board asking that certain territory in Des Moines township be set aside to form, in connection with territory to be obtained from the independent district of Liberty, number eight, a new subdistrict to be known as subdistrict number nine, Des Moines township. The board acted on this petition and made the following order: "In the matter of the petition of J. D. Handersheldt and Silas Pearson, asking for the formation of a new subdistrict to be known as number nine, in the district township of Des Moines, all the territory within the boundary lines therein described, is hereby granted, provided sufficient territory be granted by the independent school district of Liberty, number eight, to make a suitable and convenient subdistrict as to the amount of territory and the number of children of school age; and, provided, that in case the territory is not granted by said independent district of Liberty number eight, then said territory hereby granted shall remain and be a part of subdistrict number five, of the district township of Des Moines."

On the twenty-eighth day of April, 1882, the board of the district township of Des Moines, at a special meeting, adopted the following resolution: "It is hereby ordered that all action heretofore taken by the board of the district township of Des Moines, in the formation and organization of subdistrict number nine, in the above named township, is hereby rescinded." From this action of the board, J. D. Handersheldt appealed to the county superintendent, who upon hearing the case on appeal rendered the following decision: "A resolution passed rescinding an action which has not yet taken effect, is legal, but so far as it concerns formation and organization which is already completed, it is illegal." From this action or decision of the county superintendent, J. D. Handersheldt appeals.

It appears from the transcript of the county superintendent that the witnesses were not sworn. A failure to take testimony under oath is fatal to the case, even though from its nature it came properly before the superintendent on appeal.

A brief examination will be sufficient, we think, to show that this action should have been dismissed by the county superintendent for want of jurisdiction, since no appeal will lie when the validity of the district organization is involved.

This appeal was taken from the action of the board to the superintendent, for the purpose of determining whether or not the board erred in rescinding its former action creating subdistrict number nine. There was very little evidence bearing on this, the sole issue in the case. Witnesses simply stated that they were or were not in favor of subdistrict number nine.

Such testimony can have no bearing in an action to establish error on the part of the board. Appellants set forth in their affidavit that the county superintendent erred, in that he refused to admit testimony to show that there never had been any legal organization of subdistrict number nine. We think such evidence was properly excluded, and yet it is necessary, to enable any tribunal to arrive at a decision of the case; for if the district was organized according to law, then the board committed error in making an order which operated to discontinue it, and hence to change boundaries of subdistricts at a time of year in which, according to our holding, it can not be done. Upon the presumption that the district was legally organized, it committed error by making a change of subdistrict boundaries without a majority of the whole board,

It must therefore be determined whether the conditions upon which the board of Des Moines township granted the territory, were fulfilled, or, in other words, it must be known whether or not the independent district number eight, of Liberty, concurred in the transfer of the territory. But neither the county superintendent nor this department is competent to determine the legality of a district organization, and it is therefore impossible for us to decide whether or not the board committed error.

The remedy is an application to a court of law for mandamus to compel the board to recognize the subdirector of subdistrict number nine, as a school officer and member of the board of the district township of Des Moines. Were the issues involved within our jurisdiction, we would not hesitate to consider them, but as no question of such nature is connected with the case it is

DISMISSED.

APPLETON PARK V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF PLEASANT GROVE.

Appeal from Des Moines County.

RECORDS. The official record is its own best evidence. Testimony intended to contradict the record should not be admitted.

RECORDS. Records not made and certified to by the proper officers as required by law are defective and may be impeached by collateral evidence.

TEACHER. The law provides that a teacher shall have a fair and impartial trial, with sufficient notice to enable him to rebut the charges of his accusers.

CHARGES. Must be clearly sustained by the evidence.

Appleton Park was duly engaged and contracted with. He began teaching on the fourth day of September, 1882; after some ten or eleven days had expired, during which time he had taught the school, he was waited upon by the entire board, called to the door and informed that certain rumors were being circulated, to the effect that he had been guilty of using obscene and vulgar language in the presence of his pupils, and during regular school hours. The board called at the schoolhouse again about the hour for closing the school in the afternoon, and the school having been dismissed, it proceeded to examine three of the boys as to the truth of the charges above referred to. The result of this action was that the teacher left the school and the board employed another teacher. Mr. Park appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board, whereupon D. L. Portlock, president of the board, appeals.

The principal difficulty presented in this case seems to be to determine just what that action or order of the board was from which the appeal was taken. The transcript filed by the secretary of the board, is as follows: "Complaint being made by some of the scholars to the school board, in regard to the teacher, Appleton Park, using indecent, rough and insulting language during school time, the board met at the schoolhouse to make an investigation. The board stated the above charges to the teacher, Appleton Park, who after reflecting upon the matter, proposed his resignation to the board. The board, after due consideration, accepted the same. The question being settled in the above way, and no other business before the board, the board then adjourned."

The parol evidence of Appleton Park was admitted to offset and impeach the record. This was clearly in violation of well established law, if the record was really what it purported to be, a true and authenticated copy of the proceedings of the meeting of the board referred to.

Starkie on Evidence, says: "Where written instruments are appointed, either by the immediate authority of law, or by the compact of the parties, to be the permanent repositories and testimony of truth, it is a matter both of principle and of policy, to exclude any inferior evidence from being used, either as a substitute for such instruments, or to contradict or alter them; of principle, because such instruments are in their own nature and origin entitled to a much higher degree of credit than that which appertains to parol evidence; of policy, because it would be attended with great mischief and inconvenience if those instruments upon which men's rights depend were liable to be impeached and controverted by loose collateral evidence." Starkie, part IV. p. 995, Vol. III, 3d Amer. Ed.

The fact that the transcript referred to is not certified to by the secretary, and the further fact that he was not present at the board meeting in question, and wrote the minutes as dictated from memory by the president of the board, three days after the meeting, fully justified the superintendent in ruling it out and in admitting parol evidence.

We come now to consider whether the trial before the board was such a proceeding as is required by section 1734. The board called in the morning and informed the teacher of the charges preferred against him, whereupon he offered to resign. It instructed him to proceed with his school and stated that it would return in the evening. During the day the board worked up its case against the teacher, while he was so employed as to prevent him from giving thought or attention to the charges, or to the preparation of any adequate defense.

We must sustain the superintendent in finding that the trial and opportunity to defend was not what the law intends every teacher shall have. Every teacher is entitled to the sympathy and support of the school board, and where there is any reasonable doubt as to the truth of stories circulated by school children, the teacher should have the benefit of such doubt. We believe that had the board been in sympathy with the teacher in this instance, it would have decided that the charges were not sustained by the evidence, at least by any evidence which appears of record. That the teacher offered to resign in the evening does not appear from the evidence offered in behalf of the board, while it does appear that at least one member of the board told him "he had better quit."

We are compelled to hold that the teacher was dismissed, and that in doing so for no sufficient reason the board erred and the decision of the county superintendent is therefore

AFFIRMED.

J. B. B. BAKER V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF WAUKON.

Appeal from Allamakee County.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. In establishing and enforcing regulations for the government of scholars the board has a large discretion.

On the seventh day of June, 1886, Maud Baker was suspended for repeated violation of a rule of the board, known as rule five, which reads as follows: "Any scholar who shall be absent five half-days in four consecutive weeks, without any excuse from parent or guardian satisfactory to the teacher that the absence was caused by said pupil's sickness, or by sickness in the family, or, in the primary grades, by severity of the weather, shall forthwith be suspended. No pupil so suspended shall be reinstated without a permit from the principal."

Rule twelve provides that the principal of the school may suspend pupils temporarily, and that he shall immediately notify the parent or guardian of a suspended child of such suspension, the notice to be in writing, and furthermore, that he shall immediately inform the board of his action.

Maud Baker was absent without excuse, and when called to account for her absence stated that she had gone on a fishing excursion, and expected to go the week following. Having failed to render a satisfactory excuse, she was suspended, as above stated. Notice in writing was sent to parent, as required by rule five, and the board informed of the suspension. The board approved the action of the principal. J. B. B. Baker appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board. D. W. Reed appeals.

The facts in this case are not controverted. It appears in evidence that the suspension of Maud Baker was reported to the board, and that a special meeting of the board was held for the consideration of the act of the principal. Maud Baker was present at this meeting of the board, and the president testifies that he read to her the rule under which she had been suspended, and asked her to give the board some promise of amendment in the future, as a condition of reinstatement and she replied that she would not make any promise for the future, and expected to go fishing the following week.

The county superintendent finds that the suspension was made in compliance with the rules of the board for the government and regulation of the schools, and that the act of the principal in suspending, and of the board in approving his action, was without prejudice or malice. The board was reversed on the ground that the law does not confer upon the principal, or the board, power to suspend for the cause for which Maud Baker was suspended.

The case turns, therefore, upon the power of the board to establish and enforce a rule providing for the suspension of pupils, who are absent a given number of days, or half-days, without a satisfactory excuse. The point has been fully discussed and settled by our supreme court in the case of Burdick v. Babcock, 31 Iowa, 562, and need not be considered here. Murphy v. Independent District of Marengo has been cited, but does not apply, as in that case it is stated that the offense for which the pupil was dismissed was not in violation of any rule or regulation.

We are compelled to overrule the decision of the county superintendent, and to sustain the action of the board.

REVERSED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

N. R. JOHNSTON v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF UTICA.

Appeal from Chickasaw County.

MANDAMUS. To compel the performance of an official duty, appeal sometimes consumes valuable time. Mandamus is often a more speedy and better remedy.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. Action by the board unduly delaying the final consideration of an important matter, may be regarded as an evidence of prejudice.

The issues involved in this case were the formation of a new subdistrict to be known as number twelve, and the providing for a school during the winter of 1887-8, pending the election of subdirector for the new subdistrict. The case came in due order to the county superintendent on appeal, and from his decision the board appeals.

At its meeting on the nineteenth of September, 1887, the board had before it a petition signed by Caleb Boylan and others, to redistrict number two, and to form a new subdistrict. After various motions it was voted to adjourn to the second Saturday in February, 1888, to consider said petition. Appeal was taken to the county superintendent.

At the trial before that officer, October 27, 1887, and adjourned to October 31st, a motion was made to dismiss the case, on the ground that the matter was still pending before the board, as no final action had been taken by that body. The motion to dismiss was overruled, and the county superintendent proceeded to hear the case. Did the county superintendent commit an error? We think not.

Without impugning in any way the motives of the board, its action in adjourning to a date as late as the second Saturday in February, was calculated to delay and defeat the prayer of the petitioners. The aggrieved parties had an undoubted right to appeal, but we regret that they did not avail themselves of the more speedy remedy of resorting to the courts. A writ of mandamus would undoubtedly issue in such a case, compelling the board to perform its enjoined duty.

A motion to dismiss on the ground that there was no evidence to show that the board acted with passion, prejudice, or injustice, was also very properly overruled. The action of the board delaying the whole matter until the second Saturday of February, 1888, was in our opinion an act of manifest injustice, which the superintendent very properly took into account in making his decision.

The county superintendent reversed the action of the township board and ordered the new subdistrict, number twelve, to be formed, with an extra school for the winter of 1887-8, in accordance with the prayer of the petitioners. Ought his decision to be sustained?

A careful review of the evidence in the case, including the plat "exhibit A," shows that the township of Utica is divided into eleven subdistricts, some of them very large and irregular in shape. A better division than that proposed by the formation of the new subdistrict, number twelve, can possibly be made. The county superintendent, however, provides for this, as his decision does not prevent any changing of the boundaries of subdistrict lines, if necessary to facilitate the school privileges of the township.

A new subdistrict is needed to furnish reasonable school facilities for the children in that neighborhood, and so far as ordering the new subdistrict, to be known as number twelve, is concerned, the decision of the county superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

JACOB DECK et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF EDEN.

Appeal from Decatur County.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. A case involving a change of subdistrict boundaries, having been adjudicated by the county superintendent reversing the action of the board, and being affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction, can not again be brought upon appeal, unless it can be shown that some change materially affecting the conditions of the case has taken place since the date of the former decision.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. In changing subdistrict boundaries, both the present and the future welfare of the district township should be considered.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. A subdistrict long established, embracing a territory having a sufficient number of scholars to maintain a good school, should not be abolished, unless the general school facilities of the township will be improved thereby.

On the nineteenth day of September, 1887, the board voted to abolish subdistrict number eight. Jacob Deck and others appealed to the county superintendent, who on the fifth day of December rendered a decision reversing the action of the township board, and the board appeals.

The council for the directors urged in their written argument that the county superintendent should be required to send up to this department all the testimony taken in the trial before her. It was certainly the duty of the county superintendent to send up all the testimony upon which she based her decision. In the absence of any proof to the contrary, the presumption is that the transcript furnished by her contains all the testimony on file in her office. There is no proof offered that she has not complied with the law in all respects.

On the twenty-sixth day of December, 1885, the county superintendent rendered a decision reversing the action of the board in abolishing subdistrict number eight. As no material changes have taken place since then, in the condition of the township, does that former decision act as a bar to any further proceedings in this case? We think not.

The principle enunciated here is undoubtedly correct. A case involving a change of subdistrict boundaries, having been adjudicated by the county superintendent reversing the action of the board, and being affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction can not again be brought upon appeal, unless it can be shown that some change materially affecting the conditions of the case has taken place since the date of the former decision. In this case, however, the decision of the county superintendent can not act as a bar to further proceedings, because the district board did not take an appeal. Such proceedings can not be considered as final in such a sense until they have been affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction.

It is urged that the county superintendent erred in taking into consideration the distance which many of the pupils must travel in order to reach their school, if the action of the township board, abolishing subdistrict number eight, is affirmed. The law does not contemplate that one and one-half miles is in all cases an unreasonable distance. It depends largely upon the age of the pupil and upon the condition of the roads. In the case before us a natural obstacle, the Little Turkey river, must be taken into consideration. The opening of additional roads and the construction of a bridge would simplify matters somewhat, but no steps have been taken to accomplish this. Until this is done, to abolish the school in number eight would impose an undue hardship upon a large number of pupils.

What are the conditions of the school as at present constituted? The report of the secretary put in evidence, shows that the school in number eight will average with other subdistricts in the number of pupils enrolled; it is above the average in daily attendance, and below the average in cost of tuition. The board fails to show that reduced numbers render it expedient to abolish this subdistrict, nor does it show that the township is excessively taxed to support its schools.

This department has already ruled that subdistrict lines, which have been long established, embracing a territory having a sufficient number of pupils to maintain a good school, should not be disturbed, unless it can be proved that the general school facilities of the township will be improved by the change.

The board does not show that there is any general benefit to be expected from the proposed change of boundaries, nor does it prove that any existing necessity makes it desirable. The board undoubtedly intended to act fairly toward all, but we think it failed to properly consider all the circumstances involved in its action. The decision of the county superintendent is therefore

AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

March 16, 1888.

J. S. FOLSOM et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF CENTER.

Appeal from Cedar County.

REHEARING. To warrant a rehearing, some valid reason must be urged.

TESTIMONY. Sufficient latitude should be allowed in the introduction of testimony to permit a full presentation of the issues involved, even if irrelevant testimony is occasionally admitted.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. Every dwelling-house must be taken into account, as someone entitled to school advantages may hereafter reside there.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. When it is the evident intention of the board to relocate the site as near as possible in the center of the subdistrict, in order to furnish equal school facilities to all the residents, its action should not be materially interfered with.

The transcript in this case shows that on the twenty-first day of March, 1887, at a meeting of the board, a committee was appointed to investigate the needs of subdistrict number two and report at the meeting in September. It further shows that on the nineteenth day of September, 1887, such committee reported, recommending that the new house be built for said subdistrict, to be located in the center of the district. The report was received and the committee discharged. The report was also upon motion, laid upon the table.

On the nineteenth day of March, 1888, at a meeting of the directors, the above report was finally adopted and a building committee was appointed to confer with the county superintendent in regard to plans and specifications. From this decision of the board Folsom et al. appealed to the county superintendent, and the case was heard at Tipton on the ninth day of April, 1888. The records in the county superintendent's office show that the appellee consented to the filing of an amendment to the affidavit by appellant, and that the appellee filed a motion to modify the decision of the board, and the trial then proceeded. On the eleventh day of April the county superintendent filed a decision reversing the action of the board. On the seventeenth day of April, 1888, a motion was filed for a rehearing, within the time given by the county superintendent. On the nineteenth day of April, 1888, the motion for a rehearing was argued before the county superintendent and overruled. From the decision of the county superintendent the board appealed to the superintendent of public instruction, and the whole case came up on a hearing before him on the fifth day of June, 1888.

The first question to be decided is: Did the county superintendent err in overruling the motion for a rehearing? A rehearing of such a case can be granted only when it can be shown that some injustice has been done, or some mistake has been made which can be corrected by a new trial; or when some additional evidence has been discovered which is in favor of the party applying, but which could not have been presented before by reasonable diligence. The affidavit upon which the motion for a rehearing was based failed to show any such reasons. All the main points alleged therein had already been ruled upon by the county superintendent, and we think she did not commit any error in overruling the motion. This also disposes of all the testimony sent up in support of the motion for a rehearing; these affidavits will not be taken into account in the final decision.

It is not necessary here to determine the legal residence of William Busier. His own testimony is that the distance from his residence to the site selected by the board is one and one-fourth miles. The fact that Mrs. Morgan does not desire to send to school is not material. It is not the individual but the residence that is to be considered. Some other person living at the same place may hereafter desire school privileges.

We are now free to approach the main question upon which issue is joined. The testimony shows that the directors desired to relocate the schoolhouse in subdistrict number two in a more central location; no other reason is assigned for the contemplated removal. There is nothing to show that the present site is unsuitable, except that it does not well accommodate the pupils from the northern part of the district. In this determination to relocate the site near the center, there is no evidence of any abuse of discretion on the part of the board and we think this action should not be interfered with.

There, is, however, evidence which shows that the exact acre which the committee staked out is not a desirable site for a building. The board itself acknowledges this in its amended order by which the site is removed ten rods north.

The county superintendent, in her decision, locates the site upon a piece of ground known as the "grave-yard site." It is urged that the county superintendent has only appellate jurisdiction, and must therefore confine her decision to the two sites upon which the parties joined issue. She seems to have entertained some such idea, as she sustained a motion to rule out all testimony in regard to the unsuitableness of the grave-yard site when such evidence was offered in the original trial. We think that such evidence should have been admitted.

In April, 1866, the Hon. O. Faville, then superintendent of public instruction, obtained this opinion from Hon. F. E. Bissell, then attorney-general: "The case does not come before him (the county superintendent) merely to correct an error of the board of directors, but to hear and decide the same matter that the board had decided. The county superintendent is not limited to an affirmance or reversal of the action of the board, but he determines the same question that the board determined." See also John Clark v. District Township of Wayne, page 47, School Law Decisions of 1876.

To this opinion the decisions of this department have always conformed. The county superintendent, therefore, did not go beyond her jurisdiction in selecting a site different from any which had been considered by the board.

We can not see, however, that the grave-yard site has any advantage over the old site. It is irregular in shape, and is about as far north of the center of the subdistrict as the present site is south. In fact, its selection as a site for the new building defeats the very end which the board had in view in its action locating the site in the center of the subdistrict.

The case is remanded to the board with instructions not to build upon the site selected by the committee, but to select the best site possible within a distance not more than forty rods from the center of the site staked out by the committee; the south corner of said site, however, to be at least fifteen rods north of the south corner of the committee's site; said site also to contain not less than an acre, and to be as nearly square in form as the circumstances will admit. The decision of the county superintendent is

REVERSED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

June 7, 1888.

P. O'CONNOR, JR., v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF BADGER.

Appeal from Webster County.

JURISDICTION. In most matters with which boards have to do under the law, their authority and responsibility are absolute, and their jurisdiction is complete and exclusive.

JURISDICTION. A former order of the board, or a decision of the county superintendent on appeal, will not operate to prevent the board from exercising its discretion anew, when good reasons exist for such action.

REHEARING. To obtain a rehearing the necessity must be clearly shown.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. In the exercise of discretion, the benefit of every reasonable doubt must be given in favor of the correctness of official acts.

APPEAL. The hearing is not to be conducted by a rigid adherence to the technical forms and customs which prevail in the courts.

At a special meeting of the board held February 10, 1888, it was voted to remove the schoolhouse in subdistrict number seven, forty rods north from its present site. P. O'Connor, Jr., appealed to the county superintendent, who heard the case on the twenty-third day of April and affirmed the action of the board. P. O'Connor, Jr., appeals.

The proceedings in this case are regular and the facts admitted by both parties. The only point in dispute is this: On the tenth day of November, 1887, the county superintendent heard the same case and rendered his decision reversing the action of the board. As the board did not see fit to appeal, and as no material changes have taken place in the subdistrict, it is claimed that the decision of the county superintendent rendered November 10, 1887, must be considered as final, and that no further proceedings can be had in the case. If this allegation is true, then the county superintendent committed error in not dismissing the case.

Let us examine it a moment, that we may arrive at the intent of the law. It is plain that the law reposes great confidence in the discretionary acts of a board of directors. The instructions from the department of public instruction to county superintendents have always been that such discretionary acts are to be affirmed unless it can be very clearly shown that the board has in some way abused its powers; if there is a doubt, even, the board is to have the benefit of it. It has become a well established principle that the conduct of the schools and the location of schoolhouses should be left with those officers who have the closest relation to the people for whose benefit the schools are maintained. With this principle this department is not willing to interfere.

Is it right, then, that in this present case because the county superintendent reversed the board in November, 1887, it should be left without further remedy? We think not. After its former action was reversed, the board had its choice of three courses of action; it was bound to take the one which it believed to be for the best interests of the subdistrict.

It could ask for a rehearing, but to obtain that it must be able to show that some very grave mistake had been made, or that it had discovered some additional evidence which could not have been presented before by using reasonable diligence.

It could appeal to the superintendent of public instruction, but in that event it must base its case wholly upon the evidence as presented before the county superintendent, as this department has no right to hear additional testimony.

It could begin the case de novo, amend its record if it was faulty, supply omissions, introduce new testimony, and perfect its proceedings in such ways as to obtain a possible different decision from the county superintendent, or so as to make a stronger case before the superintendent of public instruction if either party found it necessary to appeal to him.

In this case the board chose the last remedy, and we think it was wise in doing so, as the most ready manner of obtaining a final adjudication of the whole matter.

After careful study of the authorities cited by counsel, we can only reach this conclusion. If the aggrieved party fails to appeal within the thirty days allowed by the law, the decision of the county superintendent becomes final as far as that particular case is concerned; but we find nothing in the law to warrant the conclusion that a reversal by the county superintendent acts as a bar to any further proceedings because the district board did not then and there take an appeal to the superintendent of public instruction. Such a conclusion would defeat the ends aimed at by the law in placing the management of the schools in the hands of the school officers as chosen by the people. The county superintendent and the superintendent of public instruction, in hearing these appeal cases have the jurisdiction, somewhat of a court of equity and are not bound by a rigid adherence to the technical forms and customs which prevail in the courts of justice.

In reaching this conclusion we are supported by the case of Morgan v. Wilfley et al., 70 Iowa, 338. "The power to redistrict and change subdistricts is conferred upon the board by the statute, and action in that direction, for sufficient cause, can not be considered as unauthorized." The power to change or fix the schoolhouse site is conferred in the same manner. Further: "The board of directors can not be so fettered by its prior action, or by legal proceedings that it may not, at any time, for sufficient cause, redistrict the township, as in its best judgment may be demanded by the interest of all the children of the district." The principle here enunciated is so broad that it applies to all the actions of the board, and it is not necessary to dwell upon it.

In regard to the merits of the case, there is nothing to be said. There is no evidence to show that the board abused its authority, and consequently no reason for setting its order aside. The decision of the superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

SAMUEL WALKER v. J. S. CRAWFORD, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Appeal from Cass County.

CERTIFICATE. The county superintendent is his own judge as to how fully he will give the applicant reasons for the refusal of a certificate.

CERTIFICATE. The county superintendent is charged with the responsibility of refusing to issue a certificate to any person unless fully satisfied that the applicant possesses the essential qualifications demanded of teachers by the law.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. Unless a marked violation of the large discretion vested in the county superintendent is proved clearly and conclusively, his action in refusing or revoking a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal.

CERTIFICATE. The decision of a county superintendent refusing a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal unless it appears that he acted from passion or prejudice.

This case arises from the refusal of J. S. Crawford, county superintendent of Cass county, to grant a certificate to Samuel Walker to teach in the schools of said county. The case was reheard on the first day of December, 1888, by way of appeal, the superintendent affirming his former decision. Samuel Walker appeals.

Section 1766 requires the county superintendent to examine each candidate desiring to teach in the public schools of the county, in certain branches enumerated therein, with special reference to his competency and ability to teach the same. But section 1767 still further directs that the county superintendent must satisfy himself that the applicant possesses a good moral character and the essential qualifications for governing and instructing children and youth. Here, then, are three distinct qualifications to be investigated and determined by the county superintendent before he issues the certificate. My predecessor very pointedly says in a written opinion on file in this office: "Under the law the county superintendent must be satisfied that you (the candidate) possess all the qualifications enumerated by law."

In this case it is not claimed that the appellant is deficient in the branches usually taught in the public schools. Neither is it charged that he does not possess a good moral character. The only point in question is his ability to instruct and govern children and youth. We confess that this is an exceedingly difficult point to determine in many cases. The sure way undoubtedly is to visit and inspect the school, but we think the county superintendent took the next best way when he drew the candidate into conversation and allowed him to express himself freely and without reserve. Certain traits of character most essential to a teacher can not be ascertained by a written examination alone.

At the time of the trial on appeal the county superintendent was placed on the stand as a witness for the appellant. In the course of his testimony he made this statement: "I refused Mr. Walker a certificate because I thought, and still think, Mr. Walker did not have judgment, a well balanced mind, and common sense, to teach a good school." It is not the duty of the superintendent of public instruction to try this case de novo in order to determine the correctness of this conclusion. We are not called upon to pass upon the fitness or unfitness of Mr. Walker to teach in the schools of Cass county.

Did the county superintendent err, in that he was actuated by wrong motives? If through passion or prejudice he refused Mr. Walker a certificate he did him an injustice, and his decision should be reversed. The existence of such a ruling motive would show itself somewhere in the evdence. We have read the transcript several times with care, and we fail to find any disagreement existing between the parties previous to, or at the time the appellant was first examined, or that Mr. Crawford has spoken unkindly of Mr. Walker or shown a disposition to injure him in any way. It was competent for the appellant to show clearly at the trial that the county superintendent was prejudiced against him to such an extent as not to do him justice; this he has failed to do by any reliable testimony. The weight of the testimony is to the effect that the county superintendent was endeavoring to do his duty as a school officer and in this the superintendent of public instruction must sustain him.

The counsel for the appellant claims that the county superintendent erred in not informing the applicant upon what grounds he refused him a certificate. The testimony of Mr. Frost, from his long experience in the office of county superintendent, has great weight. We agree with him that it is usually better to inform the applicant frankly and fully why the certificate is refused, but cases may arise in which it is as well not to do this. The law is silent upon this point, the county superintendent must be his own judge of what it is best to do. We do not think the refusal in this case is an error on the part of the county superintendent.

It is also alleged on the part of the appellant that "the county superintendent made a wrongful decision upon the facts in the case." The appellant introduced evidence to show that he had taught a fairly successful school, and that he was in good repute as a teacher in his own neighborhood. All this was pertinent to the question at issue, but if the conversation and actions of the appellant made such an impression upon the mind of the county superintendent at the time of examination that this evidence even could not overcome it, the county superintendent could not consistently do otherwise than as he did.

The discretion vested in the county superintendent by the law is very large, and for this purpose, that he may guard the public schools against the intrusion of persons unworthy or unfit for the office of teacher. The department of public instruction can not release him from his responsibility, nor can it interfere with his discretionary acts except upon the clearest and most convincing proofs of violation of law, or of the influence of passion or prejudice in the performance of his official duty.

The appellee on the other hand seems to argue that the action of the county superintendent, in refusing to grant a certificate, can not be interfered with by the superintendent of public instruction. In 1867, Hon. D. Franklin Wells, then superintendent of public instruction, obtained an opinion from the attorney-general of the state, Hon. F. E. Bissell, upon this point. The following extract from that opinion is answer to each of the claims just considered. "Chapter 52, laws of the tenth general assembly, provides that the superintendent of public instruction shall be charged with the supervision of all the county superintendents, and shall determine all cases appealed from the decision of the county superintendent. I hold that under the above provisions, the right of appeal is clearly inferable, if not directly given to any one aggrieved by the refusal of the county superintendent to give a certificate, or by the revocation of a certificate. The power should, however, be very cautiously exercised and the decision of the county superintendent should not be interfered with except in case of a clear violation of duty, or when the act was the clear result of passion or prejudice."

After a careful review of the testimony and the able arguments submitted to us, we do not find sufficient reason for reversing the decision made heretofore.

AFFIRMED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

G. W. DAVIS et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF LINN.

Appeal from Linn County.

APPEAL. Will not lie to control the action of a board or of the county superintendent, where concurrence is provided for.

TUITION. To enable the districts in which the children reside to collect tuition, all the requirements of the law must first be fulfilled.

At its regular meeting on the eighteenth of March, 1889, the board passed a resolution excluding from the privileges of the school, in sub-district number seven, children from the independent district of Laurel Hill, in Jones county, who had from time to time for many years, been allowed to attend the school in said subdistrict number seven. On the thirteenth of April the board considered a petition of parties in the adjoining district of Laurel Hill desiring to send to the school in Linn township, and passed an order refusing to admit their scholars. From this action, G. W. Davis and others appealed to the county superintendent, who heard the case on the ninth of May, affirming the order of the board. From his decision G. W. Davis appeals.

The attendance of scholars living in an adjoining district is governed by section 1793. By the portion of the section to which this appeal relates, children may attend in another district on such terms as may be agreed upon by the respective boards. In the history of this case, it is not shown that any action was taken by the board of Laurel Hill as to agreement regarding terms of attendance. The board of the district township of Linn refused to admit the scholars in question. It is from this order, an initial action, that appeal was taken.

At the trial before the county superintendent a statement of facts was submitted and was agreed to by both parties to the appeal, as a basis upon which the appeal should be heard. At this point the board by its attorney filed a demurrer, urging that the county superintendent could not acquire jurisdiction; that the action of the board complained of was not subject to revision upon appeal and asking the county superintendent to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction. The demurrer was overruled, the case was tried on the agreed statement of facts, and the order of the board affirmed. Did the county superintendent err in overruling the motion to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction? We think he did.

If the boards fail to agree upon terms of attendance, certain conditions regarding distance from the respective schools being fulfilled, as they are in this case, section 1793 itself provides the next step to be taken. The county superintendent of the county in which the children reside may give his consent with that of the board of the district where the children desire to attend, admitting them. But from the refusal of the board to admit the children it is held and has been uniformly held in opinions by this department, that appeal will not lie. It has always been conceded to be the intention of the lawmakers to leave with the board of the district in which the school is maintained, the matter of determining finally and conclusively, if it chooses, that scholars shall not be admitted under the provisions of section 1793. If its consent is withheld, neither the courts of law nor any appellate tribunal may set aside its order of refusal, and compel it to admit outsiders and accept as compensation for their instruction the amounts fixed by section 1793. We have referred to this matter at such length, because the counsel for the appellant urges the claim that the case should be remanded for a new trial.

We are compelled to find that there are but two methods in law, by which attendance in subdistrict number seven may be secured for their children by the appellants. The two boards may agree as to the terms of attendance. Or after they have refused to agree the concurrent consent of the county superintendent of Jones county and the board of the district township of Linn, will entitle the children to attendance and bind their home district for the expenses of their instruction in the manner provided by section 1793. But appeal will not lie to control the action of either board or of the county superintendent.

REVERSED AND DISMISSED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

ISHAM WATKINS V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF EMPIRE.

Appeal from Marion County.

APPEAL. An appeal will not lie from an order of the board initiating a change in boundaries, where the concurrence of the board of an adjoining district is necessary to effect the change.

APPEAL. Where changes are effected in district boundaries by the concurrent action of two boards, appeal may be taken from the order of the board concurring or refusing to concur, but not from the order of the board taking action first.

JURISDICTION. The jurisdiction of an appellate tribunal is not greater than that of the board from whose action the appeal is taken.

On the sixteenth of September, 1889, the board of the independent district of Highland determined to notify Isham Watkins of Empire district, that his children could not any longer attend the school in Highland district. The records show that it was willing that he should be attached to Highland district. This was taken as an initiatory movement. Isham Watkins petitioned the board of the Empire district to set off the north half of northeast quarter of sections 25, 75, 21, to the independent district of Highland. The petition was rejected; in effect the Empire board refused to concur. An appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who ordered that the northeast quarter of northeast quarter of section 25 be detached from the independent district of Empire and attached to the independent district of Highland.

Of the several questions involved in this case it is necessary to discuss only one. Did the county superintendent exceed his jurisdiction? The board of Highland initiated an action. The board of Empire district must either concur or non-concur, and from its action an appeal could be taken. If it did not choose to accede to the proposition of the Highland district, then action in that particular ended with its vote to non-concur. If it had a different proposition to make, as for instance granting forty acres, it could only initiate a movement to that effect and leave it for Highland district to act, and from the action of the latter board an appeal could then be taken.

In this case the county superintendent initiates a new action, and leaves it for Highland district to act. Now, if this action is allowed to stand, any one aggrieved may take an appeal from the action of the board of the Highland district. He would then have an appeal brought before the county superintendent from an action which he himself initiated. It might be further agreed that if the county superintendent has original jurisdiction, then this appeal can not lie, as an appeal can be taken only from the order of the board completing the action. The precedents established have been followed closely by this department and we can see no reason for breaking away from them.

It is held that in cases requiring the concurrent action of two boards, the board completing the action can only concur or non-concur. Any action involving a new proposition initiates a new case, which must be passed upon by the other board concerned in the matter, and from which an appeal can be taken. It is further held that the county superintendent upon appeal is limited to reversing or affirming the action of the board completing the action, and that he can not assume original jurisdiction and do what the board appealed from could not do.

It seems apparent that Mr. Watkins has not reasonably good school facilities and we regret that we are compelled to set aside the decision of the county superintendent. He was actuated by laudable motives and was looking for the best interests of the children in this case. We are, however, forced to the conclusion that the county superintendent erred in assuming original jurisdiction.

ROBERT MAXWELL V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF LINCOLN.

Appeal from Union County.

PROCEEDINGS. The regularity of all the proceedings will be presumed upon. This is true in an especial sense when the records are more than usually complete.

TEACHER. In the trial of a teacher the board is bound carefully to protect the interests of the district and to seek the welfare of the school, as well as to regard the rights guaranteed to the teacher.

NOTICE. Appearance at the trial is a complete waiver of notice.

RECORDS. The record of the secretary must be considered as evidence, unless there is proof of fraud or falsehood.

On the ninth day of December, 1889, the secretary, acting upon a petition signed by five residents, called a meeting of the board for December 14th, to examine the teacher of subdistrict number eight. A notice was also served upon the teacher the same date, signed by the secretary, both the call and the notice being spread upon the records in due form. The meeting was held on the fourteenth of December. The records show that the appellant was present and objected to the consideration of the charges, as the proceedings were not in accordance with section 1734. At the same time he demanded a copy of the charges and that one week be given him in which to prepare his defense, which demand was complied with and the board adjourned to December 21st.

If the appellant had moved to dismiss the case it would not have been an error to sustain the motion, but he submitted to the jurisdiction of the board and obtained a continuance of the case until December 21st. It must be held that by this action he waived any defect or irregularity in the jurisdiction of the board in this case. The purpose and object of the process, as pointed out in section 1734, was fully accomplished. See Wilgus et al. v. Gettings et al., 19 Iowa, page 82. At the meeting held December 21st the board voted to discharge the teacher. An appeal was taken to the county superintendent who affirmed the board. The appellant appeals to the superintendent of public instruction.

The only question before the county superintendent was whether the conditions as prescribed in section 1734 were fully complied with. It is alleged that while the teacher was present he was not allowed to make his defense. The secretary's transcript furnishes the only means of determining this. The records show that he was allowed to cross-examine witnesses, and they do not show that he was barred from offering evidence had he chosen to do so. There can be no question of the power of the board under the law to discharge the teacher. It is held in the case of Kirkpatrick v. Independent District of Liberty, 53 Iowa, 585, that the board does not act as a court, in any strict sense, and is not bound by the rules applicable to a court. The intent of the statute is evidently, while it guards carefully the rights of the teacher, to enable the board to discharge a teacher who, after a careful investigation, is determined to be unfit for the position. It is termed "a simple and inexpensive way of determining rights." It is claimed by the counsel for the appellant that when a certain mode is prescribed in determining a case not in the usual course of the common law, such mode must be followed, and reference is made to the case of Cooper v. Sunderland, 3 Iowa, 125. But it is held in the same case that when sufficient appears on the face of the records to give it jurisdiction under the law conferring the power, then the presumption attaches in favor of the remainder of the proceedings of the court. If the action of the appellant in appearing for trial gave the board jurisdiction, then all the proceedings must be held to be regular. The discharge of a teacher is largely within the discretionary power of the board. It is to guard the rights of the district and the interests of the school, as well as the rights of the teacher. After a full and fair investigation it is its duty to act as it deems best, under all the conditions and circumstances of the case. See Smith v.

Township of Knox, 42 Iowa, 522. This being the case, it is the duty of the county superintendent not to interfere with the action of the board unless he is convinced that it in some way abused its discretion. He is right in sustaining the board, even though as an individual he would have preferred some other action on its part.

Our conclusion is, after a careful consideration of the matter and after reading the transcript with unusual care, that the defendant had a fair and impartial trial, and that the terms of the law were substantially complied with. The decision of the county superintendent is AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

MICHAEL DONELON V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF KNIEST.

Appeal from Carroll County.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. The boundaries of subdistricts may be changed or new subdistricts formed only at the regular meeting of the board in September, or at a special meeting held before the following March.

On the twenty-fourth of March, 1890, the board made an order changing the boundary between subdistricts four and five. Michael Donelon, residing upon the territory transferred, appealed to the county superintendent, who on the fourteenth of April affirmed the order of the board, and from his decision Mr. Donelon appeals.

The action of the board called in question was taken under section 1796, the first of which section reads: "The board of directors shall, at their regular meeting in September, or at any special meeting called thereafter for that purpose, divide their township into subdistricts," etc. It has been continuously held by this department ever since the enactment of the provision of law quoted above, that as changes in the subdistrict boundaries under section 1796 do not take effect until the following subdistrict election, it is therefore the manifest intention of the law as indicated in the reading of the portion of section 1796 we have quoted, that said changes should be ordered at the regular meeting of the board in September, or at a specially called meeting held long enough before the subdistrict election to allow time for notices to be given for the election of subdirectors, and that the law does not give the board power to change subdistrict boundaries between March and September, but only between September and March. If this is the meaning of the law it is decisive of this case, and we shall be compelled to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction.

A careful examination of the question leads us to the same conclusions uniformly announced by our predecessors. We are able in no other way to explain the wording of the section. It seems plain that the law intends to impose the limitation upon the board so clearly indicated by the phraseology of section 1796. Attention is invited to the decisions found on pages 25, 26 and 63, School Law Decisions of 1876. It is also worthy of notice that this principle has been considered to be so fully established in practice and so well understood, that cases referring to the universally admitted fact have been omitted from the three compilations of decisions made since 1876. This case is the first appeal for many years past reviving the question.

We are aware that the case in 70 Iowa, 338, may be urged as affording opportunity for a different view than the one taken by us. But it must be observed that the matter at issue in that case is whether the board has power to exercise its discretion in so full and complete a manner as to dispense entirely with a new subdistrict recently created by a former board, and thus by a single order opposite in intention to nullify all that had been done previously in regard to change of boundaries. It was urged that the board does not have such power after the subdistrict has acquired a legal existence. The effect of the decision is to establish the power of the board to exercise its fullest discretion in determining the necessity for change of boundaries, subject to the remedy of appeal. We can not interpret the decision as setting aside that provision of 1796, which directs that such changes in boundaries shall be made at the regular meeting of the board in September, or at a special meeting thereafter, obviously not to be held later than the first Monday in March.

It is apparent then that the action of the board complained of in this case was not in accordance with law, and hence was null and void. It is fortunate that the board has an opportunity within a few weeks to take such action as may then seem to it for the best interests of the district and all concerned.

REVERSED AND DISMISSED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

ELISHA AND ELDA TANNER V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF CLARENCE.

Appeal from Cedar County.

AFFIDAVIT. A technical error in the affidavit not prejudicial to either party will not defeat the appeal.

AFFIDAVIT. The affidavit may be amended when such action is not prejudicial to the rights of any one interested.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES. The law is to be construed in the interest of the child. The actual residence of the scholar at the time will establish the right to attend school free of tuition.

The board excluded Elda Tanner from school until such time as her tuition is paid, on the ground that she is a non-resident pupil. The county superintendent, on appeal, reversed the action of the board and appeal was taken to the superintendent of public instruction. It was claimed before the county superintendent that inasmuch as the affidavit upon which the appeal was based was without the seal of the notary public, that there were no grounds upon which the appeal could be legally based. While it is true that the notarial seal is necessary to constitute an affidavit, in this case the notary public was present at the time of trial and under oath testified that the omission of the seal was only an oversight on his part, and that the persons therein designated did make oath to the paper and affix their signatures to it in his presence, then he also there affixed the notarial seal. It is held that since no interests were prejudiced by the error which at the best was only technical, the county superintendent did not commit an error in overruling the motion to dismiss the case.

The allegations of facts made by Elda Tanner are that she is sixteen years of age, that her father and mother have parted, and that for ten years or more she made her home in the family of Mrs. McCartney in Massilon township. Before she came to Clarence she had an understanding with her father that she was to care for herself thereafter. She also claims that being thus emancipated from her father's control, she chose to become a resident of Clarence, and as an actual resident of that school district is entitled to the privileges of school under the provisions of section 1794.

It is of interest to ascertain how far such an agreement constitutes emancipation of a minor child. It is held in 1 Iowa, 356, that in the absence of statutory requirements such emancipation need not be evidenced by any formal or record act, but may be proved like any other fact. The evidence of Elda Tanner in this case is corroborated by that of her father, and of Mrs. McCartney, who was present during the conversation. We are disposed to hold that Elda Tanner under the facts as sworn to before the county superintendent was at liberty to choose such a place of residence as seemed to her most fitting. The evident and beneficent intent of the law is that no child shall be deprived of school privileges. The father of a family may move into the district from an adjoining State, and although certain time must elapse before he is entitled to vote he may place his children in school the very day he arrives. In the same spirit it has been held that children living in families in which their work compensates for their board, are actual residents and are entitled to school privileges. The law is to be construed in their interests. The district is entitled to have such children enumerated, if they are thus actual residents at the time the school census is taken. We do not undertake to decide that parents or guardians can transfer children from one district to another for school purposes alone, but only that those who are actual residents under the provisions of the law may attend school without the payment of tuition. While it is true in general that the residence of a child is the same as that of the parents or guardian, the law evidently contemplates exceptions to this general rule and leaves the right to attend school to be established by the actual residence of the child. Any other construction would not be in accordance with the spirit of the law, and would deprive many children of the right to attend the public schools.

In this case the question of residence is largely one of intent. The testimony of Elda Tanner is to the effect that she was at the time of attendance an actual resident of Clarence, and had no other residence. It was competent for the board to disprove this, but we do not find the evidence to that effect conclusive.

It is held that the board erred in excluding Elda Tanner from school and the decision of the county superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

J. C. REED et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF EAGLE.

Appeal from Sioux County.

SUBDISTRICTS. The board should be encouraged in forecasting a general plan looking toward an ultimate regularity in the form of subdistricts.

SCHOOLHOUSE. There is no limitation in law as to the number of scholars to be accommodated, in order that the board may provide a schoolhouse.

SUBDISTRICTS. Should be, if possible, compact and regular in form. In well populated district townships two miles square is considered a desirable area for each subdistrict.

SUBDISTRICTS. It is very important that subdistricts should be regular in form, and that where it is possible schoolhouses should be located at or near geographical centers.

BOUNDARIES. In the determination of district and subdistrict boundaries, temporary expenditures and individual convenience should be subordinated to the more important considerations relating to simplicity of outline, compactness of shape, uniformity of size, and permanence of sites and boundaries.

The above named district township coincides with a congressional township and consists of a single subdistrict. Portions of the district are yet sparsely settled. The board seems to have projected a plan to so locate schoolhouses when they must be supplied, that ultimately the township shall have nine subdistricts, each of four sections.

On the sixteenth of March the board ordered a schoolhouse built at the center of the square of four sections in the southeastern corner of the township. From this action J. C. Reed appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the order of the board. From this decision Mr. Reed appeals.

It was urged before the county superintendent that the board was prevented by the law from building a schoolhouse for the accommodation of a less number than fifteen of school age. The question now to be determined is whether the county superintendent erred in affirming the order of the board.

The board seemed to have outlined a policy of regarding each four sections as a separate division, to be provided with school advantages by itself. So far as forecasting the probable form of subdistricts to be created in the future, we think the board might be guided in the location of schoolhouses at the present time by such policy, in order that ultimately each subdistrict will have the form desired and each schoolhouse will be located so as best to accommodate all patrons.

But while matters are in this progressive condition, we think the law does not confer power upon the board to apply the limitations of section 1725, and decide that until fifteen of school age are to be accommodated by the schoolhouse to be built no house can be erected. In this case for instance there is but one single subdistrict. The board may create other subdistricts provided fifteen of school age are included within the boundaries of each one so formed. But the board is not prevented from building more than one schoolhouse in any subdistrict. See 69 Iowa, 533. In the absence of specific instructions in connection with the voting of the taxes by the electors, the board is empowered to locate sites where in its judgment a schoolhouse seems to be most demanded.

We are unable to find from the evidence any reason to disturb the finding of the county superintendent and his decision is therefor AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

E. A. SHEAFE V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF CENTER.

Appeal from Wapello County.

TEACHER. As an employe of the district the teacher may justly claim and expect to receive the official assistance and advice of the board.

TEACHER. The law insures the teacher a fair and impartial trial before he may be discharged.

The history of this case presents nothing unusual. The board voted to discharge the teacher upon certain preferred charges. The teacher appealed to the superintendent, who reversed the action of the board. The board appeals.

Section 1757 sets forth plainly the nature of the contract which is the evidence of agreement between the board acting for the district as one party, and the teacher as the other party. Section 1734 prescribes the only method by which the board may terminate the contract in advance or discharge the teacher. Both parties are equally bound by this contract, and as the board is a continuous body, the election of an entire new board does not change the relations of the contracting parties. But inasmuch as the directors also act as judges whose duty it is to decide whether the contract shall be terminated, being themselves parties to the contract, it becomes them to weigh the evidence in the case with the greatest care and to give the teacher the benefit of any reasonable doubt. In the present case the forms of the law were complied with, and the teacher was permitted to be present and make his defense.

The transcript sent up by the county superintendent shows that one of the complaints upon which the teacher was tried was signed by Jacob Ream, who also is one of the directors and acted as one of the judges in the case. This is strong presumptive evidence of prejudice on the part of one of the judges at least, and this evidence is strengthened by the fact that Jacob Ream is the father of John Ream, whose punishment is made a matter of complaint. It is further strengthened by the fact brought out in evidence, that the present board was elected for the purpose and with the intent of displacing the teacher. The law is very careful to guard the rights of the teacher and to insure him a fair trial. That certainly can not be considered a fair trial in the eyes of the law, in which one of the judges who is to give his vote for acquittal or conviction is a complainant in the case and is as ready to pronounce the verdict before he hears the testimony as afterward.

The board invited the teacher to resign at its first meeting, and upon his refusal it proceeded at once to take steps to discharge him. Under certain circumstances this might be right, when necessary to relieve the school from a teacher proved to be incompetent or immoral. But general dissatisfaction as alleged in the petition or the desire to hire a lady teacher for the summer term, or to lessen the expenses of the district, can not be held to form any reason for discharging the teacher. The alleged punishment of the two boys is not proved in either case to have been unreasonably severe, to have been inflicted in passion, or to have resulted in any permanent injury. These punishments happened some weeks before and any complaint should have been made to the old board.

It does not appear necessary to enter any further into the merits of this case. It is held that no error was committed in reversing the action of the board and the decision of the county superintendent is therefore

AFFIRMED.

C. A. WEBSTER V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT NUMBER SEVEN.

Appeal from Winneshiek County.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. To warrant interference with a discretionary act, abuse of discretion must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. It is not the province of an appeal to discover and to correct a slight mistake. The board alone must bear any blame that may attach to a choice deemed by appellants somewhat undesirable, but not an unwise selection to such a degree as to indicate an abuse of the discretion ordinarily exercised.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. In the absence of proof that the board has abused the authority given it by the law, its orders will not be set aside, although another decision might to many seem preferable.

JURISDICTION. When its order is affirmed, the board is left free to take another action, if thought best.

On the third day of October, 1891, the board relocated the schoolhouse site in independent district number seven, Burr Oak township. Appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board which ordered the house removed to the new location. From this decision John Knox, president of the board, appeals.

The proceedings in this case are entirely regular. It is not claimed that there was any direct violation of law, nor that prejudice or improper motives in the least influenced the action of the board. The very common complaint that the discretion vested in the board by the law had been abused was virtually the only error urged.

The only question for us to determine is the single one as to whether the county superintendent was warranted in setting aside the order of the board. Unless the evidence clearly sustains his conclusions we shall be compelled to reverse his decision. But if the evidence shows plainly a gross abuse of discretion on the part of the board, then we must affirm.

Where an abuse of the large discretion vested in the board is urged, to warrant interference by an appellate tribunal, such abuse must be proved conclusively. The testimony must disclose so fully the nature of the unwarranted action as to leave no reasonable doubt. The acts of a board must be presumed to be correct, and they are entitled to the benefit of every doubt. Unless it is fully apparent that the discretionary power of the board has been abused to such an extent as to render interference necessary, it is the duty of the county superintendent to allow the act of the board to stand, although he may differ from the board very strongly as to the desirability of the order in question. In this connection, attention is called to appeal decisions found on pages 35, 82, 90, 100 and 135, School Law Decisions of 1888.

In this case while the testimony shows that the removal of the site selected will bring the schoolhouse quite a distance south of the center of the district, it is not in evidence that a suitable site might have been found nearer the center. It must be presumed that the board carefully weighed all the reasons in favor of and against the site chosen, and also that it endeavored to find the best site. The evidence is by no means conclusive that it did not select the best site obtainable. If in the opinion of the people an error has been made, it rests with the electors to choose a board favoring another location.

It is with reluctance that we reverse the decision of the county superintendent. There can be no question that he intended to seek substantial justice for the people of the district. This decision does not prevent the board, if thought desirable to do so, from reconsidering the action by which the new site was chosen and selecting a different site. But we can not find that the evidence supports the county superintendent in overruling the order made by the board and his decision is therefore

REVERSED.

R. G. W. FORSYTHE v. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF KIRKVILLE.

Appeal from Wapello County.

APPEAL. Where the changes are effected in district boundaries by the concurrent action of two boards, appeal may be taken from the order of the board concurring or refusing to concur, but not from the order of the board taking action first.

TERRITORY. All territory must be contiguous to the district to which it belongs.

JURISDICTION. In change of boundaries by two boards, an appellate tribunal acquires only the same power possessed by the board from whose action appeal is taken, and may do no more than affirm the order, or to reverse and do what the board refused to do.

PETITION. A petition may be used to bring to the attention of the board the kind of action desired by the petitioners, but a board may act with equal directness without such request.

The board of the above named district refused to concur in the action of the board of the district township of Richland, offering to transfer certain territory to the independent district. Mr. Forsythe, desiring the transfer, appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board and ordered the transfer of the territory under consideration by the two boards, with the exception of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section eighteen, which the county superintendent directed should remain a part of the district township of Richland, and also ordered the transfer of the northwest quarter of section eighteen, which would otherwise be cut off from the district township to which it belongs. From this decision L. Jones, president of the board of the independent district of Kirkville, appeals.

This case turns on the power of the county superintendent to modify the order appealed from in the manner done by him. It is true that even if the board of the independent district of Kirkville had concurred in the transfer of the territory released by the other board, such order would not have been in conformity with the spirit of the law, because forty acres would then be left belonging to the district township of Richland and not contiguous to the remainder of the district. The county superintendent was led to conclude that the forty acres in question should be transferred, if any change of boundaries was made. But could the county superintendent so determine in this appeal? We think not. The board of the independent district might concur or refuse to concur. They might refuse to concur, and initiate a new proposition which the board of the district township could act upon, when appeal would then lie from the last action. But an attempt to change the order originally made would render it necessary to have such new action considered by the other board, before becoming effective, or even in order that the action could be brought within the power of the county superintendent to consider on appeal. For in a case of this kind no matter can come into the case on appeal, unless the second board, the one last acting, concurs or refuses to concur in the order initiated or proposed by the board first taking action.

It follows then that the county superintendent having only appellate jurisdiction, could not assume original jurisdiction and do what the board from whose action the appeal was taken could not have done. Therefore we are compelled to hold that the county superintendent did not have the power to decide that the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section eighteen should be transferred.

A careful investigation of the transcript leads us to believe that perhaps such a change of the boundaries as would transfer the residence of Mr. Forsythe to the independent district, might be desirable. Of course such transfer would include entire forties of land, and no territory could be separated from the district to which it should belong. Whether any change is best, must be determined by the boards interested, the action of the board last acting being subject to correction on appeal. In order that the matter may come again without prejudice to the attention of the boards, the decision of the county superintendent is reversed and the case remanded to him to be reopened and heard again. We think he will be compelled by necessity to affirm the decision of the board of the independent district of Kirkville, in refusing to concur in the transfer proposed by the district township. This will leave all matters as nearly as possible in the same condition they were before any action was taken. It will then be in order for either board at any time to initiate such a change of boundaries as may seem demanded. There is no absolute necessity for a petition or request. A petition may be used to bring to the attention of the board the kind of action desired by the petitioners, but a board may act with equal directness without such request.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

J. A. CLAXTON V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF HOLMES.

Appeal from Fayette County.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The necessities of the present must be observed in locating schoolhouse sites, in preference to the probabilities of the future.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. The prospective wants of the district may properly have weight in determining the selection of a site, when such selection becomes necessary, but not in securing the removal of a schoolhouse now conveniently located.

On the twenty-first of March last, the board, by two affirmative votes to one negative, relocated the schoolhouse site at a point eighty rods west of the present site. From this action J. A. Claxton appealed. The county superintendent reversed. D. S. Thompson now appeals to this department.

The proceedings in this case appear to be entirely regular. There was no violation of law. Appellant does not allege malice or prejudice. Therefore abuse of discretion was the only point to be considered by the county superintendent. He decided, after a full hearing of the case, that there had been abuse of discretion sufficient to warrant him in reversing the board's order. It is for us to review the testimony on which he made this decision, and the argument offered in the appeal before this tribunal.

In cases such as the present, the question for an appellant tribunal to determine is not which of the two sites is the better but whether the site selected is under existing and prospective conditions of the district, at all fit and suitable for a schoolhouse site, as well as fair to the patrons. And to determine this, various factors must be taken into consideration. There should be unusually strong reasons for abandoning a site provided with a good well, especially if the new site is on lower ground as in the present case, where good water may not be procurable. Trivial differences in distance should not usually be allowed to lose to a district the value of shade trees already well advanced. Wells and trees cannot be removed, and with the latter, it not only makes expense, but requires years to replace them. However, in all this, and in the doubt that is raised whether the new site is a fit one at all on account of being low and wet, we are disposed to give the board the benefit of the doubt.

Counsel for appellant states that the little village of Donnan, in the northwestern part of the district, is certain to grow considerably in the near future because of being at the junction of two railroads, and that therefore it should have better school facilities than are afforded by the old site. Taking the premises in this reasoning as correct the conclusion is sound, only that it does not go far enough. Donnan village would demand better school facilities than even the new site would afford. It would ask to be set off in an independent district and have its own local school, taking with it more or less of territory off the west side of the Holmes district. This would leave the schoolhouse on the new site considerably too far west of the geographical center and center of population of the district as it would then be left, especially so since many of the residents in the eastern half live in the extreme eastern limits of the district.

Therefore, taking all these things into consideration, while fully realizing how reluctant this department has always been to interfere with the discretionary acts of a board, we think it will be better for the schoolhouse to remain on the old site for the present. When a north and south highway shall have been actually constructed and its location thus made certain, and when the necessities of the northwestern portion of the district shall be more definitely understood, it will be easier to determine the needs of the district, and choose a site that shall be permanent, if removed from the present site. The board may then, if it sees fit, take action again on the question of relocation. The decision of the county superintendent is hereby

AFFIRMED.

OLE THOMPSON et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF BELMOND.

Appeal from Wright County.

TESTIMONY. Opinions unsupported by facts do not become satisfactory evidence.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. The order complained of is reviewed not to discover the desirability of the action, but to determine whether sound reason and wise discretion were followed.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. The fact that some other action would have been desirable or preferable does not establish that the board abused its discretion.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Its action is presumed to be correct and for the interest of the district, until proved to be otherwise.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. In the determination of appeals, the weight which properly attached to the discretionary actions of a tribunal vested with original jurisdiction should not be overlooked.

This case comes before the superintendent of public instruction on appeal taken by John L. McAlpine from the decision of the county superintendent reversing the action of the board in refusing to create certain additional subdistricts as prayed for in a petition.

The point at issue is a simple one, being merely a question of discretion on the part of the board as to whether it was best to take or not to take a certain action. The decision of the county superintendent compels the board to do what it did not deem wise or necessary. Doubtless there are instances when such a ruling on the part of the appellant tribunal is needed. But does the evidence warrant such a decision in the present case?

The affidavit bringing the case before the county superintendent does not allege violation of law, or prejudice. Neither does such appear in the testimony. The law gives boards very wide latitude in the exercise of their discretionary powers. Not infrequently cases arise in which an appellate tribunal would sustain their discretionary action whether they granted or refused to grant a given petition, there being no manifest abuse of such discretion in either action. In any event, the action of a board is presumed to be correct and for the interest of the district until proved to be otherwise. Mere opinions of witnesses that a different action would have been preferable can not be accepted as evidence. Statements of facts and existing conditions must be given. Even then the fact that some other action would have been desirable or preferable does not establish that the board abused its discretion. It must be shown that the action complained of is an injury to the district or does gross and needless injustice to the patrons thereof. The decisions in this line by our predecessors are numerous and pointed, and we fully concur in the position taken.

In the present case the evidence does not show that any one is made to suffer injustice by the board's action. Ample provision has been made to accommodate all of the pupils of the territory in question with school privileges. It is not in evidence that the formation of three subdistricts out of the one would improve these facilities, since the subdistrict now has three schoolhouses located for the convenience of the respective portions of said subdistrict.

For the county superintendent, or the state superintendent, to render a decision invariably as he would have voted had he been a member of the board, is not what the law intends when clothing these officers with authority to try and decide appeals. Malice, prejudice, violation of law, is the board guilty of any of these? Or has it gone beyond sound reason and wise discretion in taking or refusing to take a given action? These are the questions for both tribunals to inquire into.

While we believe the county superintendent endeavored conscientiously to hear and decide the present case fairly, yet in the light of the foregoing reasoning we do not find that the evidence discloses grounds sufficient for refusing to affirm the board, and the decision of the superintendent is therefore

REVERSED.

J. O. SEVEREID AND JOHN STENBERG V. IND. DISTRICT OF FIELDBERG.

Appeal from Story County.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES. Are not guaranteed children elsewhere than in the district of their residence.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES. To the fullest extent possible, the board should equalize the distance to be traveled to school.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES. Attendance in another district depends upon the board of that district, and must therefore be regarded as a contingency.

The transcript in this case shows that on March 20, 1893, the board in answer to a petition relocated the school site and made an order to move the schoolhouse on the site selected, the latter being more than three-fourths of a mile north of the present site. John O. Severeid and John Stenberg appealed to the county superintendent who affirmed the order of the board. The same parties now appeal to the superintendent of public instruction. The essence of affidavit filed by appellants is abuse of discretion by the board because several families will be compelled to go two miles or more to reach the schoolhouse on the new site.

The district consists of four sections in the southwest corner of Palestine township. The schoolhouse as now located is in the geographical center of the district and within a distance of one and three-fourths miles from the most remote patrons. In the northern part of the district, in fact on the extreme northern boundary, lies the village of Huxley. It is in the edge of this village, and therefore almost in the limits of the district, that the new site has been selected. Two of the directors residing in said village and being the two who voted for the new location. The district has a school enumerating sixty-eight, of whom about forty live in Huxley. These pupils have been going to the center of the district, where the schoolhouse now is, a fraction over one and one-fourth miles. For the better accommodation of these pupils the removal was ordered. While some attempt is made to show that the site chosen is unfit, that the cost of moving will be excessive, and that there was undue prejudice, we do not find that any of these charges are sustained. We may therefore consider merely the element of distance to the new site. It is in evidence that some of the school patrons will have to travel two and one-fourth miles to reach the new site, while there are five families with nine children whose distance will be over two miles, also that about twenty-nine children at present will be unfavorably affected and about thirty-seven favorably. While the new site will accommodate a majority of the pupils, still it is considerably north of the center of population. The board and the petitioners seemed to realize clearly that the contemplated site would leave several families at a great disadvantage as to school privileges, since they state that these families can be accommodated in other districts. They realized that an injustice would be done if these families should be compelled to travel to the new site for school conveniences. But there is nothing offered in evidence to show how said patrons can be accommodated elsewhere. It is not shown that they will be as near even another school as to their own, provided they might attend such a school. For aught that appears in the evidence, they may be three or more miles from any other school. Even if there be one nearer, there is no positive evidence that the board has made arrangements for the schooling of said pupils in another school, or even that it can make such arrangements. Witnesses say that they think said pupils could attend in some other district, but this belief merely can not be received as satisfactory evidence on this point. What are the probabilities that such provisions can be made for the children of the five families under consideration? The territory on which these families reside can not be set off to another district for the reason that territory can not be detached to districts in a different township, as would be necessary in this case. Neither is it legal to reduce independent districts to less than four sections except in special cases. See chapter 133, laws of 1878, as amended by chapter 131, laws of 1880, page 84, S. L. 1892.

The board is not sure of securing school privileges for said pupils elsewhere without such transfer of territory, because it will require the concurrence of another board which may absolutely refuse. In any event the board of Fieldberg independent district is not able to guarantee school privileges to these families elsewhere than in their own district, since the matter does not rest wholly in its own power. While the law does not, as many suppose, prescribe a maximum distance for school travel, yet by permitting provisions to be made under given conditions for children to attend other schools than their own when they live more than one and one-half miles from the latter, it is evident that the legislature regarded this distance about as far as a child should travel to reach school.

It is the duty of the board to furnish reasonable facilities in its own district for all the children thereof. Even a minority of only five families has rights and claims which may not be ignored. To give a majority of the district located in a village convenient school privileges by practically cutting off others entirely from any privileges of education, we believe after long and careful study to be an abuse of discretion sufficient to warrant reversing a board taking such action. The distance these families will be compelled to travel to school will be such as largely to deprive them of their just rights in the matter of enjoying school accommodations.

We are aware that this department has ever stood for sustaining the discretionary acts of a board. In this case, however, we believe that abuse of discretion has been fairly proven by the appellants. Doubtless the board had not fully considered the fact that rights of appellants could not be so ignored in the effort to improve the school conveniences of other parts of the district, or did not consider that providing school privileges for appellants in some other district is hedged about with such complications and uncertainties. The case is different from what it would be had theirs been a district township instead of an independent district. In the former case the matter would be much more in its own hands. It could rearrange boundaries to accommodate those at too great a distance from the new site, a matter which the board in the present case can not do. If it was satisfactorily established that said families had been or could and would be permanently provided with better school facilities elsewhere, such accommodations being annually dependent upon conditions in the district in which they might desire to attend, especially in the disposition of each new board, it would have been a comparatively clear case for affirming the action of both board and county superintendent. Because the distance of five families is to our mind needlessly increased and their school privileges nearly cut off, and because there is no proof that another school is nearer, with provision that they could attend such school, if there is one, and it seeming quite doubtful whether such provision can be made at all, we feel that the interests of said families should be protected. We have no reason to question the intentions of any parties connected herewith. We simply state that in our opinion the board did not consider the difficulties in the matter of providing school facilities for the five most distant families.

The decision of the superintendent is

REVERSED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BRADFORD INGRAHAM V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF HARTFORD.

Appeal from Iowa County.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. It is not the province of an appeal to determine which of two sites is the better.

TESTIMONY. If selfish or other improper motives are complained of, the testimony must show such facts conclusively.

The history of this case is brief. March 20, 1893, the new township board having then just organized, on motion appointed a committee of three to relocate the site of schoolhouse in subdistrict number eight, said site to be near the geographical center of said subdistrict. On the twentieth of May, at a special called meeting, it was moved to reconsider the motion to relocate the schoolhouse in subdistrict number eight, which motion was carried. By another motion the committee appointed at the former meeting was discharged. It is from this action of the board on May 20th that Bradford Ingraham appealed to the county superintendent, and from the latter's decision affirming the action of the board to the superintendent of public instruction.

In his affidavit, Mr. Ingraham alleges that the board was influenced by selfish motives and further alleges in effect that the board abused its discretionary powers. The abuse of discretion, if such it is, consisted in the unequal distance of travel from the different parts of the subdistrict to the schoolhouse. A careful reading of the case as filed in the transcript fails to disclose any selfish or improper motives on the part of the board, and we dismiss this charge without further comment.

Counsel for appellant discusses at some length the effect of a vote to reconsider, and then not reconsidering, not voting on the former motion. It is claimed that the board merely voted to reconsider former motion to relocate, and that no further action being then taken, the motion to relocate remained before the board until it should be acted upon one way or the other, or that not being taken up within a month, it was terminated, leaving the previous action thereon in force. Counsel for appellees claims if the first be true, then the case should have been dismissed, as no action had been taken from which to appeal.

Technically the vote to reconsider the former motion placed said motion before the board again, as if it had not been voted on, and left it ready for debate and adoption or rejection. But it is clear that the board intended to rescind its former action and evidently understood the word reconsider in the sense of rescinding. It is quite a common misapplication of the word. That this was the intention is the more conclusive when we note the subsequent vote of the board in discharging its committee.

In providing for appeals before the county and state superintendent, it was the manifest purpose of the lawmakers to afford a speedy, inexpensive remedy, stripped of undue technicalities, for certain classes of grievance. Holding this view, we must recognize the intent of the board, rather than what it did under a technical construction of language. Apparently the board itself made the relocation, and appointed a committee chiefly to arrange the details and see to the removal of the schoolhouse. At the May meeting no action was taken by the board on the report or statement made by the committee. The resolution of the board at the March meeting located the site about eighty rods east of the old site. The rescinding of this amounted to a new location or to undoing the former action, a thing they clearly had a right to do. Members of the board had changed their views.

No evidence is introduced to show that either site is in itself unsuitable. It is merely a question of distance. It is a question of moving the schoolhouse away from some and nearer to others. Neither site would seriously discommodate any one according to the plat sent up with the transcript. It is in evidence that only one more pupil would be better accommodated at the new site than at the old. It is not the province of this department, nor of the county superintendent, to determine which of the two sites is the better. An appellate tribunal in such cases may determine only whether the board has chosen a grossly unsuitable or unjust and unfair site. If so, the board should be reversed. If not, it should be sustained, even though a better site could be found.

In the present instance no gross injustice is done, no manifest error committed. In fact, both sites are good, and we should be compelled to sustain the board on appeal in the selection of either the present or new site. We hold that the county superintendent committed no error in affirming the action of the board when it practically rescinded its former motion for relocation and chose to keep the old site. His decision is therefore

AFFIRMED.

W. S. KENWORTHY et al. v. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF OSKALOOSA.

Appeal from Mahaska County.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. The order of a board should be reversed only upon the plain showing that the law has been violated or discretion grossly abused.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Has full power to provide and enforce a course of study.

RULES AND REGULATIONS. The burden of proof is with the appellant to show that a rule is unreasonable.

The history of the case is this. The board has a regulation that all pupils shall provide themselves with text-books suitable to their grade, and that failing to do this they shall be suspended until they comply with the rule.

The children of the appellants were under this rule suspended from school for not being provided with the music books in use in said schools. The parents appealed from the ruling of the board to the county superintendent, who reversed the action of the board, and the board appeals.

It is an established rule that the action of a school board should be reversed only upon the showing that it has abused its discretion or violated the law. In this case the county superintendent avers that it violated the law in that it did not advertise for bids as required by section 5 of chapter 24, Laws of 1890, before the music books were adopted.

There is nothing in the transcript to show that it was acting under the provisions of this chapter, which it could not do unless so instructed by the electors of the district. See section 12 of said chapter. So much of the county superintendent's decision as refers to this may then be dismissed from the case.

It is further claimed that it abused its discretion by adopting an unreasonable rule. This is the real question at issue.

With their power to establish and maintain graded schools, all boards are invested with the authority to prescribe a course of study in the different branches to be taught. It is not our province to determine what the courts might hold in this case. They have held that in case a pupil refuses to conform to a course of study as prescribed by the board the proper remedy is suspension, and not corporal punishment. See 50 Iowa, 145. They have also held that a rule suspending a pupil for a certain number of absences or tardiness is reasonable, and may be enforced. See 31 Iowa, 562. It is true that they also have held that a pupil may be suspended only for gross immorality or persistent violation of reasonable rules. See 56 Iowa, 476.

In this case it is nowhere shown that the children would in any way be injured by the study of music, or that their health or well being demanded that they should be excused from the study in question.

There is fair ground for considering the refusal to purchase the books as a failure to comply with a reasonable regulation of the board. The rule of the board was made so as to bear with equal force upon all the pupils in the school. And in order to make it as little oppressive as possible it offered the books at the least expense possible, and that none might be deprived of the benefits of the study the board authorized the teachers to loan the text-book in music without charge to children whose parents were in indigent circumstances.

The law has invested boards with very large discretionary powers, under which they may grade the schools and establish such regulations as may seem to them best for the interest of the entire school. The burden of proof in this case was with the appellants to show that the rule is unreasonable, or that in obeying it their children would suffer some hardship. This we think they have failed to do, and the decision of the county superintendent is therefore

REVERSED.

Appeal from Dickinson County.

CONTRACT. It is the province of the courts of law to decide as to the validity of a contract.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Does not have the power to interpret the legal value of a contract.

This case turns upon the construction to be given to a contract. The validity of the contracts in the sense claimed by the appellants is questioned and denied by the board. The teachers assert that said contracts are of full force for the nine school months named in the contracts, and the board contends that no authority was granted by it to any one to contract for more than six months, and that therefore the contracts can have no force beyond the term of six months. It is the province of the courts of law to decide as to the validity of a contract. In the trial of an appeal as soon as it becomes clearly apparent that the principal issue is of a kind intended by our statutes to be heard and determined only by the courts of law, the appeal should be dismissed. As the real matter to be decided in this case is what the contracts actually are and what force must be given to their essential conditions, it follows that the county superintendent did not err in dismissing the appeal for want of jurisdiction.

This case is not parallel with Kirkpatrick v. The Independent District, etc., 53 Iowa, 585, in which it is held that the remedy of a teacher wrongfully discharged is appeal, and not an action at once in the courts to recover compensation. In the present case the board did not make an order discharging these two teachers, but it is clearly apparent that the county superintendent could not review that order of the board without proceeding upon the assumption that the contracts had force and validity, and he did not have the power to interpret the legal value of the contract. We are compelled to find that the only remedy of the appellants is an action in a court of law. The decision of the county superintendent is affirmed and the case

DISMISSED.

SAMUEL FALLON V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF FORT DODGE.

Appeal from Webster County.

ATTENDANCE. An actual resident may not be denied equal school advantages with other residents.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. May adopt its own course to decide the question of actual residence.

TUITION. Failing to substantiate a claim to residence, a non-resident may attend school only upon such terms as the board deems just and equitable.

In this case the two sons of the appellant, aged nineteen and sixteen years, were refused admission to the schools unless they would pay tuition. They claimed to be residents of the district and that they were entitled to the same privileges as other residents. Being denied admission they appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the order of the board.

The entire case turns upon the fact of the residence of the children. If a board concludes that a child is an actual resident, it can not deny him equal school advantages with other residents. But if it can not be satisfied that an applicant is an actual resident, then it is its duty to make the same requirements that are demanded of other scholars who may be sojourning temporarily in the district.

It will be of interest to inquire as to who may decide definitely the question of residence, and as to the manner in which the matter should be considered. In view of the fact that the matter has given a great deal of trouble in a number of districts, this department has had occasion frequently to submit questions involving some phases of the subject to the attorney-general for his official opinion. In one of these opinions he uses the following language, which we think is quite applicable in this present case;

"It may be said that it is nowhere provided in the law what course the board of directors shall pursue in determining whether a pupil is a resident of the district, nor is the board directed as to the kind of evidence that shall be produced, nor as to the manner of producing it in determining such question. In the absence of such a provision directing the board as to its course of proceeding in such cases I think that body may adopt any course it sees fit, and take any kind of evidence it chooses in deciding this question of residence. I think it may make such decision from its own knowledge of facts; from the observations of the members; from the statements, sworn or unsworn, of parties who have knowledge of the facts, or from any other fair and impartial method of obtaining information bearing upon the point at issue. I do not think the board has power to compel the attendance of witnesses, or to administer oaths to them; but in gathering its information and in deciding the question it must act in entire good faith and with a view to getting the exact truth and making its decision according to the very right of the matter."

It is in evidence that the board in this case acted with deliberation, and it is not claimed that it failed to receive any testimony or statements that would tend to make a final determination of the matter by it any more clear or conclusive. In reviewing its decision on appeal the county superintendent was unable to find that it had abused its discretion, had acted without the fullest information within its reach, or had arrived at any other than an equitable conclusion.

This department has continuously held, in interpreting section 1794, that the board is to be satisfied that the residence of the scholar is actual. The burden of proof rests upon the child who has recently come into the district, to establish the fact of residence, before he can be admitted to school privileges free of tuition. Failing to convince the board and to substantiate his claim of residence he can attend only upon such terms as the board may deem just and equitable.

In this case we do not find that the county superintendent erred in affirming the order of the board requiring the children of Mr. Fallon to pay tuition as an essential condition to attendance. His decision is therefore

G. O. ROGNESS v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF GLENWOOD.

Appeal from Winneshiek County.

APPEAL. Will lie from an action of the board which is made a matter of record.

APPEAL. May be taken from the action of the board in laying the subject-matter of a petition on the table.

It appears that at a meeting of the board, held September 17, 1894, George O. Rogness presented a petition asking that the board redistrict said township, and also that an extra school be kept for four months in a certain school building, situated on the farm of E. Bolson. By vote of the board said petition was laid on the table. An appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who dismissed the same on the ground that no action was taken by the board which could furnish the basis of an appeal. The case comes now on appeal before the superintendent of public instruction.

The only point to be decided is whether an appeal may be taken from a vote to lay on the table. The words of the law in section 1829 are that any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the board may appeal. The transcript sent up by the secretary in this case reads: "Moved and carried that the bill (petition) of G. Rogness be laid on the table." It must be held that this constitutes an action on the part of the board. The motion to lay on the table was made, was voted upon, was declared carried, and is so recorded upon the secretary's book. The above conclusion is in accord with the unvarying opinion of this department for a long number of years.

It is to be noted that in the case cited by counsel for the side of the district, in 71 Iowa, page 634, the supreme court does not attempt to decide what constitutes an action. It refers to cases in which the board purposely intend, by neglect or refusal, to avoid taking an action or making an order or decision. In the case we are now deciding the board made an order, which the secretary recorded in the minutes, "that the petition be laid upon the table." The decision of Superintendent Abernethy (see S. L. Dec. 1892, page 62), that the motion to lay on the table "furnishes a convenient method of disposing of the matter," appears to be to the point. The right of the board to make such a disposition of a case can not be questioned, but it must be regarded as an action subject, like any other action, to appeal.

After studying up carefully the precedents as established by the rulings of this department, and reading with equal care the cases cited by counsel, we can arrive at no other conclusion. The case is reversed, with the suggestion to the superintendent that he remand the case, in order that the board may take such further action as may seem fair and just to all concerned.

MARY GREY V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF BOYLE.

Appeal from Iowa County.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. In locating a site the board acts wisely in taking into consideration the prevailing sentiment of the people.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Should reverse the action of the board only upon the clearest and most explicit proof of abuse of discretion.

The history of this case is not different from that of many others. The schoolhouse of the district is unfit for use, and the electors voted bonds to build a new one. By a vote very nearly unanimous they directed the board to locate the new house on a site 160 rods east of the present site. While we do not hold that this vote was binding upon the board, it showed at least the prevailing sentiment of the district, and the board acted wisely in taking it into consideration in selecting a new location. See also case on page 75, S. L. Dec. 1892.

As it was not able to purchase a site desired by the electors, the board chose one 30 rods farther west. From this action Mrs. Mary Grey appealed. The county superintendent reversed the order of the board, and appeal is taken to the superintendent of public instruction. The transcript as sent up with the case reveals no new point of law to be considered. The proceedings of the board were regular and in accordance with the law. The evidence nowhere shows any passion, prejudice, or malice on the part of the board. The responsibility of selecting the site rests with the board, that body having original jurisdiction. See also case on page 138, S. L. Dec. 1892. The county superintendent having only appellate jurisdiction, should reverse its action only upon the clearest and most explicit proof of abuse of discretion. Reference is here made to the case of Edwards v. Dist. Twp. of West Point, page 22, S. L. Dec. 1892, as presenting a very conclusive discussion of the principles involved.

While we always regret to be compelled to disturb the decision of a county superintendent, and concede that in this particular case the county superintendent was actuated only by the best motives, we can not find any such satisfactory proof that the board erred as would warrant the county superintendent in reversing its action. The decision of the county superintendent is

REVERSED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

MARY GREGORY v. W. A. McCORD, Co. SUPT.

Appeal from Polk County.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Unless a marked abuse of discretionary power is clearly and conclusively proved, his action in refusing or revoking a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal.

Section 1767 provides that if the county superintendent is satisfied that an applicant possesses the requisite knowledge of the branches specified in section 1766, and a good moral character, together with the essential qualifications for governing and instructing children and youth, then said county superintendent shall grant a certificate to teach in the schools of his county, for a time not to exceed one year. If he is not satisfied that the candidate is adequately qualified in every one of these particulars, then the certificate may be denied.

Section 1771 provides that the county superintendent may revoke a certificate for any reason which would have justified the withholding thereof when the same was given, provided that there shall be an investigation, of which the teacher shall have personal knowledge and be permitted to be present and make defense.

It must be left entirely to the judgment of the county superintendent to determine what are the essential qualifications for governing and instructing children and youth. No court will attempt to control his discretion in this matter. He may conclude that the teacher fails through laziness, moroseness of temper, want of self-control, or by reason of some marked physical defect concealed at the time of examination, or any one of many other points, without in the least impeaching the moral character of the teacher, or his technical knowledge of the branches to be taught.

We are compelled to hold that the county superintendent had full and complete jurisdiction of the case at bar.

The law provides that the teacher shall have the fullest opportunity to make his defense. The county superintendent was occupied nine days in trying this case. There can be no doubt that this provision of the law was complied with in every particular.

The only other point to be determined concerns the abuse of discretion on the part of the county superintendent. A careful review of all the papers sent up in the transcript fails to show any passion, prejudice or malice on his part. We find that the proceedings were regular and in accordance with the law.

The counsel for Mary Gregory submits a large number of errors on the part of the county superintendent, but we can not find that any one of them is vital to the case. The rulings made by the county superintendent have no material effect on the final decision of the case, and the exceptions of the plaintiff are passed over. Special reference is made to the case of Dougherty v. Tracy, page 17, S. L. Dec. 1892, in which this whole subject is thoroughly and fully discussed by one of the ablest men who ever occupied this office.

The same discretion which the county superintendent has in issuing a certificate he possesses in revoking it. The supreme court has held that it can not control such discretion, or substitute its own judgment for that of the officer. See 52 Iowa, 111. It is not for us to say that Mary Gregory is or is not a fit person to teach in the schools of Polk county. The law vests that right in the discretionary power of the county superintendent, and he must assume the responsibility. Unless a marked abuse of his discretionary power is clearly and conclusively proved, his action in refusing or revoking a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal. See Walker v. Crawford, page 115, S. L. Dec. 1892.

After a careful consideration of all the points involved, we find no reason to warrant reversing the action of the superintendent.

AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

September 26, 1895.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

E. E. AMSDEN v. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF MACEDONIA.

Appeal from Pottawattamie County.

AFFIDAVIT. The affidavit may be amended when such action is not prejudicial to the rights of any one interested.

AFFIDAVIT. Must be accepted, if sufficient to give the appellant a standing.

APPEAL. Mere technical objections should not prevent the fullest presentation of the merits of the case in the trial of an appeal.

TESTIMONY. Sufficient latitude should be allowed in the introduction of testimony to permit a full presentation of the issues involved, even if irrelevant testimony is occasionally admitted.

There are certain facts in this case concerning which there is no disagreement. The board of directors contracted on the twenty-sixth day of March, 1895, with E. E. Amsden to teach upon terms clearly set forth in the contract as signed by both parties. Concerning the validity of this contract there is no doubt expressed.

Upon the fifth day of July the said Amsden had a hearing before the board upon definite and well specified charges. He was duly notified of these charges, was present both himself and by counsel at the time of trial, and was allowed to make his defense. The board took time for deliberation, and finally on the eighth day of July made an order annulling the contract, and in effect discharging the teacher. From this decision Mr. Amsden appealed to the county superintendent, who on the third day of September rendered a decision dismissing the case on account of the legal insufficiency of the affidavit.

There are only two questions involved. Was the original affidavit sufficient to enable the county superintendent to assume jurisdiction of the case? And could the affidavit be amended at the time of trial?

It must be held that the lapse of thirty days from the making of the order sought to be appealed from does not affect in any way the right of the appellant to amend his original affidavit. If he offered his amendment at the time of trial he complied with the usual practice. Whether the amendment should be admitted depends upon its nature. If it set up a new and distinct issue, one not involved in any way in the original affidavit, then the county superintendent should refuse to allow the amendment to be made. See case on page 141 in S. L. Dec. 1884. An amendment is, however, admissible when it tends to correct mistakes or to make clearer or more explicit the charges contained in the original affidavit. See case on page 25, S. L. Dec. 1892. In the case at bar the amended affidavit introduces no new issue and does not in any way prejudice the rights of any person. We think the county superintendent committed error in refusing to admit the amendment.

Now as to the original affidavit. We do not understand what is meant by the term legal insufficiency. It is to be remembered that no very definite rules have been or can be adopted for the trial of cases before the county superintendent. This department has always held that the system of appeals was intended as a speedy and inexpensive method of adjusting school difficulties. See case on page 25, S. L. Dec. 1892. The supreme court has held that it "is abundantly manifest that the legislature designed to afford an inexpensive and summary way of disposing of these cases." See 68 Iowa, 161. Mere technicalities can not be allowed to intervene to defeat the ends for which the system of appeals was instituted.

The appellant sets forth in his affidavit that the board acted through passion and prejudice, and that he did not have the fair and impartial trial guaranteed to him by section 1734. On these as well as on other grievances set forth in the affidavit the appellant has the right to be heard before the county superintendent, to introduce testimony, and to be heard, by himself or his counsel.

The law makes it obligatory upon the county superintendent to hear such a case, to weigh carefully and without prejudice the evidence and the arguments, and to render his decision in accordance with his judgment. This is the more important in such cases, because the teacher has no other remedy in law of which he can avail himself. Through some informality which does not in any way affect the issues in the case he should not be deprived of his right of appeal.

We say nothing of the merits of this case. We know nothing of them. We believe the affidavit of appeal was sufficient to give the appellant a standing before the county superintendent, and that is the only point upon which we are called to pass.

The case is remanded to the county superintendent, with directions to fix a time of hearing the same within fifteen days from the date of this decision, and to notify all concerned, that they may be present.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

D. C. McKEE v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF GROVE.

Appeal from Humboldt County.

SUBDISTRICT BOUNDARIES. When an action has been reversed by the county superintendent, and that decision affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction, the board can not act again until a material change has taken place.

SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. When purchased need not necessarily be upon a highway.

DISCRETIONARY ACTS. An appellate tribunal is not to decide mainly whether the action complained of was wise, or the best that might have been taken, but simply whether a reversal is required by the evidence.

In this case the board on September 16, 1895, made two orders. By the first of these it divided subdistrict number seven in said township into two subdistricts, to be known as number seven and number nine, and established the boundary line between them. By the second action it ordered the removal of the schoolhouse, now located on section 34, township 92 north, range 28 west, removed and located on section 33, township 92 north, range 28 west, on the Sherman and Dakota road, and authorized the president to draw an order for the payment of the same on report of the committee.

From these two actions D. C. McKee appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed both actions of the board and relocated the schoolhouse on the old site. From the order removing the schoolhouse D. C. McKee takes an appeal to the superintendent of public instruction. The former action of the board dividing the subdistrict and reversed by the county superintendent is not in the case. This simplifies the matter and leaves as the only point to be considered the discretionary act of the board in ordering the removal of the building to the new site.

The district as at present constituted is four and one-half miles from east to west in extreme length. The two schoolhouses stand within a mile of each other.

There are several points brought in by the county superintendent and in the arguments of the attorneys which need but a brief notice. It appears that at a previous meeting of the board it took action removing the schoolhouse to a site near the present new site, which action was reversed by the county superintendent, and that there has been no material change in the district since that. This does not act as a bar in any sense to the present proceedings. For a full discussion of this point see P. O'Connor, Jr., v. District Township of Badger, page 108, S. L. Dec. 1892.

The only case in which the board can not act again without a material change is when a former action has been reversed by the county superintendent, and on appeal to the superintendent of public instruction has been affirmed. In the case at bar the county superintendent reversed the action of the board, but appeal was not taken to the superintendent of public instruction.

Much stress has also been laid upon the question whether the road upon which the new site is located is a highway in the sense intended by the law. Section 1826 has reference to a case in which the board condemns a piece of land for schoolhouse purposes. But when said site is purchased by the board the provisions of sections 1825-1826 do not apply. See, also, for a full discussion of this point, case of H. D. Fisher v. District Township of Tipton, page 86, S. L. Dec. 1892.

If the site selected and purchased should be inaccessible it might be a case warranting the reversing of the board, but in the case at bar the site purchased by the board is on a highway, which both parties acknowledge has been traveled more or less for at least nine years.

This leaves the only point for consideration whether the board abused its discretion in ordering the removal of the schoolhouse. The location of the schoolhouse is a matter entirely within the discretionary power of the board. Its action ought not to be reversed by the county superintendent without the clearest proof that it has acted through passion or prejudice, or from some improper motive. There is nothing in this case whatever to show that the board was not endeavoring to do what it believed to be for the best interests of all the people of the subdistrict. The vote in the board stood four in favor of removal and one opposed.

We can not discover that there are any reasonable grounds for reversing its action. We are not called upon to decide whether it acted wisely or unwisely, but simply and solely whether there is sufficient evidence to warrant the county superintendent in reversing its action on the grounds of abuse of discretion. We regret very much that we are obliged to reverse the action of the county superintendent, and do not doubt that he acted according to his best judgment. We are, however, compelled to decide that the board did not in any way so abuse its discretion as to warrant an interference.

REVERSED.

HUGH McMILLAN V. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF WAVELAND.

Appeal from Pottawattamie County.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. It is the first duty of a board to co-operate with and assist the teacher in the conduct of the school.

TEACHER. A teacher may justly claim and expect to receive the assistance and advice of the board, and especially the help of his own subdirector, in the proper conduct of his school.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. In exercising its power in a semi-judicial capacity the board should be able to show the very best reasons for its conclusions.

TEACHER. It is alike due to the dignity of the board and the rights of the teacher that no one should be discharged except after thorough investigation and the clearest proof. If possible, the teacher should be shielded from the stigma of discharge.

After a trial, conducted in accordance with law, the board, by a vote of three to two in a board of nine members, discharged the teacher for incompetency, in accordance with the provisions of section 1734. Hugh McMillan appealed to the county superintendent, who reversed the order of the board. John W. Rush, president of the board, appeals here.

The proceedings of the board in this case were entirely regular, and it is not claimed that the law was violated by it in any particular, as to its manner of proceeding. The question to be determined by us is, was the county superintendent warranted in finding that the board abused its discretion to that extent to require a reversal of its action in discharging the teacher.

The testimony discloses a very undesirable condition in the school in question, as to the matter of discipline and behavior of the scholars. The testimony discloses the fact that many of the older scholars, instead of being an assistance to the teacher, and a credit to themselves and their parents, were insubordinate, disobedient and disrespectful to the teacher. The testimony also discloses that the subdirector, instead of assisting the teacher in maintaining discipline and good order in the school, withheld that support so much needed by any teacher under such circumstances. It is not shown nor is it claimed that any of the board had visited the school for the purpose of aiding the teacher in enforcing rules for its government, as it is required to do by the first part of section 1734. Nor did the subdirector visit his school, as he is required to do by the latter part of section 1756.

The testimony in the case is to the effect that after the incorrigible scholars were dismissed the teacher was much more successful in his work. We can not find from the testimony that the teacher failed in any important particular to attempt to do his full duty by his school, and to regard equally the rights of every scholar. Under all circumstances, we think it is the first duty of any board to co-operate with and assist the teacher in the conduct of his school. This is the duty of the local subdirector in a peculiar sense, as he is in close relation to his own school and his teacher. A teacher may justly claim and expect to receive, the assistance and advice of the board, and especially the help of his own subdirector, in the proper conduct of his school. See case on page 135, S. L. Dec. 1892. It is often the case that a little timely assistance, offered at the right time and in the proper spirit, will aid a teacher very materially in maintaining good order and discipline in his school, and in preventing many difficulties from arising which might, under a different course, almost certainly tend to injure the efficiency of the school.

In this case, two of the five members present at the trial voted to discharge the teacher, two voted in the negative, leaving the casting vote with the subdirector of the school, who, as we have seen, was out of sympathy with the teacher, and had failed to afford his assistance to a successful management of the school. While it is true that in general the discretionary acts of a board are entitled to great weight, yet it is also true that in exercising its power in a semi-judicial capacity, the board should be able to show the very best reasons for its conclusions. Except upon the clearest proof, and the most convincing reasons apparent to the board that the good of the school demands the discharge of the teacher, a teacher should be shielded from the stigma of discharge, and the authority of the board and the respect due the board and its teachers, should be maintained, by a decision on the part of the board to assist and support the teacher in bringing his school to a conclusion as nearly as possible satisfactory to the board and creditable to himself. The decision of the county superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

May 20, 1896.

S. B. HEATH v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF IOWA.

Appeal from Wright County.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. On appeal may do no more than the board might have done.

INDEPENDENT DISTRICT. The boundaries outside the town plat depending upon the petition of the electors, such boundaries may not be fixed until petitioned for.

This is a case arising under the amendment to section 1800 made by the Twenty-fifth General Assembly. It is the effect of this amendment that when a town or village has less than two hundred inhabitants and not less than one hundred inhabitants, the territory contiguous to such town plat may not be included in the proposed independent town district except on a written petition of a majority of the electors residing upon such territory outside the town plat.

In this case the board refused to fix the boundaries of a contemplated independent town district. From its order appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the order of the board and fixed the boundaries of a contemplated independent district, but different from the boundaries asked for in the petition presented to the board from the electors residing outside the town.

Without considering any of the other merits of the case it becomes necessary to inquire whether the county superintendent might in reversing the order of the board, fix different boundaries than those petitioned for by the majority of the electors residing upon the outside territory. We find that the territory included in the contemplated district by order of the county superintendent excludes at least four and one-half sections that were before included. Did the county superintendent have power to fix different boundaries for the outside territory from those petitioned for when application was made to the board, without first himself having a written petition from a majority of the resident electors upon the territory outside the town which said county superintendent included within the contemplated independent district? We think he did not. If our view is correct it is decisive of the case and we will be compelled to reverse the county superintendent's decision.

Not many cases have arisen under the amendment to section 1800, found in chapter 38, Laws of 1894. But it seems to us that there can be no doubt as to the intention of the general assembly to require that before territory outside a town or village of over one hundred and of less than two hundred inhabitants may be included within a contemplated independent town district, a majority of the electors must consent that such boundaries may be fixed. Any other conclusion would seem to defeat the purpose of the amendment. It is not reasonable to urge that the county superintendent would have greater power on appeal than the board would have.

It will be noticed that this decision has no reference whatever to the merits of the case as to the boundaries which should be fixed for a town independent district. That matter is still within the discretion of the board under the limitation of the law.

REVERSED.

HENRY SABIN,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

LETHA JACKSON V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF STEAMBOAT ROCK.

Appeal from Hardin County.

TEACHER. Full opportunity must be afforded the teacher to make defense against charges.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. Is required by the law to visit the school and to aid and sustain the teacher in maintaining order and discipline.

TEACHER. Should not employ unsuitable and unusual methods of punishment.

On the twenty-eighth day of November, 1896, the board voted to discharge from its employ Miss Letha Jackson, the teacher in the intermediate room of its school. The reason, as spread upon the record, is that she inflicted inhuman and cruel punishment upon her pupils, especially upon Minnie Platts. An appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the order of the board. Appeal was then taken to the superintendent of public instruction.

There is no doubt from the testimony sent up with the transcript that Minnie Platts was insolent and disobedient, and also that the teacher failed to control herself, and that they engaged in an unseemly squabble in the presence of the school. It is also evident that the teacher was accustomed to use methods of punishment which are, at the best, not customary in well disciplined schools. Much of the testimony is conflicting, and that part of it relating to matters which occurred under a previous contract can not be allowed to have any weight in determining this case.

The contract, as placed in evidence, specifies that the teacher shall not make use of any cruel or unusual punishment in the discipline of the school. Whether she violated the contract in this respect is a matter to be determined by the board, and in doing so it may avail itself of any sources of reliable information within its power. The notice sent to the teacher, November 23, 1896, charges as follows: "for inhuman and unjustifiable punishment of pupils by pinching, pulling their ears, pulling their hair, and pounding their heads and faces with your fists, and pounding their heads on the wall, floor, and seats of the schoolroom with your fists." November 28th she was notified by the secretary that she was dismissed from the school. At a meeting of the board held November 27th, the president appointed the entire board an investigating committee. It appears that it carried on its investigation by questioning the pupils in Miss Jackson's room, and that its vote to dismiss her was based entirely upon information obtained in this way, as appears in the records of November 27th. This method placed the teacher at an immense disadvantage. It would at least have been just to have examined these pupils in her presence, and that she should have been allowed to correct their misstatements, if any, and to give the investigating committee her own account of the matter. We can not consider this an impartial method of conducting an investigation against a teacher. Justice would seem to demand that she should have been furnished a copy of the findings of this committee, and should have been given a reasonable time in which to prepare her defense. The board places on file the unanimous report of this investigating committee recommending that the teacher be discharged. It, in effect, finds her guilty and asks her to show cause why sentence should not be pronounced.

Now, as to Miss Jackson's failure to appear before the board. Her physician sent a certificate to be read at the first meeting, stating that she was not able to attend on account of sickness. At the same meeting her attorney, Mr. Albrook, in a letter, asks that the board appoint Monday afternoon as a time for hearing the case. It appears to have been a reasonable request and should have been granted in justice to all parties. That Miss Jackson sent her statement denying the charges and averring that she, by her conduct, had given the board no occasion to investigate, furnishes an additional reason and a very strong one why she should have been given the opportunity to be heard by counsel of her own choosing. We do not think that the board intended by an early adjournment to shut her counsel out Saturday night, but it ought to have shown an anxiety to have him present if possible, in order that it might ascertain the very right and justice of all parties in the case. Miss Jackson could very justly plead that her presence would avail nothing after the board had before it a report signed by every member of that tribunal, saying that she ought to be dismissed from her school. The board seems also to have forgotten that the law makes it its duty to visit the school and to aid and sustain the teacher in her efforts to maintain order and discipline. It has duties on the side of the teacher as well as on that of the pupils or the community at large.

We do not wish to be understood as upholding a teacher in the methods of punishment which appear in this case. To pull the hair or the ears of pupils, or to strike them with the fists, are relics of another age of school government, and can not be justified today. We only reach the conclusion that the teacher did not have that fair and impartial trial before the board that is contemplated in the law. Therefore the decision of the county superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

R. ODENDAHL et al. v. DISTRICT TOWNSHIP OF GRANT.

Appeal from Carroll County.

APPEAL. Will not lie from joint action of boards making settlement of assets and liabilities.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Should dismiss an appeal as soon as it becomes certain that the leading issue may be heard and decided only by a court of law.

JURISDICTION. It is very undesirable to bring matters involving a money consideration before the county superintendent on appeal.

Certain territory in the civil township of Grant and part of the independent district of Carroll was restored to the district township of Grant. A settlement of assets and liabilities between the two districts necessarily followed. Robert Odendahl and others were aggrieved with the conclusions reached by the two boards, and took an appeal to the county superintendent, who reviewed the questions presented to him, finding in effect as to the time when the territory did actually become a part of the district township of Grant, as to the disposition of taxes during a period when the control of such territory was in controversy, and also whether the agreement entered into by the board should be changed by him.

The first question we are required to consider is whether the county superintendent had jurisdiction to hear the case. If we find that he did not have jurisdiction, it will of course be impossible for us to review the questions he determined, and we shall be compelled to dismiss the case for want of jurisdiction.

It has been the uniform opinion of this department that appeal will not lie from the joint action of boards in making the settlement of assets and liabilities required by section 1715, but that the only remedy, if the law affords relief, would be an action in court to protect the rights of the persons complaining. In order that the matter might be more authoritatively determined, so that this case may be a guide to school officers, we submitted an inquiry to the attorney-general, and quote briefly from his reply:

"Your favor came duly to hand, requesting my opinion upon the following question:

"When the two boards have made a division of assets and liabilities, under section 1715 of the code, will a person claiming the settlement to be inequitable and insufficient as to the amount agreed upon have the right to appeal to the county superintendent from such agreement, that is, from such joint action of the boards taken as provided in section 1715, will an appeal lie?

"The section in question provides that the respective boards shall make an equitable division of the then existing assets and liabilities between the old and the new districts; it also provides that in case of the failure to agree the matter may be decided by arbitrators chosen by the parties in interest. It has been held by our supreme court that under this section the boards of directors become a special tribunal for the determination of the respective rights of the parties. And it is held that this tribunal thus constituted has exclusive jurisdiction. The action of the special tribunal, consisting of the several boards of directors, is not the action or order of a board of directors, but an order of a special court for the determination of the rights of the several new districts with reference to the assets and liabilities of the old district of which they formed a part. The statute does not give an appeal from such tribunal. My conclusion is that a right of appeal does not exist and a person claiming the settlement to be inequitable has no right of appeal to the county superintendent."

The opinion of the attorney-general is decisive of the case. We think there are many added reasons why questions of this kind should not be heard on appeal before the county superintendent. That officer should not be compelled to review matters involving the jurisdiction over territory, the disposition of taxes, or the right and justice of finding of boards upon a settlement of assets and liabilities. But these a court may very properly do, as its jurisdiction for such purposes is not questioned, and the precedents for the control of the courts over this class of cases are well established. It is very undesirable to attempt to bring matters involving a money consideration before the county superintendent on appeal. As soon as it becomes clearly apparent that the principal issue is of a kind intended by our statutes to be heard and determined only by the courts of law, the appeal should be dismissed. In this case it was the duty of the boards interested to make a proper settlement. If fraud or other irregularity was urged, perhaps a court would afford relief to a complainant, but an appeal to the county superintendent would not become a remedy.

We are compelled to remand this case to the county superintendent with instructions to dismiss the case for lack of jurisdiction. DISMISSED.

C. M. BAXTER V. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF BEAR GROVE.

Appeal from Cass County.

PUBLIC ROAD TO SCHOOLHOUSE. The board is bound to carry out the vote of the electors in the matter of opening roads to schoolhouses.

ABUSE OF DISCRETION. The board may not substitute its own discretion for the clearly expressed instruction of the electors.

At their regular meeting, on the second Monday in March, 1897, the electors voted a schoolhouse tax of $200 and instructed the board to open an east and west road to intersect a north and south road which give Mr. Baxter access by the public road to his schoolhouse. Instead of carrying into effect the vote of the electors, the board took steps to secure a different road, and from their action in so doing appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who reversed the order of the board, finding that the board should have attempted in good faith to carry out the expressed wish of the electors. The board appeals here.

It is shown in the testimony, and it is not denied, that the board thought best to attempt to secure the cheapest road possible, in order to provide a way by which Mr. Baxter could reach the schoolhouse. The real question in this case, and the one which the county superintendent was compelled to determine, was whether the board committed error in its discretion. From a careful examination of the entire case we must conclude that the county superintendent made no mistake in determining that it is the duty of the board to make a strenuous effort to fulfill the intention of the electors. We think it was the duty of the board to carry into execution the vote of the electors, if possible to do so, and if not possible, the attempt should have been made, and the matter then referred back to the electors for further instructions. See first part of section 2778 and first division of syllabus in appeal case on page 17 S. L. Decisions 1897. We think it was not within the power of the board to substitute its own discretion for the clearly expressed instruction by the electors.

It is clear that the electors intended to provide relief for Mr. Baxter. This could be done only by providing him with a public highway upon which his children could reach school. This matter is of such importance to Mr. Baxter, and the vote of the electors providing the means by which the road was to be secured was so definite, that we feel compelled to suggest to the electors that at their annual meeting on next Monday, the fourteenth day of this month, they indicate still more clearly their desires in the matter, and that they instruct the board what further steps shall be taken by the board. As indicated, we can see no reason to interfere with the finding of the county superintendent and his decision is therefore

AFFIRMED.

JOHN MARTIN v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF BAKER.

Appeal from Guthrie County.

NOTICE OF APPEAL. The superintendent of public instruction may not entertain an appeal unless thirty days' notice of such appeal has been served upon the adverse party.

COSTS. Before an appeal from the order of the county superintendent taxing costs can be entertained by the superintendent of public instruction, a motion to retax such costs should be filed with the county superintendent.

The question involved in this case is the taxing of costs. In 1897 John Martin petitioned the board of directors of the school township of Baker for a school for the accommodation of his ten children. The board refused to grant the request of the petitioner. Appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who affirmed the action of the board. In rendering his opinion, the county superintendent taxed the costs, amounting to $30.75, to appellant Martin. From the action of the county superintendent Martin appeals to this department.

Counsel for appellee moves the dismissal of the appeal for the following reasons: First, that notice of appeal was not given as is required by section 2820 of the code of Iowa. Second, that all of the record in the case was not certified to this department by the county superintendent, and for that reason the department should refuse to consider or entertain the appeal. Third, that the record nowhere discloses that the county superintendent, before whom the appeal was tried, ever had opportunity or occasion to pass upon the question of taxation of costs, that no motion or request was made for him to retax. Fourth, that said appeal from decision of county superintendent was taken too late.

The question to be determined is whether this department has jurisdiction to hear the case. Section 2820 provides that "thirty days' notice of the appeal shall be given by the appellant to the county superintendent and also to the adverse party."

There is nothing in the transcript to show that this notice was served either on the county superintendent or the adverse party. For many years it has been the holding of the supreme court of the state of Iowa that appeal can only be taken by serving a written notice upon the adverse party or his attorney, and the clerk. In the 74th Iowa the court rules that service of notice of appeal is essential to give a court jurisdiction of the case and that fact must be shown by the record. A recent general assembly makes similar provisions applicable in cases of appeal to this department.

While it is true that only a partial record is presented, we are of the opinion that the transcript is sufficiently complete to enable us to pass upon the question raised. By this we would not be understood as favoring the certification of only a part of the transcript, in case of appeal. In regard to the taxing of costs, the code of 1897 provides that in all matters triable before him the county superintendent "shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses which may be served by any peace officer, compel the attendance of those thus served, and the giving of evidence by them, in the same manner and to the same extent as the district court may do, and such witnesses and officers may be allowed the same compensation as is paid for like attendance or service in such court, which shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the proper school corporation, upon a certificate of the superintendent to and warrants of the secretary upon the treasurer; but if the superintendent is of the opinion that the proceedings were instituted without reasonable cause therefor, or if, in case of an appeal, it shall not be sustained, he shall enter such findings in the record, and shall tax all costs to the party responsible therefor. A transcript thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court and a judgment entered thereon be made, which shall be collected as other judgments."

The question of costs is one entirely new to this department. Prior to October 1, 1897, any one aggrieved by the order or decision of a board of directors could, without cost, appeal to the county superintendent and again to the superintendent of public instruction.

The provisions of the law are plain. If the county superintendent is of the opinion that the proceedings were instituted without reasonable cause, or the case be not sustained on appeal, he shall tax all costs to the party responsible therefor. A careful study of the case reveals no error on the part of the county superintendent. The costs appear to have been taxed and filed as required by the statute. Any person aggrieved might, upon application, have had the same retaxed and all errors corrected.

Counsel for appellant argues that the question at bar was presented informally to the county superintendent, who overruled his objections, after having considered the same. An additional transcript of the proceedings filed by the county superintendent, substantiates the claim of counsel but nullifies the force of it by stating "that no formal or written objection to the taxing of said costs were filed by said appellant, nor any motion to retax said costs." In the 101 Iowa, case of John Roane, appellant, vs. J. A. Hamilton et al., involving the question of costs, the supreme court held that since no motion was made in the district court to retax costs, no consideration would be given the matter by the supreme court. It can not, we think, be contended reasonably that rules of court practice, so far as applicable, should not be followed in matters triable before this department. A failure on appellant's part to avail himself of his legal rights may not wisely be overlooked here.

In regard to the time in which appeal may be taken, the law provides that thirty days' notice shall be given. The transcript shows that the case was heard by the county superintendent, January 7, 1898. The affidavit of appeal was received by special delivery Sunday, February 6, and filed Monday, February 7, 1898. We think appeal was taken in time, since in computing time, the first day shall be excluded and the last day included, unless the last day falls on Sunday, in which case the time prescribed shall be extended so as to include the whole of the following Monday. Code, section 48, sub-section 23.

While the counsel for appellee does not refer to the fact, we find in addition to the foregoing that the affidavit of appeal presented is defective in this, that the notary, before whom appellant was sworn, failed to attach notarial seal. This, however, has not been considered irremediable in the consideration of the appeal.

After having carefully considered the whole matter, we are of the opinion that the case is not legally before us, since the transcript fails to show service of proper notice and a motion to retax costs.

The legality of this department entertaining any appeal in which a money consideration is the principal issue is seriously questioned. Certainly neither the county nor the state superintendent is authorized to render judgment for money. Acts of these officers are held by the courts to be ministerial, and not judicial. To burden this office with the adjustment of affairs involving such considerations as can best and only be determined finally by the courts is, from our point of view, to place unnecessary and unproductive labor upon the department.

DISMISSED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 26, 1898.

THOMAS HUDGENS V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT NO. TEN, CEDAR FALLS TOWNSHIP.

Appeal from Black Hawk County.

DISCHARGE OF TEACHER. A teacher can not be discharged by the board except after a full and fair investigation.

SPECIAL MEETING. A meeting of the board, called for no specific purpose and of which the teacher was not served with due and proper notice, could not legally discharge such teacher.

DEFENSE. The teacher is entitled to a reasonable time to prepare for and make his defense. The refusal of the board to grant a teacher a single day's time in which to make such defense is not only an abuse of discretion but a violation of law.

On the third day of January, 1898, Thomas Hudgens, a teacher in Independent District Number Ten, Cedar Falls Township, was dismissed by a majority vote of the board. From the action of the board he appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the order of the board. From his decision appeal is taken to this department.

Section 2782, laws of Iowa, concerning the dismissal of the teacher, is as follows: "It may by a majority vote discharge any teacher for incompetency, inattention to duty, partiality, or any good cause, after a full and fair investigation made at a meeting of the board, held for that purpose, at which the teacher shall be permitted to be present and make defense, allowing him a reasonable time therefor."

Did appellant have a fair trial? Was the meeting held for the purpose of discharging the teacher or giving a full and fair investigation? Did the teacher have a reasonable time to make defense?

In his decision the county superintendent says: "Then from the minutes of the school board as kept by the secretary, January 3rd, we must determine what occurred at this meeting." If the correctness of the record were unquestioned this would be true.

In the case of Appleton Park v. Independent District of Pleasant Grove, this department held that "the fact that the transcript referred to is not certified to by the secretary, and the further fact that he was not present at the board meeting in question, and wrote the minutes as dictated from memory by the president of the board, three days after the meeting, fully justified the superintendent in ruling it out and in admitting parol evidence." The testimony of the secretary of the board is to the effect that the original notes made by himself at the time of the discharge of the teacher were destroyed; that the notes from which the certified transcript was made were written days after the meeting. His further testimony, which is not denied, is that the record of the meeting as finally certified to the county superintendent was written by himself, aided by the president and another member of the board, after appeal was taken to the county superintendent. A record of such a character "made in view of appeal" can scarcely be said to be its own best evidence.

In his decision the county superintendent quotes a former opinion of this department to this effect: "The discharge of a teacher is largely within the discretionary power of the board. It is to guard the rights of the school, as well as the rights of the teacher. After a full and fair investigation it is its duty to act as it deems best under all circumstances of the case. This being the case, it is the duty of the county superintendent not to interfere with the action of the board unless he is convinced that it in some way abused its discretion. He is right in sustaining the board even though as an individual he would have preferred some other action on his part."

In the case at bar did the board make that full and fair investigation contemplated? We think not. The evidence submitted reveals many irregularities on the part of the board. The meeting was not called for a specific purpose. Appellant was not served with due and proper notice. The law provides that a reasonable time shall be given the teacher in which to make his defense. Appellant's request for a single day's time was refused. In fact, according to the president's own testimony, no investigation took place.

The school may not have been as ably conducted as the board desired, or in accordance with the particular views of the different members, but we can not approve of the action of the board in discharging the teacher without first making that full and fair investigation contemplated by the statute. A teacher is the employe of the board and as such is entitled to its co-operation and support. For certain causes the teacher may be discharged, but only after charges preferred have been carefully and impartially investigated. We have given the case unusual attention and are forced to the conclusion that the teacher was not accorded that investigation which the law intends. The decision of the county superintendent is

REVERSED.

R. A. KLETZING v. THE INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF MONTOUR.

Appeal from Tama County.

DISCHARGE OF TEACHER. The action of the board in discharging a teacher, after a full and fair investigation, will not be reversed unless it is clearly shown that the board violated the law, abused its discretion, or acted with manifest injustice.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. The county superintendent has only appellate jurisdiction, and should sustain the action of the board unless it be clearly shown that they violated law or abused their discretion.

On February 14th, J. D. Booher, resident of Montour, filed with the secretary of the school corporation a complaint charging the principal, R. A. Kletzing with incompetency, partiality, the infliction of inhuman and cruel punishment and general inability to govern the school over which he had supervision.

The record, which is unquestioned, shows that a notice of the hearing was served on the appellant and the time fixed for the nineteenth day of February, at which time all parties interested appeared. Appellant was represented by his attorney who filed a general statement denying charges preferred. Affidavit of appellant was also filed claiming that the board had negligently or willfully refrained from visiting the school or in any manner advised with or directed appellant in his conduct and management of the school. The hearing was concluded on February 26th and appellant was discharged by the unanimous vote of the board. Appeal was then taken to the county superintendent who reversed the board. The board appeals to this department.

As it appears to us, the question to be determined is of sound judgment and discretion and not of law. Should it appear that the county superintendent opposed his judgment to the judgment of the board, there is but one course for an ultimate tribunal to pursue.

It is the earnest desire of this department to sustain decisions of county superintendents. Their official acts and the correctness of their views will not be set aside unless for cause. A similar principle should be held by county superintendents when called upon to pass upon the decisions or orders of boards of directors.

For almost a third of a century it has been the holding of this department that discretionary action of a board should be affirmed on appeal, unless by the evidence it is clearly proven that the board violated law or abused its discretion. "If there is reasonable doubt the board is entitled to its benefits. The action of the board may not be wholly approved by the judgment of the county superintendent, but if it be not illegal or clearly unjust, it should be sustained." See Edwards et al. v. District Township of West Point, School Law Decisions of 1884.

The county superintendent is a court of appellate jurisdiction and is compelled to sustain the action of boards unless the evidence clearly indicates that they have violated law, acted with passion or prejudice, or with manifest injustice, or abused their discretion.

In the case before us we are inclined to the opinion that the superintendent passed upon the case as though he had original instead of appellate jurisdiction, and failed to give due consideration to the discretionary power granted school boards.

The power to discharge a teacher is conferred upon boards of directors by section 2782, which in part reads as follows: "It may by a majority vote discharge any teacher for incompetency, inattention to duty, partiality, or any good cause, after a full and fair investigation made at a meeting of the board held for that purpose, at which the teacher shall be permitted to be present and make defense, allowing him a reasonable time therefor."

Affiant, in appealing to the county superintendent, alleges that he was not accorded a full and fair investigation. In reversing the board the county superintendent so found and assigned as a reason that Mr. Stevens, president of the board, appeared as the prosecuting attorney.

We can not concur with the view expressed by the county superintendent that appellant was not given a fair trial. That the board gave the case careful thought is shown by the fact that the hearing occupied nearly all of a week. Appellant was given every opportunity to prepare for his defense, to call witnesses, and was ably represented by his attorney. So far as we have been able to learn from the transcript, which appears to be complete, it is not shown that malice or prejudice was exhibited on the part of any member of the board. The fact that Mr. Stevens, the president of the board, is an attorney, may not be considered prejudicial. Naturally, as president, he would be expected to lead in the investigation of complaints, since in cases of this kind the board may not employ counsel.

The claim that the board had negligently or willfully refrained from visiting the school or advising with the teacher, is worthy of most careful consideration. It is the duty of the board to aid teachers in the government and management of schools; to counsel with them and co-operate in the promotion of all the educational interests of the district. It does not appear that members made regular and frequent visits to the school, but that general interest was manifested and a desire shown on the board's part to strengthen the schools is evidenced by the fact that the course of study was revised, rules for the government of teachers and pupils adopted, and consultations held by members of the board with the principal.

In his decision, the county superintendent finds that appellant Kletzing was obstinate and worked in opposition to the board of directors; that his punishment of pupils was open to severe criticism; that he was disliked; that he did not give satisfaction; that a very undesirable condition existed; and that he did not exercise that judgment necessary to carry on the school harmoniously and without friction. The evidence clearly sustains the above enumerated findings. The opinion of the county superintendent is REVERSED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, September 10, 1898.

J. L. MUNN v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF SOAP CREEK.

INDEPENDENT DISTRICT BOUNDARIES. The provision of section 2794 of the Code, requiring the board of a school township, upon proper petition, to establish the boundaries of a proposed independent district, is mandatory.

BOUNDARIES. Must include all of the city, town or village, and also such contiguous territory as is petitioned for by a majority of the resident electors.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. On appeal the county superintendent can make such order touching the boundaries as the board should have made.

TIME. The time in which to take the initiatory steps to form an independent district is not fixed by the statute.

COMPLETION. The provision of section 2796, "that the organization of such independent district shall be effected on or before the first day of August of the year in which it is attempted," is directory and has special reference to the levying of taxes. It does not apply where by reason of an appeal to the county superintendent, or to the superintendent of public instruction the completion is not effected until after such date.

ELECTION. The boundaries having been fixed, it is the duty of the board to give notice of a meeting of the voters of the territory included in the proposed district.

MANDAMUS. Should the board fail or refuse to give the required notice of election, they may be compelled to do so by mandamus.

ELECTORS. The electors are the sole and final judges of the desirability of a separate organization.

This case relates to the formation of an independent district out of a school township.

Residents of the village of Belknap petitioned the board of directors to form an independent district. The board by a vote of two to six refused to establish the boundaries of the district. From the board's refusal appeal was taken to the county superintendent.

Before this officer motion to dismiss was made by appellee on the ground that Mandamus and not appeal was the proper remedy.

The statute provides that a writ of mandamus "shall not be used in any case where there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary courts of law, save as herein provided." Section 4344 Code. In the 73 Iowa, 134, case of Barnett et al. v. Board of Directors Independent District of Earlham, the supreme court held that where the party has the right of appeal to the county superintendent, mandamus will not lie against a board of directors.

It is provided in the school laws that "any person aggrieved by any decision or order of the board of directors of any school corporation in a matter of law or fact may, within thirty days after the rendition of such decision or the making of such order, appeal therefrom to the county superintendent of the proper county." Section 2818 Code. "Upon the hearing of the appeal the county superintendent is required to hear testimony on behalf of either party. The fullest opportunity is allowed for a thorough investigation of the matter of the appeal and the superintendent is required to make such decision as shall be just and equitable. And if the appellant is aggrieved at the decision of the county superintendent he may appeal in like manner to the state superintendent of public instruction." 35 Iowa, 444. We find no error on the superintendent's part in overruling the motion to dismiss.

The superintendent reversed the board and established the boundary lines of Belknap, and ordered that the district consist of the present town plat. J. L. Munn appealed to the superintendent of public instruction, who heard the case July 30th.

At the hearing before this department, appellee moved to dismiss the case for the reason that the organization of the contemplated independent district could not be completed on or before the first day of August, 1898.

The time in which to take the initiatory steps to form an independent district is not fixed. The law says: "Upon the written petition of any ten voters * * * such board shall establish the boundaries." A petition signed by the requisite number of voters might be presented at such a date as to preclude the possibility of completing the organization on or before the first day of August. To grant reasonable requests made by attorneys for continuance might also prevent the formation of districts. The wishes of parties interested could easily be thwarted by dilatory tactics on the part of attorneys. Under the laws of this state both county and state superintendents are called upon to perform many and varied duties. Not infrequently engagements are made weeks and sometimes months in advance. In some cases it is quite impossible for these officers to grant a hearing and render a decision within the time mentioned in the statute. While it may be desirable that the organization be perfected within the statutory time, we are inclined to the opinion that the date is only directory and has special reference to the levying of taxes. To sustain the motion to dismiss would establish a precedent far-reaching in its effects and one tending in many cases to hinder educational advancement.

The record upon which the county superintendent decided the appeal shows the following facts, which are undisputed: The village of Belknap is located at the crossing of the Rock Island and Wabash railways on the east one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section thirty-five (35) and the west one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section thirty-six (36) and includes forty acres more or less. On the twenty-first of March, sixteen residents of Belknap petitioned the township board to form an independent district. At the time action was taken by the board there was on file a petition signed by B. B. Shaffer and twenty-two other citizens asking that sections twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), thirty-five (35), thirty-six (36) and the east three-quarters ($\frac{3}{4}$) of section thirty-four (34) be included in the proposed new district; also a petition from A. J. Blankenship and five others asking that the remainder of section thirty-four (34) and section twenty-seven (27), less the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$), together with the southeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the southeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-two (22) be included in the Independent District of Belknap. B. B. Shaffer and P. H. Burns presented an amendment to the original Shaffer petition asking that it be amended by striking out the north one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section twenty-five (25). The record however fails to show that the amendment was filed with the board of directors.

With these petitions before it, what was the duty of the board?

We regard the construction of section 2794 so important that it was submitted to Hon. Milton Remley, attorney-general, for his opinion. He says in part: "The language of the section relating to the duties of the board is as follows: 'Such board shall establish the boundaries of a proposed independent district, including therein all of the city, town or village, and also such contiguous territory as is authorized by a written petition of a majority of the resident electors of the contiguous territory proposed to be included in said district in not smaller subdivisions than entire forties of land in the same or in an adjoining school township, as may best subserve the convenience of the people for school purposes, and shall give the same notices of a meeting as is required in other cases.

"The board of directors of the school township is elected by the people of the entire township. They may have interests antagonistic to the formation of an independent district. There seems to be but little left to the discretion of the board. They are required to include therein all of the contiguous territory proposed to be included in said district in not smaller subdivisions than forty acres of land. It seems to be obligatory upon them to include the territory petitioned for, except where the proposed boundary line would divide forty acres of land, according to the government survey. They might, however, in case the convenience of the people of some subdistrict left out of the proposed independent district demanded it, include more territory than was described in the petition. The circumstances might be such that a few families, after the proposed independent district was carved out of the school township, would be practically left without school privileges. The law seems to require, in fixing the boundaries, that all of the contiguous territory petitioned for shall be included, but does not even inferentially prevent the board of directors, in fixing the boundaries, from including some not petitioned for.

"I think the statute is mandatory, requiring the boundaries to be established by the directors, which boundaries shall include all territory petitioned for, and as much more as the judgment of the board of directors shall deem necessary to subserve the convenience of the people for school purposes. It is also mandatory upon the board to give notice of the meeting at which the people may vote."

To the question, "In case an appeal is taken to the county superintendent from the action of the board in refusing to establish boundaries, should the county superintendent consider both the convenience of the people and the petition presented by the majority of the electors, or is he limited to the petition alone?"

His reply is: "He can exercise no power not given by statute to the board of directors, and can make such order as the board of directors should have made. In adding any territory not embraced within the petition he should certainly consider the convenience of the people, both in the proposed independent district, and also the convenience of any who are left in a school township; but like the board of the district township, he would not be authorized to omit any of the territory included within the petition from the proposed independent district. He is not, however, limited any more than the board would be by the petition in regard to adding to the proposed independent district land not included in the petition."

Since it is the duty of the board and the superintendent, in case of appeal, to include in the proposed district at least all of the contiguous territory petitioned for, it only remains for us to do likewise. Our opinion is not final, however. The voters themselves are to determine whether or not they desire a separate organization. A careful consideration of the facts in the case leads us to the opinion that the formation of the independent district of Belknap is desirable; that it will accommodate well a large number of children. At no distant day a graded school will be provided, and with modern equipment and trained teachers, pupils will enjoy advantages superior to those now granted them.

In harmony with the petitions of the electors and the ruling of the attorney-general, it is therefore ordered that the independent district of Belknap be constituted to contain sections twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), twenty-seven (27), less the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) thirty-four (34), thirty-five (35), thirty-eight (38), and the southeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the southeast quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section twenty-two (22) of Soap Creek township. It is further ordered that in accordance with section 2794 the board shall take the necessary steps to provide for the holding of an election. The same to be held before November 1, 1898.

REVERSED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, October 1, 1898.

J. L. MUNN v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF SOAP CREEK.

Appeal from Davis County.

APPLICATION FOR REHEARING.

NEW QUESTIONS. Questions not raised at the hearing before the county superintendent nor before the superintendent of public instruction at the time the appeal was heard by him can not be considered for the first time on an application for a rehearing.

REHEARING. The application for a rehearing will be denied unless sufficient reasons have been presented warranting a change in the former opinion.

Application for a rehearing in the above entitled case is now made by the appellee, the district township of Washington, on the ground that "this case does not decide whether or not an appeal lies where a board fails to take action." A review of the case shows that the board did act. It declined to establish the boundaries of the proposed independent district of Belknap. We do not understand that counsel contends otherwise.

* For decision of supreme court in this case see 110 Iowa, 652.

Affidavit of appellant Munn, made in taking appeal from the decision of the board, says: "The school board of said school township rendered a decision refusing to grant the petitions of residents of Belknap and contiguous territory." Again, quoting from affidavit: "Said board erred in that they have no legal discretion in the matter, and should have granted the independent district as asked for by said petitions."

Attorney for appellee argues that only the single petition from the village of Belknap was refused and that others from contiguous territory are now before the board and may be called up and passed upon at any meeting. This point was presented both orally and in written argument by counsel, and was given due consideration before announcing former decision.

In the case of Johnson v. School Township of Utica, appeal from Chicksaw county, the board had before it at its September meeting a petition requesting the formation of a new subdistrict. Without action the board adjourned to consider the petition the following February. At the trial before the county superintendent motion was made to dismiss the case on the ground that the petition was still before the board. The motion was overruled by the county superintendent. On appeal, this department, we think, rightly sustained the lower tribunal.

In the case before us no action of the board could have barred more effectually the formation of the independent district. That petitions from contiguous territory were before the board has not been questioned.

Our attention is again called to the time in which the organization of the independent district may be completed. No sufficient reason has been presented to warrant us in changing our opinion in regard to this point.

The other question, whether or not the village of Belknap has sufficient population, was not raised at the hearing before the county superintendent nor this department and may not be considered now.

The foregoing review disposes of the material points involved in the motion for rehearing.

This department might have reversed the decision of the county superintendent and remanded the case to the board with instructions to establish the boundaries of the proposed district in accordance with the opinion of the attorney-general. Had this been done the only course for the board to pursue would have been to fix the boundaries of the district including all contiguous territory petitioned for. The course adopted appeared to be the more speedy and for that reason was chosen.

As previously stated, our decision is not final. The law wisely leaves the final settlement covering the formation of districts, in such cases as this, to the voters themselves. If those residing upon the outside territory proposed to be included, desire to vote separately on the proposition, they may do so. Should a majority of the votes cast on such outside territory be against the proposed district, it shall not be formed.

The application for rehearing is

O. F. HALE V. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF RIVERDALE.

Appeal from Kossuth County.

APPEALS. Should be conducted with fairness and impartiality.

TIME OF HEARING. If the county superintendent can not hear testimony for both parties at the time set for such hearing, he should give the parties ample time later to make a clear and full presentation of their cause.

At a special meeting of the board of directors held September 30, 1898, it was voted to change the schoolhouse in subdistrict number one, from the present site to a point one mile west. From the decision rendered, O. F. Hale appealed to the county superintendent, who affirmed the board's action.

In appealing to the superintendent of public instruction, appellant alleges errors as follows:

1st. He, the county superintendent, failed to take into consideration the geographical position, number and convenience, of the scholars and residents of the subdistricts, as required by section 2773, Code of 1897.

2d. That the trial being set for 1 P. M. on October 27th, he failed to appear until about 4 P. M. and then conducted the trial in such haste and evident impatience as to embarrass appellant whose witnesses had returned to their homes before the superintendent's arrival, and thus prevented him from fully presenting his case.

3d. That he refused to allow your appellant to argue his case and adjourned the trial without affording appellant an opportunity to fully present his case.

It is due all parties in controversy that appeals be conducted with impartiality. The law expressly declares that notice of the time and place of hearing appeals shall be sent in writing by the county superintendent to all parties adversely interested. It is expected that the utmost fairness will be shown.

A failure on the part of the county superintendent to appear at the appointed hour set for hearing the case is not an error of great consequence, provided ample time is given all parties to make a clear and complete presentation of their cause.

We find no denial of errors charged and are disposed to remand the case to the county superintendent with the suggestion that he fix a time in the near future for hearing the case anew, and give notification to interested parties as provided by statute.

Having heard the testimony, and considered the geographical position, number and convenience of the pupils, he shall then make such decision as may appear just and equitable.

IRVING J. JOHNSTON V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF SANBORN.

Appeal from O'Brien County.

RESTORATION OF TERRITORY. The refusal of a board of directors of an independent district to concur in the restoration of certain territory may not be reversed except when clearly shown that such refusal was an abuse of discretion.

COUNTY ATTORNEY. It is not only wise but in conformity with law for the county superintendent to consult the county attorney before deciding an appeal.

The proceedings in this case are founded upon section 2792 of the code of 1897 and is brought to have several sections of land now included in the Independent District of Sanborn restored to the school township of Summit to which they geographically belong.

The section to which reference is made above provides that territory so situated may be restored by the concurrent action of the boards of directors, and shall be so restored upon petition of two-thirds of the electors residing upon the territory proposed to be set off, provided the school corporation that is to receive back the territory and the county superintendent concur.

The transcript forwarded in this case is very complete. It shows that a petition signed by two-thirds of the electors was presented to the board of directors of the school township of Summit and the territory accepted. For some reason not apparent, it was not then presented to the county superintendent, but was laid before the board of directors of the Independent District of Sanborn. Said board failing to act, an action was brought at the May term of the district court in 1898 to compel action. In response to the court's order the board met and considered the petition on the eighteenth of June and rejected the same.

From the decision of the board Irving J. Johnston et al. appealed to the county superintendent who affirmed the order of the board, and said parties now appeal to the superintendent of public instruction.

In all cases of appeal the county superintendent is charged to make such decision as may be just and equitable. It is alleged that the decision rendered is not that of the county superintendent, but one given by the county attorney. We can not concur in the view taken by counsel for appellants. It is not denied, however, that the county attorney did submit to the county superintendent an opinion. In fact the complete opinion of the county attorney is made a part of the transcript. Having heard the evidence, we think she acted wisely and in conformity with law in requesting the county attorney for the correct interpretation of the law relating to the issues, before deciding the appeal.

It is also alleged that the county superintendent erred in refusing to concur with the board of directors of the school township of Summit as provided in section 2792. A careful reading of the transcript convinces us that the appeal is not, in this instance, from the action of the county superintendent in refusing to concur, but from her decision in affirming the order of the board of directors in rejecting appellant's petition.

The question to be determined then is whether the board of directors of the Independent District of Sanborn in refusing to concur in the restoration of territory abused its discretion or violated law. The latter is not claimed.

It is contended that the restoration of the territory is desired in order that additional school facilities may be provided for the children of the school township of Summit. Such motives are commendable. Doubtless, the refusal to consent to the transfer of territory is, in part, for the reason that better school facilities are provided appellants by the board of directors in the Independent District of Sanborn.

As a part of the Independent District of Sanborn those residing upon the territory in question enjoy several advantages. Among them is that of attending a well graded school in which is taught not only the common school branches, but the advanced studies as well. Again, if territory is detached it becomes necessary for pupils to travel from the town while now not infrequently conveyances in the regular order of business carry children both to and from school. That these advantages are appreciated is evidenced by the remonstrance signed by all but one of the present electors having children of school age, and presented to the board of directors of the Independent School District of Sanborn prior to its action on the eighteenth of June.

If pupils of the school township of Summit are not enjoying school facilities such as are most profitable and the board is desirous of securing increased advantages it may arrange with any person outside the board for their transportation to and from school in the same or in another corporation. Expense incurred for such services may be paid from the contingent fund.

Having carefully considered all of the facts and circumstances entering into the merits of the case, we can find no reason to warrant us in disturbing the decision of the county superintendent or setting aside the action of the board.

AFFIRMED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Des Moines, Iowa, February 8, 1899. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

E. F. BACON v. THE INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF WEST DES MOINES.

Appeal from Polk County.

EXPULSION OF PUPILS. Pupils may be expelled by the board for immorality, violation of the regulations and rules established by the board, or when their presence is detrimental to the best interests of the school.

JURISDICTION. The board of directors of a school corporation have no jurisdiction over children after the termination of the school year.

EXISTING SCHOOL. The order expelling a scholar must be from an existing school. The scholar's relationship with the school is severed when the school year has closed and vacation has begun.

The facts presented for consideration in this case show that on the third day of June, 1898, the superintendent of the West Des Moines city schools, in accordance with the provisions of section 2782 of the Code, notified the president of the board of directors of the suspension of certain pupils, among them Julius Bacon, son of the appellant, for acts of disorder, insubordination, and for conduct detrimental to the best interests of the school. On the sixth day of June the board of directors met in regular session and was addressed by the appellant in behalf of his son. Several of the suspended pupils present also spoke, acknowledged their wrong and asked for reinstatement. Julius Bacon acknowledged his error but pleaded extenuating circumstances. The board then adjourned without action until June 13th, a week after the close of the school year, at which time Bacon was expelled for one year from June 3, 1898, and the others from four to seven months. From the action of the board E. F. Bacon appealed to the county superintendent who heard the case in regular form and affirmed the action of the board. Appellant now appeals to the superintendent of public instruction.

The law provides that the board of directors may expel any scholar from school; first, for immorality; second, for violation of rules; third, when the presence of the scholar is detrimental to the best interests of the school.

To warrant the board in exercising its expulsive power it is not necessary that the scholar be a corrupter of youth, or a flagrant, or a persistent violator of the established rules. It may, if occasion requires, summarily expel a pupil whose presence is considered harmful to the best welfare of the school.

To deprive a pupil of school privileges however is an act of so much consequence that it should be decided upon only after all the circumstances entering into the case have been thoughtfully weighed.

The provision authorizing boards to expel when the presence of any scholar is harmful is a recent enactment. Formerly courts held that pupils could be expelled from school only as a punishment for breach of discipline or for offenses against good morals.

Instances have arisen where pupils intellectually the superior of their associates and possessed of high ideals in many respects have, without displaying a spirit of insubordination themselves or openly disregarding the expressed wishes of those placed over them, become leaders and incited others to open revolt against the school authorities. Recognizing the weakness of the former provisions of law to deal with such cases, the general assembly in revising the code inserted the third division above given in order that boards could protect the interests intrusted to them. While the provision is an excellent one, the power conferred by it should always be exercised with great care and within proper and legal limits.

Several questions are presented to us for consideration by counsel for appellant. In view of the construction we feel obliged to put upon section 2782 it is only necessary to determine the question: Has the board of directors of a school corporation jurisdiction over children after the termination of a school year as determined by the board of directors?

We are unable to find that this question has ever been determined by the supreme court of our state; hence to a certain extent reliance is placed upon the holdings of the judicial tribunals in other states. In a Nebraska case given in 48 Northwestern Reporter we find that an attempt was made to show that the board was justified in expelling a pupil because of an alleged insubordination. In answer to the allegation the court said: "But the charge even if true relates to her conduct during a former term of school. We need not determine therefore whether the testimony sustains that charge or not." Here the court declined to consider alleged charges of insubordination because they were committed at a term of school having previously closed.

The statute says that the board of directors have power to "expel any scholar from school." This language evidently means that before a board of directors may issue a valid order expelling a scholar from school, there must be an existing school and also a scholar to be expelled therefrom.

The transcript shows that all school exercises for the year had closed, contracts had expired and teachers were released.

While boards of directors are charged with the making of rules for the government of schools, we are not disposed to hold that the law authorizes them to exercise control over teachers and pupils during vacation. Notwithstanding the fact that the board in this case ordered one pupil expelled for four months, three of which are for the vacation months of June, July and August, we are not fully satisfied that the board claims such authority or wishes to be charged with the responsibility. If such is the view taken, however, it can not be sustained.

Julius Bacon had been a scholar the past year but the relationship was severed at the time of the board's action. There is nothing to indicate that he would present himself and claim school privileges at the opening of the next year.

We are always gratified when we can affirm the decision of a county superintendent who has sustained a discretionary act of a board. A statement of fact such as was in this case presented to the county superintendent for his consideration would warrant an affirmance of a board's action in expelling a pupil for a reasonable time, if jurisdiction were not questioned.

Inasmuch as there was no school and consequently no scholars we can only find that Julius Bacon was not subject to the authority of the board of directors of the school corporation of West Des Moines and could not therefore be expelled.

The decision of the county superintendent is REVERSED.

E. F. BACON V. INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT OF WEST DES MOINES.

Appeal from Polk County.

APPLICATION FOR REHEARING.

ORAL ARGUMENT. The failure of counsel for appellee to present oral argument, after being informed of the hearing, will not justify a reopening of the case.

REHEARING. To warrant the superintendent of public instruction in granting a rehearing it must be shown that some very serious error has been made.

The attorney for the appellee comes now and asks for a rehearing in the above cause for the reason "that the sole question considered by the state superintendent was one upon which this appellee was not heard in oral argument before him."

For many years it has been the custom of the department of public instruction in hearing appeal cases to notify interested parties. The office record shows that both appellant and counsel for appellee were notified of the time set for final hearing. The failure of counsel for appellee to present oral argument after being duly informed of the hearing will not justify the department in reopening the case.

It is somewhat doubtful whether under the law a rehearing is contemplated or possible. An examination of the statute fails to reveal any direct provision authorizing the same, while section 2820 relating to appeals to the superintendent of public instruction says: "The decision when made shall be final." Doubtless, upon being convinced that a decision rendered was erroneous, either the county superintendent or superintendent of public instruction might recall the same and reverse or modify former holdings. To warrant either of these officers in reopening a case, it must be shown that some very serious error has been made, or that some additional testimony has been discovered which could not have been presented at the former hearing by using reasonable diligence. See case of Mary Grey v. Independent District of Boyle, S. L. 1897.

In response to the application for a rehearing a willingness to receive and consider a written argument which counsel for appellee might submit touching the point determined in our former decision was expressed by the superintendent of public instruction. Before rendering our decision of March 18, 1899, all of the material points suggested were fully and carefully considered. Since the receipt of counsel's argument we have reviewed the case and read with care the cases cited, and believe that nothing would be accomplished by a rehearing.

The application is DENIED.

W. H. MESSNER AND FOSTER RIGLER V. THE SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF BEAR GROVE.

Appeal from Guthrie County.

BOND FOR COSTS The law does not require the filing of a bond for costs or the giving of security therefor as a condition necessary to perfect an appeal.

EXPENSE OF APPEALS. It is the evident intent of the law to make it possible for aggrieved parties to have a hearing with the least possible delay and annoyance, and at the lowest expense.

This case arises from the action of the board of directors of the school township of Bear Grove to redistrict the same.

From the board's action the appellants appealed to the county superintendent. In accordance with the statute the secretary of the board of directors filed a transcript of the board's proceedings March 15th. On the twenty-second of March the county superintendent notified appellants that the appeal was not perfected, and that unless bonds for the costs were executed, filed and approved within twenty days from the date of notice the appeal would be dismissed and the action of the board of directors affirmed. On the eleventh of April, the appellants having failed to comply with the order of the county superintendent the appeal was dismissed and the order of the board redistricting the township affirmed. From this order appeal is now taken to this department.

Appellants appeal from the ruling of the county superintendent in dismissing the appeal case, affirming the action of the board, and in requiring them to give bonds for costs:

1. Because the county superintendent erred in requiring appellants to give bond for costs.

2. Because said ruling and action is, in fact, a denial of justice, in that it prevents appellants from having a trial and hearing as provided by law.

An examination of the law relating to the taking of appeals from the action of a board of directors to the county superintendent fails to show any requirement demanding a bond for costs from any of the parties in controversy. So far as we are able to learn, the only reference to costs in cases appealed to the county superintendent, is that contained in section 2821, which reads: "But if the superintendent, is of the opinion that the proceedings were instituted without reasonable cause therefor, or if, in case of an appeal, it shall not be sustained, he shall enter such findings in the record and tax all costs to the party responsible therefor."

The general provisions of law touching the question of costs are in no sense applicable to cases of appeal to the county superintendent or the department of public instruction. On the contrary, the law provides that any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the board of directors may appeal therefrom to the county superintendent, and the basis of the proceedings shall be an affidavit filed with the county superintendent, within the time for taking the appeal. Nowhere can we find that the county superintendent is authorized to establish a different basis such as the giving of bonds for the security of costs. The evident intent of the law relating to appeals appears to be to make it possible for aggrieved parties to have a hearing with the least possible delay and annoyance and at the lowest expense.

Believing that the law does not require the filing of a bond for costs or the giving of security therefor as a condition necessary to perfect an appeal taken from the action of the board of directors, the decision of the county superintendent is reversed and the case is remanded with instructions to fix an early date for hearing the same upon merit.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

June 26, 1899.

NORA OELKE v. R. C. SPENCER, COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.

Appeal from Audubon County.

GOOD MORAL CHARACTER. The county superintendent should require proof that the applicant for a certificate possesses good moral character, unless he has personal knowledge of the same.

REFUSAL OF CERTIFICATE. Good moral character being one of the essential qualifications of a teacher, the county superintendent is fully justified in refusing a certificate to an applicant who fails to furnish satisfactory evidence of such character.

NORMAL INSTITUTE. The county superintendent may refuse to enroll such persons members of the normal institute as he has reason to believe are morally deficient.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT. Has large discretionary power in the matter of issuing or withholding certificates, and his decision will not be reversed unless it is clearly shown that he was prompted by prejudice or ill-will, or acted with manifest injustice.

This case arises from the refusal of the county superintendent to grant Nora Oelke a certificate to teach in the public schools, and to enroll her as a member of the normal institute.

A hearing was had on the twenty-third and twenty-fourth days of August, 1899, before the superintendent, who affirmed his former decision. Nora Oelke appeals.

The law vests in the county superintendent large discretionary powers in the matter of issuing certificates. He must be fully satisfied that the applicant possesses scholarship, teaching ability, and good moral character. Of the last named qualification the law makes it his duty to require proof, unless he has personal knowledge of the same.

Too great stress can not be laid upon the value of character in the school-room. The teacher's character and public conduct should be without reproach.

Section 2737 of the Code contemplates that the county superintendent, among other things, should find as a fact and so certify that the person to whom authority to teach is granted is of good moral character.

The county superintendent, being charged with this grave responsibility, is presumed to exercise his discretion justly and impartially. Not only is he the sole judge of the qualifications of those who desire to teach, but also of how fully he will give the applicant reasons for the refusal of a certificate. Walker v. Crawford, p. 42, S. L. Decisions, 1897.

There is no evidence in this case that the action of the county superintendent was prompted by prejudice or ill-will. He privately cautioned the appellant, as well as her father, against certain indiscretions upon her part which had become a matter of public gossip, without receiving any satisfactory explanation.

The superintendent, being a near neighbor to the appellant, formed his judgment as to her fitness to teach in a measure from personal observation of her conduct. Although represented by counsel at the hearing before the county superintendent, the evidence offered in her behalf is very meager. So far as the record shows, no evidence whatever was offered to show that she is of good moral character.

The refusal of the county superintendent to permit appellant to enroll as a member of the normal institute, is also assigned as error.

Under the law the county superintendent has general charge and control of the normal institute. As its head he not only possesses the legal right, but in our opinion it becomes his duty to exclude from its membership persons who are intellectually or morally unfit to attend. Most educational institutions require testimonials as to character before students are admitted. This rule is a reasonable one, and the head of a college or normal institute would be justified in refusing to enroll such students as he has reason to believe are morally deficient.

Under the law we are compelled to give due weight to the acts of the county superintendent. His decision should not be reversed unless it is clearly shown that he violated the law, abused his discretion, or acted with manifest injustice. The evidence fails to disclose that such showing has been made.

The decision of the county superintendent is therefore AFFIRMED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Des Moines, December 15, 1899. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

J. M. SUTTON V. THE INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF SHELBY.

Appeal from Shelby County.

LOCATION OF SCHOOLHOUSE SITE. In the location of a schoolhouse site the board is justified in considering the wishes of a majority of the people as indicated in the vote upon the issuance of bonds.

EXPENDITURE OF MONEY. Where money is voted by the electors for a specific purpose, or where they couple certain directions with their vote when authorizing the expenditure of money, such directions or vote may not be disregarded by the board.

The board of directors, being about to erect a new building to be used for high school purposes, were petitioned to locate the same at a point east of the railroad track. From their action in refusing to grant the prayer of said petition, the plaintiff appealed to the county superintendent, who, on the twenty-first day of September, 1899, affirmed the action of the board. From that decision, appeal is taken to this department.

It appears from the evidence that in March, 1899, the electors of the Independent District of Shelby voted to authorize the board to issue bonds in the sum of six thousand dollars, "for the purpose of erecting an additional school building, the same to be built of brick, and purchasing a steam heating plant and placing it therein and in the present building in said district, in such a manner as that both the new and the present school building shall be heated thereby." It being subsequently found that the amount first voted would be insufficient, the electors on the third day of August voted an additional three thousand dollars upon the same condition as the first issue was voted.

We are unable to find that the board abused its discretion or violated law in rendering the decision complained of. The members of the board were evidently desirous of carrying out the wishes of the people as indicated in the vote upon the issuance of bonds. To our mind it is quite clear that the electors authorized the issuance of bonds with the understanding that the new building should be erected in close proximity to the present one. Any other theory renders the clause, "and placing a steam heating plant there in and in the present school building in such a manner as that both the new and the present buildings shall be heated thereby," practically meaningless.

This department, as well as the supreme court of our state, has held that where money is voted for a specific purpose, or where the electors couple certain directions with their vote when authorizing the expenditure of money, such directions or vote can not be disregarded.

The decision of the county superintendent is AFFIRMED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Des Moines, December 14, 1899. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

J. E. RUSH et al. v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF FRANKLIN.

Appeal from Allamakee County.

APPEAL. An appeal may be taken from the decision of the board to place a petition on the table.

In this case the appellants presented the following petition to the board of directors of the school township of Franklin at the regular meeting of the board of directors in September:

"We the undersigned citizens and residents of Franklin, in Allamakee county, Iowa, respectfully represent that they are without school advantages by reason of being so far from a schoolhouse that during the winter season nearly all of the small children in our neighborhood have to remain at home.

"That there is a sufficient number of school children of school age in our neighborhood to form a school if a school building could be placed near the section corners of sections 2, 3, 10 and 11.

"We therefore respectfully ask that you take such action as will secure the location and erection of a school building at the corners of the sections above named and provide for a school to be held at that point."

The certified copy of the transcript of the proceedings of the board shows that "after much discussion it was decided to place the petition on the table until the next meeting of the board." From this decision J. E. Rush et al. appealed to the county superintendent. At the hearing before this officer a motion to dismiss the appeal was filed on the following ground, to-wit:

"That there is in the record no grounds shown for an appeal in this—that the action complained of was simply a motion to lay the petition on the table—a matter from which no appeal can be taken."

Two other counts are assigned but are not of importance in the determination of this appeal.

The county superintendent sustained the motion for the reason "that the action was not appealable," and dismissed the case. J. E. Rush and W. T. Roderick appeal to this department.

The main contention is: May appeal be taken from the decision to place the petition on the table.

In the case of Rogness v. District Township of Glenwood, appeal from Winnesiek county, this department held that the right of appeal from the vote of a board to lay a petition on the table, can not be questioned, but like any other action must be regarded as subject to appeal.

In this opinion we find ourselves in accord. To hold otherwise under conditions such as are alleged to exist in this case would, we think, work great injury. The purpose of the board in laying the petition on the table is not apparent, but no other action upon their part could have more effectually prevented petitioners from obtaining relief. To sustain the decision of the county superintendent would, we think, at least be to encourage boards of directors in employing dilatory tactics instead of business methods in the transaction of educational affairs.

The law prescribes that boards of directors shall hold semi-annual meetings in September and March. By section 2801 authority is conferred upon boards of directors to divide the school township into subdistricts such as justice, equity, and the interests of the people require. This provision in the case of Donelon v. The District Township of Kniest, was held to mean that changes in boundaries of subdistricts could only be made at the regular September meeting or one called for that purpose before the following March.

The order of the board was that the petition be laid on the table "until the next meeting of the board," but the records fail to show that any time was fixed for the meeting.

It may be said that a special meeting could be called at any time. This is true, but the fact that no such meeting was held up to the time of hearing the appeal before the county superintendent on the nineteenth of December, and the further fact that appellees are now strenuously seeking to have this department affirm the decision, is presumptive that the board had no intention of considering the interests of petitioners, prior to the annual meeting in March, if at all.

In view of the above we think the case should be heard upon its merits by the county superintendent. It is therefore ordered that he fix a time, giving due and proper notice to interested parties, and after hearing testimony for either party, render such decision as may be just and equitable.

REVERSED AND REMANDED.

RICHARD C. BARRETT,

Des Moines, Iowa, March 27, 1900. Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A. J. JONES V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF OCHEYEDAN.

Appeal from Osceola County.

DISMISSAL OF TEACHER. The board may not dismiss a teacher for refusing to teach grades or classes other than those named in the contract.

SPECIAL MEETING. A teacher may not be discharged at a special meeting called for the purpose of securing modification of his contract.

CONTRACT. A refusal of the teacher to agree to a change in a legal contract with the board is no ground for discharge.

On March 23, 1899, the appellant entered into a written contract in the usual form by the terms of which he was to "teach the high school and superintend the public school" in the Independent District of Ocheyedan for the term of twenty-four weeks, commencing in September, 1899, and was to receive for such service the sum of seventy-five dollars per school month.

On September 11, the opening day of the term, the board of directors at a special meeting convened at the schoolhouse passed the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, The principal, A. J. Jones, has refused to accede to the request of the board in regard to the eighth grade being advanced to the high school room, he is hereby dismissed as principal and superintendent of the Ocheyedan public schools from this date, and his contract is hereby annulled."

From the order of the board appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who affirmed the action of the board, and the appellant now seeks relief in this department.

Appellant asks a reversal chiefly on two grounds, viz.:

(1) That the eighth grade was no part of the high school and for that reason it was no part of his duty to teach it.

(2) That he was not accorded that full and fair investigation contemplated by the law as set forth in section 2782.

These two points will be considered in the order presented.

1. We find from the transcript that at a meeting of the board of directors held October 10, 1898, the appellant was requested to prepare a three years' course of study for the high school, and also a set of rules and regulations for the government of the schools.

Appellees earnestly contend that the power to prescribe a course of study and rules and regulations, rests with the board, and that in the absence of delegated authority to re-delegate such power, no power exists to thus delegate, and any attempt to do so is void. This question we need not determine, as no action of the board shows that it attempted to delegate any authority to appellant.

A reasonable construction of the board's action providing that the principal prepare a course of study, is that he might make such course as would in his judgment meet the needs of the schools under his supervision, and submit his report to the board for approval, modification or rejection. This method is that usually adopted by boards, and the principle has indirectly been approved by the supreme court. (Hall v. Ind. District Aplington, 82 Iowa, 686.)

At a special meeting of the board on October 15, 1898, the course prepared by appellant, together with rules and regulations, was adopted, and according to the testimony of Mr. Underhill was, so far as completed, printed by him on the order of the board in November following. It must, we think, be conceded that the board adopted the course of study with suitable regulations. We are led to this conclusion by the further fact that the board on September 11, 1899, voted to rescind the action of October 15, 1898, in reference to the course of study. The query naturally arises, why this action if no course were adopted?

The contract entered into by the board with appellant was made in March following the adoption of the course, and, as above stated, provided that he should teach the high school, which, according to the classification adopted October 15th, consisted of the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades.

Did the board have the right to dismiss appellant for refusing to teach grades or classes other than those named in the contract? We think not. To answer affirmatively would be equivalent to stating that boards of directors have abrogative power relating to contracts with teachers. To allow them to repudiate contracts and force other parties to perform duties not agreed upon would, we think, be to encourage a breach of contract and a breach of faith.

If a board has a right to modify, without consent, a contract to the extent of requiring a principal to teach an eighth grade not contemplated when the contract was made, there would appear to be no limit; and a hostile board could demand that a teacher under contract to give instruction in high school branches should teach primary pupils, or vice versa; and upon failure to execute in a satisfactory manner the demands of the board, discharge him for incompetency.

2. This case differs from that usually presented. There are no charges of incompetency, inattention to duty, partiality, or immorality. The testimony and the record show that appellant began his school September 11th at the usual hour of opening.

The board of directors met on the afternoon of September 11th and after rescinding the action of October 15th, 1898, whereby a course of study was adopted, "adjourned to meet at the schoolhouse at once." Here the appellant was discharged as stated in the resolution above given.

Was the meeting such as the law contemplates shall be held in cases of this kind? The law wisely provides that a teacher may only be discharged after an impartial trial held for that purpose. In all the testimony, there is no disagreement as to the purpose of the meeting. It was for the purpose of getting the appellant to modify the contract by accepting the eighth grade, and not for the purpose of discharging him. He was called into the presence of the board and informed of its purpose.

Appellant stated in his reply, which was written, and which he was asked to give at once, that he was ready to fulfill his contract; that if the board had rescinded its action in regard to a course of study he would like to know what the course of study for the high school should be, and the duties of the superintendent under the same. He expressed a willingness also to teach even the eighth grade for a reasonable amount of additional salary.

In view of this expressed willingness of appellant to do that which seems reasonable, we are unable to justify the action of the board. We think a compromise might well have been attempted, and proven at least reasonably satisfactory to both parties. The whole case has been given most earnest attention, and we can not find that appellant was discharged for good and sufficient cause, after that impartial investigation contemplated. His dismissal under all the circumstances revealed by the record can not be approved.

J. W. LYTLE v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF WASHINGTON.

Appeal from Story County.

INDEPENDENT DISTRICT BOUNDARIES. It is mandatory upon the board of a school township to include in a proposed independent district all of the territory within the corporate limits of the town.

INCORPORATED TOWN. In the formation of an independent district under section 2794 of the Code, all the town must be included in the proposed district, notwithstanding the fact that said town was formerly located partly in a school township and partly in a rural independent district.

BOUNDARIES. The extension of the boundaries of a municipal corporation extends the boundaries of the independent district of said municipal corporation.

On February 17, 1900, at a special meeting of the board of directors of the school township of Washington there was presented a petition of thirty-three citizens of the town of Kelly, asking the establishment of an independent district, including therein all of the incorporated town.

After discussion, the matter was deferred for a week in order that the board might more thoroughly investigate and obtain an opinion of the county superintendent, county attorney, and other unbiased counsel, if deemed necessary.

At the date fixed the board met and established the boundary lines for the new district, as requested by petitioners.

On March 6, 1900, J. W. Lytle et al. appealed from the order of the board to the county superintendent, who reversed its action.

From the plat submitted, it is shown that the town of Kelley is situated on the township line in the townships of Washington and Palestine, and includes the following territory:

The south three-fourths of section thirty-one (31), and the south three-fourths of section thirty-two (32), west one-half of section thirty-three (33), range thirty-three (33), township twenty-four (24), in Washington township; the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$), of section four (4), north one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section five (5), and north one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section six (6), in Palestine township, range eighty-four (84), township twenty-four (24).

The chief point in controversy is, has the board of directors of a school township authority in establishing the boundary lines of a proposed independent district to include in the new district any part of the territory of adjacent rural independent districts? Generally speaking, such territory can not be included.

Section 2794 of the code provides, however, that "upon the written petition of any ten voters of a city, town or village of over one hundred residents, to the board of the school township in which the portion of the town plat having the largest number of voters is situated, such board shall establish the boundaries of the proposed independent district, including therein all of the city, town or village."

The section clearly indicates that it is mandatory upon the board to include in the proposed district all of the territory within the corporate limits of the town, regardless of whether or not the territory in part belongs to rural independent districts. Failure to do so would, we think, be a plain violation of law.

It is true, as held by the county superintendent in his opinion, that no independent district may, in the formation of a new district, be subdivided so as to contain less than four sections of land, except in certain instances enumerated in section 2798. It is also true that "the independent district from which territory is detached shall, after the change, contain not less than four government sections of land," etc. (Section 2793.) We are of the opinion that these limitations apply to the cases set forth in the sections cited, and are not applicable when it is proposed to form an independent district containing an incorporated town, located largely in a school township, and in adjacent rural independent districts.

On March 23, 1899, in answer to the question: "Does the law as found in chapter eighty-nine (89), acts of the twenty-seventh general assembly, contemplate that 'when the corporate limits of any city or town are extended outside of the existing independent district or districts, the boundaries of said independent district or districts shall be also correspondingly extended,' without regard to township or county lines, manner of organization of the district or districts from which territory is taken, or the condition in which such district or districts will be left after the territory has been taken?" Hon. Milton Remley, attorney-general, in concluding his official opinion to the department said:

"My conclusion is that the extension of the boundaries of a municipal corporation made in the manner required by law, extends the boundaries of the independent districts of said municipal corporation, without any action on the part of the school districts or their officers, and regardless of the effect of such change upon the district from which territory is taken."

Thus it appears that while section 2794 makes it the duty of the board to include all of the territory of the city, town or village in the formation of a new independent district, chapter eighty-nine (89) provides for the enlargement of the boundaries of the independent district, whenever the corporate limits are legally extended. So broad is this provision that the extension of the boundaries of the municipal corporation, so as to include an entire district or districts, correspondingly extends the boundaries of the independent district.

Though the opinion quoted has special reference to the extension of the boundaries of the municipal corporation, we think the holding applicable in the case before us.

We can not find that the board violated law, abused its discretion, nor acted with prejudice or malice.

The decision of the county superintendent is, therefore, REVERSED.

G. N. WILSON V. INDEPENDENT DISTRICT OF HITEMAN.

Appeal from Monroe County.

EXPULSION OF SCHOLAR. The board may, by a majority vote, expel any scholar from school for immorality, or for any violation of the regulations or rules established by the board.

NOTICE. The law does not require school boards to give parents or pupils notice or a chance for defense before ordering suspension or expulsion.

ACTION OF THE BOARD. Must be affirmed in the absence of showing of malice, prejudice, or violation of law.

The majority of the board of the Independent District of Hiteman expelled a son of the appellant, a pupil in room No. 3, from the school and school grounds for bad and immoral conduct. From the action of the board, appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who sustained the board, and an appeal is taken to the superintendent of public instruction.

Section 2782 provides that the board may, by a majority vote, expel any scholar from school for immorality, or for any violation of the regulations or rules established by the board; and it may also confer upon any teacher, principal or superintendent the power temporarily to dismiss a scholar, notice of such being at once given in writing to the president of the board.

The record presented shows that the board had by Rule No. 2 conferred upon the principal the "power to suspend any pupil for repeated disobedience; for filthy or immoral habits or language, for injuring or defacing school property, or for any intentional violation of the rules." Under the authority thus conferred, the principal did, on the seventeenth day of December, 1900, notify the president of the board of the dismissal of J. Wilson, for conduct unbecoming a pupil. On the following day the board in special session sustained the order of the principal "until such time as his parents shall give assurance to the school board that he will comply with the rules of the school."

In appealing to the county superintendent, appellee alleges that said pupil was "expelled without cause and without legal notice or chance to defend." Appellant seems to have an erroneous idea regarding the power of a board to dismiss a pupil. The law does not demand that the board shall give parents or pupils notice or chance for defense before ordering suspension or expulsion. The power to expel a pupil is wholly within the discretion of the board. However, the undisputed testimony of the principal goes to show that the father of the boy was notified by a member of the board of the meeting to be held for the purpose of investigating the case.

A careful examination of the entire record submitted fails to reveal that the action of the board is in any way tainted by malice or prejudice, or that there has been a violation of law. In expelling the pupil until such time as he was willing to conduct himself properly and obey the reasonable regulations of the school, we think the board acted in a very conservative and proper manner, and that the county superintendent was justified in sustaining its action.

The decision of the county superintendent is AFFIRMED.
RICHARD C. BARRETT,
Superintendent of Public Instruction.

H. A. TOPPING AND THOMAS WILLIAMS v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF UNION.

Appeal from Van Buren County.

CORRECTION OF DECISION. The superintendent, in the discharge of his judicial duties, may, within a proper time, recall and correct a decision erroneously rendered.

DECISION. The county superintendent is warranted in rendering a decision based upon certain conditions.

This case arises from the action of the board of directors of the school township of Union in voting to remove the schoolhouse in subdistrict number four from its present location to a site one-half mile south and one mile west.

Upon appeal to the county superintendent, it was shown that the children from the families of appellants would be nearly or quite two and one-half miles from the schoolhouse located upon the new site. The county superintendent remanded the case to the board July 1st, with the recommendation that it make provision for the schooling of the children in adjacent districts, provided they desire to attend, "but if that is not done we will be compelled to reverse the action of the board." On July 16th a statement signed by the president and secretary pro tem. of the board of directors of Union township was filed, alleging that the board had made arrangements to send appellants' children to school in accordance with the decision. On the same date attorneys were notified that the action of the board was sustained. On July 23d counsel for appellants filed a statement from the board of directors of the Independent District of Winchester to the effect that "no provision has been made with the board of the school township of Union for the schooling of the children of Thomas Williams." On the following day counsel filed a motion, asking that the decision rendered July 16th be set aside, since the board had failed to carry out its provisions.

In passing upon this motion the superintendent held, that since notices had been sent to interested parties that the action of the board was sustained, the case was closed and could neither be reopened nor the decision set aside.

In this conclusion we think the superintendent unintentionally erred. In the case of Desmond v. the Independent District of Glenwood, 71 Iowa, page 23, the supreme court held:

"The superintendent of public instruction, in the discharge of his judicial duties, has the power to correct mistakes in rendering judgments in a case before him possessed by all courts and judicial officers. If, through mistake, he should announce a decision differing from the decision actually rendered, he possesses the power to recall such an announcement, and publish the decision correctly; or if, mistakenly, he should render a decision, he could, before rights had been acquired under it, and within a proper time, upon discovering the mistake, recall it and decide rightly." We think that the county superintendent has the same power.

By the provisions of section 2774 the board of directors has power to contract with boards of other school townships or independent districts for the instruction of children who live at an unreasonable distance from their own school; and we think the county superintendent was warranted in rendering a decision based upon certain conditions.

The case is remanded to him with the suggestion that he reopen the same, and give all parties interested the opportunity to show clearly and definitely that there has or has not been a compliance with the decision.

If such showing is not made within a reasonable time, it is recommended that he make such decision as to him appears just and equitable, after taking into consideration the geographical position, number and convenience of pupils. From the decision, any party aggrieved will have the right to appeal.

F. E. HAMMER V. WILL COOK.

Appeal from Adair County.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF LAWS. It is not the province of the county superintendent or of the superintendent of public instruction to determine the constitutionality of the law, since these officers exercise ministerial rather than judicial powers, and no appeal may be had to the supreme court.

JURISDICTION OF SUPERINTENDENT. It is the duty of the county superintendent and of the superintendent of public instruction to give effect to the law as interpreted by the courts.

COSTS—TAXING OF. The costs in cases triable before the county superintendent should be paid by the party instituting the proceedings unless there were good and sufficient reasons for beginning the action and the allegations have been proved.

COSTS—TAXING THE CORPORATION. Under section 2821, where the county superintendent could not under her findings tax the costs to the plaintiff because there was reasonable cause for instituting the proceeding, nor to the defendant for the reason that she had to find for said defendant, she must tax them to the school corporation.

On the twelfth day of January, 1904, Mrs. Ella C. Chantry, county superintendent of Adair county, in rendering a decision in the above entitled case, taxed the costs amounting to $51.05 to the school township of Harrison. Thereupon the school township, through its attorney, filed a motion with the county superintendent to retax the costs, and on the ninth day of February, 1904, the motion was overruled. From this action of the county superintendent, the board of directors of the school township of Harrison appeals to the superintendent of public instruction.

Two questions only need be considered: First, had the county superintendent warrant in law to tax the costs to the school township; and, second, if she had such warrant, did she abuse her discretion in so taxing?

Section 2821 of the code says:

"The county superintendent in all matters triable before him shall have power to issue subpoenas for witnesses, which may be served by any peace officer, compel the attendance of those thus served, and the giving of evidence by them, in the same manner and to the same extent as the district court may do, and such witnesses and officers may be allowed the same compensation as is paid for like attendance or service in such court, which shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the proper school corporation, upon the certificate of the superintendent to and warrant of the secretary upon the treasurer; but if the superintendent is of the opinion that the proceedings were instituted without reasonable cause therefor, or if, in case of an appeal, it shall not be sustained, he shall enter such findings in the record, and tax all costs to the party responsible therefor."

The transcript of this case shows that the plaintiff, F. E. Hammer, preferred charges against Will Cook, a teacher, and sought to secure the revocation of the certificate of said Cook. The two parties in interest were Hammer and Cook. Counsel for appellant argues that the school township "was in no way made a party to the proceedings, had no notice therein, nor any opportunity to appear, defend or prosecute said proceedings;" and that the order of the county superintendent in taxing the costs to the school township, if sustained, would deprive the school township of its property without due process of law. It is, therefore, urged that section 2821 of the code, in so far as it attempts to confer jurisdiction to tax costs to school corporations, where such a school corporation was not a party to the proceedings, is unconstitutional, and we are asked to so declare it. This, manifestly, we can not do, since no appeal can be taken to the supreme court from a decision of the superintendent of public instruction. We are obliged to give effect to the law as it stands until the same is annulled by the supreme court. Section 2821 plainly makes it the duty of the county superintendent to tax the costs in "all matters triable before him," either to the school corporation or to the party responsible for bringing the case.

If the county superintendent could not, under her findings, tax the costs to F. E. Hammer, she was obliged to tax the costs to the school township of Harrison, and if the constitutionality of the law under which this power was exercised is to be questioned, the school township should seek to secure an order from the district court to set aside the judgment.

But, had F. E. Hammer reasonable cause for instituting the proceedings? The county superintendent in her decision says: "I find that this proceeding was begun in good faith and that he (F. E. Hammer) had reasonable cause for filing the information." In support of this conclusion the evidence shows that the most serious allegations of the information were sustained—that the teacher had resorted to methods of punishment that can not be approved, and that in the course of a fight with two of the large boys of the school he had used obscene and indecent language. But there were extenuating circumstances, and the certificate was not revoked, the superintendent instead reprimanding the teacher for his errors.

We are of the opinion that the costs in cases triable before the county superintendent should be paid by the party instituting the proceedings, unless there is very good cause for beginning the same and the allegations are fully proved. In the case before us the allegations of the plaintiff were sustained by the evidence, and while the prosecution was, no doubt, prompted in part by malice, in the exercise of her discretionary powers conferred by section 2821 of the code, the county superintendent refused to tax the costs to the plaintiff, F. E. Hammer. We do not find sufficient cause for reversing this decision, it being a well recognized rule of the courts that in the absence of an affirmative showing of an abuse of discretion, the presumption is that it was properly exercised. AFFIRMED.

JOHN F. RIGGS,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 25, 1904.

G. E. HANCOCK et al. v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF FRANKLIN. ..

Appeal from Allamakee County.

POWER OF COMMITTEE OF A SCHOOL BOARD. A school board may not confer upon a committee authority to purchase a site, contract for the erection of a schoolhouse or perform any other duty enjoined upon the board by the law.

SCHOOL PRIVILEGES—TRANSPORTATION. While it is incumbent on the board to furnish reasonable school privileges for all the children of the township, it is often the better plan to transport pupils to existing schools than to establish additional schools.

REDISTRICTING—ENTIRE CORPORATION CONSIDERED. A school board in establishing subdistrict boundaries must consider the interests of all in the corporation.

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the school township of Franklin, held on the twenty-first day of March, 1904, a motion was adopted by unanimous vote by which the president of the school board was empowered and instructed to "appoint a committee of three to lease a schoolhouse site to set the No. 9 schoolhouse on. That this committee be empowered to let contract of moving schoolhouse, surveying school site, and all other work pertaining to such work, and are authorized to draw orders on the treasurer to pay for the same."

From this action of the board appeal was taken to the county superintendent, who, on June 6, 1904, rendered his decision affirming the action of the board, as set forth in the resolution, and approving the selection of the site made by the committee appointed under the resolution.

From this decision of the county superintendent G. E. Hancock et al. appeal to the state superintendent, and ask a reversal on two grounds:

First, that the order and proceedings of the school board were unauthorized, and Second, that, had the action been regular, the removal of the schoolhouse to the location where the testimony shows the committee proposed to move it, would be prejudicial to the rights of appellants and the school patrons and tax payers of the township.

Section 2773 of the code makes it the duty of the school board to "fix the site for each schoolhouse," and it has been held by this department that "the power to locate sites for schoolhouses is vested, originally, exclusively in the board."

Counsel for appellees contend that when the action of March 21st was taken it was well understood by all members of the board where the schoolhouse was to be placed. While this is altogether probable, it is not revealed in any way in the records, and there was nothing in the resolution that limited the committee in any particular. Neither is there any record to show that the committee was to report its findings back to the board for final action. In fact, the contrary is inferred, since the committee was "empowered to let contract for moving schoolhouse, surveying school site, and all other work pertaining to such work, and to draw orders on the treasurer to pay for the same."

We are of the opinion that the board clothed this committee with powers which a school board alone can exercise.

A committee of the board may properly make choice of a definite site and secure an option from the owner of same, either to lease or sell, and then report back to the full board for adoption or rejection.

The fact that the committee did make a report to the board on the eighteenth day of June,—twelve days after the county superintendent gave his decision,—does not legalize the act of the board in appointing the committee with powers which the board could not legally delegate. It was the evident intent of the board when appointing the committee that no report was expected, at least not until the entire work of surveying the site and of moving the schoolhouse should be completed. The board was further in error in authorizing a committee of its members to "draw orders on the treasurer." Section 2780 of the code makes it the duty of the board to "audit and allow just claims against the corporation, and no order shall be drawn upon the treasury until the claim therefor has been audited and allowed."

Since the powers delegated to the committee were unauthorized by law, it follows that the work of the committee can not stand. It is thus unnecessary to enter into a full discussion of the second contention of plaintiff, viz.: that the site selected by the committee, had it in fact been regularly and legally selected, would have been an abuse of discretion and reversible error.

But since the board will have the whole question before it anew, we venture to suggest that in adjusting the subdistrict boundaries or in changing the location of one or more of the schoolhouses, careful deliberation should be had and the strict form of the law should be adhered to.

The record of the case shows that the board has for years attempted to harmonize conflicting interests and has, as we believe, sought in good faith to serve the interests of the entire township. While it is incumbent upon the board to furnish reasonable school privileges for all the children of the township, it would, in our judgment, be unwise to create a new subdistrict and establish an additional school. Last year there were but 184 pupils enrolled in the entire township of Franklin. In some of the schools of this township the enrollment is now far too small for satisfactory school work or reasonable economy in the maintenance of the school. A saner course than the establishing of an additional school would be for the board to furnish transportation for those children remote from school. Indeed, we are strongly of the opinion that some of the schools now existing could be profitably abandoned and the children carried to another school, which could easily be made a better school. We commend to the board a careful consideration of this suggestion, believing as we do that partial consolidation of school interests and transportation of pupils remote from school will solve the difficult problem with which the board has been contending for years. We venture this suggestion as one of the means of meeting a difficult situation and at the same time of increasing the enrollment and average attendance in the township.

But whatever course the board may take, the interests of the entire township must be considered and an adjustment made that will do practical justice to all. It is with the confident belief that the board will make such adjustment that the case is remanded for further consideration and action.

A. ENGBERS et al. v. SCHOOL TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

Appeal from Mahaska County.

RECORDS. The secretary's record should show a copy of each notice, a complete account of the transactions of all meetings of the board and of the electors, arranged in chronological order, the date of each being given, the names of the members present at each meeting of the board, and the names of those voting for and against each proposition acted upon by it.

RECORD—DEFECTIVE. A defective record may render it impossible to try a case on its merits.

ELECTION—NOTICE OF PROPOSITION. No proposition may legally come before the electors at a regular or special meeting unless ten days' notice has been given.

NOTICE FORM OF PROPOSITION. The proposition submitted to the electors must not differ in any essential from the proposition as advertised in the notices.

NOTICE—FORM OF PROPOSITION. The proposition submitted to the electors must not differ in any essential from the proposition as advertised in the notices.

VOTE OF ELECTORS—INSTRUCTIONS. When the electors vote a schoolhouse tax to erect a schoolhouse on a particular site the board is without power to erect it on a different site.

JURISDICTION OF SUPERINTENDENT. Neither the county superintendent nor the superintendent of public instruction have jurisdiction over questions arising under the voting of taxes.

The transcript in this case shows that on the sixth day of March, 1905, the electors in Subdistrict No. 10 of Richland township decided to ask that a tax be voted for the erection of a schoolhouse in said subdistrict on the old site.

At the annual meeting held one week later the proposition was presented to the electors, the secretary's record of the proceedings being as follows:

"No. 10, subdistrict, asked for tax to build new schoolhouse; amount, $700. They also asked for new road to schoolhouse; amount not named. Motion made to move schoolhouse site one hundred rods south and one-half mile west in subdistrict number ten from what it is now, providing the tax for schoolhouse carried."

Eighty-four ballots were cast for this motion, fifteen against, and one blank.

The school board held meetings on March twentieth, April tenth, May twenty-seventh and July twenty-second. But the record does not show who of the members were present, although the testimony would indicate that a majority of the members were present at each meeting. It appears that no motion was made or vote taken at any one of these meetings and the secretary, so far as the transcript shows, took no minutes of what may have been informally agreed upon.

The following advertisement appeared in the New Sharon Star for four consecutive weeks, beginning with the issue of June 14, 1905:

Bids for Schoolhouse.

The school board of Richland township will receive bids for the building of a new schoolhouse in Subdistrict Number 10, Richland township, Mahaska county, Iowa. Plans and specifications are now in the hands of the secretary, with whom bids may be left. Said bids will be opened July 22, 1905. The board reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

MAMIE LINDSLEY, Sec.,
Peoria, Iowa.

Bids were opened and the contract awarded July 22d, and on the same date appeal was taken to the county superintendent who, after admitting an amendment to the affidavit of appeal, proceeded with the trial and rendered a decision, ordering the schoolhouse to be placed on the old site. From this decision of the county superintendent the board of directors appeal to the superintendent of public instruction.

We can not condemn too strongly the careless manner, both in transacting the business and in keeping the records in this school township. The secretary's records should show copies of all notices posted, a complete record of all business transacted at the annual meeting of electors, the date of every meeting of the board and the place held, the members present, the votes taken, and every important item of business transacted. Particularly in all matters relating to the voting of taxes and expending of public money the records should be full and explicit. But in the case at bar, with four meetings of the board held, and important questions involving the expenditure of public money determined, there is no evidence that the business transacted at any of these meetings was made a matter of record. While there is nothing in the testimony to show that the board acted in bad faith or purposely sought to deceive, the record is so incomplete that the actions from which appeal is sought to be made could not be easily located or the nature of the action clearly determined.

The transcript in the case does not give a copy of the notice of the annual meeting (required by section 2746 of the code), and the record is silent as to what said notice contained. This omission is unfortunate, for the whole question of the legality of the action taken by the electors and the subsequent actions of the board rests upon the contents of this notice. Section 2749 of the code enumerates certain powers the electors may exercise when assembled at the annual meeting on the second Monday in March, among others the power to vote a schoolhouse tax for the purchase of grounds and the construction of schoolhouses. Section 2746 provides that the secretary of the board of directors shall give not less than ten days' notice of said meeting by posting notices in at least five public places in the corporation, said notices to specify "the place, day, hours during which the meeting will be in session, specifying the number of directors to be elected and the terms thereof, and such propositions as will be submitted to and determined by the voters."

In the case of Goerd v. Trumm, 118 Iowa, page 207, the supreme court holds that none of the propositions enumerated under section 2749 can be legally acted upon by the electors at the annual meeting unless specific and legal notice has been given that such proposition or propositions will be submitted. In the case at bar, with the incomplete transcript, we are unable to know whether or not the action taken by the electors March thirteenth was legal.

The preponderance of the testimony shows that the motion voted upon was understood by the electors to combine two propositions, viz.: the location of the site and the voting of the tax. If then the notices previously posted by the secretary stated that the question of voting a tax to build on a site at or near one hundred rods south and one-half mile west of the old site would be submitted, the vote on such question locating the schoolhouse and voting the tax for its erection was legal and the board was without power to select a different site.

While the record is entirely silent as to the contents of the notice of the annual meeting posted by the secretary, it is improbable that any mention was made in such notice that a change of site was contemplated, for Mr. W. S. Lindsley, in his testimony, says: "At the annual meeting I made the suggestion that we change the schoolhouse site from where it was to one hundred rods south and a half mile west." It appears that this suggestion was made for the first time at the annual meeting, and that it had not been mentioned in the written notices posted by the secretary ten days before, and therefore could not be considered by the electors. If no notice of the site proposition was given, the fact that it was coupled with the tax proposition would invalidate the entire vote, even if legal notice as to the tax proposition had been given, the rule being that the proposition as voted upon must not differ in any essential from the proposition as advertised.

If then the electors acted within their rights in voting the tax and the location, the board was under the necessity of carrying out the instruction given. (Rodgers v. School District of Colfax, 100 Iowa, 317.) If on the other hand the action of the electors in voting the tax and the location was illegal, no tax could be legally raised and no schoolhouse could be legally constructed. In either case an appeal would not lie. If the whole procedure has been without warrant of law, as we suspect, the board may be enjoined from collecting or applying any public funds for the payment of site or construction of school building.

The county superintendent was without jurisdiction, and the case is therefore

DISMISSED.

JOHN F. RIGGS,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, November 27, 1905.

ROSE BYRNE V. INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT OF STRUBLE.

Appeal from Plymouth County.

DISMISSAL OF TEACHER—CHARGES. Charges to warrant a dismissal must be specific and sustained by evidence. Indefinite and anonymous complaints are insufficient.

DISMISSAL OF TEACHER—APPEAL—BURDEN OF PROOF. In a trial before the county superintendent on an appeal from an action of the school board dismissing a teacher the burden of proof is on the board.

On the twenty-third day of January, 1906, the board of directors of the Independent District of Struble met in special meeting to investigate certain charges preferred against Rose Byrne, a teacher in the employ of said board. At said meeting seven communications (one of them anonymous), addressed to the school board, were read. Each of these communications contained one or more complaints against defendant teacher. At said meeting Miss Byrne was represented by her attorney and filed a denial of the charges. The transcript does not show that any evidence was introduced before the board in support of the charges, but that, after hearing the complaints read and the denial by defendant teacher, a motion to dismiss Miss Byrne at once was carried, three of the four directors present voting in the affirmative. Appeal was taken, and the case coming on for hearing before the county superintendent, the action of the board was reversed and Miss Byrne ordered reinstated in her position in the Struble school, whereupon the board appealed to the superintendent of public instruction.

The case, as we view it, involves the question:

First. Can a board discharge a teacher on complaints general in character and without the introduction of evidence to fully substantiate the same?

Second. In an appeal to the county superintendent from a decision of the board in dismissing a teacher, is the burden of proof upon the board or upon the teacher?

Section 2782 of the code provides that a teacher may be discharged for "incompetency, inattention to duty, partiality, or for any good cause."

While the boards are given large discretion and, in the trial of such cases, are not required to observe the strict forms of a court of law, it is necessary that they make thorough investigation of charges lodged; that the charges, if proven true, be of sufficient consequence to warrant a termination of the contract, and that such charges be specifically set out and clearly proven.

In the case at bar the charges were so general in character, and some of them so trivial, that full testimony from creditable witnesses would be required to convince any court of review that they were sufficient to warrant the board in dismissing the teacher. Such testimony was not given before the board. It was therefore the duty of the county superintendent upon appeal to take evidence and determine the very case the board had determined. (S. L. 2819.) When the case was before the board, the burden of proof was unquestionably upon that body. The prosecution must establish the guilt of the accused, not the accused prove her innocence. If the board, without examining a witness or taking a word of testimony that would have standing in any court of law, can discharge a teacher, such board can not in the hearing before the county superintendent insist that the burden of proof is upon the teacher. While the county superintendent must give due weight to the decision of the board, and will not reverse the board except upon a clear showing of violation of law or abuse of discretion, he can not require the teacher to offer testimony in proof of her innocence when the board has introduced no testimony to prove her guilt.

The decision of the county superintendent is

AFFIRMED.

JOHN F. RIGGS,

Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 27, 1906.

INDEX TO APPEAL CASES

	PAGE
Abuse of Discretion. The board may not substitute its own discretion for the clearly expressed instruction of the electors.....	81
Action of Board. Must be affirmed in the absence of showing of malice, prejudice or violation of law.....	107
Affidavit. An affidavit is a statement in writing of the errors complained of, signed and made upon oath before an authorized magistrate	5
The affidavit answers its leading purpose if it sets forth the errors complained of with such clearness that the proper transcript may be secured	6
A technical error in the affidavit not prejudicial to either party will not defeat the appeal.....	53
The affidavit may be amended when such action is not prejudicial to the rights of any one interested.....	62, 72
Must be accepted if sufficient to give the appellant a standing.....	72
Appeal. An appeal may be taken from the refusal of the county superintendent to investigate charges brought against a teacher.....	14
A case whose main purpose is to determine the validity of an order on the district treasury, or the equity of a claim, can not be entertained on appeal to the county superintendent.....	16
Appeal may not be taken from an action or order complying with the terms of a contract previously made, nor from an action authorizing the issuance of an order in payment of a debt contracted by previous action of the board.....	16
The execution by the board of the vote of the electors upon matters within their control, is mandatory; from such action of the board no appeal can be taken. If such action is tainted with fraud, an application to a court of law is the proper remedy.....	20
The right of appeal is confined to persons injuriously affected by the decision or order complained of. Ordinarily a person living in one subdistrict can not appeal from an action of the board locating a site in another.....	21
Appeal will not lie to determine the constitutionality of a law.....	109
The adoption of the committee's report in favor of retaining the old schoolhouse site, is an action from which appeal may be taken....	22
The action of two boards upon a subject over which they have divided control constitutes a concurrent action, and appeal may be taken only from the order of the board taking action last.....	30
May be taken by any resident aggrieved by an action of the board.....	33
The hearing is not to be conducted by a rigid adherence to the technical forms and customs which prevail in the courts.....	44
Will not lie to control the action of a board or of the county superintendent, where concurrence is provided for.....	48
An appeal will not lie from an order of a board initiating a change in boundaries, where the concurrence of the board of an adjoining district is necessary to effect the change.....	49

May be taken from the action of the board in laying the subject-matter of a petition on the table.	69
Will lie from an action of the board which is made a matter of record. .	69
Mere technical objections should not prevent the fullest presentation of the merits of the case, in the trial of an appeal.	72
Will not lie from joint action of boards making settlement of assets and liabilities	80
The superintendent of public instruction may not entertain an appeal unless thirty days' notice of such appeal has been served upon the adverse party.	82

The law does not require the filing of a bond for costs or the giving of security therefor as a condition necessary to perfect an appeal. . . .	98

Board of Directors. The board shall be sustained in all legitimate and reasonable measures to maintain order and discipline, to uphold the rightful authority of the teacher, and to prevent or suppress insubordination in the school.	17
If in the selection of a site the board violates law or abuses its discretionary power, its action may be reversed on appeal.	20
The board, though not bound by a vote of the electors directing the precise location of a schoolhouse site, is required to so locate it as to accommodate the people for whom it is designed.	20
The action of the board can not be reversed upon the allegations of appellant without proof, or by reason of failure to make defense. .	22
The acts of the board are presumed to be regular, legal, and just, and should be affirmed unless proof is brought to show the contrary. .	22
The acts of the board must be presumed to be regular and should be affirmed unless positive proof is brought to show the contrary. . .	24

May adopt its own course to decide the question of actual residence. . .	68
In locating a site the board acts wisely in taking into consideration the prevailing sentiment of the people.	70
In exercising its power in a semi-judicial capacity, the board should be able to show the very best reasons for its conclusions.	75
It is the first duty of the board to co-operate with and assist the teacher in the conduct of the school.	75

Boundaries. Must conform to congressional divisions of land.....	33
Of subdistricts, changed between September (July 1) and March.....	34
In the determination of district and subdistrict boundaries, temporary expenditures and individual convenience should be subordinated to the more important considerations relating to simplicity of outline, compactness of shape, uniformity of size, and permanence of sites and boundaries.....	55
The boundaries of a proposed independent district organized under the provisions of section 2794 of the code, must include all of the city, town or village, and also such contiguous territory as is petitioned for by a majority of the resident electors.....	74, 105

The county superintendent is charged with the responsibility of refusing to issue a certificate to any person unless fully satisfied that the applicant possesses the essential qualifications demanded of teachers by law.....	45
The county superintendent is his own judge as to how fully he will give the applicant reasons for the refusal of a certificate.....	45
The decision of a county superintendent refusing a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal unless it appears that he acted from passion or prejudice.....	38, 99

Must be specific.....

Contested Election. The proper method of determining a contested election for school director is by an action brought in the district court	9
Contract. It is the province of the courts of law to decide as to the validity of a contract.....	68

Costs of Appeal. Before an appeal from the order of the county superintendent taxing costs can be entertained by the superintendent of public instruction, a motion to retax such costs should be filed with the county superintendent.....	82

When taxed to party bringing action.....	109
When taxed to school corporation.....	109
County Superintendent. Has no jurisdiction of an appeal until an affidavit is filed in his office. The appeal must be taken by affidavit...	5
The weight that properly attaches to the discretionary actions of a tribunal vested with original jurisdiction, does not apply to the decisions of an inferior appellate tribunal.....	22
May make a conditional ruling, by which his own decision will be governed	27
The county superintendent is not limited to a reversal or affirmance of the action of the board, but he determines the same questions which it had determined.....	27
A county superintendent should not ask the state superintendent to decide a case on appeal for him, but may ask for an interpretation of law, either by the state superintendent, or through him, by the attorney-general	32
Does not have the power to interpret the legal value of a contract....	67
Should reverse the action of the board only upon the clearest and most explicit proof of abuse of discretion.....	70
Should give effect to the law.....	71
Unless a marked abuse of discretionary power is clearly and conclusively proved, his action in refusing or revoking a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal.....	71
On appeal may do no more than the board might have done.....	77
Should dismiss an appeal as soon as it becomes certain that the leading issue may be heard and decided only by a court of law.....	80
The county superintendent has only appellate jurisdiction and should sustain the action of the board unless it is clearly shown the board violated or abused its discretion.....	86
On appeal, the county superintendent can make such order touching boundaries as the board should have made.....	88
Has large discretionary power in the matter of issuing or withholding certificates, and his decision will not be reversed unless it is clearly shown that he was prompted by prejudice or ill-will, or acted with manifest injustice.....	99
He may refuse to enroll such persons as members of the normal institute as he has reason to believe are morally deficient.....	99
He should require proof that the applicant for a certificate possesses good moral character, unless he has personal knowledge of the same	99

He is warranted in rendering a decision based upon certain conditions..	108
Discharge of Teacher. A teacher can not be discharged by the board except after a full and fair investigation.....	84
The teacher is entitled to a reasonable time to prepare for and make defense	84
The action of the board in discharging a teacher, after a full and fair investigation, will not be reversed unless it is clearly shown that the board violated law, abused its discretion, or acted with manifest injustice	86
The board may not dismiss a teacher for refusing to teach grades other than those named in the contract.....	103
Charges necessary	116
Burden of proof	116
Discretionary Acts. Should not be disturbed except upon evidence of unjust exercise of discretion.....	5
The decision of the authority having original jurisdiction is entitled to much consideration.....	14

Suggestions from the electors upon matters entirely within the control of the board will in no manner prevent the fullest exercise of the discretion vested in the board by the law.....	29
Abuse of discretion is not established by testimony showing that a different action would have been preferred by the electors.....	34
Action by the board unduly delaying the final consideration of an important matter may be regarded as an evidence of prejudice.....	39
In the exercise of discretion, the benefit of every reasonable doubt must be given in favor of the correctness of official acts.....	44
Unless a marked violation of the large discretion vested in the county superintendent is proved clearly and conclusively, his action in refusing or revoking a certificate will not be interfered with on appeal.....	45
In the absence of proof that the board has abused the authority given it by the law, its orders will not be set aside, although another decision might to many seem preferable.....	57
It is not the province of an appeal to discover and to correct a slight mistake. The board alone must bear any blame that may attach to a choice deemed by appellants somewhat undesirable, but not an unwise selection to such a degree as to indicate an abuse of the discretion ordinarily exercised.....	57
To warrant interference with a discretionary act, abuse of discretion must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt.....	57
In the determination of appeals, the weight which properly attaches to the discretionary actions of a tribunal vested with original jurisdiction should not be overlooked.....	61
The fact that some other action would have been desirable or preferable does not establish that the board abused its discretion.....	61
The order complained of is reviewed not to discover the desirability of the action, but to determine whether sound reason and wise discretion were followed.....	61
The order of a board should be reversed only upon the plain showing that the law has been violated or discretion grossly abused.....	66
An appellate tribunal is not to decide mainly whether the action complained of was wise, or the best that might have been taken, but simply whether a reversal is required by the evidence.....	74
The board may not substitute its own discretion for the clearly expressed instruction of the electors.....	81
Transportation of pupils is discretionary with the board of directors, but may often be a better plan than providing additional schools..	111
District Organization. The county superintendent has no jurisdiction to determine the validity of district organization.....	34
Election. The certificate of the officers of the subdistrict meeting is the legal evidence of election as subdirector, and as a general rule a board of directors is justified in declining to recognize a person as a member of the board until he produces such certificate.....	9
The boundaries of a proposed independent district having been fixed, it is the duty of the board to give notice of a meeting of the voters of the territory included in the proposed district.....	88
Notice necessary.....	113
Electors. The electors are the sole and final judges of the desirability of a separate organization.....	88
Evidence. Where the law requires the evidence of a transaction to be in writing, oral evidence can be substituted only if the writing can not be produced.....	9
To establish malice or prejudice on the part of the board, positive testimony must be introduced, and the evidence must be conclusive..	86
Existing School. The order expelling a scholar must be from an existing school. The scholar's relationship with the school is severed when the school year has closed and vacation has begun.....	93

Expenditure of Money. When money is voted by the electors for a specified purpose, or where they couple certain directions with their vote when authorizing the expenditure of money, such directions or vote may not be disregarded by the board.....	100
Expulsion of Pupils. Pupils may be expelled by the board for immorality, violation of the regulations and rules established by the board or when their presence is detrimental to the best interests of the school	93, 105
The order expelling a scholar must be from an existing school.....	93
The law does not require school boards to give parents or pupils notice or a chance for defense before ordering suspension or expulsion..	105
Hearing. If the county superintendent can not hear testimony for parties at the time set for hearing, he should give the parties ample time later to make a clear and full presentation of their cause....	93
Highway. If possible, every schoolhouse site should be upon a public highway	27
Independent District. The boundaries outside the town plat depending upon the petition of the electors, such boundaries may not be fixed until petitioned for.....	77
The provision of section 2794 of the code, requiring the board of a school township, upon proper petition, to establish the boundaries of a proposed independent district, is mandatory.....	88
In the formation of an independent district under section 2794 of the code, all the town must be included in the proposed district, notwithstanding the fact that said town was formerly located partly in a school township and partly in a rural independent district....	105
Injunction. The execution of a fraudulent vote of the electors may be prevented by a writ from a court of law.....	15
Janitorial Services. If a teacher serves as janitor in sweeping the room and building fires, he should be paid from the contingent fund for such services.....	31
Jurisdiction. An application for an appeal filed within thirty days from the act complained of will not give the county superintendent jurisdiction of the case.....	5
The county superintendent does not have jurisdiction of cases involving a money demand.....	12
The county superintendent has jurisdiction only of the matter to which the appeal relates.....	21
An appeal will not lie to enforce a contract.....	30
A former order of the board, or a decision of the county superintendent on appeal, will not operate to prevent the board from exercising its discretion anew, when good reasons exist for such action.....	44
In most matters with which boards have to do under the law, their authority and responsibility are absolute, and their jurisdiction is complete and exclusive.....	44
The jurisdiction of an appellate tribunal is not greater than that of the board from whose action the appeal is taken.....	50
When its order is affirmed, the board is left free to take another action, if thought best.....	57
In change of boundaries by two boards, an appellate tribunal acquires only the same power possessed by the board from whose action appeal is taken, and may do no more than to affirm the order, or to reverse and do what the board refused to do.....	58
It is very undesirable to bring matters involving a money consideration before the county superintendent on appeal.....	80
The board of directors of a school corporation have no jurisdiction over children after the termination of the school year.....	95
Majority Vote. Of whole board required to change subdistrict boundaries	34
Mandamus. Is a remedy if the board refuses to carry out a vote of the electors	13

To compel the performance of an official duty, appeal sometimes consumes valuable time. Mandamus is often a more speedy and better remedy.....	39
Should the board fail to give the notice of election required by section 2794 of the code, it may be compelled to do so by mandamus.....	88
Moral Character. The county superintendent should require proof that the applicant for a certificate possesses good moral character, unless he has personal knowledge of the same.....	99
The county superintendent may refuse to enroll such persons as members of the normal institute as he has reasons to believe are morally deficient.....	99
The county superintendent is fully justified in refusing a certificate to an applicant who fails to furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character.....	99
New Questions. Questions not raised at the hearing before the county superintendent, nor before the superintendent of public instruction at the time the appeal was heard by him, can not be considered for the first time on an application for a rehearing.....	91
Normal Institute. The county superintendent may refuse to enroll such persons as members of the normal institute as he has reason to believe are morally deficient.....	99
Notice. The county superintendent should not issue notice of final hearing until the transcript of the district secretary has been filed....	5
Appearance at the trial is a complete waiver of notice.....	50
The law does not require school boards to give parents or pupils notice or a chance for defense before ordering suspension or expulsion....	107
Notice of meetings of electors mandatory.....	113
Oral Argument. The failure of counsel for appellee to present oral argument, after being informed of the hearing, will not justify a re-opening of the case.....	97
Petition. A petition may be used to bring to the attention of the board the kind of action desired by the petitioners, but a board may act with equal directness without such request.....	58
Proceedings. The regularity of all the proceedings will be presumed upon. This is true in an especial sense when the records are more than usually complete.....	50
Punishment. In applying correction, the teacher must exercise sound discretion and judgment and should choose a kind of punishment adapted not only to the offense, but to the offender.....	17
The punishment of a pupil with undue severity, or with an improper instrument, is unwarrantable, and may serve in some degree, to indicate the animus of the teacher.....	17
The right of the parent to restrain and coerce obedience in children applies equally to the teacher, or to any one who acts in loco parentis	17
Quo Warranto. The remedy of a person denied possession of an office to which he has been chosen, is an action in court.....	9
Records. In the absence of the allegation of fraud, testimony to contradict or impeach the records of the district can not be received....	6
The board may at any time amend the record of the district, when necessary to correct mistakes or supply omissions. And it may upon proper showing be compelled by mandamus to make such corrections.....	6
The record of the secretary shall be considered as evidence, and can not be invalidated by parol evidence unless there is proof of fraud or falsehood.....	31
Records not made and certified to by the proper officers as required by law are defective and may be impeached by collateral evidence....	36
The official record is its own best evidence. Testimony intended to contradict the record should not be admitted.....	36
The record of the secretary must be considered as evidence, unless there is proof of fraud or falsehood.....	50

The record must be complete.....	113
Effect of defective record.....	113
Rehearing. To warrant a rehearing, some valid reason must be urged	41
To obtain a rehearing the necessity must be clearly shown.....	44
The application for a rehearing will be denied unless sufficient reasons have been presented warranting a change in the former opinion..	91
To warrant the superintendent of public instruction in granting a re- hearing it must be shown that some very serious error has been made	97
Remanding of Cases. When the evidence discloses that the action of the board was unwarranted, and the facts are not sufficiently shown to determine what should be done, the case should be remanded to the board	25
Restoration of Territory. The refusal of a board of directors of an inde- pendent district to concur in the restoration of certain territory may not be reversed except when clearly shown that such refusal was an abuse of discretion.....	93
Rules and Regulations. Boards of directors and their agents, the teachers, may establish reasonable rules for the government of their schools	17
Open violation of the rules can not be shielded from investigation under the plea that it invades the rights of conscience.....	17
The pupil is answerable for acts which tend to produce merriment in the school or to degrade the teacher.....	17
The teacher has the right to require a pupil to answer questions which tend to elicit facts concerning his conduct in school.....	17
In establishing and enforcing regulations for the government of scholars the board has a large discretion.....	38
The burden of proof is with the appellant to show that a rule is unrea- sonable	66
Salary of Teachers. The control of salaries is wholly within the power of the board and can not be determined by an appeal, because it is not within the jurisdiction of county or state superintendent to order the payment of money.....	28
The salary of teachers should be in proportion to their ability and re- sponsibility, and not equal when these differ materially.....	28
School Funds. The treasurer is the proper custodian of all funds, and may legally pay them out only upon orders specifying the fund upon which they are drawn and the specific use to which they are applied	13
The courts of law alone can furnish an adequate remedy, if the law has been violated and the money of the district has been misappropriated	16
Schoolhouse. The board may legally remove a schoolhouse from one subdistrict to another only by vote of the electors.....	15
When the electors have voted to remove a schoolhouse from one sub- district to another the board must execute such vote, and from its action in so doing no appeal can be taken.....	15
There is no limitation in law as to the number of scholars to be accom- modated, in order that the board may provide a schoolhouse....	55
Schoolhouse Site. It is important that a schoolhouse site be located on a public road, and as near the center of the subdistrict as practicable	12
Subdistrict boundaries can not be changed in an appeal relating solely to locating a site, nor can a site be located with the expectation that boundaries will be changed unless such intention of the board is shown	21
The action of a committee appointed by the board to locate a site is of no force until officially adopted by the board while in session....	21
The prospective wants of a subdistrict may properly have weight in de- termining the selection of a site, when such selection becomes neces- sary, but not in securing the removal of a schoolhouse now con- veniently located	24, 60

To make a distinction between the children of freeholders and those of tenants in determining the proper location for a schoolhouse, is contrary to the spirit and intent of our laws.....	24
The necessities of the present must be observed in locating schoolhouse sites, in preference to the probabilities of the future.....	25, 60
The location of a schoolhouse can be dependent upon a change of boundaries only when it is shown in evidence that it is the definite and positive intention to make such a change.....	27
A schoolhouse site fixed by county or state superintendent affirming the discretionary act of the board, allows the board to exercise its discretion again, especially if material changes have occurred.....	29
The endeavor to show regard for the expressed wishes of the electors in the choice of a site will be an added reason in support of the action of the board.....	29
Proper location of, depends upon form of subdistrict.....	33
Every dwelling house must be taken into account, as some one entitled to school advantages may hereafter reside there.....	41
When it is the evident intention of the board to relocate the site as near as possible in the center of the subdistrict, in order to furnish equal school facilities to all the residents, its action should not be materially interfered with.....	41
It is not the province of an appeal to determine which of two sites is the better.....	65
When purchased need not necessarily be upon a highway.....	74
In the location of a schoolhouse site the board is justified in considering the wishes of a majority of the people as indicated in the vote upon the issuance of bonds.....	100
School Orders. When improperly issued, a proper remedy is injunction	11
School Privileges. Are not acquired by temporary removal into a district for the purpose of attending school.....	11
Board must provide.....	111
The law to be construed in the interest of the child. The actual residence of the scholar at the time will establish the right to attend school free of tuition.....	53
Are not guaranteed children elsewhere than in the district of their residence.....	62
Attendance in another district depends upon the board of that district, and must therefore be regarded as a contingency.....	62
To the fullest extent possible, the board should equalize the distance to be traveled to school.....	62
Schools. The wealthier portions of the community should aid their neighbors in sustaining good schools.....	28
Special Meeting. A meeting of the board, called for the specific purpose and of which the teacher was not served with due and proper notice, could not legally discharge such teacher.....	84
A teacher may not be discharged at a special meeting called for the purpose of securing a modification of his contract.....	108
Subdirector. The subdirector may expend money in his subdistrict only in the manner authorized by the board.....	13
Subdistrict. A subdistrict is not a corporate body, and has no control of any public fund.....	13
Subdistrict Boundaries. The acts of a board changing subdistrict boundaries and locating schoolhouses are so far discretionary that they should be affirmed on appeal, unless it is shown beyond a doubt that there has been an abuse of discretion.....	22
A case involving a change of subdistrict boundaries, having been adjudicated by the county superintendent reversing the action of the board, and being affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction can not again be brought upon appeal, unless it can be shown that some change materially affecting the conditions of the case has taken place since the date of the former decision.....	40

A subdistrict long established, embracing a territory having sufficient number of scholars to maintain a good school, should not be abolished, unless the general school facilities of the township will be improved thereby.....	40
In changing subdistrict boundaries, both the present and the future welfare of the district township should be considered.....	40
The boundaries of subdistricts may be changed, or new subdistricts formed, only at the regular meeting of the board in September, (July), or at a special meeting held before the following March..	40
When an action has been reversed by the county superintendent, and that decision affirmed by the superintendent of public instruction, the board can not act again until a material change has taken place	74
Subdistricts. Should be, if possible, compact and regular in form. In well populated district townships, two miles square is considered a desirable area.....	12, 55
It is very important that subdistricts should be regular in form, and that where it is possible, schoolhouses should be located at or near geographical centers.....	55
The board should be encouraged in forecasting a general plan looking toward an ultimate regularity in the form of subdistricts.....	55
Teacher. The teacher is entitled to the counsel and co-operation of the subdirector and board in all matters pertaining to the conduct and welfare of the school.....	23
When a teacher is dismissed in violation of his contract, an action in the courts of law will afford him a speedy and adequate remedy; when discharged for incompetency, dereliction of duty or other cause affecting his qualifications as a teacher, he has the right of appeal..	23
The law provides that the teacher shall have a fair and impartial trial, with sufficient notice to enable him to rebut the charges of his accusers	36
In the trial of a teacher the board is bound carefully to protect the interests of the district and to seek the welfare of the school, as well as to regard the rights guaranteed to the teacher.....	50
As an employe of the district the teacher may justly claim and expect to receive, the official assistance and advice of the board.....	56
The law insures the teacher a fair and impartial trial, before he may be discharged.....	56
A teacher may justly claim and expect to receive, the assistance and advice of the board, and especially the help of his own subdirector, in the proper conduct of his school.....	75
It is alike due to the dignity of the board and the rights of the teacher that no one should be discharged except after thorough investigation and the clearest proof. If possible, the teacher should be shielded from the stigma of discharge.....	75
Full opportunity must be afforded the teacher to make defense against charges	78
Should not employ unsuitable and unusual methods of punishment....	78
A teacher can not be discharged by the board, except after a full and fair investigation	84
The board may not dismiss a teacher for refusing to teach grades other than those named in the contract.....	103
Territory. Where territory is to be transferred by concurrent action of two boards to the district to which it geographically belongs, a majority of the members elect is not necessary, as required for the change of subdistrict boundaries.....	31
All territory must be included within some school district.....	33
The refusal of a board of directors of an independent district to concur in the restoration of certain territory may not be reversed except when clearly shown that such refusal was an abuse of discretion..	93
All territory must be contiguous to the district to which it belongs....	58

Testimony. Unless obviously immaterial, testimony offered should be admitted and given such weight as it merits.....	5
At the hearing of an appeal, it is competent for the county superintendent, upon his own motion, to call additional witnesses to give testimony	6
New testimony can be introduced only when the facts materially affecting the case could not have been known before the trial.....	25
To be legal must be given under oath.....	34
Sufficient latitude should be allowed in the introduction of testimony to permit a full presentation of the issues involved, even if irrelevant testimony is occasionally admitted.....	41, 72
Opinions unsupported by facts do not become satisfactory evidence....	61
If selfish or other improper motives are complained of, the testimony must show such facts conclusively.....	65
Time. The time in which to take the initiatory steps to form an independent district is not fixed by the statute.....	88
Transportation of Pupils. Often better than maintaining additional schools	111
Tuition. To enable the district in which the children reside to collect tuition, all the requirements of the law must first be fulfilled....	48
